

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 499

Chapter 499

Adina narrowed her eyes. She lifted her leg and kicked up the steel pipe from the ground before she held it with her hand and used it as a weapon.

She thought that Earley's subordinates had come over. When she saw the two kids who appeared at the entrance of the warehouse, she instantly sighed in relief.

Then, her indifferent face looked stern. "Why are the two of you here?"

"Mommy, I'm glad that you're fine!" Alden immediately rushed over and held Adina's waist tightly.

His slightly mature face was full of worries and thankfulness.

Adina's heart melted. "Alden, I'm fine. Nothing will happen to me. Don't worry."

Alden held her tightly, and he gloomily remained silent.

George walked over, pursed his pink lips, and said softly, "Alden felt something happened to you and Dad, so he found out your location. Luckily, nothing serious happened."

do this again. The two of you are just kids. How could you run out of the house in the middle of the night? I know you're smart, but no matter how smart you are, you can only manage so much against vicious adults."

Ho

Alden schooled his expression. He raised his head and said, "Mom, we didn't come out alone. We brought a few bodyguards." When Adina looked over, she indeed saw four tall and muscular bodyguards standing beside the car. "Is... Dad alright?"

George looked at Duke, who was unconscious, and he asked softly. Adina felt grateful for a moment. These two kids did not forget their own dad.

She said in a seemingly relaxing tone, "Your dad is just slightly injured. It's no big deal. Georgie, ask the bodyguards to come over and help bring your dad into the car."

The four bodyguards walked in from outside the warehouse, carefully carrying Duke while walking outside.

When Adina walked to the entrance, she stopped walking and cast a glance at the back.

now.

She hesitated for less than a second before she coldly said, "The two of you, go to the room at the southwest. There is an unconscious man there. Tie him up and take him back with us."

The two bodyguards immediately went over and looked for the person after they received the order. Three minutes later, the bodyguards came back. "Miss Daugherty, there is no one in the room."

Adina frowned.

It looked like Earley had already run away.

She did not know what kind of grudge this man and Duke had. The only thing that she worried about was that Earley would come back again and harm the kids.

She pursed her lips and said, "Let's go to the hospital first."

The bodyguard drove the car to the private hospital that Winters Corporation had invested in. Adina took the kids out of the car before she said softly, "Georgie, Alden, you go back to the Winters family with the bodyguards first. I'll be here with your dad in the hospital tonight."

“No!”

Alden refused without even thinking about it.

He wanted to accompany mom and protect her. He could

How could Adina not understand Alden’s thoughts? She stroked her son’s soft hair before she said softly, “Let two of the four bodyguards you brought stay to protect me, and I’ll be fine. Alden, you have to go back and take care of Mel for me. If you stay in the hospital, Mel will be lost without the both of us. Won’t she be so scared that she will cry? Alden, you’re a good boy. Go back with Georgie and accompany Mel, okay?”

Alden pursed his lips tightly, and he nodded only after a long while. “I’ll come to you tomorrow morning.”

Adina looked at George again and softly said, “Georgie , you’re the eldest brother. Can you take good care of your brothers and sister for me tonight?”

George nodded strongly. “I will, Mommy. Also, I won’t tell Mel that dad is injured. Don’t worry, Mommy.”

Adina touched her sons’ heads before she ordered the bodyguards to bring the kids back to the Winters family.

Only after the car disappeared from her sight did she allow the remaining two bodyguards to send Duke to the emergency room.

“Mr. Winters’ injuries are minor, but the back of his head has taken a rather hard hit.” The doctor held the examination report and said, “It was an armed weapon, so there is a small area of bruising on his brain. Theoretically, this bruise won’t affect him much. His body will absorb it in half a month.”

When Adina heard what the doctor said, she sighed in relief. “Does he need to be in the hospital for half a month?”

“That’s not necessary. He will just stay for three days for observation.”

Duke was pushed to the ward. When Adina saw him lying on the bed with a pale face, she felt very conflicted.

Not long ago, this man was shot by Dew in order to save Georgie, and he also laid in the hospital for a few days.

He had not recovered from his previous injury, and now he had been injured again.

She leaned on the chair beside the bed, held her forehead, and closed her eyes to rest.

George and Alden sat in the car on the way back to the Winters family.

The atmosphere in the car was dull, and only the wind outside the window could be heard. It was only after a long time before Alden spoke. “I’ve investigated Earley Wynters, but I could only learn that he is the investor of an underground biological company. All other information has been concealed. Do you know any conflict between him, dad, and mom?”

George shook his head. “I’ve never heard dad mentioning Earley’s name before.”

He took out his phone and keyed in “Earley Wynters”, but no valid information appeared. Only after he added the name “Elitos” did Earley’s photo appear. Alden immediately narrowed his eyes. “He is Earley Wynters?”

George was also stunned. “Did we meet this person in the hospital that day?”

Alden nodded.

He even remembered that there was a name on this man’s mask, which was Shura.

Shura’s profile appeared as one of the top three names in the Wanted Board on the Dark Net, and the reward had reached a terrifying eleven figures. Besides, Shura had killed people.

If Earley was Shura, then...

Alden’s expression tensed up. “Dad and Mom are getting into big trouble.”

“Why do you say so?” George frowned. “Is it hard to deal with Earley Wynters?”

George had been working for the company and did not pay attention to other matters, let alone those rumors on the Dark Net.

Alden tapped his fingers on the knee before he pursed his lips and said, "I'll tell you the details after I find out some information."

K had been involved on Dark Net, so he would know more clearly than him about Shura.

"Water..."

A hoarse voice was suddenly heard in the silent ward.

Adina opened her eyes in a daze, and she saw Duke's long lashes trembling.

She got up, poured a glass of warm water, and came over before she put it to his lips. She said softly, "Open your mouth, I'm feeding you."

Duke's lips were dry. When he touched the glass, he opened his mouth and started drinking.

He was laying down, so quite a lot of the water ran down the corners of his lips and onto the pillow.

After Adina put down the glass, she bent down and helped clean the water droplets on the pillow.

Her long and freshly scented hair fell down and brushed against Duke's face. He slowly opened his eyes.
