

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 838

After breakfast, Ye Wangchuan drove Qiao Nian to the examination venue.

There were checkpoints around the examination venue. All vehicles were prohibited from entering the premises except for the school buses from the various schools.

Although Ye Wangchuan had permission to drive in, there was no need.

The black car stopped outside the examination room. Qiao Nian pulled down the brim of her cap and opened the door, then said to the man in the driver's seat, "I will be going now." Just as she was about to leave, someone suddenly grabbed her wrist.

Qiao Nian turned her head and looked at him with her beautiful eyes.

Under her gaze, the corners of Ye Wangchuan's mouth raised slightly. His face was very eye-catching and beautiful, and his voice was low as he said, "I will be waiting for you outside. Let's go for a meal after the examination."

"Hmm." Since Qiao Nian's hand was being held down by him, she used her other hand to pull down the brim of her cap. She pursed her lips and said, "Liang Bowen and the others are taking the examination together with me. We have already agreed to have lunch together after the examination."

There were four test centers set up in Rao City. Each of the test centers was situated in different schools.

The Class A students were scattered among the four test centers. Coincidentally, Liang Bowen and Shen Qingqing were in the same test center as her.

As soon as the location of the examination venue was determined, Liang Bowen had suggested having lunch together. He also suggested they compare answers meanwhile.

She had already agreed.

Ye Wangchuan only asked her out now. It was a little late.

If this was someone else, they would have just left it as it was. However, this was Young Master Ye from Beijing. Hearing that, he just raised his eyebrows slightly and said calmly, "You're going to have lunch with your classmates? How many?"

"About four or five."

Ye Wangchuan curled his lips casually and let go of her wrist. He then put his hand on the steering wheel and said, "Luckily, this car can fit you all, so let's go eat together. I will make a reservation and wait for your examination to end."

Qiao Nian initially had no plans to eat with him. However, hearing that, she thought for a while before agreeing.

“In that case, let’s go to the Waterside Loft. I haven’t gone there in a long time.”

“Okay. I will leave the decision to you.” After he finished speaking, he looked at Qiao Nian with deep eyes. His eyes were as deep as the vast ocean, and they seemed like they could suck people in. With a smile, he said, “Dear examinee, do not forget that you owe me an answer after the College Entrance Examination.”

He had been waiting for an answer for more than half a month, and he was feeling very anxious.

If this was another person or another matter altogether, he wouldn’t have waited so long.

However, this was Qiao Nian. He forced himself to endure the wait.

Qiao Nian looked at him speechlessly and wondered if it was appropriate for him to tell her this outside the examination room. She wondered if he wasn’t afraid that she might be affected.

However, she still raised her hand and lifted her cap. It showed off her chin beautifully. He took this as acknowledgment. She turned around and walked away angrily without turning back.

The first test of the College Entrance Examination was Chinese, followed by Math, then English, and finally Liberal Arts.

After the first test, Liang Bowen and the others seemed to have done poorly.

They all compared answers with each other and seemed to have gotten many wrong answers. After the Math examination, there was even more complaining in the WeChat group. Many people were saying that they didn’t even attempt to answer the last question.

Jiang Tingting and several others even posted emoticons of death.

Followed by that were the English and Liberal Arts tests. After the two-day-long College Entrance Examination, there were several trending searches on Weibo. The topics ranged from the composition questions in the College Entrance Examination to the difficulty of the Math questions. There were searches on the various paragraphs in the College Entrance Examination. These searches continued to occupy the trending searches on Weibo.

The last examination was the Liberal Arts test.

After the papers were distributed, Qiao Nian took a look at the questions. It was not as hard as the paper from the joint entrance examination, but it was slightly harder than the practice papers they had done.

She took out a black pen from her pencil case and turned to the back of the paper. She started answering the last question.