

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1502

Zhong Yiliu would definitely not have asked Qiao Nian if it were anyone else.

He asked Qiao Nian if she wanted to take on the new member mainly because this new member was from Country Z. Qiao Nian had always been quite good to Country Z.

The information that Jiang Xianrou had filled in said that she wanted to learn Chinese medicine. Only then did he think of Qiao Nian.

No one in the entire Pharmacy Association was more accomplished in this aspect than her.

Although Qiao Nian had left the Pharmacy Association, to him she was still a member. As long as Qiao Nian was willing to come back, her level would not be lower than Robert's.

She was at least one of the senior members of the Pharmacy Association.

A senior elder.

In Zhong Yiliu's eyes, Qiao Nian was definitely above Jiang Xianrou.

"No." Qiao Nian didn't even consider rejecting him directly. A casual smile even appeared on her lips. "I can't."

Her tone was quite lazy, and a hint of amusement could be detected in her voice.

Seeing that she was unwilling to teach Jiang Xianrou, Zhong Yiliu also lost interest in her. He casually said, "Alright, I'll arrange a teacher for her. An ordinary member like her is indeed not qualified for you to personally teach. If you're willing, Robert will definitely be the first to sign up."

Qiao Nian smiled noncommittally, her eyes narrowing. "I'm not free. I have to study. Let's talk about it in the future."

"?"

Zhong Yiliu didn't understand what she meant by 'study'. Apart from focusing on research, he rarely paid attention to the outside world. He didn't know that Qiao Nian was so bored that she went to Qing University to study and even became the college entrance examination's top scorer.

He didn't ask any more questions. After chatting with Qiao Nian for a while more, he hung up.

Qiao Nian looked at her phone and opened WeChat after hanging up.

Ye Wangchuan did not reply to her messages for the entire day.

On the other hand, Qin Si was energetic and sent her a few game links.

Qiao Nian rubbed her fingers against her phone with a restrained expression. It was unknown what she was thinking.

She had asked someone to check on Ji Lin last night. She had found the name familiar. The investigation found out that the other party's identity was quite surprising.

Someone from Bright Gate.

She had heard of Bright Gate before, but she didn't expect that the person who gave her the phone number was from Bright Gate.

Ji Lin had told her yesterday that he worked for Ye Wangchuan.

In other words, Bright Gate...

The airport broadcast told the passengers flying to Country Z to check their tickets at security.

Qiao Nian finished half of her drink and threw the paper cup into the trash can. Then, she stood up handsomely and walked towards the security checkpoint.

She lowered her head and sent a message to Xu Jishen.

Ten hours later.

The plane landed at Beijing International Airport.

Qiao Nian was greeted by Beijing's hot weather when she got off the plane. Even though it was already seven o'clock in the evening in Beijing, and the sun was setting, the weather was still unbearably hot.

She saw people walking around the airport in short-sleeved shorts as soon as she got off the plane.

Only she was wrapped up tightly. She even added a jacket over her sweater.

Qiao Nian could feel people looking at her as she walked.

She pulled her cap down irritably, revealing only her well-defined chin. Her skin was pale and prominent.

It was mainly because her aura was outstanding and eye-catching.

She turned her phone back on when she got off the plane.

Xu Jishen called her at this moment.

"Hello, Miss Qiao, are you off the plane? I'll wait for you outside Terminal No. 6. Let me know when you come out. I'll pick you up."
