

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1495

Xu Jishen had been busy with Su Huaiyuan for the past few days and did not pay attention to the situation in Beijing. He didn't know that Jiang Xianrou had also gone to the Pharmacy Association.

Xu Jishen mistakenly thought that Jiang Yao was referring to Qiao Nian when he mentioned the Pharmacy Association. He couldn't hide his joy and replied with a smile, "I know. I just spoke to her on the phone. She's already got the medicine."

Jiang Yao was a little confused. "Young Master Xu, you said you talked to my sister on the phone?"

Xu Jishen placed his hand on his shoulder and patted him twice. He was very grateful. "Yes, it's all thanks to your sister this time."

!!

Jiang Yao was speechless.

He had no idea what Xu Jishen was talking about.

This was because, in his memory, Xu Jishen and Jiang Xianrou had added each other on WeChat, but they did not seem to be familiar with each other. Xianrou had never mentioned this to him at all.

What the hell was going on?

Jiang Yao was confused.

Mother Su came out of Old Master Su's ward and quietly closed the door.

She was dressed in a light-colored modified Chinese traditional suit with a shawl over her shoulders. She wasn't in the mood to style her hair, so she looked disheveled. There were also very heavy bags under her eyelids, and he could tell that she looked haggard and tired.

"Hello, Auntie." Jiang Yao greeted her politely.

Mother Su rarely interacted with Xu Jishen's friends. When she suddenly saw the young man standing beside him, she was stunned and looked at her son. "This is?"

"Mom, let me introduce you. This is my friend, Jiang Yao." Xu Jishen introduced Jiang Yao to Mother Su and added with a smile, "Jiang Yao is Miss Qiao's brother. Miss Qiao is Old Master Jiang's granddaughter. She has always lived in Rao City, so not many people in Beijing know about this."

At first, Mother Su's attitude towards Jiang Yao was very casual and not very enthusiastic.

Until Xu Jishen mentioned Qiao Nian.

"Ah, so you're Miss Qiao's brother. Hello, hello."

She immediately looked at Jiang Yao and spoke to him warmly and gently. "I'm Xu Jishen's mother, Su Hui. You can call me Auntie Su."

Jiang Yao was still wondering why Xu Jishen had specifically mentioned Qiao Nian, but he still smoothly greeted her. "Auntie Su."

Mother Su nodded, pulling him along. "It's all thanks to Miss Qiao this time. Otherwise, our family wouldn't know what to do! Thank you so much. I thank you on my father's behalf."

Jiang Yao's mind was a mess. He didn't know how to respond because he didn't know what Xu Jishen and Su Hui were talking about. He only forced a smile and said politely, "No, no, you're too polite."

"I'm not being polite. I'm..." Su Hui wanted to say something.

Xu Jishen called to her, "Mom."

Su Hui immediately turned to look at him.

Xu Jishen did not pay much attention to Jiang Yao. He couldn't wait to tell her the good news. "Miss Qiao called me just now and said that she has already gotten the medicine from the Pharmacy Association!"

"... Miss Qiao got the medicine?" Mother Su's eyes lit up. Her haggard face instantly transformed.

Xu Jishen nodded. "Yes, she said that she will arrive in Beijing tomorrow night and then grab a flight to Rao City."

Mother Su couldn't hide her joy. She spun around in circles to digest this good news.

Then, she looked at her son and said without thinking, "Miss Qiao especially went to the Pharmacy Association for us. How could you let her fly here alone to deliver medicine?"
