

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 585

He had no idea that his phone call was being broadcast via the car Bluetooth and that Qiao Nian was listening to him as well. He excitedly reported to Ye Wangchuan, "Young Master Qin got someone to check the goods. The findings are pretty huge this time."

Ye Wangchuan turned the steering wheel singlehandedly, showing off his strong wrist. On his wrist was a simply beaded bracelet, and next to the bracelet was a Seven silver bangle, eye-catching and alluring. He wasn't as excited as Gu San. Instead, he didn't seem surprised at all as he said, "Mm, I got it."

Gu San was too excited and did not notice the calmness in his voice. He still couldn't mask his enthusiasm. "We've tracked this batch of goods for so long. Everyone worked overtime for one month without being able to find these goods. Young Master Qin is so smart to have thought of the Red Alliance."

The person who thought about going to the Red Alliance was Ye Wangchuan. Qin Si was simply following his orders.

Gu San wasn't aware of the internal workings and thought that it was Qin Si who came up with this idea and managed to get the connections. He exclaimed, "This Red Alliance is too impressive! The tech department of the Ninth Branch had been looking so hard for it without managing to find a clue. How do you think the Red Alliance managed to get it? Tsk! What a pity they're just being hackers with this technology!"

"If only they were willing to join the Ninth Branch." He lowered his voice, sounding regretful. "What a pity, I heard that everyone in the Red Alliance never bows down to anyone. They do things as they wish without rules and regulations, and they have always been high and mighty. They won't easily work under anyone. Moreover, they would be indignant at receiving orders from us. I wonder what kind of people would ever be able to manage people like Sun from the Red Alliance."

"That person must be really impressive. Only then could this entire group listen to 'him'!"

Ye Wangchuan turned to look at the girl who was still on her cell phone. Her cap was pulled down low, revealing only her cold and exquisite jawline. He couldn't see her expression, but given how she was typing away every once in a while, he figured that she was replying to messages.

He looked back on the road and smiled, saying, "Mm, it's a very impressive person."

Sun was definitely related to Qiao Nian!

But he couldn't conclude with certainty whether she was Sun!

This was because she was simply too calm. Hearing Gu San talk about the Red Alliance, she could still ignore him entirely, as if she was not involved.

He was almost 100% sure at first, but given her reaction, he was a little unsure now.

But he was still about 80% confident.

His getting Qin Si to look for the Red Alliance was also a way of sounding her out. The Red Alliance hardly ever took up requests. Regarding requests like tracking orders, they had practically never accepted any. Hence, they taking this one up... Ye Wangchuan's eyes deepened. He didn't think further.

Gu San was still excitedly saying, "... Young Master Qin said that the Red Alliance hasn't taken up any order from the black market in half a year. We're lucky that ours was the first one they've taken up after all this time. And, it's by their most impressive Sun! Young Master Qin said this is the first time he's encountered someone this incredible. In the past, the Ninth Branch would only give him a rough idea of where the things were, but this Sun sent him a map with the precise location, and with four words—the goods are here! Tsk... this person is insane!

"Daring to meddle with illegal goods and such a risky request, 'he' really lives up to the name of the Red Alliance! Seeing how 'he' handles things, this person must be at least 40. Without the experience of someone of that age, nobody could have such drive and capability!"
