

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 388

“Why are you saying this again?” Qiao Weimin looked impatient and interrupted her. “We’ve cut off all relations with her, and she has also found her biological parents. We’re already separated, what’s the point of saying all these...”

“I’m just feeling aggrieved!! Even a dog will wag its tail at us after we’ve raised it for 18 years, but she only knows how to bite us!”

Qiao Weimin was annoyed by her constant complaints. He couldn’t help but think of what Cheng Feng Corporation’s Yuan Yongqin had said to him, saying that he had cooperated with Qiao Real Estate because of Qiao Nian. After hearing Shen Qiongzhi’s words, he only felt that his face was blank as if he was hitting himself in the face.

Frowning, he was just about to make Shen Qiongzhi shut up when he saw an HQ car stop not far away.

A familiar figure got out of the car and into his view.

“Qiao Nian?” He blurted out.

He couldn’t help but look in that direction.

As soon as Qiao Nian got out of the car, Gu San handed her shoulder bag to her. Carrying her light and fluttering schoolbag, his heart tightened. “Miss Qiao, have you brought a pen?”

“Huh?” Qiao Nian glanced over.

Gu San hesitated to say something but stopped. “Um... Why don’t you check it, I’m afraid you’ll find that you didn’t bring a pen when you enter the examination room...”

Her school bag was too light, she usually had nothing in it, but now it was even lighter as if she didn't have anything in it at all.

He was really worried that Qiao Nian would enter the examination room without bringing a pen. If so, she would score a big zero!

That scene was too dreadful, and he didn't dare to look at it!

It was better to ask clearly first.

"Master Wang, ask Miss Qiao to check first." Gu San was afraid that Qiao Nian wouldn't listen to him and knew to seek assistance.

Qiao Nian couldn't understand why he thought that Ye Wangchuan could control her. With a wild eyebrow, she closed the car door and said, "Don't worry, I've brought a pen."

Seeing her casually putting her shoulder bag on her shoulders, Ye Wangchuan rolled down the window, revealing the handsome face that harmed all living beings, and asked, "Do you want me to send you in?"

Qiao Nian glanced at the detection port in the distance, turned around, and said casually, "No, it's just a few steps. I'll walk over by myself."

"Mm."

She checked the time and saw there were eight minutes left. Not wanting to delay further, she said to the two people in the car, "I'm going in first, you can go back. I'll call you after the exam."

“OK.” Gu San looked at her worriedly and couldn’t help but say, “Miss Qiao, you can do it. It doesn’t matter if you don’t do well, Master Wang and I are on your side. Take care of the psychological burden.”

Qiao Nian raised her eyes nonchalantly. “Do I look like I have any psychological burden?”

Her words sounded so gangsterish.

Gu San was speechless.

“...” No, she looked too unburdened!

He wanted to take back what he had said before and change his words to “Miss Qiao, you should still be a little psychologically burdened. At any rate, it’s a college entrance exam. All the top students are applying for it. Don’t take the exam from the tail of the crane. Master Wang’s results were law-defying back then. If his fiancée comes out at the end of the crane, there’ll be no shortage of after-dinner gossip in Beijing! Miss Jiang is a top student in Qing University’s ace major. If you fail to pass, it’ll be embarrassing to go back to the Jiang Family’s house in the future!”

However, when the words came to his lips, he swallowed them back into his stomach.

Since Qiao Nian rescued Ye Qichen, it had been clear to him.

No matter how good Jiang Xianrou was, she was also an outsider.

No matter what, Qiao Nian saved the Little Young Master!

He could tell who was more important!

He was definitely on her side.

“Anyway, Miss Qiao, do well. Master Wang and I are cheering you on!”
