

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1525

Qiao Nian felt a little frustrated. She couldn't explain why, but she did feel a little frustrated. Pursing her lips, she glanced at him and silently increased the speed of the hairdryer.

Ye Wangchuan felt a hot wind blow through his hair. He knew that he had provoked someone. He raised his hand and touched the bridge of his nose. The smile on his lips seemed to be unable to be put down as he said in a low voice, "I found something this time."

Qiao Nian realized that she had not been saying anything and casually asked, "What is it?"

"The plane's black box."

Ye Wangchuan's eyes were cold as he asked in a low voice, "Haven't you been investigating your mother?"

Qiao Nian stopped drying his hair. "How did you know?"

Ye Wangchuan turned around and looked at her with black eyes as dark as the night. "I know that you've been investigating your mother when you were in Rao City, but there's been no progress. I've also been keeping an eye out in private. Your mother's situation is very complicated... I only found out that she was in a plane crash back then. Many people died in that plane crash. Your mother was lucky to escape and gave birth to you a year later. After that... all the news about her was deliberately erased.

"The plane crash was not an accident. Someone must have been targeting your mother. At that time, the plane crashed in Shuangjiang City. Because the plane fell into the river, the wreckage was never recovered. Some time ago, a local fisherman fished out a black box. It was said that it was left behind by the plane that crashed, so I came over with Bo Jingxing."

Qiao Nian had been investigating for so long.

Of course, he knew that Ji Qing had encountered a very serious plane crash back then. Although Ji Qing had luckily escaped, many people died.

It was said that all the crew members were dead.

The news was vague about the cause of the plane crash. It only said that the accident was because the plane had deviated from its original route...

As for why the plane had deviated from its predetermined course, the news did not say. The secret had been buried with the captain and copilot.

After Ji Qing escaped death, she didn't say anything about the plane crash. Everyone acted as if the plane crash had never happened.

She had found it strange when she found out about this.

However, it had been a long time since the incident. She did not find any person related to that case, nor did she have any other clues.

Qiao Nian didn't expect Ye Wangchuan to investigate the plane crash and even help her get the black box. "You... went all the way to Shuangjiang City to get that black box?"

Ye Wangchuan rubbed his temples as he looked at her. "Yes.

"I should have told you earlier. It's just that Old Master Su was sick and you left in a hurry to the Pharmacy Association. I'm not sure if the one the fishermen salvaged was the one left behind by Auntie's plane crash back then. I was afraid that you would be disappointed, so I didn't tell you."

Qiao Nian quickly dried his hair and pulled out the cord. She then placed the hairdryer aside and gave him a complicated look. After a long while, she said, "Actually, this has nothing to do with you. You don't have to take the risk."

The more she investigated, the more she realized that the matter back then was shrouded in mystery. The forces surrounding it were big. At the very least, she could sense that it was the work of the illegal district.

As for how deep the water was, she still wasn't sure.

It was too dangerous!

There was no need for Ye Wangchuan to get involved in it for her.
