

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1537

Qiao Nian didn't say anything. She just stood by the bed for a while. Before she left, she said to him, "Rest well. I'll investigate this matter."

Jiang Li had wanted to talk to her and tell her not to be rash.

Unfortunately, the doctor happened to come in to take his blood pressure at this moment. Qiao Nian wanted to ask about his condition, so she followed the doctor out.

Jiang Li didn't find a chance to talk to her until she left.

Outside the in-patient department.

Qiao Nian learned more about Jiang Li's situation before separating from his attending doctor.

Ye Wangchuan had been following her. Now, he saw a layer of frost between her brows. He asked in a low voice, "Shall we go back to Rhine Apartments?"

"Okay." Qiao Nian nodded and turned to Jiang Zongjin. "Dad, I'll go back and change my clothes. You should go back to school, too. I have news for you."

"You're not coming with me?"

Jiang Zongjin glanced at the handsome young man beside her and felt quite uncomfortable. However, he felt much more at ease when he thought of Ye Wangchuan's character. "Alright, go back and rest. Don't worry about Jiang Li. Dad will find a way to investigate."

Qiao Nian's mind was filled with this matter. She nodded, looking very obedient. She looked up and said, "I'll send you back."

Jiang Zongjin could see her fatigue. Without thinking, he waved his hand and refused. "No need, I'll go back by myself. You don't have to trouble yourself..."

A hand patted his shoulder before he could finish speaking. Ye Wangchuan was very polite. "Uncle, let's go. I drove here. I can take you back."

"But..." Jiang Zongjin still looked a little hesitant.

He didn't want Qiao Nian to tire herself too much.

Ye Wangchuan's words were concise and his voice was convincing. "We're going back, anyway. It's on the way."

Jiang Zongjin pursed his lips, still hesitating.

Qiao Nian tugged at the brim of her cap. Her exquisite face was clear as she looked at him. "Dad, let's go together."

“Alright.” Jiang Zongjin no longer hesitated. He nodded and said, “Young Master Ye, sorry to trouble you.”

“Just call me by my name, Uncle.” Ye Wangchuan took out his car keys.

He was wearing a light-colored shirt under a long trench coat. The trench coat’s style accentuated his broad shoulders and narrow waist, making his slender figure stand out.

Ye Wangchuan glanced at the girl with a hint of gentleness in his eyes before looking away. He then looked at Jiang Zongjin and said, “You can call me Little Ye.”

As expected.

Jiang Zongjin’s frown eased a little. The more he looked at him, the more satisfied he was. He didn’t stand on ceremony and nodded. “Little Ye, I’ll have to trouble you to take care of Nian Nian for me.”

“Not at all. It’s what I should do.” The man’s voice was low and charming.

Qiao Nian glanced at him silently as she stood coolly with her hands in her pockets. However, she didn’t retort. She only gave him a sideways glance. It was lazy and eye-catching.

Qiao Nian basically didn’t talk on the way back.

It was mostly Ye Wangchuan chatting with Jiang Zongjin.

Ye Wangchuan had always been a smooth talker, but few people around him needed him to spend so much effort to treat them. Therefore, he usually didn’t seem to speak much.

But once he started chatting seriously, there were quite a few topics to talk about.

Jiang Zongjin chatted with him all the way.

From the moment Qiao Nian started talking about academic topics, Ye Wangchuan was able to catch almost every topic perfectly. Moreover, his ideas were very insightful. It was obvious that he was someone with experience in society.
