

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 533

She barely made it into the second round of the examination.

She hadn't seen Qiao Nian in the examination hall, which also meant that Qiao Nian must have scored worse than her!

Qiao Nian definitely scored less than 500 points!

Qiao Nian had already looked away from Qiao Chen's clothes. She glanced at her and said faintly, "I didn't score too badly, just 62 points more than her."

"How much did you say?" Wu Jie unconsciously raised her voice. Her expression looked funny and weird. She couldn't help but laugh. "You said that you scored 62 points higher than Chen Chen?"

The people from Class B were stunned.

Someone started to calculate her score. "Chen Chen said that she scored 588 points. If Qiao Nian scored 62 points more than her, that means she scored 650 points?"

Another person had also calculated her score and spoke out loud. "650?"

Everyone was speechless.

Qiao Nian scored 650 points?

What a joke!

The maximum score was 650. If Qiao Nian scored 650 points, that would also mean that she had scored full marks in the examination!

Wu Jie also quickly calculated Qiao Nian's score. She was extremely cynical. She held on to her glasses and said, "Qiao Nian, even if you wanted to boast, could you choose a more believable lie? why don't you say that you got 700 points instead? You would sound even greater."

Qiao Nian took her mockery literally and gave it serious consideration. Her eyes were dark and glinted as she put her hands into her pockets casually and spoke seriously. "The maximum score is only so high. I cannot score higher than that."

Wu Jie laughed out loud.

Many students in Class B also started to laugh.

They were laughing at her for taking the mockery so seriously. They also knew that the maximum score was 650. There was no way she could say that she scored 700 points.

Qiao Chen was the only one who did not laugh. She sat there quietly and uneasily.

She remembered Wen Ziyu saying that Qiao Nian had scored full marks in the examination.

At this moment, Qiao Nian herself also said that she had scored 650 points. The uneasiness that had once shrouded her heart grew stronger. She never expected anyone to get the full score.

At the same time, she also understood Qiao Nian's character. She would never bother to lie.

However, if Qiao Nian wasn't lying, could it be possible that she was really the first person in the history of Qing University to get the full score? As soon as Qiao Chen thought of this, she felt so uncomfortable. It was as though a needle was poking her from behind. Her heart started to beat very quickly and the blood drained from her face.

Still acting like a fool, Wu Jie laughed and said, "You said you scored 650 points? Why did I not see you in the hall for the second round of the examination?"

Qiao Nian raised her eyelids and spoke lazily. "Is that so? I saw you talking to Qiao Chen by the podium."

"How do you know that?" All of a sudden, Wu Jie could no longer laugh. Her expression had changed. It was as though someone was strangling her. Her face reddened and her eyes trembled violently. It was as though she had seen a ghost.

She had never told anyone that she had spoken to Qiao Chen in the examination hall, let alone when and where.

How would Qiao Nian know about this?

Qiao Nian raised her face slightly when she heard Wu Jie's question. She raised her eyebrows casually and said, "I saw you because I was also in the examination hall. But I didn't enter through the front door and sat in the back row. You may not have seen me..."

Wu Jie was already starting to believe her.

However, it felt as though someone had slapped her in the face. She felt embarrassed, stunned, and surprised all at the same time. Her face turned pale and her fingers started to tremble as she said, "Did you really score 650 points?"

"Does Sister Nian need to lie?" Liang Bowen sneered and glanced around at the people at the table.

He looked refreshing and handsome. Considered very handsome within First High School, he was also rich. Many girls liked him.

He dressed well and had his own style. Today, he was wearing a suit from a well-known sports brand. His hair was held back, revealing his smooth forehead. He looked fresh and handsome.
