

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1531

Jiang Zongnan frowned and did not want to respond to her. But he eventually answered quietly, "Nian Nian still doesn't know that Jiang Li is hospitalized."

Yuan Qing's brows immediately raised and she started to speak sarcastically again, "She doesn't know? Her relationship with Jiang Li is so good. Her brother is hospitalized, and she doesn't even know about such a big matter."

"...It happened too suddenly. I didn't have time to tell her." Jiang Zongnan rubbed his temples, unwilling to argue with her. "Alright, Aunt. Jiang Li still needs to rest. Let's go out to let him rest."

Yuan Qing frowned and pouted.

She had wanted to criticize Qiao Nian, but she saw that Jiang Zongnan and Jiang Li were both unhappy.

Thus, she suppressed her dissatisfaction and turned to her grandnephew. "Jiang Yao, do you want to call Xianrou?"

Jiang Yao was supposed to fly to the illegal district today, but he went outside to cancel his flight because of the sudden incident.

He walked in with his cell phone and heard Yuan Qing's arrangements. He subconsciously frowned.

Yuan Qing did not realize how annoying she was. She put on the airs of an elder and quickly made arrangements for others. "Xianrou must know many powerful doctors in the Pharmacy Association. Give her a call. She just has to tell the people from the Pharmacy Association and they will definitely come. You don't have to trouble yourself to look for doctors everywhere..."

Jiang Yao's handsome face stiffened as he looked at her expressionlessly.

She looked like she had never seen the world and couldn't stop praising Jiang Xianrou. She was saying that Jiang Xianrou was doing very well in the Pharmacy Association.

Jiang Yao recalled what had happened when he bumped into Qiao Nian in Rao City.

The person that his aunt should be talking about was Qiao Nian, whom she looked down on.

Xianrou...

Even if Jiang Yao didn't know if his sister had successfully integrated into the Pharmacy Association under Qi Yan's introduction, he knew that it was impossible for Jiang Xianrou to make the members of the Pharmacist Association work for her.

"Xianrou is so outstanding. She can definitely..." Yuan Qing was still nagging.

Jiang Yao interrupted her impatiently. "She's just an ordinary member of the Pharmacy Association. She's not as capable as you think."

"But Xianrou..."

Jiang Yao had always had a good relationship with Jiang Xianrou.

Unlike Jiang Li, who sided with outsiders.

Yuan Qing didn't understand why he had suddenly interrupted her. She had clearly been praising Jiang Xianrou the entire time. Why was Jiang Yao still unhappy?

"Dad, let's go out and talk." Jiang Yao ignored her and walked past her.

Jiang Zongnan couldn't stand Yuan Qing's use of his seniority to criticize him. He nodded and followed him out.

As soon as the two of them left, Yuan Qing's face burned with pain and she felt a little embarrassed. She muttered awkwardly, "Is it not right for me to care about a junior? As expected, people are annoying everywhere when they're old."

Yuan Qing's son still had some backbone. Seeing Jiang Zongnan and the others' attitude, he was also so embarrassed that he wished he could find a hole to hide in.

Seeing that his mother was still chattering, his face heated up. He turned around and said to his nephew, "Jiang Li, have a good rest. Uncle will visit you another day."

He grabbed his mother's hand and walked out. He lowered his voice and said, "Mom, stop talking. Let's go back! We'll talk when we get back. He still has to rest..."

The ward finally quietened down after Yuan Qing was dragged away.
