

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 932

“Who is this Qiao Nian? I haven’t heard of her name before. Why did she suddenly appear in the top ten? Isn’t she from Qing University’s Chinese Medicine Faculty?”

“She’s the national college entrance examination top scorer this year. I... never thought that she would come in last place. However, she hasn’t even entered college yet. It’s too exciting for her to enter the top ten in the first round of the medical competition!”

The discussion in the stadium gradually became louder.

On the stage, the girl was writing the questions casually. Everything around her seemed to have nothing to do with her and couldn’t arouse her interest at all.

She had already done more than half the questions on the paper. The computer displayed her correct rate of 100%.

This terrifying number wouldn’t be displayed on the big screen, but Qiao Nian could see it herself. She didn’t care and continued to look at the next question.

Reading and answering the questions, her cold jawline was smooth and heroic. Her movements were slow and calm as if it did not matter if a few hundred people were looking at her. It was as if she was doing homework at home. She displayed no signs of nervousness or anxiety...

The camera gave the girl a close-up.

The girl seemed to sense the camera that was aimed at her face again. This time, she didn’t look up but lowered the brim of her hat impatiently.

Annoying.

...

6th place: Qiao Nian, Qing University’s Chinese Medicine Faculty, 43 points.

It was refreshed again.

3rd place: Qiao Nian, Qing University’s Chinese Medicine Faculty, 46 points.

In the blink of an eye, after two refreshments, Qiao Nian’s name was already behind Jiang Xianrou.

Jiang Xianrou was now in second place with 48 points. She only had two more points than Qiao Nian. It was almost certain that Qiao Nian would surpass her.

Liang Lu’s mouth fell open as she watched the sudden change. Unable to come back to her senses, she subconsciously said, “Could Qiao Nian’s results be wrong? We have to check backstage...”

However, no one paid attention to her.

The Medical Association had placed its hopes on Jiang Xianrou this year, hoping that she could suppress the spirit of the overseas representative.

In the end, Jiang Xianrou was suppressed by Qi Lanyin in the first round, let alone the second round.

As for the third round, it was just a formality. The final 10 points wouldn't be given too little by the judges. It was only 1-2-3 points, so the difference was negligible.

Qiao Nian was like a dark horse as she fought her way out of the siege. She clearly had the capital to compete with Qi Lanyin. Who would listen to her and find trouble with their own people?

Jiang Xianrou only had the last question left. She had already been stuck on that question for ten minutes. It was knowledge related to the Orthopedics section, and she was the weakest in this area. She didn't know how to write at all and had no way of solving the question. However, she didn't dare to write or give up. Otherwise, the gap between her and Qi Lanyin would only widen...

Frustrated, she took the time to watch the rankings refresh every time.

Seeing that Qiao Nian was already one point below her and that the difference between their scores was only 2 points, she was stunned for a second.

Coincidentally, the system backstage refreshed the results again.

1st place: Qi Lanyin, overseas participant, 57 points.

2nd place: Qiao Nian, Qing University's Chinese Medicine Faculty, 56 points.

3rd place: Jiang Xianrou...

The entire venue was in an uproar.

"Damn, what's going on? No one told me I was watching a medical competition. I thought I was watching a LOL game."

"Qiao Nian is only 1 point away from the overseas medical representative. On the other hand, Jiang Xianrou is 8 points behind. That means that Qiao Nian got 10 points in three minutes! This... has never happened since the start of the medical competition."
