

Madness 456

Chapter 456

The Abandoned Child Silas' expression was turning ferocious because he felt that he had been challenged.

"How about you, Mr. Lynch?" Silas turned toward the gangster from Pollerton.

Ethan laughed out loud and replied, "I'm not giving up sh*t either!"

He didn't look nervous at all when he said that. In fact, he was picking his teeth casually. Silas could feel that something was wrong. These people are obviously working together. However, who's giving them the courage to act so brazenly? Silas kept sizing them up.

Zayne voiced. Suddenly, the atmosphere got awkward. Even Jeffery had stopped what he could finish his sentence, the sound of pool balls colliding with each other messed up on making his shot on the pool table. Why would someone still dare to play pool at this tense moment? Is he not afraid to die, or is he someone capable?

spoke, he grabbed a pool ball and ball smashed

use his strength when he struck the ball. If he had used his full strength, he could've shattered Henry's head. Silas immediately turned around and stared at Donald.

the Campbell clan. How dare you disrespect Mr. Lysle?" Not only did Donald not show Silas and Jeffery any respect, but he was also totally looking down on them. Donald calmly bent down again and uttered flatly, "Jeffery? Who is