

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 404

Gu San choked.

He hadn't thought of it this way until Qiao Nian said it, but it seemed like most things could indeed be solved with these two sentences.

He was lost in thought.

Qiao Nian glanced at the time on the phone and turned to look at Ye Wangchuan. "Is there a gift shop in the alley outside?"

Ye Wangchuan's eyebrows were relaxed and unbridled. Leaning back in the chair, leaving aside the foam in the teacup, his expression relaxed, and his voice sounded a little hoarse. "There should be."

He paused, then met Qiao Nian's eyes and raised his eyebrows. "Are you going shopping?"

"Yeah," Qiao Nian said frankly without concealing her thoughts. "I want to see if there are any toys that children like so that I can buy a present for Chen Chen."

The little guy had persisted in sending messages to her every day for the past few days. At any rate, she was already out, so even if she didn't travel around, she could still bring a small gift home.

At the mention of Ye Qichen, her entire face softened, and the wild gangsterish aura all over her body was weakened drastically. She put her hands on the table one on top of the other and said casually, "What kind of toys does Chen Chen like?"

Gu San immediately wanted to answer when he heard this. "Little Master likes the Steel..."

He almost blurted out the Steel Saints, Gundam, BB Guns, etc..., but he suddenly remembered that Ye Qichen's usual image in front of Qiao Nian was obedient and cute. He didn't seem like a little overlord who loved to play with such tough guy toys!

He even wore kitten T-shirts!

He was just short of wearing kitten ears and being obedient in front of Qiao Nian!

Qiao Nian: "Steel what?"

Gu San showed an indescribable expression and immediately shook his head, feeling put on the spot. "No, nothing."

Having graduated from a prestigious university and following Ye Wangchuan every day, he was not mindless. He reacted quickly and immediately changed his tune. "I said that Young Master likes cats made of steel."

"... Cats made of steel?" Qiao Nian was stunned. She didn't expect such a toy to exist. She looked curious and her black eyes were constricted. "Is it solid? How does one play with it?"

There was no way to play with it! Gu San replied like so in his heart, but his words still sounded justified and well-founded. "... It's not for playing, just for looking. Young Master likes those cute toys to look at, he likes to collect them."

"Oh." Qiao Nian didn't think much and silently remembered this in her heart. She planned to wait to see if there was a shop selling such a toy outside.

Ye Wangchuan listened to them and then glanced at Gu San meaningfully. Gu San shrank his neck and closed his mouth helplessly.

He didn't want to talk nonsense in panic, but Young Master was like that in front of Miss Qiao, he couldn't expose him!

Qiao Nian was searching with her mobile phone, fearing that there was no such kind of solid steel cat toy outside. She wanted to see if there was any on the Internet when she heard a low voice saying, "Don't listen to Gu San's nonsense. Qichen likes BB guns and game consoles. Some are being sold outside, you can buy one for him. As long as it's a gift from you, he'll definitely like it."

BB guns and game consoles were more in line with the type of toys that a five-year-old boy liked. Qiao Nian was indeed afraid that she wouldn't find any strange cat sculptures, so she heaved a sigh of relief and immediately felt less worried. Her eyebrows relaxed and she looked up sharply. "Then, I'll go down and look for it later."

"Do you want me to accompany you?" Ye Wangchuan said immediately.

Qiao Nian glanced at him and shook her head. "No, bring the car back first.. I'll go over to meet you after I buy it, it won't take long."
