

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 794

He looked at Ye Lan and Old Master Ye without any intention of hiding anything.

He said simply, "She came over to treat Master Cheng's migraine. Master Cheng's migraine has been quite serious recently. He went to look for Liang Lu and realized that the medicine was useless. I wanted him to try Chinese Medicine."

"Lee." Ye Lan had seen Qiao Nian use acupuncture to save Elder Wei at the Wei family previously. Thus, she wasn't surprised to hear this. She then asked, "How is Master Cheng doing now?"

Ye Wangchuan: "Much better."

"That's good." Ye Lan's expression was extremely calm. Clearly, this answer was within her expectations.

Only Old Master Ye and the butler, who was standing in the corner, heard their conversation as if no one was around. They looked at Ye Lan and Ye Wangchuan and then at Qiao Nian. They did not recover from their shock for a long time.

Especially Old Master Ye. "Nian Nian knows Chinese Medicine?"

Hearing this, Ye Lan turned her head and smiled slightly. She rebuked him. "Dad, didn't I mention it to you before? Nian Nian wants to study Chinese Medicine in university."

Old Master Ye: "... Wasn't she still not at university?!"

Of course, he knew that Qiao Nian had entered the Traditional Chinese Medicine faculty. For this reason, he had specially looked for Liang Conglin to check her results. He knew the moment Qiao Nian's joint examination results were out.

He then looked at the obedient girl sitting there with a cup of tea in her hand, restraining her banditry aura. He couldn't hide the surprise in his eyes.

He knew that Qiao Nian majored in Traditional Chinese Medicine, but this was not the college entrance examination. Qiao Nian had not gone to college yet, and she had not gone to Qing University to study.

From the sound of it, his brat meant that Qiao Nian had managed to control Master Cheng's condition before Liang Lu could.

In other words, Qiao Nian's medical skills weren't worse than Liang Lu's!

This.

Old Master Ye was dizzy and couldn't snap back to reality.

Ye Lan chatted with Ye Wangchuan and Qiao Nian for a while before getting the waiter to serve the dishes.

Various dishes filled the entire table in the blink of an eye.

Ye Lan was wearing a white shirt and a woman's cloak jacket, looking valiant and heroic. When the dishes were served, she smiled and said, "Nian Nian, you guys didn't come on time, so I ordered some random dishes with my dad. I heard from Wangchuan that you like to eat spicy chicken. I got them to prepare one for you. See if there's anything else you like. Don't stand on ceremony with me. Just get them to add it."

Old Master Ye slowly came back to his senses from his surprise. He coughed and pretended to be serious. "Yes, don't stand on ceremony. Order whatever you want."

Qiao Nian leaned back on the chair. Her originally tense back slowly relaxed in this warm atmosphere. "I can eat anything."

The little guy had been talking to her. One moment, he was handing her a bag of cookies, and the next, he was stuffing candy into her hand. He was so obedient.

Qiao Nian accepted it with a smile. She put away the sweet candies and biscuits Ye Qichen and then looked up at Ye Lan with her dark eyes.

"These are enough." Then, afraid that she was too casual, she restrained her temper and added politely, "Auntie Ye, Grandpa Ye, these are enough."

She looked over. Other than the few dishes placed in front of Old Master Ye that were light Suzhou dishes and pigeon soup, many of the dishes were bright red with a layer of chili oil floating on them. It could be seen that they were all her favorites.

Qiao Nian loved spicy food. It was to the point where no level of spice could hinder her from eating it. However, she wasn't picky with food and could basically eat anything.

Before she came, she had already thought about accompanying Old Master Ye, Ye Lan, and the others to eat light dishes today. She didn't expect them to order a table of bright red Sichuan dishes for her..
