

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 818

Zhou Hengfeng arrived very quickly. He had called Jiang Xianrou on the way. In less than ten minutes, he had already arrived at the Jiang residence. As soon as he entered, he went straight to Old Master Jiang. He looked anxious, and he couldn't hide his haggardness and headache. He walked over quickly. "Old Master Jiang, you have to help me this time."

He had come so suddenly. Jiang Xianrou hadn't mentioned to Jiang Weishang and Jiang Zongnan that he was coming over, so they were stunned when the two of them suddenly saw him.

Jiang Zongnan stood up and shook his hand. He greeted, "Old Zhou, why are you here? You didn't even tell me you were coming."

"I came over at the last minute. I called Miss Jiang on the way." With that, Zhou Hengfeng looked at the old man in the wheelchair and said anxiously, "I had no choice but to look for you. Old Master Jiang, I can only ask you for a favor this time."

When Jiang Weishang suddenly saw him, he reacted in the same way as Jiang Zongnan and was quite surprised. Seeing his anxious tone, he subconsciously frowned and said calmly, "Have a seat first."

Then, he instructed his son, "Zongnan, get someone to make tea for Hengfeng."

"Okay." Jiang Zongnan immediately got the servant to make tea.

After instructing his son, Jiang Weishang raised his hand and said politely, "Have a seat."

Tang Wanru and Jiang Xianrou watched as Zhou Hengfeng rushed in and went straight to Old Master Jiang to ask for help. They looked at each other and saw confusion in each other's eyes.

Why was Zhou Hengfeng looking for her grandfather about Zhou Wei being chased out by Ninth Branch?

Zhou Wei had been chased out by Ninth Branch, and it would be difficult for her to cause any more trouble in the future. However, Zhou Wei wasn't bad herself. With the Zhou family as his backing, there was no need for Zhou Hengfeng to lower his status so much...

He was being too humble!

"Sit."

"..." Zhou Hengfeng looked at the chair that had been moved in front of him and sat down anxiously. As soon as he sat down, he immediately straightened uneasily. "Old Master Jiang, you can only help me this time."

Old Master Jiang had encountered big waves in his long life. Although he was now a second-tier figure, he was not someone easy to fool. He didn't answer him but picked up the teacup beside him and said slowly, "You keep asking me to help you. You have to tell me what the matter is first so that I can see if I can help you. Otherwise, how can a retired old man like me help you?"

His technique was perfected. He threw the question back to Zhou Hengfeng.

Zhou Hengfeng knew that it wasn't easy to fool him. This matter was all their fault, but he had no choice but to bite the bullet and slowly lower his head under that hale and hearty gaze. He said with difficulty, "It's our family who spoiled Zhou Wei too much, and she became so lawless and did things without consideration. She didn't tell us..."

He had just finished his opening speech when the warm smile on Old Master Jiang's lips disappeared at a visible speed.

Right on the heels of that, Zhou Hengfeng described how Zhou Wei had handled things in front of the entire house. With that, his face turned blazing hot. He couldn't raise his head, not even dare to look at the person in front of him directly. He apologized humbly, "Old Master Jiang, I just found out that Miss Qiao is your granddaughter. We're in the wrong. I apologize to you and your granddaughter on Zhou Wei's behalf. Can you tell Miss Qiao to speak to the police and not lower herself to Zhou Wei's level? I'll definitely educate her well when I get back. We'll cover all of Miss Qiao's medical fees, and this..."
