

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 808

Cai Gang reached the police station almost at the same time as Jiang Li and the others.

As soon as he got out of the car, he saw a group of people walking towards the gate of the police station. He quickly caught up and greeted them. "Young Master Ye."

Ye Wangchuan slowed down. When he caught up with him, he noticed another familiar face.

"Jiang... Jiang..." Jiang Li was considered a very prominent star in China. He often appeared on television and was very popular. Cai Gang didn't watch entertainment programs regularly. However, his daughter liked watching such programs, so he often saw stars appearing on the television. He was stunned when he saw Jiang Li.

Why would Jiang Li be here together with Master Wang?

"Jiang Li is Qiao Nian's cousin." Ye Wangchuan seemed to know what he was thinking and introduced him in a low voice.

Cai Gang was taken aback and couldn't speak.

He took another look at Jiang Li and Ye Wangchuan. He didn't seem to be joking. He remembered the gossip he had heard from his daughter. It seemed like Jiang Li had a strong family background, and entering the entertainment industry was merely something he did for fun.

At that time, he didn't believe her.

He just assumed that his daughter was duped by the gossip in the entertainment programs.

After all, he had interacted with the top circles and knew that the people in those circles were all admirable people. They weren't interested in the entertainment industry at all.

This was the case for people from several top families in Rao City, not to mention the families in the upper-class circles in Beijing.

He had even thought that his daughter was speaking nonsense and that she was wasting her time listening to gossip.

Who knew that Jiang Li actually had an extraordinary background and even turned out to be from the Jiang family!

Young Master Jiang even went into the entertainment industry. That was just so willful!

It could actually be something he just decided on a whim!

Jiang Li could feel Cai Gang looking at him strangely, but he was only thinking about Qiao Nian. He didn't care about what others thought of him. He frowned and ignored Cai Gang. His voice was anxious as he said, "We shouldn't just stand at the door. Let us go in first and look for someone to talk to."

Gu San was also anxious. He pursed his lips and followed along quietly without any urging. However, his expression was very irritable and he was obviously impatient.

Ye Wangchuan didn't say anything. He was tall and slim. His hands were in his pockets, and the others weren't able to discern his true emotions.

Cai Gang was a discerning person. He was able to figure out his priorities, so he didn't need to speak unnecessarily. He immediately agreed. "Yes, let us look for Miss Qiao first!"

"L will lead the way. Young Master Ye, Young Master Jiang, let us go in."

Qiao Nian was easy to find. The police station in the jurisdiction was not large, and there were only a few places where people could work. The other areas were all occupied by gangsters.

The policewoman assigned to her had to make do with the available space. She took down her statement on the corridor.

They roughly learned about the situation from the people who called the police.

Taking down her statement was merely a formality.

What Qiao Nian said was similar to what they had understood. Except for the general situation, the policewoman did not take down the details. This was mainly because the girl's narrative was too concise that she wasn't able to take down any details.

After briefly jotting down the process, she stopped taking notes and raised her head. Looking at the girl leaning on her back with a bent leg, she pursed her lips and said, "Qiao Nian, I already know your general situation. Next time you encounter this situation, do you know what you should do first?"

Seven or eight gangsters armed with steel pipes had surrounded a girl. They were all stunned when they received a call from the crowd. They were afraid that it would become a big case.

Who would have expected that after they had arrived at the scene, although the situation was as tragic as they had imagined, it was a different kind of tragedy!
