

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 742

Qiao Nian had just walked over and bent down to pick up the phone that she had thrown by the bed yesterday. Hearing this, a surprised expression appeared in her beautiful black eyes. She looked at him and said, "Huh? How did you know?"

"Of course, I know." Gu San scratched his head with an expression that said, "I just know." When he saw Qiao Nian looking at him, he walked over and placed the breakfast down. Then, he slowly explained to her, "It's because Young Master Wang came over in the morning to help you vent your anger."

"..." Qiao Nian raised the corner of her eyes. Her fair fingers had already pressed on the phone. The screen lit up, and she happened to see a certain someone's message.

[Ye Wangchuan: I'm at the Ninth Branch. Are you still sleeping?]

She looked at the time.

At around 8:30 AM.

He was half an hour earlier than Zhou Wei.

Qiao Nian gathered her collar and walked over. She saw Gu San taking out the breakfasts he had brought over in the morning.

The symbol on the box was especially obvious.

It was obvious that it did not belong to the Ninth Branch.

Breakfast at the Imperial Mansion wasn't easy to buy. When Qin Si was playing games with her previously, he had inadvertently mentioned that there were a few good breakfasts at the Imperial Mansion. He had promised to bring her to Beijing next time to enjoy breakfast there.

Then, he had mentioned that the Imperial Mansion had many rules and generally did not provide any foreign-exchange services. If he wanted to buy takeaway, he needed to wake up early to queue.

Qiao Nian's gaze paused on seven or eight types of breakfast for a second. She took her phone to the desk to charge it as she leaned against the desk mischievously. She picked up the cup of water and unscrewed the cap. Her long eyelashes were lowered, and she looked very sleepy. She asked casually, "You said that Master Wang helped me vent my anger in the morning. What do you mean? Did he make Zhou Wei come knocking on my door early in the morning to apologize to me?"

Gu San helped her set up the breakfast before turning around. He saw the girl leaning there in her pajamas. Her legs were long and straight. She looked lazy as she held a bottle of water unconsciously.

Tsk, to a certain extent, Miss Qiao was the same kind of person as Master Wang.

They were all people who were too good-looking and did not leave anyone a way out!

He quickly looked away, not daring to look at her anymore.

Then, he replied briskly, “Master Wang came to the Ninth Branch in the morning and punished Zhou Wei in front of everyone. She probably won’t appear in front of you again during this time.”

Zhou Wei had suffered a huge loss this time.

The Zhou family was considered a low-class family in Beijing. They were at the edge of the upper circles. In the past few decades, they didn’t have many outstanding figures. However, from the past few generations, the Zhou family had ruthlessly produced a few computer talents. For example, the famous hacker in the country, Zhou Hengfeng, was Zhou Wei’s third uncle. Zhou Wei herself was also shockingly talented in computer science.

It was the information age. Computer IT in the country started later than overseas, so there were naturally not as many talents. Computer IT talents naturally became the focus of all the major forces.

Zhou Wei and Zhou Hengfeng were rarely seen among such talents who had some ability in hacking. Thus, they became even more valuable.

This could be seen from the fact that Zhou Hengfeng had not approached anyone, but the fact that all the major families in Beijing would give him some face.

Zhou Wei’s status in the Ninth Branch was also extraordinary because of this.

She knew her own importance.

Perhaps because of this, Zhou Wei was famous for her arrogance. She wasn’t very tolerant in their group.

For example, Liao Xu, who was under Luo Qing, was also a hacker, and he came from an unorthodox background.

In the beginning, Liao Xu followed Zhou Wei’s group.. Later, he was pushed aside by Zhou Wei and was forced to transfer to Luo Qing’s group.
