

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 666

Straightening her clothes indifferently and suppressing her annoyance with a calm expression, she whispered, "Forget it, don't care what she's doing here. She's not in school at this time. She skipped class and came out. One look and you can tell that she can't read. This kind of person won't have a promising future. Let's go. Professor Cheng Wu is waiting for us. Let's go meet the professor."

"As for her..." Wei Ling walked forward disdainfully and said, "From the looks of it, she won't be able to enter university this year! Let's wait for her to become crazy. After the college entrance examination, she'll have a chance to repeat her studies!"

When Qiao Nian arrived at the hotel, she called Nie Mi and asked for their room number. After hanging up, she went straight to the elevator. She did not see Wei Ling and the Qiao family at all.

She went straight to the 16th floor, passed through the corridor covered in blankets, and knocked on the door of Room 1603.

Knock knock.

She knocked on the door twice when someone immediately spoke.

"Coming."

Within a few seconds, the door was opened. A man in his fifties with a square face and strong affinity appeared in front of her.

She did not know this person.

Qiao Nian subconsciously frowned and pulled up the brim of her hat. She immediately said, "I'm sorry, I came to the wrong door."

Then, she took out her phone and found Nie Mi's number.

She was about to call him when she heard a familiar old man's voice. "Nian Nian."

Qiao Nian put down her phone and looked inside the room.

She saw Nie Mi immediately.

Nie Mi was still the same. He was wearing a Chinese tunic suit with a coiling dragon embroidered on it. One could tell at a glance that he was an extremely elegant old man. His bad temper could not be seen at all.

Seeing her, Nie Mi revealed a sincere smile. He walked over and said, "You called me and said you had just left, so I thought you would still need half an hour to come over. I thought it was the service staff. I didn't expect you to arrive so soon."

“Come in quickly.” He quickly greeted her.

The person moved aside to make way.

Qiao Nian did not go in. She raised her hand to look at the time on her phone and said, “It’s almost noon. It was not easy to locate this place. Let’s go down and eat first. We’ll talk after we’re done.”

“It’s so late?” Nie Mi hadn’t noticed the time. He thought about it and said, “Okay, let’s eat first.”

With that, he returned to get his things.

Seeing that he had completely forgotten about him, the Principal of Qing University smiled bitterly and couldn’t help but call out to him, “Master Nie, ahem. Aren’t you going to introduce me?”

“Ah!” Nie Mi finally remembered. He rubbed his eyebrows and said casually to Qiao Nian, “Look at me, I forgot to introduce him.”

He pointed at the man who had just opened the door for Qiao Nian and said to the girl with cold eyes, “This is the Principal of Qing University. His surname is Liang.”

Then, he pointed at Qiao Nian and smiled. In a tone that only the two of them understood, he said, “Qiao Nian, I don’t have to introduce you anymore. You’re here for her.”

“Hahaha, don’t say that.”

The Principal of Qing University had a good personality. After smiling, he looked at the girl with sparkling eyes and said with a smile, “Hello, Qiao Nian. I’m the Principal of Qing University. My surname is Liang. You can call me Principal Liang.”

“Hello, Principal Liang.” Qiao Nian nodded. She had always been polite to her elders. Although she didn’t look like someone who was good at greeting others, she gave off a comfortable and real feeling.

He had personally come to Rao City and called Nie Mi over. It wasn’t easy for her to come over, so he did not beat around the bush and said, “I specially asked Master Nie to accompany me to Rao City because I wanted to talk to you.. Qiao Nian, your intentions for university haven’t changed, right?”
