

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 846

The principal's throat was tight.

He didn't believe it.

They had a trump card this year. Their original plan was for her to become the nation's top scholar. Shen Hui's reaction was not right.

Shen Hui was still wearing her professional suit. Her hair was combed neatly behind her, making her look a little fierce and unreasonable. However, those who were familiar with her knew that she was only responsible for her strict work.

Seeing Principal Yu walking over, she looked up and said in a low voice, sounding like she was in a bad mood, "I checked a few people. Among the few people I found, Chen Yuan scored the best. He got 712 points, followed by Liang Bowen's 703 points." When the few form teachers saw that her expression was very bad, they thought it was because her class did not do well. Who knew that two people in Class A scored above 700?

Above 700 points meant that they could enter the top 50 in the province.

With Chen Yuan's results, he might even be able to reach the top 10 in the province.

Shen Hui continued, "Then, there's Shen Qingqing and Ren Lulu. They both scored around 680... These results are pretty good."

The form teacher of Class C was on good terms with her. Previously, when Qiao Nian went to Beijing to take the exam, she had come to her office to take a leave. The form teacher of Class C had even sent Qiao Nian a set of composition materials. Hearing this, his kind face revealed a puzzled expression. He looked at Shen Hui and said, "Didn't they do well? Teacher Shen, why do you still have an expression as if the sky has collapsed? I thought that your class had also been wiped out. You scared me!"

If his class had a student with more than 700 marks, he would probably be so happy that he would jump up on the spot.

He would offer incense to his ancestors in relief.

Two students in Shen Hui's class scored above 700, and a few scored around 680. This result was enough to dominate all the schools in town. Why was she reacting as if they had screwed up the exam? Shen Hui looked at him and took off her gold-rimmed glasses. She pinched the bridge of her nose and said with a headache, "I checked Qiao Nian's results."

Principal Yu became nervous. "How many marks did Qiao Nian get?"

Shen Hui pursed her lips and hesitated for a long time. Then, she glanced at everyone's faces and said with difficulty, "0."

“...” Be it the head teachers, Principal Yu, or the dean, they were all stunned and couldn’t react for a moment.

Shen Hui continued in a low voice, “I checked her score. The others are out, but when I checked her score, it was 0.”

She had never encountered such a situation in all her years as a teacher.

Qiao Nian’s current results were 0 marks-0 marks for Language, 0 for Mathematics, 0 for English, and 0 for Science.

The row of zeros was arranged neatly.

It was a blur to her.

Shen Hui was worried and felt that it was impossible. She turned to ask Principal Yu, “Principal, has Qiao Nian taken the exam?”

Principal Yu didn’t know what was going on, either. Qiao Nian scored 0? This was too... unexpected!

He shook his head, his expression similar to Shen Hui’s. Two students scored more than 700 in First High School, but he couldn’t smile. “She did, right? It’s impossible that she didn’t go. She said she wanted to participate, there’s no need to lie to me.’

Shen Hui fell silent.

Looking at the results on the screen, she was even more confused about the current situation.

Many people paid attention to Qiao Nian’s participation in the college entrance examination.

Other than the people in Class A paying attention, there were also some people waiting to see her results, such as Shen Qiongzhi, Qiao Chen, and others.

Many people in Beijing were also waiting to see the results.

The admission ticket for the college entrance examination was different from the one for the Qing University’s College Entrance Examination. It was not very confidential and could be easily obtained. Qiao Nian was a famous person in First High School. Her admission ticket number had long been hung on the school forum.
