

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 660

“Isn’t this normal? Many computer technicians out there are not graduates from prestigious computer majors. Most of them have not studied in universities, but they still depend on this for a living, don’t they?”

At this moment, the door was opened from the outside.

The girl walked in, dressed in a hoodie and a cap, which looked slightly rugged and gave off a restrained impression.

“Sorry to disturb you.”

Her voice was hoarse and not as soft as her peers, but it sounded nice to the ears.

As soon as Luo Qing saw her coming in with a thermos container, he shut up and didn’t say anything else. He greeted her familiarly, “Miss Qiao, you’ve come to see Master Wang?”

Qiao Nian walked to the bed and put down the thermos, unscrewed the lid lazily, and nodded in acknowledgment.

Luo Qing scratched his head, feeling a little guilty.

Actually, he had no malice towards Qiao Nian.

He was even grateful to her for helping yesterday. If Qiao Nian had not intervened to help them intercept the attack, the research materials of the Ninth Branch could have been lost.

He just felt that something was off when he went back last night. Qiao Nian was clearly an ordinary high school student.

How did she learn programming?

He couldn’t help being curious and checked Qiao Nian’s online information. After reading it, he became more and more surprised. The information on Qiao Nian was too ordinary.

Her results were mediocre.

Her experiences were typical.

Precisely because it was so ordinary, it felt incompatible with her performance yesterday. But his remarks were not targeted at Qiao Nian, nor was he malicious towards her. He just thought that Qiao Nian often appeared around Master Wang, so it would be better to find out more about such a person.

After all, he was a big and rough man. No matter how straightforward and harmless he was, he still talked about a girl behind her back. He felt bad about it.

Seeing that the girl didn't react much, as if she hadn't heard what he said in the ward, he breathed a sigh of relief and touched his nose subconsciously. Embarrassed, he said to the man on the bed, "Master Wang, there are still some things that haven't been dealt with in the office. I'll attend to them first and visit you another day."

"Go on." Ye Wangchuan looked rather calm and pale. This sort of paleness usually looked sickly and even ugly on others, but on him, it made him look rather elegant.

After all, this Young Master Ye had never lost to anyone in terms of looks.

Luo Qing nodded and stopped just before leaving the room. Feeling some guilt, he turned around and said to Qiao again, "Miss Qiao, thanks so much for your help yesterday. I will treat you to dinner some other time."

Qiao Nian thought about her meal appointment later and pulled her cap down slightly again. She said rather expressionlessly, "We'll see. We'll do it if there's time."

What she meant was, if there was no time, they would just have to forget it.

Ye Wangchuan understood what she was trying to say, but Luo Qing did not. Immediately relieved, he said with a hearty laugh, "Alright. Deal! I'll be in Rao City for a while. I'll make an appointment when I have time. You can choose any restaurant, don't save me money."

Gu San was speechless.

He thought, "Are you showing off your wealth to a big boss who casually pays five million yuan for a small bottle of pills?"

Qiao Nian slowly nodded with a casual "Mm".

As soon as he left, Ye Wangchuan put up his pillow, looked at the girl on the side of the bed with eyes that were as deep as the night sky, and said slowly, "Luo Qing doesn't mean any harm."
