

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 904

“That’s right. Sister Qiao, you shouldn’t be staying at a four-star hotel. You should at least stay at Four Seasons Hotel. Why haven’t I heard that the Jiang family was so lacking in money?”

Qin Si placed his hand on the back of his head and interrupted in a teasing tone. As he spoke, he glanced at Tang Wanru. He didn’t appear to be targeting Tang Wanru, but his words were filled with mockery. If he was not targeting Tang Wanru, who was he targeting?

Tang Wanru couldn’t hold her expression anymore. She held it in and tried to defend herself. “It’s not about the money. It’s just that the hotel is close to home and it’s convenient for us to take care of Qiao Nian...”

Qin Si and the others did not leave, and Zhang Yang went along with it. He was extremely tactful and refused to offend others easily, not to mention that Tang Wanru was Jiang Xianrou’s mother.

Normally, even if he encountered such a situation, he would pretend to be deaf and dumb behind her and not see it. This time, his attitude was very clear. He smiled and continued, “Madam Jiang, I remember that there is another hotel not far from the Jiang family’s old residence. It’s that... Waldorf.

“I’m afraid you don’t usually stay in a hotel, so you might not have noticed that place. It’s not far from the hotel you mentioned...”

How could Tang Wanru not have noticed a five-star hotel from the commercial hotel she was talking about?

Zhang Yang’s words sounded so casual but powerful!

Qin Si laughed when he heard that and immediately said, “That’s right. If she’s staying in a hotel, then let it be Four Seasons. Otherwise, it’ll have to be Waldorf or Hyatt. Don’t come up with all sorts of commercial hotels. It’s so disgusting.”

The most ordinary room in the Four Seasons Hotel in Beijing was at least 50,000 yuan a night, let alone a better room!

That was not a place that ordinary people could live in!

As for the Waldorf Hotel that Zhang Yang mentioned, it was not cheap either. It wasn’t 50,000 a night, but at least a five-figure sum.

Of course, the prices of the rooms listed on the hotel’s official website were generally between 7,000 and 8,000 yuan. However, one would be naive if they thought that the prices were accurate.

If one booked it online, there was a high chance that the customer service would say that there was no room available.

If anyone really wanted to book a room in these few hotels, they would have to call them. Only those who had some connections could stay there.

“Commercial hotels are indeed lacking,” Zhang Yang added.

Tang Wanru’s face reddened. She knew that the two of them were mocking her, but she couldn’t refute them.

What could she say? Use the excuse that the hotel was close to home again?

Zhang Yang had already said that there was a Waldorf beside that commercial hotel, just a street away. If she said that, wouldn’t she be slapping herself in the face?!

Tang Wanru stood there in a daze. It was as if there were nails under her feet. The scene was so embarrassing that she wanted to throw her arms up and leave. However, among the large group of people she was facing, which one of them was someone she could throw a tantrum at? If this matter was blown up, it would only make her even more embarrassed!

Therefore, although she could no longer squeeze out an appropriate expression, she had no choice but to stand stiffly on the spot and get beaten up.

“Then book a room at Waldorf. I’ll call the hotel later...”

Jiang Zongnan really did not notice the hotels near his house. He really thought that it was as Tang Wanru had said, that there was only a four-star commercial hotel close to his house.

Although he knew that they had been exposed by Zhang Yang on the spot, and his usually calm and gentle face was also a little embarrassed, he responded much better than Tang Wanru. He immediately changed his stance and looked at Qiao Nian gently. “Nian Nian, do you have a hotel booked yet? If not, we’ll book a room at this hotel and stay for the night first. We’ll talk about it when your grandfather wakes up, alright?”
