

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 969

However, the lady did not give her any face. She smiled again and admired her ugly expression, then said softly, "Oh, looking at Chairman Yuan's assistant's attitude, I'm afraid you won't have a 'next time'.

"Having a brain is a good thing. It's better to take your brain with you when you mingle around in the Beijing circles. Otherwise, it won't be good if you accidentally kick an iron plate and your leg breaks!"

Initially, Tian Siqi only felt embarrassed and couldn't maintain her dignity. Now that she heard this, her mentality had gone from being embarrassed to being afraid.

Her fingers trembled as she clenched her fists. Her lips were pale as she bit them. She frowned, not knowing what she had done wrong.

That girl looked so ordinary!

She was dressed cheaply too. There wasn't a single label on her clothes. She looked like an ordinary high school student from a small town. She was at most a first-year university student. She really did not understand how she had accidentally kicked an iron plate!

"Miss Qiao, why didn't you tell me you were here? If I had known, I would have gone out to pick you up." Su Mo didn't tell Qiao Nian what he had heard from behind.

He mainly felt that people like Tian Siqi were not worth mentioning before Qiao Nian.

It was already not bad that someone from the Yuan family of Beijing had given her, a mistress, a ticket for this show. Yet, she still slandered Qiao Nian behind her back. What a joke.

It was also because Chairman Yuan was not here that she didn't hear Tian Siqi implying that Qiao Nian was a kept woman. If she had heard it, she might have asked the security guards to send her out on the spot and called the Yuan family to come and get her...

Su Mo's eyes narrowed. He looked gentle, but there was a glint in his eyes.

Of course, he would definitely report this to Chairman Yuan later. He just didn't know if the Yuan family would be so angry that they would have cerebral thrombosis after a conflict around Tian Siqi. They might settle scores with Tian Siqi and whoever backed her up!

However, he did not care about this.

Su Mo stared at the girl in front of him and felt some pity for her. He said softly, "Chairman Yuan doesn't know you're here yet. Do you want me to tell her?"

Three days ago, they had sent a message to Qiao Nian about the big show. Yuan Yongqin had even called her, but Qiao Nian had rejected it. She didn't want to come.

Qiao Nian rubbed her temples. She didn't expect to bump into Su Mo before the show started. She raised her hand and rubbed her eyebrows, then said impatiently, "I accompanied an elder here to watch the show. I didn't have time to tell you and Aunt Yuan because the decision was made on the spot."

"An elder?"

"She went outside to make a call."

"...I see." Su Mo was quite surprised that any elder would have the honor of getting this big shot to accompany them to watch the show. However, he did not dwell on this matter. Seeing the girl sitting there boldly, he hesitated for a moment and tried to say, "Miss Qiao... that..."

Qiao Nian looked up at him with her beautiful black eyes. "Mm?"

Su Mo was usually decisive and capable in his work, but when he met this person, he would always have to think thrice before he dared to say anything.

He narrowed his eyes and thought about it before suggesting, "Miss Qiao, since you're here, do you want to go on stage for a formality?"

No one in Beijing knew that Cheng Feng Corporation's star designer, S, was an 18-year-old girl who had just arrived in Beijing this year. She had been living in Rao City previously.

If Qiao Nian was willing to go on stage and show her face, there would be fewer people like Tian Siqi in Beijing in the future.
