

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 748

Master Cheng was even faster than her. "Don't be in a hurry to reject me. I'm not saying that I'll force you to work on bioengineering. I'm just saying that you can come over and follow me when you have the time. What if you're interested in this later... right?"

Since he had said so, Qiao Nian couldn't reject him anymore. If she rejected him again, she would be insensible. She raised her hand helplessly and said, "I'll try my best."

"It's a deal, then."

Master Cheng smiled and was quite happy. Coincidentally, the results of the experimental reactor were out. He asked a few people beside him to record the data. After he was done, he would take time to get Qiao Nian to perform acupuncture on him.

Acupuncture was quite time-consuming.

Yesterday, Qiao Nian spent more than four hours finishing it.

He was a little better than yesterday. It took him more than two hours to wake up.

Qiao Nian removed the needles from his acupuncture points one by one and put them away in her bag. Then, she chatted with Master Cheng for a while.

The group of them walked out of the Ninth Branch.

Bo Jingxing had other things to do. He chatted with them for a while before leaving. On the way back, only Qiao Nian, Ye Wangchuan, Chen Zhu, and Gu San were left.

Chen Zhu was walking side by side with Qiao Nian at first.

As they walked, Ye Wangchuan found an opportunity to put his arm around her back and gradually pulled away from the two people in front.

The temperature in Beijing had been quite low for the past two days, but Ye Wangchuan was wearing a thin jacket. He was tall and handsome in a long trench coat.

He slowed down and walked with the girl. His thin lips were curved from beginning to end, and it could be seen that he was in a good mood.

Halfway through, he suddenly stopped and asked the girl who stopped with him, "Are you cold?"

"Huh?" Qiao Nian blinked. Her eyelashes were long and curly, looking extremely good.

Ye Wangchuan naturally picked up her hand and touched it. He smiled again, his eyes bright and dazzling. "Tsk, your fingertips are a little cold."

As he spoke, he took off the scarf around his neck. He lowered his head and carefully wrapped it around the girl's neck until it was wrapped tightly. Then, he raised his hand and rubbed her hair. His tone was filled with restrained love as he spoke. "Have you eaten the breakfast I got Gu San to bring you in the morning?"

Half of Qiao Nian's face was wrapped in a scarf, only revealing a pair of beautiful eyes. It was obvious that she was a little stunned by his series of actions. She frowned, but she did not dodge. Her white skin looked even whiter under the dark scarf. It was the white color of porcelain.

"Yes, I did. The shrimp dumplings taste good. You bought them at the Imperial Mansion?"

Seeing that she did not dodge, Ye Wangchuan reached out and rubbed her head again. His thin lips curled up seductively. "I went to the queue at 6:30 in the morning."

This time, Qiao Nian finally avoided it. After avoiding it, she said impatiently, "Master Wang, do you still need to queue?"

How could she remember that Qin Si had inadvertently revealed that Ye Wangchuan was one of the behind-the-scenes bosses of the Imperial Mansion? Why did bosses have to queue to buy their own things?

This question made Ye Wangchuan raise his eyebrows and look straight at her. Their eyes met and he smiled again. His voice was low and charming like a cannon. "Before I came, I remembered that their breakfast tasted good. You haven't eaten yet, so I drove over at the last minute. Because it was too sudden, the kitchen didn't prepare anything.. I waited there for an hour."
