

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 376

As soon as he finished speaking, he said coldly, "Whether or not it's her has nothing to do with us. You're each taking your own tests. This time, the number of enrolled students at Qing University isn't large, and it's difficult for her to pass with her grades. You don't have to take her to heart too much, it'll only affect your performance."

Qiao Chen was originally worried that he would pay different attention to Qiao Nian again. Seeing that he seemed extremely indifferent, she couldn't hide her excitement and nodded obediently. "Yes, I'll do well in the exam!"

After saying this, she lowered her eyelashes shyly, blushing and saying in embarrassment, "Actually, last night, my aunt found a set of self-enrollment papers from Qing University's previous years, and I've made a lot of progress. I didn't tell you about it before. Do you think I can score 580?"

Qiao Chen bit her lip and said shyly, "I scored 598 on that set of papers last night."

Speaking of which, the exercise book that Qiao Nian had given to her was really evil.

Most of the question types were listed above, and many question types could be found on it. The main task was to thoroughly research the things in the exercise book, and then many questions could be completed smoothly.

Thinking of this, she felt a little regretful.

If she hadn't fallen out with Qiao Nian, she wouldn't have rejected her if she went to see her for the questions.

"If I can perform well tomorrow, I'm confident that I'll be admitted to Qing University!" Qiao Chen's eyes were bright as if she had already been admitted.

Hearing that she had been able to score 598 in the cultural test, Fu Ge was very happy for her, and said with a clear voice, "I scored 610 points in the college entrance examination at the time. Your score of 598 isn't particularly stable, but at least it belongs to the upper level. Do well tomorrow, you'll definitely be able to pass the written test. As long as you pass the written test, the interview level is easy to talk about."

"Yeah." Qiao Chen understood his meaning and looked at him with a shy and grateful expression.

Just then, a student from the Student Union came over and said to the teacher in charge of the reception, "Mr. Shen, Professor Cheng asked me to come over and collect a student's information."

Cheng Wu was the most famous professor in the Finance Faculty at Qing University. Many candidates for self-recruitment were applying for the two ace departments of the Finance and the Medical Faculties. When they heard Cheng Wu's name, many people looked over.

Every year in the admissions exams, there were always some students' families who would dig for information beforehand and would pull strings to be acquainted with these professors in advance. The teacher in charge of admissions didn't find it strange and just asked, "Who is it?"

"Qiao Chen."

"Oh, I'll look for it."

The teacher in charge of the reception looked through a set of materials. There were so many materials, and she couldn't find it the first time.

At this time, one hand passed a piece of information.

“Teacher, my information is here. I haven’t had time to hand it in.”

It was Qiao Chen.

Everyone’s gaze suddenly focused on her.

Murmurs of envy sounded all around.

“Who is she?”

“A top student?”

“She’s so lucky to be noticed by Professor Cheng. It seems that she has stabilized her independent enrollment this time.”

“I just saw her standing with the students in the Student Union, do they know each other?”

“She’s quite pretty. I didn’t expect her academic performance to be so good, too.”

Qiao Chen hadn’t heard such praise for a long time, and she was proud and smug inside. She stood there proudly and handed her information to the teacher in charge of reception, looking like an arrogant and obedient student.

The teacher in charge of the reception just glanced at her, and then passed her information over to the person who came to ask for it.
