

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 834

Zhou Wei wasn't able to accept this feeling of falling from heaven to hell. In a panic, struggling, and in denial, she begged her grandfather bitterly. "Grandfather, I cannot go to prison. Please help me think of a solution. Our family has a lot of connections, right? Can find someone to help get me out of this situation?" She was going to prison for fifteen years. She couldn't accept it!

Old Master Zhou didn't even say a word.

Zhou Hengfeng looked at her sadly. Disappointed, he whispered in a low voice, "It's useless. We have already tried our best. We have thought of all sorts of ways and even tried all our connections."

"How could that be..." Zhou Wei stared at him in disbelief.

"In order to help you, the whole Zhou family was almost dragged into this matter. The other party had warned us that if we provoked them anymore, the whole family would have to join you in prison. Your grandfather is already old. Do you really want him to go to prison with you?"

His voice was heavy, his face was stiff, and his complexion was strained. He spoke very seriously.

"Zhou Wei, when you are in prison, take care of yourself and do not cause any more trouble. When you are released, I hope you remember this lesson and always remember that you are never the best in this world. You may be backed by the Zhou family, but you still need to be aware that there are still many powerful people in the world. In the eyes of such people, we are no different from ants. If we provoke them, we will be left with no way out."

For example, this matter involving Zhou Wei. The other party merely raised their hands, and the Zhou family was almost wiped out. They would no longer be able to show their face in Beijing anymore!

The efforts of several generations went down the drain so easily!

Zhou Wei had caused so much trouble this time!

He now suspected that Qiao Nian might be connected to the Red Alliance in some way!

It wouldn't have been so bad if she went after someone else. She just had to go after Qiao Nian.

Zhou Hengfeng took a deep breath and put his hand gently on her shoulder. He faced the dumbfounded girl and spoke with a gentle yet cruel tone. "Treat this as a lesson. Think about this matter carefully when you go to prison. After you understand your mistakes, you will be able to live a decent life when you are released. But if you are still unrepentant, I won't be able to help you."

Zhou Wei looked at him in panic and fear as tears fell down her face. She whimpered and collapsed on the ground, no longer able to hold in her emotions, and burst into tears.

Fifteen years.

She would have to be locked up for fifteen years.

This lesson cost her too much!

She made a very serious mistake this time!

After Zhou Wei was sentenced to fifteen years in prison, there was a small wave of discussion in Beijing. However, after a while, there was no mention of this case again.

Due to this incident, the Zhou family lost all their power.

Although Qin Si looked amiable, he was unforgiving. After knowing what the Zhou family did, he caused trouble for them. With his status, he had no shortage of lackeys to help him spread information and to take care of the Zhou family.

In just half a month, the Zhou family had lost several hundred million yuan.

It was dozens of times more than the five million that Zhou Hengfeng offered to Qiao Nian as compensation previously. Even after losing so much money, the troubles faced by the Zhou family did not end.

Ye Wangchuan was determined to destroy them!

In Beijing, Qiao Chen heard about Zhou Wei's imprisonment. She overheard the conversation between Wei Ling and Shen Jingyan, but she did not take it to heart.

She had been busy recently attending major international music events with Steven, so she didn't keep up with the news.

She had only heard about this matter after returning from abroad.
