

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 166

Qiao Chen then fidgeted around nervously until the rest of the show was done recording.

When it was done, she rushed towards Jiang Li.

She wanted to have a chat with him.

However, Jiang Li didn't give her the chance to do so. His manager and assistant formed a wall around him and blocked everyone when the show was over.

They then escorted him out of the studio. She couldn't find the chance to approach him.

She just stood there as she felt like everyone around her was laughing at her.

It was the first time she... felt so humiliated!

“Young Master Jiang, have you asked for your sister's permission before disclosing her information? I hope you didn't anger her so much that she won't want to speak to you ever again.”

His assistant knew that he had a cousin that was recently found.

He loved her so much and cared more about her than his biological sister.

He would take every opportunity at work to boast about her grades in her exams, how pretty she was, and how gentle she was... it was as though she was the perfect girl.

It roused their curiosity. However, they hadn't seen a picture of her before.

Every time they asked for a picture, he would say that Qiao Nian didn't like to take photos.

If his sister was indeed a pretty and gentle girl that would listen to her brother obediently, how come he couldn't even get a photo of her?

This just meant that Jiang Li was biased towards his sister!

Of course, his sister would be perfect to him!

Jiang Li only realized what he had done after his assistant reminded him. He then tried to find some reasons to justify himself. "It's Qiao Chen's fault. If I hadn't announced who my real sister was, the netizens would spread the rumor that Qiao Chen is my sister."

Was she even worthy to be Jiang Li's sister?

They hadn't repaid the Qiao Family for what they did, how could he allow the "real daughter" of the Qiao Family to ride on his popularity like that?

"I only said who my sister was, it shouldn't be a big deal, right? Besides, Nian Nian is awesome, how could I not boast about her if I'm her brother?"

The manager and assistant didn't want to argue with him. They opened the doors of the huge van and asked him to get in.

The moment Jiang Li stepped into the vehicle, he received a call before he could sit down.

He looked at the caller.

It was Master Wang.

Heh, Master Wang had the time to call him?

Did hell freeze over?

With his curiosity aroused, he placed the phone on his ear and answered the call nonchalantly, "Hello, Master Wang. Are you asking me out for a meal? I have a photoshoot in the afternoon and will only be free at night."

"Did you just say that Nian Nian is your sister on the show?" Ye Wangchuan asked with his low voice. Even though he wasn't scolding him, Jiang Li could tell that he was really angry from his tone.

Jiang Li was confused. "Yes, I did. What's the matter?"

"Have you lost your mind?"

Damn!

Why was Master Wang so angry?!

"You got her in trouble."

Jiang Li froze. He gripped his phone and asked, "What are you saying, Master Wang? I just admitted that Nian Nian was my sister, what kind of trouble would she get into? She's indeed my sister, am I not allowed to let everyone know about it?"

Ye Wangchuan then replied to him coldly, about to get angry, "It's not that you can't let people know that she's your sister. You picked the wrong time!"

Wait, should I have chosen an auspicious day to do so?

Was it that serious?

Just as Jiang Li was still confused.

Ye Wangchuan reminded him. "You've must have forgotten that the injury saga isn't over. Someone paid off some netizens to spread rumors that Qiao Nian was bullying a student from a poor background using her family's influence. Now that you told everyone that she's your sister, not only will the entire Rao City know about this, everyone else will know about it too. This incident is going to be widely known because of your influence."
