

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 781

'When she heard this, she only raised her eyebrows coldly and said in a light tone, "I know. He talked bad about Zhui Guang. Zhui Guang is also considered half a public figure. So what if he said a few unpleasant words to others in private? Even Zhui Guang herself doesn't fuss about it, so why did Jiang Li come over and attack? Don't tell me that Jiang Li attacked him because he mentioned Zhui Guang to the person beside him."

"He.." The manager wanted to say, so what?

However, Zhui Guang's identity was a secret. Even if he knew that there was a reason for Jiang Li's actions, he could only forcefully suppress his anger.

"In short, it's simple if you want to resolve this matter. We only have one request—Jiang Li will publicly apologize to Xue Ziang on Weibo! Otherwise, there's no need to discuss anything!"

Chu Yao had never felt that Zhui Guang would stand out and make trouble. Everyone in the industry knew that Zhui Guang was extremely cold and aloof. She had no contact with any entertainment company and had no intention of debuting. Although she was very popular, she never cared about online gossip or marketing. She didn't even have a Weibo account, making her no different from a god.

It was because of this that she didn't take Xue Ziang's private slander of Zhui Guang to heart. Her attitude was extremely arrogant as she looked at Jiang Li's manager and said, 'Consider it yourselves!"

Outside the hospital, a nanny van was parked quietly in the shade.

The air conditioner was switched.

'The car was warm and not cold at all. The man was nestled in the backseat. There was a light scratch on his face, but it didn't affect his handsomeness. He was playing games on his phone, his eyes extremely cold.

*... The others in the car looked at each other when they saw this. They were anxious.

Why was Brother Li still in the mood to play games?

Did he not know that Xue Ziang's "white lotus flower" statement on Weibo had been forwarded more than ten thousand times?

If this continued, the company wouldn't be able to suppress this wave of popularity. It would be on the trending searches.

Just as the few of them were at a loss, the door was pulled open. The manager hurriedly got in from outside. As soon as he got in, the assistant immediately asked him.

“Brother, how is Xue Ziang?”

At the mention of this, the manager felt a headache coming on. He was extremely frustrated. He got into the car and closed the door before saying gloomily, “He’s still being checked. He wants a full-body checkup, but the results aren’t out yet.”

“A full-body checkup? Aren’t they being too ridiculous?” The assistant was at the scene and knew Xue Ziang’s condition better. He pursed his lips and said, “He at most got a few blows to his face. Is there a need for a full-body checkup?”

“Hehe, you don’t think so? He’s even preparing to take an electrocardiogram. He can’t wait to check everything inside and out. He can’t wait to find out something wrong!”

With that, he ignored the others’ reactions and turned to look at the man playing games in the backseat. He said seriously, “Brother Li, how are you going to handle this?”

Jiang Li was in a bad mood. Hearing this, he looked up with a dark gaze. “What do you mean by how? Pay up if you need to. I don’t lack this bit of money. Let him check however he wants.”

“How you don’t lack money.” The manager placed his hand on his forehead and felt that it hurt even more. He knew about Jiang Li’s family situation. Joining the entertainment industry was just him fooling around, but this matter was indeed difficult to resolve. “This isn’t a matter of money. They’ve steeled themselves to smear you to hype themselves up. If this continues, it will only make the public even more unfriendly to you!”

Jiang Li felt like he had been shot in the head. He simply let go of his phone and said coldly, “What are their conditions? What do they want?”

He wasn’t afraid of things getting out of hand. If they did, so be it. At most, he would quit the entertainment industry.
