

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 629

Tang Wanru and her were mother and daughter, so she thought of the same thing. Although Nie Mi's compensation was not bad, she pursed her lips and said calmly, "Master Nie, you said you have a student you like. That person must have come today as well. I wonder if I have the honor to get to know him?"

She was talking about a guy, not a girl.

It was because she was very confident that no girl in Beijing could surpass Jiang Xianrou in music.

If there was, it might be a man.

"Yes, Master Nie. We also want to see him. He must be very outstanding."

"Master Nie, your student is here too? That's great. I also want to see what Master Nie's student looks like. I'll broaden my horizons later."

The people in the banquet hall looked around them, wanting to see who was more likely to be Master Nie's student.

In the back.

Zhang Yang didn't expect this to happen. He lowered his voice and whispered into Qin Si's ear, "Young Master Qin, you're right. Master Nie didn't take in Miss Jiang. Hiss, but when did Master Nie have a student? Why haven't I heard of this before?"

"Don't ask me. I've never heard of it, either." Qin Si placed his hand on the back of his head. His sitting posture was cynical and indulgent. He looked at the dramatic turn of events with amusement and said with a smile, "This matter has piqued my curiosity. I also want to see who Master Nie's student is. He's more powerful than Jiang Xianrou and is valued by Master Nie."

Zhang Yang turned around and was filled with emotions. His expression was complicated. "Yes. Miss Jiang is the most outstanding person in this circle. She's beautiful, has good grades, and can play the piano well! Miss Jiang's piano skills can be said to be the highest in the circle..."

"She's not the highest one," Qin Si corrected him lazily at this moment. "There's another person whose piano skills are higher than hers. However, that person isn't as brash as her. She hasn't touched the piano much since she came of age. If that person is willing to play music, perhaps Master Nie will accept her."

Zhang Yang didn't know who he was talking about. He tilted his head and cleverly did not probe further. He continued, "Anyway, Miss Jiang's piano skills are considered high among her peers. The arrangement just now was also very good. She played it well and even cleverly added national music to it. I really don't know how outstanding the person Master Nie likes is if he doesn't even like Miss Jiang."

Qin Si didn't agree with what he said about Jiang Xianrou being good at arrangement, good at playing, and ingenious at adding ethnic music.

He had long said that Jiang Xianrou had learned everything from Zhui Guang. The arrangement this time was not bad, but it was only so-so.

The most breathtaking part was the way she'd studied Zhui Guang.

However, she did not manage to learn the essence. She didn't learn it well and barely performed well.

It could only be said that Zhui Guang's style itself was too unique. Even if Jiang Xianrou had only learned the basics, Zhang Yang, who did not know much about underground music, was still stunned when he heard it.

Qin Si raised his eyebrows and looked at the stage. He said noncommittally, "I don't know. But it definitely won't be bad if Master Nie likes it."

With that, he turned his head and looked at the empty seat on the left. He rubbed his chin and asked, "Little Sister Qiao is not back yet? Hasn't she been in the washroom for too long?"

He raised his wrist to look at the time.

Qiao Nian had been gone for almost 20 minutes.

She wasn't wearing any makeup, so there was no need for her to go to the bathroom to touch up her makeup.. 20 minutes was really too long.
