

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 165

Jiang Li was famous for being a nice guy and a gentleman to ladies.

Once an unpopular celebrity tried to ride on his popularity and they even attended the same event. Even so, he treated her well, and even tried to cover up for her.

He treated her so well that the celebrity was ashamed of what she did. After the event, she requested her company not to do that anymore.

Hence, he wasn't someone that would humiliate a girl.

Furthermore, Qiao Chen was still young.

"I was referring to my biological sister, not a junior."

If Jiang Li wasn't trying to retort Qiao Chen just now, he was definitely trying to do so now. He was going to expose her lies.

She was trying to tell everyone that they were juniors and seniors from school. Yet, he immediately told everyone that he was referring to his biological sister and not his junior.

The emcee's smile froze. She got anxious and worried that an accident would happen. She then tried to steer the topic to Jiang Li's biological sister.

"So... Who's Jiang Li's biological sister? Are you ok with telling us? I'm sure your fans and the audience are really curious."

Qiao Nian's heart skipped a bit. Initially, she was just happy to watch the drama unfold. But it was time for her to treat this seriously.

Was he trying to attract attention to herself?

The camera was on his handsome face now. He blinked a few times at the camera and announced proudly to everyone:

"No, my sister's name is Nian Nian. She's studying in Rao City's First High School now.

"She's really good in her studies and she's in Class A.

"My sister is really pretty as well! The girl with long hair, a fair complexion, and big eyes that I talked about was referring to her.

"Also, this bracelet of mine was a gift from her as well. It's the first gift she gave me. I was elated that day and posted about it. The sweet thing that I mentioned in the post was a reference to her."

Everyone knew that Qiao Chen was just a student from Class B from First High School!

The reason she was invited to the show was that she was famous for being a pretty, talented, and rich girl.

What Jiang Li said was an outright humiliation.

Qiao Chen's face turned pale.

As she sat there, it felt that she was getting scoffed at by everyone.

A girl studying in Rao City's first high school, in Class A, pretty, and known as Nian Nian. Who else could it be by Qiao Nian?!

The audience went wild—

[Damn, I feel sorry for her.]

[Am I the only one laughing? Hahaha. Good job, Jiang Li! Expose her lies, I hate girls like her for trying to get closer to you. You have a boyfriend already, you should put your effort into your relationship!]

[I've always hated her for trying to ride on my boy's popularity. The previous celebrity did it because of her agency. But this girl did it out of her own accord. She even paid some of the netizens to say that she was my boy's ideal type. Could she be his ideal type to humiliate?"]

[Where are the netizens under her payroll, why aren't they apologizing to us?]

[It's so satisfying to see him expose her lies! This will leave a mark on her life!]

When the show was over, these topics were trending.

Every netizen was trying to figure who Jiang Li's sister was.

Rao City's First High School was only so big.

A third-year student from Class A, with good grades, pretty, and called Nian Nian. There was only one person that fit all the criteria.

#Qiao Nian# was trending.

Shen Qingqing saw how popular the topic was getting, put her phone away in shock, turned to Qiao Nian, saying, "Sister Nian, you're trending."

The netizens were really good at digging out information.

Everything about Qiao Nian was posted on the web.

Her height, weight, where she was studying, and her age.

They even found out that she scored the highest in her entrance examinations.
