

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 938

"..." Ye Wangchuan's eyes darkened and he did not probe further.

He was just curious if Master Carlos and Qi Lanyin would go crazy from anger when they heard Qiao Nian's answer.

Qiao Nian and the others went to eat hot pot.

Without one of the protagonists at the Medical Association's celebration party, they still booked a banquet hall in the Imperial Mansion. Everyone from the Medical Association went.

Some of the participating students also went.

Compared to the others' joyful mood, Liang Lu's expression had never been good. She sat at the main table and did not speak much. She only drank water and watched coldly as Shen Yugui was surrounded by many people as they toasted.

In the past, other than Mr. Huang, who had an extraordinary status, no one else had any interest in the Chinese Medicine Faculty. This year, with the appearance of Qiao Nian, this dark horse, the Chinese Medicine Faculty became the protagonist of the banquet. Even Shen Yugui was surrounded by a large group of people.

Most of them were asking about Qiao Nian's news.

"Professor Shen, there's a treasure in your Chinese Medicine Faculty this year. Did Qiao Nian learn medicine in the past?" The person who spoke was Tian Shiyi, a professor from Nanjing University's medical department. He was also one of the members of the Medical Association. He usually had a good relationship with Liang Lu and was also from the Clinical Department. He specialized in the heart.

As soon as he spoke, a few people followed suit and asked curiously, "Yes, Professor Shen. What's the situation with this freshman in your school? Tell us. Did she learn systematically long ago? Otherwise, why would she know so much medical knowledge?"

"Er..." Shen Yugui felt quite uncomfortable being surrounded in the middle. Furthermore, he had been forced to drink two glasses of wine. His face was red. Hearing this, he looked embarrassed and helpless. "I... don't know."

"Professor Shen, there's no need to hide it. Even if you don't say anything, we can roughly guess the situation. It's a little unkind of you to say that you don't know, just to patronize everyone." Tian Shiyi restrained his smile, and his gaze darkened. He couldn't hide his envy and jealousy.

Such a genius student actually did not come to their university. If he had gotten her, he was confident that he could bring out a student more outstanding than Qi Lanyin.

Unfortunately, where did such a good seedling go to? The Chinese Medicine Faculty.

“Don’t tell me you’re afraid that we’ll poach her?” he said sourly and half-jokingly.

As an upright person, Shen Yugui had always been a little rigid in his actions. He pursed his lips and looked into his eyes seriously. “I really don’t know. If you’re curious, you can ask yourself.”

Tian Shiyi was a little embarrassed by his words. He said awkwardly, “I was just saying, and you took it seriously... It was just a joke. Didn’t I see your Chinese Medicine Faculty get first place this year? Can’t I be envious?”

“It’s not that you can’t. I just feel that it’s her private matter. She got first place because of domestic medicine. If Professor Tian wants to be sour, there’s no need!”

These words were really ruthless. Tian Shiyi’s face turned red. He held the white wine cup and couldn’t open his mouth for a long time. He finished the wine aggrievedly and turned his head to the side. He said angrily, “Hehe, she really got first place. Can’t you even joke?!”

When everyone saw that the atmosphere was a little tense, they tried to smooth things over.

Someone happened to be looking at his phone. No one knew what he saw, but he was stunned for a moment. He didn’t care about the stiff atmosphere between Shen Yugui and Tian Shiyi. He held his phone and leaned in front of Shen Yugui, asking, “Professor Shen, is that freshman from your faculty also using Instagram?”
