

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 591

Ye Wangchuan could tell that she was still sleepy. He told the people around him to be quiet for the time being and said gently, "Be careful when you're there. If there's anything, call my aunt. She's in Beijing. I told her that you were coming over today. Her phone is switched on 24 hours a day. She'll be waiting for you to call her anytime."

Qiao Nian didn't expect him to tell Ye Lan that she was coming over. She was silent for a moment, not knowing how to answer. She said softly, "I might not have time to eat with Aunt Ye."

"I know." The man on the other end of the line seemed to have arranged everything. "I told her that you came to Beijing for something, so you might not have time to eat with her. She won't disturb you. Go busy yourself with your friend first. If you have time, ask her out. If you don't have time, then forget it. I only said that you can look for her if you have anything. She has some connections in Beijing and can help you settle ordinary matters.

"In addition, I got Gu San to book a hotel for you. You can stay in the previous apartment if you want. I'll send you the passcode for the door. The auntie inside will prepare fresh fruits and vegetables every day and place them in the fridge. If you don't want them, you can call delivery."

Qiao Nian agreed and did not reject his arrangement. She looked up at the time and said to him, "I'm hanging up."

"You can still find someone if it's urgent. I'll send you his number. He'll be returning to the capital today as well."

"Okay."

After hanging up, Qiao Nian put down her phone and saw that he had sent a message.

On it was the location and room number of the hotel that Gu San had booked. There was also the district number and password for the house in the Rhine Apartment along with a string of phone numbers.

A name followed behind.

Qin Si.

Qiao Nian's eyes swept over the two words. She recalled how Gu San had called him Young Master Qin in the car yesterday and roughly knew who this Qin Si was.

It seemed like if he went over to investigate the goods personally, this Young Master Qin would temporarily return to the capital.

Her eyes were quite roguish. She saved the number and clicked on a phone number in her contacts. She was about to call Wei Lou.

An unknown number from Beijing called.

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes and picked up the call. An unfamiliar male voice came from the other end.

It was someone Wei Lou had called to pick her up. He said that he had already arrived outside the airport. Seeing that her flight had arrived, he asked her roughly when she would be leaving.

After asking for his specific location, Qiao Nian hung up and walked out of the terminal with her phone.

Outside the airport, a black Mercedes-Benz was parked on the roadside. It was especially eye-catching.

It wasn't that the car was expensive.

Beijing was bustling. Any random car on the road was worth 30 million yuan. No one would especially look at cars like Mercedes or BMWs on the roadside.

But this car was different.

The car plate was too eye-catching.

The Beijing.00089 car plate pushed to the side of the road, directly suppressing the Maybach's limelight beside it. Basically, everyone who came out of the airport would look over, curious to see who this car was picking up.

Beside the car, a man in his sixties with white hair was holding a phone and making a call. He looked anxious and spoke quickly.

"...Yes, the plane is here. Miss Qiao hasn't come out yet. I just called her. She said that she just got off the plane and is coming over to look for me. Young Master, from her voice, Miss Qiao seems to be very young. Did I make a wrong call?"

The old butler of the Wei family was anxious as he reported to the person on the other end hesitantly.

It was not that he doubted anything. It was just that when he made the call earlier, the other party's voice was too young. He was really worried that this miracle doctor who had come from Rao City would be unreliable.
