

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 986

Lan Pavilion.

When Qiao Nian received the second message from Liang Bowen, she had just finished talking to Ye Lan and was about to leave when she walked out of the pavilion and received a WeChat message from Liang Bowen.

She pulled up her cap, her white T-shirt giving her a wild and evil aura. Qiao Nian had one hand in her pocket and the other she used to take out her phone. She lowered her head casually and tapped on Liang Bowen's message.

It was a few screenshots.

It was all the discussions online.

Qiao Nian only glanced at it once and did not look at it again.

She placed her phone in her pocket and looked up to see the red flag car by the road, as well as the man and Gu San, who was talking on the phone beside the black car.

Why was Ye Wangchuan here?

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows in surprise and walked to the road.

"Yes... well done. Let them call the police. Don't stop them." The man's tone was relaxed and low, like a clear spring.

Seeing Qiao Nian coming over, Gu San's eyes flashed and he quickly greeted, "Miss Qiao, why are you out so soon? Is the show over?"

"No." There was nothing strange on Qiao Nian's face. The ends of her eyes were loose and wild. She placed her hand in her pocket and said, "I have something on, so I came out early."

"..." Gu San did not ask her anything. After all, he had seen the news online first. It said that Miss Qiao had been kidnapped before. The news even said that Miss Qiao had been kidnapped for more than a year and had returned by herself.

What had an 11-year-old girl experienced in that year? There were all kinds of speculations online.

He was silent for a moment, not knowing how to comfort her.

Ye Wangchuan had already finished his call and placed his phone down. Seeing the girl come out, his expression was calm, but his eyes were deep and dark. "Where are you going?"

Qiao Nian did not stand on ceremony and said simply, "Find someone."

Ye Wangchuan and Gu San had appeared outside Lan Pavilion at this time to wait for her. It was obvious that they had already seen the news online.

There was no need for her to hide it.

However, she did not want to talk about the kidnapping in detail for now.

“Oh.” As if he knew that she did not want to tell him, Ye Wangchuan opened the door for her. Without asking, he said, “I’ll send you to the city hospital.”

Silence.

Qiao Nian was in a daze for a moment. She raised her attractive and exquisite face under the brim of her cap. Surprise was written all over her face, but she felt that she was not that surprised.

She didn’t seem to have said who she was looking for.

In the hospital in Beijing, Qiao Chen had just been pushed out of the operating room by a nurse. Her face was pale, and her eyes were tightly closed. Tears had accumulated in the corner of her eyes. It was unknown if she was awake or if the anesthesia had not passed.

“Chen Chen...”

Outside the operating room, Shen Jingyan and Wei Ling were guarding outside. Finally, the door to the emergency room opened and someone pushed Qiao Chen out. Shen Jingyan stubbed out his cigarette and stood up. He shouted and walked forward quickly.

Before he could approach, the nurse advised in a low voice, “Family member, this is the hospital. Please don’t make a fuss. We’ll send the patient to the ward first. She needs to rest.”

Wei Ling walked over from behind and pulled the man’s arm to comfort him. “Don’t be anxious. It’s useless to be anxious now. Chen Chen might not know the inside story. Let’s ask the doctor about her first.”

She sounded calm, but she was actually afraid.

She had been born into a prestigious family and had the Wei family backing her. Although she couldn’t do as she pleased in Beijing, at least she had not encountered such a thing before. They had sent Qiao Chen to the capital’s airport properly and had been forcefully bumped by a Buick on the way. Not only had they stopped their car, but that group of people had even dragged Qiao Chen out of the car in the middle of the day and broke her hands in front of her and Shen Jingyan!
