

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 741

"Tsk!" Qiao Nian swore rarely. She lifted the blanket and got out of bed. Her dark eyes still had the air of someone who had not slept well. Red blood could still be seen at the ends of her eyes, and her beautiful eyes were extremely dry.

Knock, knock, knock...?

Someone was still knocking on the door.

She didn't open the door immediately after getting up. Instead, she sat on the bed for two minutes. When she regained her senses, she slowly got up and suppressed the frustration in her eyes.

She got up, put on her slippers, and walked over to open the door.

"What's the matter?"

Her tone was quite cold.

It wasn't the polite coldness. There was hostility mixed in it, and it was extremely dark.

When Zhou Wei saw her come out, her eyes turned red as if she had been greatly wronged. She suddenly bent down and bowed to apologize to her. "I'm sorry, Miss Qiao. I apologize for what I did previously. I hope you'll forgive me!"

Qiao Nian was confused.

The girl's eyes were quite cold. Although she didn't know what she was doing early in the morning, no matter who it was, they wouldn't be in a good mood if they slept well and were forced to get out of bed. Qiao Nian was the same. She looked coldly at the person who was bowing and apologizing in front of her and said impatiently, "You came knocking on my door early in the morning just to tell me this?"

Zhou Wei bent down and did not get up for a long time. Quite humiliated, she gritted her teeth and said, "I'm sorry, Miss Qiao. I came to apologize to you."

Qiao Nian took a deep breath to suppress the anger in her eyes. Not giving her face, she turned around to say coldly, "There's no need."

As she spoke, she walked in and picked up the mineral water on the desk. She unscrewed the cap and took a sip to suppress the anger that was rising to her throat. She looked at Zhou Wei impatiently and said, "If you want to put on a show next time, come again at a different time. I don't have the habit of looking at the Monastery in Paris early in the morning."

Over the past few days, she hadn't slept well for a few nights in order to get the unmanned programming and revision materials for Class A.

It was the same yesterday. She had only slept on the plane for a while.

After getting off the plane, she came to the Ninth Branch again. After treating Master Cheng, she forced herself to sit there and play games for four hours to guard him.

She had finally gotten a good night's sleep, but she was woken up early in the morning. The first thing Zhou Wei said was to ask for her forgiveness...

What was there to forgive? She hoped that she would forgive her for not knocking continuously earlier and for making her get up to open the door?

Wouldn't it be good to let her sleep well?

"..." Zhou Wei was already unwilling to come. She was also aggrieved and indignant. When she heard this, her eyes turned even redder as if she had been greatly humiliated. She looked at her and pursed her lips. "Anyway, I sincerely apologize to you, Miss Qiao. I've already said what I wanted to say. I can't force you to accept my apology, but I apologize to you sincerely. Also, I'm sorry for disturbing your sleep."

At nine o'clock, most of the people in the Ninth Branch had already woken up. Only Qiao Nian was still sleeping. From the looks of it, she wanted to sleep until 12 o'clock.

"I still have something on. I'll make a move first!"

Zhou Wei felt even more upset. She bowed to the girl leaning against the desk and looking at her coldly before running away without turning back.

Qiao Nian watched her run away with a cold expression and slowly unscrewed the cap of the mineral water.

At this moment, Gu San came over with breakfast and greeted her. "Miss Qiao, you're up?"

With eyes still filled with sleepiness from waking up, Qiao Nian did not reply to him immediately.

Gu San looked at her and asked carefully, "Miss Qiao, did Zhou Wei come over?"
