

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 984

“Chen Chen, when you go overseas, you have to study hard and follow your teacher around more. Although your teacher isn’t as good as Master Nie, he has a high status in the foreign music world. It’s clear that he still values you as a student since he’s willing to help you get into Curtis Institute of Music.”

Qiao Chen nodded obediently. She looked gentle and obedient but was a little distracted at this moment. She held her cell phone tightly and looked out of the car window from time to time. Only when she saw the scenery speeding by on both sides did she calm down.

Wei Ling was also in the car. When she saw her, she had a stern expression on her face, but her attitude was much better than before. After all, she did not expect Steven to be willing to get Qiao Chen to study in such a prestigious music academy. Qiao Chen had already been mostly crippled, but now, it was hard to say. Her attitude naturally could not be as cold as before. “Have you settled the withdrawal procedures for Qing University?”

Qiao Chen was originally looking at the scenery outside the car window. Hearing this, she turned around and smiled, concealing her confidence. “It’s done.”

“Mm.” Wei Ling took her platinum bag, opened it, and took out a wallet. She took out a stack of cash and handed it to her. “Take this cash first.”

She also took out a bank card from her wallet and said calmly, “In addition, your uncle and I have prepared a card for you. There’s some money in it, enough for you to live overseas for a period of time. In the future, we will regularly transfer money to this card.”

Qiao Chen indeed needed money. Going abroad was different from being in China. She definitely needed money everywhere. To enter the high society overseas, she also needed money and packaging. Hence, she did not stand on ceremony with Wei Ling. After rejecting her hypocritically, she accepted the cash and bank card that Wei Ling gave her.

Seeing her accept the money, Shen Jingyan’s brows relaxed and a rare smile appeared on his lips. He said in a good mood, “Your luck this time is not bad. Go abroad and learn well. You still have a chance in the future!”

Shen Jingyan did not say what chances there were in the future, but everyone in the car was smart. Whether it was Wei Ling or Qiao Chen, they both understood what he meant.

Qiao Nian was like a huge mountain pressing on their heads right now.

There was naturally no need for Qiao Chen to say anything.

She had been unlucky recently.

Back then, Shen Jingyan and Wei Ling had chosen to invest in her. But Qiao Chen was firmly suppressed by Qiao Nian, so how could they feel good?

Qiao Chen being able to turn the tables meant that they could also hold their heads high.

“I know.” Qiao Chen pinched the bank card they had prepared for her. She looked obedient, gentle, and peaceful. “I won’t disappoint Uncle and Aunt!”

If Qiao Nian thought that their country was all there was to the world, she was wrong. In the country, the Ye family was the top family in the pyramid, but there was also a whole other world overseas. The forces outside were complicated. Besides, there was also a place called the Illegal Area. The Ye family was the most powerful existence in Beijing, and perhaps not even a fart in the Illegal Area!

And she had more opportunities to interact with those higher levels than Qiao Nian!

Qiao Chen was still thinking about her beautiful future.

Shen Jingyan and Wei Ling also changed their cold and disdainful attitude from before and kept asking her about her future overseas.

Shen Jingyan even gave her a few overseas cell phone numbers, telling her that she could look for those people if she needed anything.

It could be seen that these people should be the Shen family’s connections overseas.

Qiao Chen carefully put away the note that Shen Jingyan gave her, not forgetting to take periodic glances at her phone.

The news that the college entrance examination top scorer might have been kidnapped at the age of 11 was spreading especially quickly. Many people were already discussing it.
