

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 513

Worried, he muttered, "How are you going to resolve this matter?"

Qiao Nian hadn't rested well, so her eyes were dry and uncomfortable. She simply opened the window a little more and let in a cold gust of wind. Hearing his question, she casually replied, "I'll wait and see."

Wait and see?

What was good about that?

Seeing that she looked rather indifferent, Su Huaiyuan became anxious. Pursing his lips, he asked solemnly, "How about I help out?"

The night air was cold and windy. Qiao Nian started to have a headache after being exposed to the wind and closed the window. Feeling a headache, she leaned on the back of the chair, lowered her head, and massaged her temples. Her tone was a little irritable as she replied. "I didn't mean that."

"Huh?" Su Huaiyuan didn't understand her.

He said worriedly, "It doesn't look like the Wei Family will treat you kindly. They will definitely demand an explanation from you. Sigh, you aren't clear about the situation in Beijing."

"This Wei Qi is Wei Ying's youngest son and is usually spoiled. If you hit him, even if he doesn't give you trouble, I'm afraid that the Wei Family won't let it go so easily. It isn't good to provoke them..."

It wasn't good to provoke the Wei Family.

Wei Ying was famous for being difficult to deal with.

Not only did she have a bad temper, but she was also extremely calculative.

Anyone who understood the families in Beijing did not want to provoke her. Wei Ying had almost no empathy, and she wouldn't let anyone go easily, even if the person was young and insensible.

Su Huaiyuan truly cared about Qiao Nian. After thinking about it, he said, "I'll go to Beijing tomorrow."

"No need."

Qiao Nian looked up with her black and wild eyes and patiently explained to him, "What I mean is to wait and see their attitudes before reacting. I'm not afraid that they'll cause trouble for me."

Su Huaiyuan was silent for a second, thinking that he heard wrongly. He looked at Qiao Nian's expression carefully. The girl wearing a hoodie had an indifferent expression, and it didn't seem like she was joking.

He was at a loss for words and didn't know how to react.

He couldn't help but feel that her expression wasn't quite right.

That was the Wei Family!

The younger generation members, Wei Dongshan and Wei Ling, didn't dare to be presumptuous in front of him, but he had to be careful around Wei Ying, not to mention Old Master Wei who was still alive!

The Wei Family was wealthy and powerful. It wasn't an exaggeration to call them a noble family. Now that Nian Nian had hit Wei Qi, not only was she unafraid, but she even wanted for him to apologize...

This was ridiculous!

Su Huaiyuan didn't know what to say and was quiet for some time.

Just as Qiao Nian was about to explain that she had something on Wei Qi, her phone rang.

Taking it out in annoyance, she saw that it was an unfamiliar number.

Not in a good mood, she didn't want to answer a random call. Thus, she quickly rejected it and put her phone aside.

She didn't rest well and only wanted to sleep today. She would deal with this matter tomorrow.

Suddenly, her phone rang again.

Qiao Nian was irritated.

Su Huaiyuan noticed that her phone was ringing non-stop and asked curiously, "Who is it? The person has been calling you non-stop."

Qiao Nian glanced at it. It was another unfamiliar number.

She picked up her phone in annoyance and said casually, "I don't know. It's an unfamiliar number."

Su Huaiyuan knew that there were many spam calls these days. His phone number had restrictions, but he occasionally received harassing calls, not to mention ordinary phone numbers.
