

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 689

“Nian Nian, can’t you... do me a favor?” Ye Wangchuan’s deep brows and eyes barely concealed his smile, and his faint nasal sound was very sultry.

Even Zhou Wei and others felt that his attitude towards Qiao Nian was different.

Zhou Wei’s face darkened to an awful shade.

Bo Jingxing was a little surprised. He raised his eyelids and looked in the direction of the girl, just in time to see her raise her hand and pull off her cap.

The face under the cap was exquisite and beautiful.

Extremely eye-catching.

He was surprised at his friend’s attitude, he calmed down again when he saw Qiao Nian’s face.

Jiang Li’s cousin was indeed too good-looking. He was a man and understood what men would like, but... wasn’t she a bit too young?

Didn’t she seem to have just turned 18 this year?

He stroked his chin, deep in thought.

Moreover, would the Ye family agree to such a girl as their daughter-in-law? The Ye family was truly a century-old honorable family, their daughter-in-law couldn’t just be a pretty face.

Old Master Ye would not agree.

In addition, the resolute lady of the Ye family, Ye Wangchuan’s aunt Ye Lan, could not possibly agree, right?

Qiao Nian didn’t know what they were thinking, but she felt herself going warm upon hearing his question. Just as she was about to open her mouth and refuse again, she was faced with the man’s deep black eyes. They were so deep, she felt as if she could drown in them.

Qiao Nian was speechless.

She had a bunch of words stuck in her throat. Her brows were furrowed as she glared at him, all while wondering if he was using the Hunk’s Trap on her.

Ye Wangchuan saw the girl squinting at him. His long eyelashes covered the dark circles under his eyes. He raised his hand, rubbed his temple, and said softly, “Master Cheng has contributed to the country. The research he’s working on is also the kind that would benefit all mankind.

“He has been tortured by migraines and can’t eat or sleep well. If things go on like this, we don’t even have to think about whether he can concentrate on scientific research. His body won’t be able to handle it in the first place. You just have to take a look at him and don’t need to do anything else...”

Ye Wangchuan’s earlier statement moved her. Qiao Nian originally wanted to refuse, but now she couldn’t find the words to.

She was silent for a moment as she pursed her lips and thought about it. Then, not wanting to make things difficult, she raised her eyes and said, “I got it, I’ll find time for it.”

Gu San was more excited than anyone else, and he immediately asked, “Miss Qiao, when will you be free?”

“In three days at the earliest.” Qiao Nian gave a specific time. Her eyes were extremely dark and wild. “I still have to spend time on that programming.”

It was obvious which programming she was referring to.

Zhou Wei’s face went dark again.

Ridiculous!

This Qiao Nian really wanted to go to the Ninth Branch to have a look at Master Cheng’s condition? What could she know as a high school student?

And that programming, she never once believed that Qiao Nian had the ability to solve the problem of source code in two days!

“Master...” She opened her mouth and had only said the first word, when the man glanced at her.

It was a cold and ruthless glance.

Seemingly a completely different person from the man with the smile just a moment ago.

A tough, harsh expression.

As if to warn her, if she said one more word, it would not end well.

Zhou Wei felt aggrieved in her heart as she pinched the palm of her hand. It took her a long time to relax and suppress her dissatisfaction.

After Ye Wangchuan glanced at her indifferently, he issued an order to evict the visitors.

“I’m tired. You guys may leave if there’s nothing else.”

Bo Jingxing very wisely got up before he started chasing him away. He looked at Qiao Nian deeply and said, “We’ll have to trouble Miss Qiao with the programming, then.”

As for the matter of Master Cheng... he did not comment for the time being.
