

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 831

Jiang Li was also quite excited. He quickly put down the teacup and went forward with Gu San.

Qiao Nian pulled down the brim of her cap as she came down. Her eyes were dry, and her voice was hoarse as if she had just finished showering. "There's no need. I'm going out for a while."

Ye Wangchuan was still on the phone with Qin Si. Seeing who was coming down, he didn't even bother about the person on the other end of the line, directly ended the call, and shamelessly put down the phone. Looking up, his deep, dark eyes did not move away from Qiao Nian. "Where are you going?"

"Yes, Nian Nian. Where are you going at this hour?" Jiang Li echoed.

Qiao Nian put her hands in her pocket. She still had the aura of a bandit and was extremely cool. Her dark eyes looked at Jiang Li beautifully and she said, "Aunt Chen's house."

"I promised to eat at her place. She stewed chicken soup and is waiting for me at home."

Jiang Li: "...Aunt Chen."

He was not surprised.

Qiao Nian was mature for everyone except for Aunt Chen and her husband. Only Aunt Chen could make her go eat a bowl of chicken soup.

However, the matter with the gangsters hadn't even been settled yet. Jiang Li was a little worried about her going out alone. He was about to speak when the man sitting on the sofa picked up the car key on the table and walked past him naturally. "Let's go. I'll send you there."

Qiao Nian raised her eyes and restrained her interest. She looked at him deeply and pursed her lips. She didn't say anything, which was equivalent to a silent agreement. Then, she turned around and walked in front.

Ye Wangchuan looked at the figure walking in front of him. He picked up his jacket and a scarf and told Gu San, "I'll be right back." Then, he strode forward and followed her.

In the blink of an eye, only Gu San and Jiang Li were left in the villa. Gu San was already used to this scene. He went about his business as if nothing had happened.

Only Jiang Li stood there for a long time, staring in the direction they left.

Didn't Master Wang promise him that he would wait for Nian Nian to go to university? He couldn't possibly go back on his word, could he?

Aunt Chen's family lived in a district apartment not far from Rao City.

The district was older and was a nearby residential area. However, it was closer to the school and the rent was cheap. The three-bedroom apartment was rented for only half the rent of the nearby houses. The black car slowly stopped outside the district. Ye Wangchuan switched off the engine and placed his hand on the steering wheel. He stretched his body and looked elegant. His attractive face was so captivating!

Seeing the place, Qiao Nian tried to open the door and realized that it was locked. She turned around and raised her eyebrows at the man in the driver's seat.

"Open the door."

"You don't want me to send you up?" Ye Wangchuan smiled lazily.

However, Qiao Nian could see a hint of seduction on his face. She narrowed her eyes. Her phone happened to vibrate at this moment. She looked at it and saw that it was a message from Chen Yuan asking if she had arrived.

She didn't know if she should reply.

She was downstairs, but from the looks of it, she probably could not go up for a while.

Her fair fingers formed a message to reply to Chen Yuan.

[I'm waiting for the traffic light. I'll be there soon.]

After replying, she looked up and locked eyes with a certain someone. Her gaze was wild as she reminded him, "Master Wang, don't forget that you're still under investigation. Is this considered a threat to the examiner now?"

"Heh." Ye Wangchuan chuckled and leaned closer to her. His eyes, which were as deep as a cold lake, darkened. He placed his hand on the window and said in a low and hoarse voice, "My attitude is at most a bribe. As the examiner, can't you give me a chance to bribe you? Huh?"

The last note was simply fatal!
