

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 311

Ye Wangchuan folded his arms and raised his eyebrows. His conceited appearance of a half-smile was really a crime!

“Worried about what?”

Jiang Li cursed that he was the ‘source of calamity’ in his heart and retracted his gaze. He almost blurted out “Aren’t you interested in Nian Nian?”, but he swallowed his words and said, “Nian Nian hasn’t come back for so long, and she doesn’t want us to pick her up either. Aren’t you worried that she’s out with a boy her age?”

He couldn’t stand seeing Ye Wangchuan so calm, and said deliberately, “Maybe they’re watching a movie in the cinema right now, and holding hands to go shopping later...”

He said this to deliberately anger Ye Wangchuan. Then, he unconsciously clenched his back tooth and resisted his sadness. He also deliberately continued sourly, “That Liang Bowen seems to be very good at wooing girls. Nian Nian has never played with friends, once she gets sucked in... I don’t have any problems, I’ll just have an extra brother-in-law...”

Ye Wangchuan’s eyes gradually darkened, and a little bloodthirsty color seemed to be seen at the end of his eyes, but it disappeared in a flash.

When Jiang Li looked at him again, he saw him fiddling with the silver bracelet on his wrist and leaning back on the chair with half-closed eyelids. His lower jaw was smooth lines, and his face was so handsome it was enviable.

“If you say this, I’m not worried.”

“?”

Jiang Li was stunned.

Was Master Wang really not worried? Didn't he like Nian Nian?

When Ye Wangchuan lifted his eyelids again, there was another gloom in the depths of his narrow eyes. His face was powerful and confident, and his voice was hoarse. "A woman who works with a lion will not fall in love with a wolf dog."

He had utter confidence.

The most important thing was...

"I believe in her."

Since Qiao Nian said she was meeting an elder, she must have told him the truth! He believed in her!

Then, he ignored the 'flies' around him and glanced at the phone on the table. It was just six o'clock, it was still early.

He returned his attention to the work at hand.

...

Cheng Feng Corporation.

As soon as Qiao Nian opened Yuan Yongqin's office door, she couldn't help but sneeze.

Yuan Yongqin was waiting for her, still wondering why she hadn't arrived yet.

When she suddenly heard the sound of sneezing at the door, she immediately put down work, got up from the leather chair, and asked with concern, "Nian Nian, do you have a cold..."

Before she could finish speaking, she slowly saw the girl coming in.

The girl was beautiful and aggressive, open and bright. Every feature of hers was perfect, and her porcelain-white skin was more delicate like a freshly peeled egg.

This wasn't the point.

The point was that she looked at Qiao Nian's fairy-like dress in astonishment, especially when she saw that she was wearing a kind of little star-shaped hairpin in her hair. Her lips parted and she stared in shock for a while.

Erm...

What was happening?

Qiao Nian was wearing a fairy dress, with her hair draped, and a star hairpin...

It might not be strange for other girls of this age to wear this kind of thing. Little girls liked cute items, and it was nothing strange. But when put on Qiao Nian... Yuan Yongqin couldn't recover for a long time.

Qiao Nian saw her shocked expression, and her temples suddenly jumped, not knowing how to explain the origin of her dressing.

She wasn't a person who was good at explaining, so she didn't explain at all. Instead, she walked over, put down the things in her hand, and said, "It shouldn't be a cold. I have none of the symptoms. I just sneezed suddenly."

After all, Yuan Yongqin was in her 40s and should have seen everything in the world before. She was only shocked for a while and recovered in the blink of an eye. She didn't ask too much since Qiao Nian didn't say anything, and said with a chuckle, "Is someone missing you?"
