

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 837

That was the reply she gave when he had asked her how much did she think she would score in the College Entrance Examination.

She said that she was aiming for 750 points. Was this the normal score people would dare to expect for the College Entrance Examination?

If anyone else said that, they would have to be prepared to be embarrassed.

However, this was Qiao Nian. She really had the qualifications to aim for 750 points.

Qin Si opened another message he had sent to Ye Wangchuan five minutes ago. He had also asked him how much he thought Qiao Nian would score in the examination.

Master Wang had also replied to his message two minutes ago.

[I think she will score full marks.]

Wow, this couple of big bosses was really awesome!

Seeing that he didn't reply, Zhang Yang didn't continue asking. He picked up the teacup next to him, lowered his head, and took a sip. Looking at the crowded traffic outside the window, he suddenly remembered something and brought it up. "By the way, Miss Qiao will also be participating in the College Entrance Examination this year, right?"

He was a little worried. "I wonder how prepared she is."

Qin Si raised his head and put the cell phone back on the table. He raised the corner of his mouth and said casually, "Don't worry about her. She's someone who can take first place in Qing University's joint entrance examination. This is just the College Entrance Examination. What's there to worry about?"

"That's true." Zhang Yang nodded. He then raised his head incomprehensibly and asked, "Young Master Qin, if you are not worried about Miss Qiao, why did you ask me out so early today?"

On a normal day, Qin Si would be asleep till around noon as he would have been playing games till late the night before.

However, he got up so early today. This was abnormal!

Hearing his question, Qin Si choked a little. How could he admit that he had set his alarm clock to wake him up early in the morning just so he could cheer Qiao Nian on with a message? He took a long time to think before replying, "A good day with proper planning starts in the morning. Is it not possible for me to get up early to enjoy the morning sun?"

Zhang Yang was a mischievous person. He was also a little groggy from waking up so early and did not realize Qin Si's true intention. However, after sitting in the Imperial Mansion for the past half an hour, he was finally fully awake. Hearing what Qin Si said, he knew that he had guessed right. He smiled kindly and said, "Oh, I thought that you were worried about Miss Qiao taking the College Entrance Examination, so you got up early to send her a message."

Qin Si was speechless.

After Qiao Nian replied to Qin Si's message, she went downstairs.

Jiang Li was feeling very impatient. Seeing her coming down, he breathed a sigh of relief. "You finally woke up. I thought you would be sleeping till eight."

Qiao Nian was wearing a black sweater with jeans underneath. She was also wearing a pair of black canvas shoes. Not wearing a cap, she pulled the cap of her sweater over her head, only revealing her chin. She looked beautiful and cool.

She pulled out the chair beside Jiang Li and sat down, then calmly said, "I initially planned to sleep till eight."

Jiang Li was speechless. She had originally planned to sleep till eight o'clock and then go to the examination venue directly?

This was the College Entrance Examination. Was she really not nervous at all?

Qiao Nian was really not nervous. Her beautiful eyes narrowed drowsily, and her expression was dry. Her legs were straight and long. After sitting down, she picked up a loaf of bread and ate it slowly.

Ye Wangchuan had also finished replying to Qin Si's message. He put his cell phone down and walked over, put a glass of warm milk in front of the girl, and spoke in a low and sexy voice. "You should drink milk in the morning. You won't get so sleepy that way."

Qiao Nian raised her eyes and glanced at him slowly. It was as if she was thinking about the relationship between milk and drowsiness. However, she obediently picked up the mug and lowered her head to drink a little bit of the milk.
