

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 384

Qiao Chen stared at the line on the phone, and her heart slowly calmed down.

Yes, she had even scored about 600 in her cultural class. Qiao Nian hadn't come to Beijing in advance and had not found a professional teacher for lessons, so it was impossible for her to score better.

Her achievement was not top-notch among a group of top students.

So what if Qiao Nian was favored by Master Nie?

Master Nie couldn't let her pass the exam and directly enter Qing University!

Now that the power of public opinion was so strong, it was not so easy for Qiao Nian to go through the back door!

Thinking so, Qiao Chen settled her nerves and felt much better.

She took a deep breath, straightened her back, and pulled out Qiao Nian's exercise book from her schoolbag. She put her mobile phone aside and began to devote herself to studying.

Originally, she had planned to return to take a good rest after handing in the files today and give herself a half-day vacation.

She had no such thoughts now.

She just wanted to study hard and obtain a result that would crush Qiao Nian in the exam tomorrow!

The two most well-known universities in Beijing, Qing University and Nanjing University, set the entrance examination date on the same day every year.

On Saturday, the university town was full of people, and cars were parked everywhere on the road in front of the two universities.

In order to avoid traffic jams, the traffic police had arrived at the scene early to control the traffic.

Nevertheless, many parents would rather get a ticket to park their car on the side of the road in order to accompany their children to participate in the entrance exam.

The exam was at 9:00 AM.

Qiao Nian woke up at 8, washed up, and ate breakfast at 8:30.

Seeing that time was running out and she was still calm and restless as if she was still groggy with sleep, Gu San was already praying silently in his heart. Miss Qiao was probably not going to pass the exam.

He was anxious, but also afraid that urging Qiao Nian would further affect her exam status. Thus, he could only endure the anxiety of his full stomach, sitting there fidgeting with a constipated expression, and glancing at Qiao Nian from time to time.

After eating breakfast, Qiao Nian slowly drank the milk Ye Wangchuan had stuffed her. Halfway through, she couldn't hold it anymore and glanced at Gu San with the corner of her eye. She asked, "Gu San, what's wrong?"

Early in the morning, he was looking at her with a sad expression of 'failure in the wind and cold in the water', which made her feel uneasy even while eating breakfast.

Ye Wangchuan calmly peeled an egg for her and put it over. He said without lifting his eyelids, "Maybe his stomach isn't feeling well, don't pay attention to him."

"Oh."

Qiao Nian drank the remaining half cup of milk and looked down. Seeing another egg in her bowl, her dark brows frowned instantly.

Seeing her reaction, Ye Wangchuan knew that she did not want to eat. His thin lips curled up and he said, "Eat an egg to gain nutrition for your exam today. Just a bite is fine. I bought it specifically for you. I heard it's a native egg."

"The little guy called me early in the morning and begged me to cook an egg for you. If you don't eat it, he'll be angry with me."

Silence ensued for a moment.

Qiao Nian looked at the round and white egg in her bowl for a while and finally picked it up with resignation. Her eyebrows were almost twisted together, her face was sullen, and her eyes were filled with restlessness.

"Previous experts have specially studied the difference between native eggs and ordinary eggs. The nutritional value of native eggs is the same as ordinary eggs, and sometimes they aren't as good as ordinary eggs."

She took a bite of the egg. It was warm, and the taste was not as unacceptable as she thought.

Her knitted brows gradually loosened, and she took another two bites. However, she couldn't eat the egg yolk. She took two sips of cold water, then swallowed it before relaxing for two seconds.
