

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 479

The video recorded by the television station a few days ago had almost reached 100 million views on the Internet. Compared to the other guests who had solemnly entered the show, the big boss wasn't too casual. It was her first time showing her face in front of the cameras, yet she was actually wearing casual home clothes. Her hair was casually tied up, and she looked like she had just taken a shower. Her hair had not yet dried, and she casually took out her phone to record a video.

Unfortunately, the video was shot in the face. However, the television station's idiots had done a technical job of covering her idol's face with a mosaic, preventing people from seeing what the big boss looked like.

However, from the voice and temperament, it was obvious that she was drop-dead gorgeous!

Anyway, it was time for her to see the platform where Master Zhui Guang usually released songs. By right, the topic of Master Zhui Guang being a girl should break the hearts of countless female fans and cause them to leave him. However, the truth was that not a single fan of Master Zhui Guang's account had dropped. It even crazily grew by 300,000 in three days!

This number did not seem like much. Compared to social media platforms like Weibo, celebrities would often have one or two million followers.

An increase of 300,000 fans in three days was simply not enough.

However, the problem was that the platform used by Master Zhui Guang wasn't a social platform. It could only be used to listen to songs.

Only by downloading the software could one follow him.

In other words, an increase of 300,000 fans in three days meant that at least 300,000 people had downloaded the music-streaming platform software in those three days.

One could imagine how popular this person was.

Moreover, the top few comments below were all from female accounts. All of them were topics related to gay topics.

She had also left a message on it.

It couldn't be helped. She had a voice and hand control. After all, Master Zhui Guang had just come out of the shower and her voice was too dark and hoarse. Her casual tone was even more attractive than some male celebrities!

She was a heartthrob!

She was so irresistible!

Her best friend didn't listen to songs usually and did not know much about the music industry. She had only seen the trending searches on Weibo and knew that there was such a person. "Does she look it? Didn't someone find out that Zhui Guang was in Beijing? She couldn't have suddenly come to Rao City, right?"

The excited girl thought about it and calmed down. She stole a glance in Qiao Nian's direction and said regretfully, "...That's true."

How could there be such a good thing in the world? The big boss that no one could find had been bumped into by her at the airport.

They had come to the airport to pick up friends who had come from overseas for a vacation. When they saw that the airport broadcast was informing them that the flight was about to land, they rushed to pick them up...

Qiao Nian didn't know that one of the fans had recognized her immediately. She covered the mineral water bottle and slowly held it in her hand. Her call went through immediately.

"Have you reached Rao City?"

"I just got off the plane," Qiao Nian replied casually as she threw the water bottle into her shoulder bag and zipped it up. She could hear his quiet and strange voice on the other end of the line. She vaguely remembered that before she left, Gu San had said that he was meeting a group of friends in the afternoon.

She looked up at the time in the airport. It was seven in the evening. She raised her eyebrows, her eyes fierce and wild. They were done gathering so early?

However, she wasn't a gossipy person and did not like to pry into other people's gossip. Therefore, she thought about it in boredom and did not ask.

However, Ye Wangchuan asked her, "Do you want Jiang Li to pick you up?"

Qiao Nian was going to the hospital later, so she rejected him concisely. "No need. I have somewhere else to go."

Ye Wangchuan had originally thought that she had rushed back to Rao City because of Uncle Chen's deteriorating condition. Now that he heard that she was going somewhere else, he immediately understood that she was going to the hospital to visit Uncle Chen. Therefore, he did not ask further and only said, "Call me anytime if you need help. I have a flight at 1:00 PM tomorrow.. I'll be there around 4:00 PM."
