

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 45

“Look, I’ve heard about the matter. I didn’t teach her well, sorry to have caused you trouble. We’re willing to compensate for what’s required, and I’ll make her apologize. Is it possible to not detain her?”

Fighting could cause her to be detained for half a month, depending on the severity of the situation. He didn’t care if Qiao Nian was detained, he just didn’t want to ruin the Qiao Family’s reputation.

Qiao Nian mocked him with her eyes.

The young policeman glanced at him, then at Qiao Nian. Embarrassed, he said hesitantly, “Well, Mr. Qiao, I think you’ve misunderstood. Qiao Nian...”

While Qiao Weimin was confused about what exactly he misunderstood, a car from Rao City with the car plate number 0089 stopped in front of the police station.

Usually, private cars had car plate numbers beginning with 00.

Just as he was wondering who could it be, the person got out of the car and walked towards them quickly.

The policeman beside him immediately took off his cap and saluted. “How are you, Chief Officer!”

Qiao Weimin only recognized the man’s face at this instant. Wait, who’s the Chief Officer in charge of the southern part of Rao City?

The Qiao Family mainly engaged in real estate businesses, and as it would be inevitable to encounter local ruffians causing a ruckus, they usually maintained good relations with the policemen. He recognized the person, and his face immediately changed. He went forward to greet him and shook his hand. “Officer Cai, I didn’t expect to meet you here...”

He didn't hide his flattery.

As Officer Cai rushed here after a meal, and he suddenly stood in front of him, he couldn't react in time. He held his hand, looking puzzled. "You are?"

"Qiao Weimin from Qiao Corporation. I was fortunate to have dinner with you several times previously."

Enlightened, he said, "Oh, I've heard of Qiao Corporation. So it's you, Chairman Qiao. What are you doing here?"

Ashamed, Qiao Weimin said, "It may be ridiculous, but I'm here because of Qiao Nian..."

Every word came out painstakingly, and he regretted coming here immensely. If he had known that he would meet Cai Gang, he wouldn't agree to come down to the police station no matter what. How embarrassing!

Little did he know, right after he said that Cai Gang's indifferent attitude changed. He shook his hand passionately and said politely, "Oh, you're here for Qiao Nian. I didn't know she was your daughter. You have such a great daughter!"

"Erm..." Qiao Weimin was confused.

What did Officer Cai mean?

How was Qiao Nian a good daughter when she got into the police station because of a fight?

Was there something wrong with his mind?

As he couldn't figure out what Cai Gang meant, he carefully said, "Sigh, I'm ashamed. She hasn't been the most sensible since a young age..."

Cai Gang thought he was being polite, so he smiled and patted him on his shoulder to stop him. "Chairman Qiao, you're too humble. If your daughter isn't sensible, then my daughter is worse. She's currently studying at First High School in Rao City, right?"

Speaking of this, Qiao Weimin felt even more uncomfortable. "Yes, she just transferred there. Her grades aren't that good."

"Haha, Chairman Qiao, you're too humble. It's a bit too much!"

Cai Gang smiled and looked at Qiao Nian curiously and doubtfully, but without any bit of contempt. "I've heard that Qiao Nian got into Class A. In the future, she'll definitely go to an autonomous university. We'll have another talent from Rao City!" he said while smiling.

Qiao Nian?

In Class A?

Feeling faint, Qiao Weimin's throat became dry. "Did you get it wrong?"
