

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 397

Cheng Wu also thought of this, but he never expected that Liang Lu, who was in her forties, would be so stingy. She was stingy to the extent of taking away a student's grades.

"Liang..."

He was just about to say something when someone from the academic affairs office suddenly came in.

"Principal."

The people who recognized him spoke in surprise.

When the principal of Qing University saw them gathering around and discussing something, he walked over awkwardly and asked, "Are the papers graded already?"

With the principal present, the matter regarding Liang Lu taking the paper away was put aside for the moment.

Cheng Wu stopped staring and said with a smile, "I just brought them over, they're not all marked yet."

"I understand." The principal was embarrassed. His gaze swept across everyone's faces and he said, "I'm looking for someone's paper. Please help me look for it."

Cheng Wu's eyebrows twitched. This was the first time the principal looked for a student's paper. He asked curiously, "What's the student's name?"

"I think she's called Qiao Nian, from Rao City? Did any of you see her paper?"

From Rao City.

Qiao Nian.

They had just marked Qiao Nian's paper and the grades were out. She had an exceptional score of 650, the full score!

Professor Liang even wanted to take her paper away.

But turning around, she spotted the principal coming in. The principal was also looking for the same student's paper, and also wanted to take it away!

Everyone in the room looked at each other, not understanding what was going on with the current situation.

When Liang Lu heard that the principal was also looking for Qiao Nian's paper, her heart jumped a few times and a sense of uneasiness floated up in her heart.

A student from a small place like Rao City could actually make the principal personally come and collect her paper. What kind of power did this Qiao Nian hold?

Liang Lu pinched the palm of her hand, and her mind blanked out for a while.

In the courtyard just outside the examination venue, Qiao Nian was leaning against a pillar in a quiet part of the teaching building. Her side profile seemed peaceful and her head was lowered. Her dark eyes were looking at her cell phone. The sun shone on her, and her shadow stretched out. Even her shadow brought out her lazy yet strong spirit. It was eye-catching.

Shen Qingqing had just sent her a message. It was a long message, which filled up more than half the dialog box.

She read the message intently.

[Sister Nian, when will you be coming back to school? We all miss you. It's Liang Bowen's birthday in a few days. He said he wants to treat us to a feast! We're just waiting for you to come back, then we'll eat till he's broke!]

[About the entrance examination, you don't have to take the grades to heart. It's normal to score badly; I often perform poorly. But it's fine as long as I do well for the College Entrance Examination. When we do well on the College Entrance Examination, not to mention Qing University, we can even aim for Nanjing University. I will even take the examination with you. Don't lose hope. Sister Nian, all the best!]

"Well." Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows. After reading her message, she narrowed her eyes and did not know how to reply to her.

What was going on today? Everyone was rushing to comfort her.

Luckily, the results were not out yet and nothing was certain. She was starting to believe that she had definitely scored poorly.

Qiao Nian was very depressed. Looking at the long speech of concern from her friends on her cell phone, she was thinking of how to reply to them. Suddenly, she heard a shy voice calling out to her.

"Hello, junior."

Qiao Nian looked up and saw a tall boy standing in front of her. He had fair skin, thick eyebrows, and big eyes. From his smile, she noticed he also had a pair of sharp canine teeth.

He looked good.

With looks as good as his, not only in Qing University but even when compared to anyone from other schools, he would still be considered handsome.

Unfortunately, he was talking to the wrong person. She was used to looking at the exceptionally handsome Ye Wangchuan. Besides Ye Wangchuan, there was also Jiang Li and Wei Lou. Even the worst, Gu San, was considered charming.
