

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 987

How arrogant was this behavior?!

More arrogantly, they left without any fear after doing all of this.

If the Shen family's driver had not reacted quickly and called the ambulance, Qiao Chen would probably still be rolling on the road in pain.

Wei Ling's expression turned cold.

Other than fear, she was also furious.

No matter what happened to Qiao Chen, she and Shen Jingyan were still around. If they treated Qiao Chen like this in front of them, they were undoubtedly trampling on their faces!

If they weren't caught and imprisoned this time, they would probably become the laughing stock of Beijing.

However...

Wei Ling suppressed her anger and tightened her grip on her bag. Her expression was ugly, and her eyes flashed.

She remembered that the burly man who had dragged Qiao Chen out had said, "Master Wang wants one of her hands."

In Beijing, there was only one person who could be called Master Wang—Ye Wangchuan.

When Wei Ling thought of this name, her temples twitched non-stop. She didn't dare to mention this to Shen Jingyan at all.

They sent Qiao Chen to the ward, and the doctor who operated on her happened to come over with the medical record.

Shen Jingyan strode over and stopped him. He asked in a deep voice, "Doctor, my niece..."

The doctor was flipping through the medical records when he heard this. He stopped in his tracks and looked at him. "Are you Qiao Chen's family member?"

"I'm her uncle." Shen Jingyan's voice was still very deep, and the doctor could feel his suppressed frustration.

"The patient's condition is fine. I've already helped her reconnect her injured bones. As long as she recovers well in the future, her daily life will be fine."

Hearing that Qiao Chen's condition was good, Shen Jingyan's tense heart relaxed a little and he heaved a sigh of relief. "That's good."

"However, her injuries were serious. Even if she recovers well in the future, she will definitely be different from before."

Shen Jingyan's heart, which had just calmed down, rose again with the doctor's words. He suppressed his anxiety and asked nervously, "Will it affect her playing the piano?"

Qiao Chen's greatest way out in the future was to follow Steven overseas to further her music studies. If she couldn't play the piano...

"This..." The doctor looked up in surprise and noticed his ashen expression. He pushed his black-framed glasses up the bridge of his nose and said seriously, "She definitely can't play the piano with her hands. I mean, if she recovers well in the future, it won't affect her daily life. But she might not be able to do more delicate things!"

"How could that be?" Shen Jingyan gasped. His mind went blank for a moment. After saying this, he couldn't say anything for a long time.

He wanted to say that if Qiao Chen could not play the piano, it would be no different from being crippled!

However, in front of the doctor, his throat trembled, and he couldn't say it.

Wei Ling's expression was also extremely ugly. She closed her eyes and only had one thought in her mind—Qiao Chen was crippled!

Back then, they had chosen Qiao Chen over Qiao Nian. Now that Qiao Chen had fallen into this state... She couldn't speak either and her feelings were extremely complicated.

The doctor didn't care about them and roughly told them about Qiao Chen's condition. He didn't care if they could listen to him or not and went about his duties. Before he left, he only told them that they could look for the nurses on duty.

Ever since Shen Jingyan heard that Qiao Chen couldn't play the piano anymore, he didn't listen to a single word. How could he still process anything about her recovery from the surgery? The veins on his forehead bulged. He endured the torrential anger and hammered the wall. "Who did this?!"
