

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 861

The new message came in half an hour ago. Qiao Chen's blood turned cold as she looked down.

[I've been following you for so long. I didn't expect you to be such a person. You disappoint me.]

[I'm off. Bye.]

In the past, she wouldn't have cared about the words of a fan on the Internet. She had never thought of developing herself into a celebrity.

Ever since she came to Beijing with Wei Ling and successfully entered Qing University, she only wanted to enter the upper circle of Beijing. She rarely updated her social media account. She only logged in occasionally to update one or two pictures and to post introspective, uplifting messages.

She didn't expect her account to become so popular one day.

It was high-profile in a way that she did not want!

Qiao Chen didn't look at the other posts that mentioned her, nor at the private messages directed towards her. From the corner of her eye, she saw the hot topic list and directly clicked on it.

There were only two posts.

One was reposting Xue Ziang's Weibo, mentioning @Jiang Li, saying that he was her brother.

Then, it was a new post from an hour and a half ago. This time, it was forwarded to the official verified account of the International Piano Association. The style was as simple and clear as ever.

[Zhui Guang: @Qiao Chen, are my things useful?]

She read the words one by one, and her vision darkened. She forced herself not to fall into the abyss of despair.

The comments below were unsightly.

They were all criticizing her.

Qiao Chen was mentally fragile and did not have the courage to look at them one by one. She couldn't stand just looking at two lines. The arrangement in the photo that Steven had posted online had been circled by a red pen. There was irrefutable evidence. She couldn't deny it.

Qiao Chen stared at the arrangement. No matter how she thought about it, she couldn't understand why she would be unlucky after Jiang Xianrou did the same and turned out fine!

She bit her lip indignantly. She felt that she had been extremely unlucky ever since Qiao Nian returned to the family. It was the same for this college entrance examination, and also for Zhui Guang's targeted post at her.

But she couldn't fall like this.

She was indignant! Qiao Chen stared at the waves of scolding on the Internet and bit her lips. She composed a new Weibo post and sent it out.

At the villa.

Qiao Nian had just finished a game with Qin Si, Zhang Yang, and the others when her cell phone rang

She exited the game and looked at the notifications.

When her college entrance examination results were out, the class group chat was in an uproar. Everyone was discussing what to eat tonight. Other than that, there were a few other notifications and messages.

Qiao Nian didn't look at them. Her eyes were lowered as she mainly looked at the new notification on Weibo. Her cold gaze swept across the Weibo page.

Then, she laughed.

Her aura had always been a restrained wildness. When her eyes moved, she gave people the feeling that she was a bandit. She was usually more low-key and nonchalant as if she was not interested in anything.

At this moment, she crossed her legs and curled up on the sofa. She lowered her head and played with her phone. Suddenly, she smiled. Jiang Li felt that he could see the vitality of someone her age.

"What's wrong, Nian Nian? You're not playing games anymore?"

He leaned over and looked at her cell phone. He instantly cursed. "Damn, this Qiao Chen is so shameless. She still has the cheek to post on Weibo."

Gu San also leaned over to take a look.

After doing so, his expression turned indescribable. He felt that Jiang Li was right. How shameless.

Qiao Nian didn't have as intense a reaction as them. Her lips curled into a playful smile as she stared at Qiao Chen's new Weibo post.

She clicked her tongue and sneered. "She really won't shed tears until she sees an impending death."
