

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 238

She didn't speak loudly at all.

But everyone felt a chill down their spines!

A strange sense of worry!

Xu Xu felt a tightness in her chest as she held her breath and rebuked, "I want to see who our class belle managed to invite for her birthday. I'm just curious, okay?"

"Class belle, let us see who it is."

Qiao Chen was the school belle.

But Qiao Nian was the class belle.

She was making things difficult on purpose.

Actually, who between the two of them was prettier was obvious. But some things just weren't fair.

"You piece of crap!" Jiang Tingting couldn't swallow it any longer. She rolled her sleeves up and said, "Sister Nian, do you mind fighting on your birthday?"

Qiao Chen was a complete b*tch, and she couldn't tolerate her anymore!

Qiao Nian narrowed her dark eyes and smiled. "Mm, I do mind it."

Ye Qichen and the rest were already on the way here. It wouldn't be good for a child's development if he saw them fighting.

But this was just what she thought. If Gu San was around, he would have revealed that, at home, the little kid was already climbing trees to get bird eggs at three. At four, he gathered the other little ones for a fight in the yard. Not only did he beat up kids his age, he even knocked two teeth off an eight-year-old when he was just five himself. The other boy's mouth bled and he begged for mercy...

So much more happened.

But Qiao Nian had no idea about all that took place in Beijing. At this moment, her cell phone buzzed.

She saw an incoming call.

It was from Aunt Yuan.

Raising a brow, she said to Shen Qingqing and the rest, "She's here."

Here?

Everyone turned to look outside.

At this point, the doors of the last car opened.

A career woman in a professional work dress and with neatly combed hair got out of the car.

“Chairman Yuan?!”

Qiao Weimin wasn't in the mood to watch the children argue, and he was just about to get the security officers to take Qiao Nian away when an unexpected guest arrived.

Ever since Cheng Feng Corporation ended their contract with them the Qiao Corporation had been doing worse by the day.

A lot of other collaborators took flight as well after sensing that something was wrong.

The company suffered huge losses, and even the funding was almost completely cut off.

They organized such a huge party for Qiao Chen, and it seemed so lively with so many big shots.

But all of these people were almost begged to come.

Deep down, the only person he really wanted here was Cheng Feng Corporation's Yuan Yongqin!

Two days back, he had gone over to Cheng Feng Corporation personally and was unsurprisingly stopped at the entrance. But he hadn't given up. He called Su Mo and gave her the invitation through smiles and nice words. He told Su Mo the invitation had to reach Yuan Yongqin.

Now that she was here, it meant that Cheng Feng Corporation was willing to give them a chance...

This was good news!

Rejuvenated, Qiao Weimin quickly went forward to welcome her. "Chairman Yuan, you're here. Thank you so much for coming. I heard from Secretary Su that you had an important appointment today. I thought you wouldn't come, but you actually came to bless my daughter on her birthday. I'm so honored to have you here!"

He was also a chairman, but the way he bent over so much to talk to her looked distasteful to Madam Fu.

She couldn't stand the way he was portraying himself.
