

Chapter 1011

With that, Hannah struggled to get up and she tidied her clothes as she tried to cover up the situation.

Upon seeing this, Fade hurriedly reached out and held Hannah with his hand and stopped her. "Hannah, the needle hasn't been removed yet. Don't move, otherwise, you might get hurt."

While speaking, Fade continued to handle the silver needle with one hand, and proceeded to push Hannah down with the other.

However, he had inadvertently pressed down on Hannah's chest in the process. The both of them froze.

Just then, the door to the private room opened and several people entered.

"Hannah, we're back!"

"How are you guys doing? Still living in your own world?"

"By the way, Hannah, let me tell you something. We met Kayden and he—"

.....

The women had entered the room as they spoke amongst themselves.

At first, they couldn't adapt well to the dim lighting in the room, so they were unable to see clearly. However, as soon as they had gotten used to the lighting, they immediately realized what was happening.

19:40

They stared in shock at both Hannah and Fade.

"Hannah, y-you..."

"Isn't this too fast? Why are you guys..."

"W-we've interrupted you guys. Go on, we'll leave first."

.....

It wasn't their fault for misunderstanding the situation. Fade and Hannah's position was too suggestive.

Hannah laid on the sofa, her clothes were turned up, revealing her belly. Fade had one hand on her lower stomach, and another on her chest.

Coupled with Hannah's panting and her red cheeks, many would've misunderstood them.

Hannah's face flushed red upon hearing her friends' words. She explained in a hurry, "Heather, you guys misunderstood. We weren't doing anything, we were just..."

At that moment, Fade finally pulled out all the silver needles on Hannah's lower abdomen. He said with a sigh, "It's done, Hannah. You can move freely now."

Hannah hurriedly got up from the sofa, sorted out her messy clothes, and then quickly continued to explain. "Heather, nothing happened. Fade was treating me just now and..."

Hannah proceeded to explain what had happened just now.

Heather and the others, after listening to them, finally understood the situation. However, they continued to tease them.

19:40

"In fact, Hannah, you don't have to explain yourself. Even if you were doing that, we can understand."

"Yeah, you guys are a couple anyway. It's normal for you two to have the desire..."

"Hannah, why don't you guys go to the hotel right outside?"

...

As they continued, Hannah's face grew even redder. She quickly waved her hands in denial and changed the topic. "It's nothing like that at all. Stop talking about it."

"By the way, Heather, you were saying that you bumped into Kayden, what was it about?"

At the mention of Kayden, their focus immediately shifted. Their expressions grew uncomfortable as they glanced over at Fade a few times.

Heather started, "We went to the washroom for a touch-up, and as we were exiting, we saw Kayden so we went over and said hi."

"Yoko accidentally told him that it was your birthday today, and Kayden immediately said that he would bring a few of his friends over to celebrate."

After listening, Hannah couldn't help but frown.

Yoko immediately said, "It's all my fault. I mentioned Hannah's birthday. I can go out now and ask Kayden not to come over."

As she said that, Yoko stood up and was ready to leave.

Hannah quickly grabbed onto her and smiled. "Yoko, this has nothing to do with you. If Kayden wants to come over, then let him. It's fine. We can ask him to leave after that."

19:40

"Yeah, that's it. There's nothing going on between Hannah and Kayden anyway."

"Besides, Kayden usually has a good image, so he probably wouldn't do anything out of line."

Fade felt confused by their words.

Heather saw his expression and explained with a smile. "Fade, don't get us wrong. Actually, it's like this..."

Heather immediately started to explain.

Kayden was Hannah's senior at the university, and he was really popular in school. Not only were his results good, but he was also handsome and came from a good family. As such, he was like a Prince Charming to most girls.

Kayden had noticed Hannah during one of the school activities, and he immediately fell for her. Since then, he began to pursue Hannah.

However, Hannah was not interested in him. In fact, she had always refused him.

After Kayden graduated from school and left, the two had never contacted each other.

They didn't expect that they would come across each other at that KTV that day after so long.

Fade nodded after listening. After all, the belle of the university being pursued by the popular kid was really common and there was nothing unusual with that.

However, Heather and the others were nervous. They were worried that he would misunderstand something and continued to explain themselves.

"Fade, nothing had happened between Hannah and Kayden."

19:40

"Although Kayden had been after Hannah for several months, she always kept her distance from him, and never accepted him."

"Yeah, Fade, don't misunderstand Hannah!"

Hannah was speechless.

It was not right for Hannah to say that Fade was not her boyfriend to stop Heather and the rest from explaining further. At the same time, it was also not right to allow them to continue explaining, as it would seem like she was really Fade's girlfriend.

Hannah suddenly felt dizzy.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door of the private room. A clear voice sounded from outside, "Hi, is Hannah here? I'm Kayden."

Everyone in the private room was surprised when they heard this. Heather glanced over at Hannah and Fade before walking over to open the door.

As soon as the door was open, a tall and handsome young man who looked to be in his twenties entered with a smile.

Chapter 1012

Behind him, several foreigners followed. Everyone in the room was surprised.

"Kayden, you're here. Please come in." Heather smiled and welcomed them.

Several people came in and took the initiative to sit on the sofa.

However, when Kayden approached Hannah and was about to sit next to her, he suddenly found that beside Hannah, a young man in his twenties was already there.

Moreover, the man and Hannah were very close, almost leaning against each other. Hannah was even talking to him with a smile, and they appeared to be intimate.

Kayden's expression sank upon seeing that.

However, he quickly masked his dissatisfaction and looked at Hannah after glancing at Fade. With a smile on his face, he said, "Hannah, it's been a long time. You've gotten even prettier."

"Thank you." Hannah smiled politely.

Kayden took out a small exquisite gift, handed it to Hannah, and said, "Hannah, I didn't expect you to be here today for your birthday. I didn't manage to prepare any good gifts as I was in a hurry to get you one."

Kayden handed over the gift with a warm smile on his face.

Normally, any girl would've fallen for Kayden.

However, Hannah was already used to this. She pushed his gift back and smiled. "Kayden, thank you very much. I've accepted your birthday wish, but this gift is much too expensive. I can't accept this."

"Hannah, it's nothing. It's just a little gift." Kayden smiled.

Hannah shook her head as she insisted, "Kayden, I really can't accept this gift."

The atmosphere seemed to have gotten a bit awkward.

Heather hurriedly laughed as she tried to change the subject, and said, "Kayden, aren't you going to introduce us to your friends?"

Kayden's expression changed slightly as he put the gift that Hannah had not been accepted on the small table. He proceeded to introduce his friends.

"This is Josiah, who is from Micovia. We are business partners." Kayden introduced.

"This is Dickson, who has worked together with my father." Kayden introduced the burly foreigner.

Heather nodded. "Josiah, Dickson, nice to meet you. Today is Hannah's birthday, thank you for coming. Let's all have a drink together."

With that said, Heather poured wine for everyone and then raised her glass.

The two foreigners also seemed to speak good Mandarin. They could understand Heather, and they raised their glasses for a toast.

However, Kayden did not raise his glass. Instead, he glanced at Fade, and then said with a flaunting expression. "Today we have finally gotten together. This fruit wine is too boring. Let's order something else."

After that, Kayden called for the waiter and ordered, "Martell, XO, and Lafite, ten bottles each. We haven't seen each other for so long, so we should celebrate well together."

The ladies' expressions immediately fell upon hearing his order.

Heather immediately said, "Kayden, drinking so much is really harmful to the body. Let's stick with fruit wine instead."

Kayden's expression sank when he heard her words. "What's the point? It's not even alcohol, it's just a drink. If you want to drink, you naturally want it to be exciting. Besides, I will pay for these, so don't worry."

"Kayden, we didn't mean that, but..." Heather tried to continue.

However, Kayden interrupted her with a wave of his hand. "There's nothing to worry about. As your senior, I will give you guys some advice. After you graduate into society, things aren't the same as they used to be in university."

"You need to get used to some things. Just like drinking; when you're dealing with business, you can't be like this. I'm just helping you guys get used to how society works! Don't disappoint me now."

At this time, the waiter arrived with the drinks.

Kayden waved his hand and said, "Open it all!"

He proceeded to pour everyone one glass of Martell and raised his own, "Come, let's toast."

19:40

Everyone couldn't refuse anymore. They could only raise their glasses and finish their drinks in one sip. "Yeah, that's what I'm talking about." Kayden finished his own and continued to pour another glass for everyone. "Come, let's have another toast."

The women couldn't drink that much. They had just had one glass of strong liquor, and they were already starting to feel dizzy. They couldn't help but feel scared as they looked at the newly filled glass of liquor filled to the brim.

"Kayden, w-we can't do it anymore," Heather said as she waved her hands.

Tracy also smiled in agreement. "Yeah, we can't manage anymore. We'll drink the fruit wine instead!"

Unexpectedly, Kayden refused. "Are you guys looking down on me now? I'm doing this for your own good. I'm trying to train you guys for society. Don't let me down now!"

With that said, Kayden took the initiative to raise his glass, as if everyone would wrong him if they did not drink.

The women couldn't help but follow suit even though they couldn't manage more.

Hannah was already trembling, and she could barely hold on to the glass.

Upon seeing this, Fade grasped her hand and took the glass from her.

When Kayden saw this, his face sank. He turned to Fade and said coldly, "What is the meaning of this? Are you looking down on me?"

Fade replied calmly, "I look down on people who force girls to get drunk."

"You..." Kayden immediately burst into anger.

19:40

Heather and the others quickly tried to calm them down.

However, Kayden sneered, "If it's not good to force girls to drink, then why don't you take the shot for them?"

With that said, Kayden put two glasses of liquor in front of Fade.

Fade shook his head and smiled, finding the whole situation a little ridiculous. "You've already graduated from university, but you're still playing at these childish tricks. How ridiculous!"

"Ridiculous? I think that you're just scared," Kayden snorted. "Of course, if you tell me that you're scared, and you're not as good as I, Kayden Kang am, then I'll let it go."

Kayden glared at him, as he tried to provoke him.

Hannah, Tracy and Heather all looked over at Fade nervously.

Chapter 1013

"Whatever. I'm not interested in such things anyways." Fade shook his head as he raised a glass of fruit wine and took a sip.

Kayden hadn't expected Fade to ignore his provocation completely and react this calmly. This made Kayden appear childish and rash.

At the thought of this, Kayden's expression sank again. He resisted the urge to burst out in anger and instead glanced at Fade and said disdainfully, "It turns out that you were just all talk."

This time, Fade simply ignored Kayden. Fade turned his head and started talking to Hannah.

Kayden's gaze turned cold and his expression grew grim.

Right then, Heather smiled at Kayden and said, "Kayden, I've heard that you have a good voice. Why don't you sing a song for us."

With that said, Heather handed the microphone over in an attempt to make things better for him. After all, Kayden still held a good image in their hearts.

Kayden nodded as he took the mic. Suppressing the anger in his heart, he forced a smile at Hannah and said, "Hannah, today is your birthday. I will sing you a song to wish you a happy birthday and express my thoughts."

He then proceeded to pick a song entitled 'Only You'. He was very expressive as he was singing and he kept glancing over at Hannah.

19:40

However, it was a pity for Kayden as Hannah only looked at him several times throughout the song. She was talking to Fade most of the time.

Kayden grew even angrier. After he finished the song, he was in no mood to celebrate anymore.

However, both Josiah and Dickson, who had some wine, had gotten excited along with the music. With a bottle of wine in one hand, and the mic in another, they started yelling.

While they were having fun, Kayden tried to express his feelings for Hannah again. However, she rejected all of his advances coldly. Kayden's expression darkened.

Dickson and Josiah had already finished three bottles of alcohol between the two of them. They could barely stabilize themselves as they were drunk.

Heather and Tracy noticed their drunken state and were about to let Kayden stop them from drinking any further.

Just as they were about to speak up, Josiah and Dickson pushed them down suddenly.

Both Heather and Tracy were taken by surprise as they were being pushed down.

The two were in a state of shock as they tried to push them off. "Josiah, Dickson, you guys are drunk, wake up."

However, Josiah and Dickson, who were drunk, did not relent at all. Instead, they started feeling up Heather and Tracy.

The two girls were frightened as they tried to push off the probing hands.

However, the women were no match for the burly men who were over 180 centimeters tall.

At the same time, Josiah and Dickson began speaking in a drunken slur.

19:40

"Hey girl, let's play together!"

"I'm great at it. I can definitely satisfy you."

.....

Heather and Tracy couldn't bear it. They stopped struggling and reached out to slap the two men.

The two men sobered up a little due to the pain from the slaps.

Josiah touched his cheek and glared at Heather. With anger in his eyes, he hissed, "You b*tch, how dare you hit me! I'm going to make you regret it."

Dickson restricted Tracy's arm and pressed his body onto hers, ready to force himself on her.

They had gone too far. Heather and Tracy immediately screamed in panic.

Fade and Hannah turned towards the screams immediately and saw what had happened.

In an instant, both of them were shocked. Hannah stood up immediately and shouted, "What are you guys doing!"

Fade's expression sank as he rushed towards them and called out, "You pieces of trash, f*ck off!"

While speaking, Fade had grabbed the two men by their arms. Josiah and Dickson immediately turned towards him, blocking his hands. "Shorty, this is none of your business. Get the f*ck out of here."

"F*ck off! Do you guys hear me?" Fade shouted sternly.

"You b*stard, you've ruined everything!" The two men grew furious and punched Fade.

19:40

Fade blocked their punches and kicked them.

The both of them cried out in pain, holding their stomachs, and they fell to the ground.

Hannah hurried over. She held Heather and Tracy. She tidied their clothes and started comforting them.

Fade reached for his phone and was ready to call the police.

However, a hand reached out and stopped Fade, "That's enough. Don't overdo it."

Fade raised his head and looked at Kayden who was stopping him from calling the police. "What did you say?" Fade asked.

Kayden frowned, turned his head, and glanced at Josiah and Dickson who was limp on the ground. He then declared, "I said, stop messing around. There's no need to call the police over such small matters. Don't cross the line."

"What?" Fade's eyes were full of anger as he stared at Kayden. "Are you saying that this is a trivial matter? This is sexual harassment. This is a crime! Reporting this to the police is crossing the line?"

Kayden's frown deepened. "Stop blabbering nonsense. My friends had only gotten drunk and were a little out of it. I'll ask them to apologize when they're sober."

"What? Do you think that an apology is enough?" Fade glared at him.

Kayden's expression sank as he glanced at Heather and Tracy who were still in shock. "It's nothing big, so don't make a fuss. Fine, I'll pay for the trouble my friends have caused. Are 50 thousand dollars per person enough?"

Heather and Tracy grew furious upon hearing his words. However, they did not dare to speak up. After all, they were afraid of Kayden's background and his status.

19:40

However, Fade grabbed Kayden by his collar and shouted at him, "Are you trying to solve this with money? Who do you think we are? What do you think you are doing?"

Chapter 1014

Kayden frowned. "If you think that's not enough, then I'll double it. 100,000 per person. Let's settle everything now."

With that, Kayden reached into his pocket, ready to pay up.

Hannah couldn't hold back any longer and spoke up. "Kayden, stop it. You're humiliating Heather and Tracy. This is a disrespect to them," she said.

Kayden frowned as he replied, "Hannah, it's nothing really. Why are you making a big deal out of this?"

"Moreover, girls at the campus usually beg to be with my friends. They acted a little off because they were a little drunk. What's the big deal?" Kayden raised an eyebrow.

Right then, Josiah and Dickson stood up and agreed shamelessly.

"There are so many easy girls here. I can't even remember how many I've slept with. You're lucky we even decided to mess around with you."

"Some girls even beg to be with us. Count your blessings!"

.....

Upon hearing such shameless words, the girls' expressions sank. They were furious.

19:40

Fade rushed over to Josiah and Dickson in a burst of anger.

When the two saw Fade approaching, they couldn't help but feel nervous. They took a step back, ready to fight. "S-stop right there. Otherwise, we'll beat you up."

Fade ignored their words and landed a kick right in their groins respectively.

The two fell onto the ground instantly while holding on to their crotch in extreme pain.

Fade had gone in with full force, damaging their private parts mercilessly.

Kayden's expression darkened as he shouted at Fade upon seeing that, "What are you doing!"

"I'm teaching criminals a lesson. Would you like a taste too?" Fade replied coldly.

"You..." Kayden was extremely furious. He pointed a finger at Fade, "Don't go overboard over such a trivial thing."

"Trivial thing?" Fade repeated as he grabbed Kayden by the collar and said harshly, "If this was to happen to your mother, would you have reacted the same way?"

"Perhaps you would claim that it's her blessing to be able to sleep with them?"

"Y-you! Don't insult my mother!" Kayden roared.

"Insult? Didn't you say that it was only a trivial matter, and that it could be settled with money? How come it's humiliating when it comes to your mother? It seems that you wouldn't know their pain if you weren't in their shoes!" Fade replied coldly.

"You, you..." Kayden tried to say something else.

Fade threw Kayden onto the ground and glared at him. "F*ck off, you selfish piece of sh*t. Otherwise, I'll make sure you get the same treatment too."

Kayden was smoldering with anger but he didn't dare to do anything to Fade. He scampered out of the private lounge, taking Josiah and Dickson with him.

When the three finally left, Fade's expression returned back to normal. He turned to Heather and Tracy and asked with concern, "Are you ladies okay?"

Both of them shook their heads. "W-we're fine now."

Even though they had said so, their faces were still pale with fright. Obviously, they had never encountered such a thing before.

Hannah's expression was also grim. She turned towards Fade worriedly, "Fade, you've hit Kayden. I'm afraid that he won't let you go so easily. Let's leave now."

Heather and Tracy were also worried for him, and they immediately nodded their heads in agreement.

Fade nodded his head as well and said, "Let's go. You ladies should rest well. Don't let this incident bother you. As for Kayden, I'll deal with him myself so don't worry about it."

"T-thank you!" Heather and Tracy said gratefully.

Subsequently, they started packing up, preparing to leave.

On the other hand, Kayden, who had run away in despair, grew even more furious as he thought about what had just happened.

Kayden reached for his phone grudgingly and called his father, "Dad, where are you? I was beaten up by someone so send someone over now."

19:40

On the other side of the phone, a rough voice answered, "What's the matter? Who dares to beat you up?"

"Dad, I was outside of the University of Jade City with Dickson and Josiah..." Kayden explained the incident quickly.

The man on the other end of the phone grew furious hearing that. "How dare he beat you up! It looks like they're courting death."

"Dad, come here quickly. I'm going to beat them up and do as I please with Hannah Pai!" Kayden said through gritted teeth.

"I have important matters to discuss now so I can't go over," Habib replied.

"Dad, what could be more important than me, how could you..." Kayden was dissatisfied.

Habib interrupted him abruptly, "Stop messing around. This is about Titan Studio."

"What? Titan Studio?!" Kayden couldn't help but feel shocked at the mention of the most powerful martial arts sect in Jade City...

Habib said immediately, "Well, I'm in the hotel opposite of you. I'll send some people over to bring those troublemakers to me. I'll deal with it myself."

"Okay, Dad. You'd better hurry up. I'm worried that they'll escape," Kayden replied.

"Don't worry, they can't escape. It is impossible to beat up my son and escape," Habib said confidently.

After hanging up, a sinister smile appeared on Kayden's lips. He gritted his teeth as he stared at the private room where Fade and the others were. He said to himself, "You b*stard, just you wait. You'll regret everything you've done."

"And Hannah, you b*tch. Just wait, I'll f*ck you as I please later on."

.....

19:40

In the private room, Fade and the others packed up their things and left. They paid the bill at the counter and were about to exit the building.

Just as they walked out, a group of men who looked to be in their twenties surrounded them. They looked at Fade and asked, "So you're Fade Chen?"

"Yes, I am. Who are you? What's the matter?" Fade looked at the young men before him coldly.

A young man waved his hand and said, "Come with us. Master Habib has asked for you."

"Master Habib? I don't know him," Fade answered and was ready to leave.

The group of men immediately stopped him and demanded coldly, "Didn't you hear me? The leader of the Tiger Gang, Master Habib has asked for you."

"And these chicks are coming with us too."

With that, a few of the young men approached Fade and the others. They were prepared to take action.

Chapter 1015

"I've told you, I don't know any Master Habib nor a Tiger Gang. You've got the wrong person!" Fade stated coldly.

The leading young man sneered, "We've got the wrong person? Are you still trying to run away? You've beaten up the son of Master Habib, and you're trying to avoid taking accountability now?"

"Master Habib's son?" Fade frowned.

"Master Habib's name is Habib Kang, and his son is Kayden Kang," came the reply.

Fade and the others immediately understood what was going on as soon as the names were mentioned. Hannah and the other ladies looked worried instantly.

"Did Kayden ask for you guys?" Fade looked up and down at the man before him.

The young man waved his hand and said impatiently, "Stop buying yourself time. Master Habib has demanded to see you within ten minutes. Are you going to go there by yourselves, or are you going to make us bring you over?"

With that said, several people raised their fists and cracked them.

The girls turned white immediately, frightened at the sight.

However, Hannah maintained her calm demeanor and explained firmly, "It was Kayden's fault. Don't overdo it, you guys."

19:41

"Young Master Kayden was wrong? Haha, girl, it seems that you don't know about his identity at all!" Several young men started laughing.

"The leader of Tiger Gang, Master Habib, is a true warrior. Young Master Kayden is his son, and there are only two things in the world for him: things that he wants, and things that he doesn't want. There's no right or wrong when it comes to Young Master Kayden."

"Young lady, let me tell you this, it is your blessing to be favored by our Young Master Kayden. If you are with him, you will enjoy many benefits."

"That's right, Master Habib is a warrior from the Yellow Level. His status or background are not things that ordinary people like you can grasp."

.....

Amidst the conversation, the leading young man looked at his watch and said, "Time's almost up. Let's get started."

With that said, the young man waved his hand and was about to grab Fade and the others forcibly.

Fade's expression sank, ready to fight back.

However, at this time, the leading young man said, "Master Habib is discussing the major event of Titan Studio with his colleagues. These guys are lucky to be able to meet so many great people from the martial arts world in Jade City. Being punished in front of such great people should be their blessings as well."

All of them laughed upon hearing that.

19:41

Fade, who was about to fight back, paused at the mention of 'Titan Studio'. He looked over at Hannah and the others, "Let's go and see what they are up to."

Hannah and the others were a little puzzled, and at the same time, a little worried, "Uh..."

Fade looked at them reassuringly and said, "It will be fine, I'm here. Nothing will happen."

"Dude, how sweet! No wonder you are able to get such a beautiful chick," the young leader laughed. "But when you get there, you will know that all of this is useless."

Fade ignored their words as he followed them over.

A few minutes later, Fade and the others were taken to a luxurious hotel nearby.

Before the young man took everyone into a large conference room on the third floor, Kayden stood in front of the conference room with his face full of resentment.

When he saw Fade and the others being brought over, he gritted his teeth and said, "You b*stard. You'd never have expected this when you were beating us up in the KTV, right?"

Fade glanced at Kayden and replied, "The outcome is still unclear."

"You're still resisting even now. When you enter the room, I'll watch how you meet with your demise," Kayden hissed. With a wave of his hand, he instructed, "Bring them in. My dad and the other great seniors of the martial arts world are still waiting!"

They entered the meeting room.

The conference room was huge. It was the type that could probably house up to hundreds of people.

19:41

When Fade and the others entered the room, there were already a circle of people sitting inside. There were at least fifty people there.

Moreover, all of them had intimidating auras to them.

Hannah and the other girls tensed up immediately as soon as they entered the room. They were intimidated by the people inside.

The girls felt their feet giving way beneath them. They couldn't steady themselves.

However, at this moment, Fade released an aura to shield them from the overbearing atmosphere. The girls felt better immediately.

"Master Habib, here they are!"

"Dad, it's them!"

The leading young man and Kayden walked over to a tall, burly, middle-aged man and said.

This man was Kayden's father, Habib Kang, the leader of the Tiger Gang.

Habib's sharp gaze swept across them and finally fell on Fade.

Around Habib, a group of warriors who had similar physiques as Habib looked on with smiles, as if waiting to watch a show.

"Habib, why would you have them brought over here over something this trivial?"

"Haha, Brother Liu. Who doesn't know that Master Habib dotes on his son the most! It's nothing if it's for his son."

"Hurry up, we are not interested in watching you deal with such irrelevant people. It's boring."

19:41

"Hehe, I think it's quite interesting. It's also an entertainment after our meeting."

.....

This group of people with different thoughts looked on.

Habib finally spoke with a serious expression on his face, "So it's you who beat my son's friends, and took it out on my son as well?"

Fade looked calm as he nodded and admitted to it. "Yes, it's me."

The warriors present were all surprised at Fade's collected manner.

Habib was also taken aback slightly. "Now that you've admitted it, then tell me, how should I punish you for that?"

"Punish me?" Fade shook his head and raised the corner of his mouth. "Why should I be punished?"

"Huh..." Habib's face sank; his expression was a little unhappy. "You've beaten up my son, and yet you're asking me why I should punish you?"

Fade shook his head and said, "I did hit Kayden, but that doesn't mean that I should be punished. This is because he was at fault. It is he who should be punished."

"You b*stard, are you tired of living!" Kayden burst out in anger. He rushed towards Fade, ready to attack him.

Fade glanced at him and said coldly, "Why don't you try it?"

Kayden stopped in his tracks immediately, not daring to make another move. He was intimidated by Fade's aura.

19:41

Chapter 1016

Upon seeing this, Habib's face sank. He clapped his hands and blocked Fade's aura for his son, Kayden.

Then, Habib stared at Fade with a gloomy expression and he said in a deep voice, "Kid, all the masters of martial art in Jade City are present here. Your arrogance will kill you."

"Today, we have something to discuss, I don't want to waste any time. If you break your arms yourself, I can let you go," Habib said.

Kayden was a little anxious. Without waiting for Fade to say anything further, he quickly pointed to Hannah and said, "Dad, I want to keep that woman. I must have her."

Habib glanced at Hannah and the other girls, then waved his hand and said indifferently, "Then let them stay."

They didn't consider Hannah's feelings at all. It could even be said that ordinary people were insignificant to them. From his tone, Hannah seemed to be just an item.

After saying that, Habib looked at Fade and said, "Three minutes, I will give you three minutes, go ahead!"

Next, Habib and Kayden looked at Fade with proud smiles on their faces. They were waiting for Fade to break his own arms.

However, Fade didn't look scared at that moment. Instead, he curled his lips and started to laugh.

"What are you laughing at?" Habib couldn't help but speak with an angry expression when he noticed that.

19:41

Fade narrowed his eyes and stared at Habib fiercely, then said, "I'm laughing at you two. Both of you are so arrogant and ignorant. The Tiger Gang looks like a joke to me."

As soon as these words came out, the scene became intense.

Both father and son's complexions darkened instantly. There was a clamor among the other martial artists around them.

Some of them who didn't get along well with Tiger Gang took the opportunity to mock them.

"Habib, your Tiger Gang has become a little embarrassing recently. Even an ordinary kid dares to retaliate against you," a man said.

"Haha, a sect with this kind of strength. Let's not say avenge Young Master Chiu, I'm afraid you won't be qualified to claim yourself to be one of the sects in Titan Studio," another man mocked.

"On the other hand, this kid is kind of interesting. He doesn't seem to be afraid at all," another man added.

.....

Those voices made Habib and Kayden's faces turn ugly.

Some of the masters who had good relationships with them also frowned at this moment and voiced out.

"Master Habib, we still have business affairs to discuss. You should quickly resolve this kind of trivial matter."

"That's right. After our discussion here, we have to report the results at Hall 1. Don't delay the time."

.....

19:41

At the mention of Hall 1, the men's expressions changed slightly. They were slightly envious.

Habib had listened to everyone's words obviously. He waved his hand to call his subordinates over and commanded, "Do it for him. Break his arms then throw him out."

"Yes!" The four subordinates of the Tiger Gang gathered around Fade, ready to make a move.

Kayden walked towards Hannah with a wicked smile on his face. He was ready to bring Hannah with him. "Hannah, I told you a long time ago. You are my woman, and you can't escape."

When Hannah saw this, her face turned pale. She couldn't help biting her lip and said, "Kayden, you are breaking the law. Stop messing around and let us go."

"Breaking the law!" Kayden laughed. "Do you know who these people are? We are all elites in the Jade City martial arts world. Your words sound ridiculous to us."

During this time, Tiger Gang's people surrounded Fade.

Hannah's expression became tense. She looked at Kayden and said, "Kayden, this matter has nothing to do with Fade. If you let him go, I will go with you."

"Fade! How intimate for you to call him that!" Kayden's face sank. His expression was strangely cold when he spoke, "Hannah, do you think you are still the woman I fancy?"

"I..." Hannah was speechless.

Kayden said grimly, "If you haven't been played by anyone before, I can pursue you. But now, you have lost your virginity to another man, a lousy guy. You still want to raise your worth in front of me. Do you think you are worthy?"

19:41

"Kayden, how dare you..." Hannah stared at him. She was stunned. She didn't expect Kayden to say such vicious words. Heather and Tracy were also angry. They glared at Kayden.

"Kayden, how can you say that to Hannah. You have crossed the line," Tracy said.

"Apologize! You must apologize to her," Heather yelled.

Kayden glanced at them, sneered disdainfully, and said, "Shut up. Even if you two were placed on my bed, I would have no interest at all."

"However, my two foreign friends were a little interested in you two. I'll bring you two to their beds and let them have a good time. Anyway, the foreigners have strange tastes," Kayden waved his hand and said.

Suddenly, a few disciples of the Tiger Gang appeared and walked towards the girls.

Heather and Tracy were terrified. They trembled in fear, unable to utter a word.

At this time, the four Tiger Gang disciples who surrounded Fade had already begun to move.

Almost all of them in the room had reached the middle stage of Yellow Level. To ordinary people, they were already very powerful. However, they were considered trivial to Fade.

Fade didn't pay attention to their attacks at all. Instead, his eyes darkened as he looked towards Kayden and said coldly, "It seems that the lesson just now was too lenient."

"B*stard, how dare you threaten me now. You are courting death." Kayden gnashed his teeth and ordered, "You all not only have to disable his arms, but also his legs. "

"How dare you take my woman, I will let you know what is the meaning of regret," Kayden said grimly.

At that moment, the four disciples of the Tiger Gang made greater movements. They gritted their teeth and charged towards Fade fiercely.

When their punches and kicks were about to rain on Fade, he finally moved. His eyes darkened and with a stern expression, he roared, "Go away!"

In an instant, a burst of energy erupted from Fade and shook the four disciples of the Tiger Gang away directly.

Afterwards, Fade's figure flashed, and he appeared in front of Hannah and the others in a split second. Fade kicked the disciples of the Tiger Gang who were coming at them directly, sending them flying.

Fade's series of actions shocked everyone at the scene. They didn't expect it and couldn't believe what they saw.

Just when they were dumbstruck, Fade attacked again. He clasped Kayden's throat with one hand and lifted him up.

Chapter 1017

Kayden hadn't recovered from what had happened until he was lifted in the air, and there was a pressure on his throat. Then, he realized what had happened. He struggled and shouted immediately, "Let go of me, let go of me quick!"

Habib came back to his senses. He stared fiercely at Fade and bellowed, "Kid, let go of my son."

Fade ignored Habib and threw Kayden to the ground. Then, he raised his foot and stepped on Kayden's arm.

"Crack... Crack..." Two crisp sounds later, Kayden let out a scream. His two arms were broken. Kayden almost fainted from the pain.

Habib was enraged by what he saw. He rushed towards Fade with a roar, and punched out, "Kid, how dare you touch my son. I'll kill you."

At that moment, the burly Habib looked like a vicious tiger, charging towards Fade as if he could tear Fade into pieces.

When the other martial artists in the conference room saw the turn of events, their expressions changed. Each of them had different looks on their faces.

"This kid has some strengths. That was unexpected," a man said.

"Even if he's brave, it's useless. He's a no brainer to attack in front of Habib. What an idiot," another man sneered.

"However, no matter what, the Tiger Gang's face is lost this time. After all, his son's arms have been broken. How can he maintain his reputation in front of his peers in the future?" One of them asked.

.....

Among the various discussions, those who had good relationships with Habib resented Fade, while the ones who had poor relationships with Habib just stood there, watching the show. After all, in their minds, Fade was just an insignificant man with little strength.

However, what happened next shocked them to the core. When they thought that Habib's fist was about to knock Fade to the ground, an amazing scene happened.

When the burly Habib threw himself in front of Fade, Fade only pushed his palm forward indifferently. His palm landed on Habib's chest swiftly.

With a "Boom", Habib was knocked out directly, hitting the furniture behind him and smashing them. Then, he spurted a mouthful of blood. His whole body went limp on the ground. He almost couldn't move.

At that moment, the martial artists who were still debating, couldn't help but feel a little dumbfounded.

"Habib is defeated. This, is this even possible?" A man yelled.

"What's going on, what happened just now, I didn't see clearly!"

"This kid, his strength is terrifying," someone explained.

.....

These surprised martial artists were still discussing what had happened. At the same time, Fade, with a serious expression, approached Habib. He stepped on Habib's chest. Habib was struggling to get up, and Fade said coldly, "I said it before. If you dare to attack me, you'll regret it. Now, I believe you've understood what I've meant!"

19:41

Habib was full of hatred. Gnashing his teeth, he stared at Fade fiercely and said, "How dare you attack me. Our Tiger Gang won't let you off the hook."

"You're still threatening me! It seems that you are trying to get yourself killed," Fade snorted and stepped on Habib's chest with force.

Suddenly, a huge force came down on Habib. He felt as if his bones were about to be crushed.

Habib could feel the terrifying energy and the pain from the continuous oppression of his bones. Habib started to get really scared. He stopped speaking harshly, and began to ask the other martial artists for help, "Loren, Bruce, help me."

Loren and Bruce had known Habib for a long time. They had good relationships with Habib.

When they heard Habib's plea, they stepped forward and said to Fade, "Kid, let go of Habib immediately, otherwise..."

Before the two men even finished their threatening words, Fade looked at them coldly and he directed his two palms towards them.

The two of them had no idea that Fade would attack them outrageously. They didn't defend themselves. As a result, the two of them each took the attack and fell to the ground. Blood oozed from the corners of their mouths as their faces turned pale.

After knocking down the two of them, Fade's eyes were cold. He glanced at the people around him and said coldly, "Now, is there anyone else who wants to challenge me?"

19:41

As soon as those words came out, the martial artists at the scene inadvertently felt uneasy. Their expressions changed and there was a shock in their eyes.

After all, Habib, Loren and Bruce were not weak. They were at the peak stage of Yellow Level. However, Fade had sent them flying with just a palm attack. Such strength had exceeded the expectations of the others.

For a moment, they became silent and nervous.

At this time, Fade continued to exert force in his right foot that was on Habib's chest. Habib felt that his chest was about to be crushed. Habib was overcome by fear from the constant pressure on his chest.

At this moment, Habib looked at the martial artists around him and blurted, "Everyone, I'm going to die. Help me, please help me."

However, with the lessons learned from Loren and Bruce just now, they dared not act rashly.

Many people bowed their heads and blinked, pretending not to hear anything.

This situation made Habib feel a little disappointed. His peers would not stand up for him in his time of need.

However, this was not the time for Habib to be emotional. The pressure on his chest was getting stronger and stronger, he could already feel a little breathless.

His face turned purple. Habib said, "Help me. I will give half of Tiger Gang's assets to whoever helps me now."

As soon as Habib said that, the people who pretended not to hear a thing just now couldn't help but show an expression of excitement.

After all, half of Tiger Gang's assets were worth hundreds of millions of yuan. For any gang present, it was a huge income.

19:41

In an instant, the martial artists who didn't do anything just then, stepped forward. All of them yelled at Fade sternly.

"Kid, let go of Master Habib."

"You are being disrespectful to Jade City's martial arts world. Let go of him immediately."

"Hurry up, don't let us make you do it," one of them said loudly.

.....

Fade turned his head and glanced at the indignant martial artists, feeling a little ridiculous. He patted the ground in front of them with a palm attack.

Suddenly, a burst of energy hit the floor, leaving a clear palm print on the hard wooden floor.

Then came Fade's cold voice, "If anyone wants to attack me, you can give it a try. I don't mind breaking all of your bones."

The threatening words coupled with the clear palm print on the floor, made the martial artists hesitant. Some of them changed their expressions immediately, and they turned around and retreated.

Chapter 1018

Upon seeing this, Habib suddenly felt cold and hurriedly said, "Please save me. As long as you save me, I am willing to offer my treasured Serum Stone."

The martial artists' eyes lit up as they heard the word "Serum Stone" and they started to breathe heavily.

Some of the previously unbothered martial artists suddenly had a twinkle in their eyes and immediately stood up. At that moment, one particular gray-haired elder who was in his sixties was knocking on the floor with his cane as he tried to steady himself. He finally stood up, and slowly made his way over.

At the sight of the elderly man, the martial artists' facial expressions turned rueful.

"Serum Stone, that is very beneficial for a martial artist," the elderly man said.

"Of course it is. If it wasn't for the Serum Stone, why would Sebastian stand up? He is a beginner at Black Level!" A man exclaimed.

"Since Sebastian has come forward, this Serum Stone must be his now," another man said.

.....

Sebastian was obviously a respected person among the group of martial artists. His appearance had changed everyone's expressions. Habib also showed a hint of excitement in his eyes, and hurriedly said, "Master Ko, please save me. Once you save me, I will immediately give you the Serum Stone and Tiger Gang's assets to you."

19:41

Sebastian's eyes flickered, but he quickly recovered. He nodded and said, "Habib is a member of Jade City's martial art society. As a senior, it is my duty to save you."

As Sebastian finished his sentence, a few martial artists had a change in their expressions. Some were excited, some sighed, and some frowned. Sebastian knew them well. He took a glance at the martial artists, and said, "Everyone, we are all brothers and sisters in Jade City's martial arts society. Come, join me to save Habib."

"Once we do, I only want the Serum Stone. Half of the Tigers Gang's assets belong to everyone," Sebastian said.

Sebastian was sly. He understood well that even a no-brainer would realize that the Serum Stone was his; there was no chance to fight him over it. Although everyone was afraid of his identity and strength, they didn't say much. However, there was still dissatisfaction in their hearts.

Therefore, to quell other people's dissatisfaction, Sebastian allocated half of the Tiger Gang's assets to these people, which could win over them.

Sure enough, this trick worked very well.

After the crowds listened to Sebastian, they immediately agreed with him.

"Since Master Ko has spoken, we must do so," a man said.

"Jade City martial arts society's brotherhood is forever! We will not be bullied by outsiders!"

"Kid, Master Ko has spoken, you should run while you can," a man mocked.

19:41

.....

Amidst the shouting, almost all the martial artists at the scene stood up and surrounded Fade.

Looking at the commotion, Fade didn't show any fear. Instead, he shook his head and laughed.

This so-called Jade City martial arts society was beyond ridiculous in his eyes. They were clearly a group of greedy and shameless hooligans. Yet now, they were pretending to be loyal and honorable, which was really a colossal irony.

Sebastian stretched out his hands as he tried to calm the scene down. Then, he turned to look at Fade. As he smiled, he said, "Mr. Chen, Habib is a friend of mine. Could you please let him go for my sake?"

Sebastian was all smiles, and his voice was very gentle.

For those who didn't know, they would think he was Fade's friend.

However, if they were to take a closer look, they would see the threat in Sebastian's eyes. His fist was also holding tightly onto his crutches. He was ready to attack Fade at any time.

However, even so, Fade didn't show any fear. He snorted and replied to Sebastian impolitely, "Who the f*ck are you? Why should I consider your proposition? Just get lost."

"Uh..."

Everyone was stunned as they looked at Fade blankly.

They definitely didn't expect that Fade would treat Sebastian that way.

Suddenly, there was a commotion in the crowd.

19:41

"This kid is digging his own grave! He is so disrespectful to Sebastian!"

"Sebastian is known to be a wolf in sheep's clothing! Don't be fooled by the smile on his face. If he is triggered, no one will be able to survive."

"He's looking for his own death. No one can save him now."

Kayden, who was severely beaten and Habib, who was trampled by Fade, suddenly changed expressions. They both looked excited from the sweet smell of revenge.

They were initially worried that Sebastian might not attack. However, now that Fade had really enraged him, Sebastian would undoubtedly attack him.

At this time, Sebastian's complexion sank. The smile on his face turned into a cold sneer as he stared at Fade, and slowly blurted out, "I ordered you to let go of Habib, did you hear me?"

Fade wholly ignored him, and stepped on Habib's chest with his right foot as he continued to add pressure.

The huge force crushed Habib's bones and made several cracking sounds. Habib's face gradually turned purple as he huffed in pain.

When Sebastian saw this, his eyes went cold. Then, he knocked the crutches in his hand fiercely, and said frigidly, "What an arrogant kid."

After Sebastian finished speaking, he waved his right hand. The strong and sturdy dragon-head crutch in his hand was like a sharp sword, as he whipped it up and aimed it at the middle of Fade's back.

19:41

With a fierce killing intent, this move was vicious. He ultimately intended to put Fade to death.

As Fade felt an attack was coming from behind, his eyes turned cold. He turned around abruptly, and his eyes were emotionless, as he sternly scolded, "Old man, you are looking for death."

As he was speaking, Fade stretched out his hand and grabbed Sebastian's cane.

"It's ridiculous to pick up my crutches with your hand!" Sebastian sneered, the crutches in his hand moved more aggressively. Swoosh!

In the nervous eyes of everyone, the cane and Fade's right hand collided.

Just when everyone thought Sebastian would win, Fade squeezed the crutches accurately with his right hand. He then raised the cane, together with Sebastian.

He whirred him in the air. After a few laps, Fade smashed them down as hard as possible and Sebastian was slammed to the floor.

At this time, everyone at the scene was dazed and completely dumbfounded. They couldn't believe what they had just witnessed.

"This ... It's impossible! Master Ko is defeated!" A man yelled.

"One move. He defeated Sebastian, who is a Black Level with just one move! Just how strong is he?"

"This kid, what's his background? With such strength, it is impossible for him to be unknown," one of them said.

.....

19:41

Amidst the cries of surprise, Sebastian's face was red with blood. He was battered and exhausted as he tried to find his ground. His face was full of resentment as he stared at Fade fiercely. He gritted his teeth and burst out, "You... how dare you do this to me! You will pay for this. You will die!"

After that, Sebastian waved his hand and ordered his subordinates, "Go to Hall 1 and invite someone over."

Chapter 1019

At the mention of Hall 1, everyone's expressions changed. Their gazes were a little different when they looked at Fade.

Fade felt a little curious about Hall 1 when he saw the changes in their expressions. He asked aloud, "What's Hall 1?"

No one responded; everyone looked at Fade and said nothing.

Fade gave a cold snort, and stepped directly on Habib's chest, who was crying in pain, and said, "Tell me, what's Hall 1?"

"I, I'll tell you," Habib cried out. He didn't hesitate to answer as the pain was unbearable. "Hall 1 has the best masters in our Jade City martial artists society," Habib explained further.

After listening to Habib's explanation, Fade immediately understood what was going on.

This time, Habib's Tiger Gang, from the Jade City martial arts society were gathering together with Titan Studio to discuss the matter of revenge for Brayden, the Young Master Chiu.

However, there were various sects in the Jade City martial arts society. Naturally, there were differences in strength and influence. The gap between the strongest and the weakest was even more significant.

In this case, there would be dissatisfaction when people with huge abilities discussed major issues. It was impossible to continue the discussion.

Hence, in the end, they would rather divide these gangs into two groups according to their strength.

19:41

Those with more immense strength and influence would gather to discuss matters in Hall 1.

Those who were weaker would gather in Hall 2 to discuss their matters. This group referred to Habib and the group of people here. Of course, in theory, the matters discussed in Hall 2 should be guided by the people in Hall 1.

After all, those in Hall 1 were all more influential than them.

For example, Sebastian had the strength of the Black Level but he was at a beginner stage. In Hall 2, he was considered the top. However, in Hall 1, Sebastian would barely reach the surface. In fact, he wouldn't even make it to Hall 1.

It could be said that the people in Hall 1 were the decision-makers regarding "how" they should avenge Young Master Chiu. While the people in Hall 2 would wait for Hall 1 to finalize the plan before discussing the implementation details.

Now, even the strongest person in Hall 2 was defeated by Fade. They had no choice but to seek help from the masters in Hall 1.

Fade couldn't help feeling a little ridiculous at this.

The people in Hall 2 were discussing how to avenge Brayden. Yet, they didn't even notice when Brayden's enemy was right in front of them.

As for the so-called masters in Hall 1, they were just a joke in Fade's eyes.

Therefore, after listening to it all, Fade showed no fear at all. Instead, he waited for the so-called masters of Hall 1 with a smile.

However, the crowd seemed to have interpreted Fade's calmness and smile as small gestures to cover up his anxiety.

At this moment, they all muttered in their hearts. Their eyes flickered as they were waiting to see Fade being beaten by the masters from Hall 1.

19:41

"This kid is too arrogant! Knowing that the master of Hall 1 is coming, he still stuck around!" A man said.

"I think he knew that he couldn't escape. Hence, he waited," another man guessed.

"Anyway, he has offended our Jade City martial arts society this time, and this matter cannot be easily solved," one of them added.

Amidst the whispered discussions and thoughts, Habib, Kayden, and Sebastian stared at Fade. Their expressions were filled with revenge and hatred. They couldn't wait to see Fade being taught a lesson by the masters in Hall 1.

Fade glanced at them. He clearly understood what they were thinking, and didn't burst their bubbles. He just shook his head lightly, and then waited for the arrival of the masters in Hall 1.

On the contrary, Hannah and the others couldn't help but worry about Fade when they heard the discussion around them.

After all, for them, the reputation of the Jade City martial arts society was unimaginable. The masters in Hall 2 were already the ones whom they shouldn't provoke. Not to mention, the masters in Hall 1, who was even more powerful than them.

However, facing Hannah and their worries, Fade smiled confidently as he said, "Don't worry. Let it be the arrival of the masters of Hall 1, or even if it's Titan Studio's Titan himself, I am not afraid."

As soon as these words came out, many people at the scene were caught off guard. They sneered at Fade's words and their faces were full of disbelief.

However, in front of Fade, they did not dare to speak out.

19:41

At this moment, footsteps sounded outside, and a voice with a slight disdain was heard, "You all can't even beat an ordinary man. We still have to handle it for you. I think you have all worsened. With this kind of strength, stop claiming to be one of the sects of Titan Studio. It's simply embarrassing for us."

"Mr. Xu, don't get angry. Let's go in and have a look first," another calm voice rang.

Immediately, everyone saw the two middle-aged men who came in.

As soon as these two people came in, the people in the hall immediately greeted them with excitement.

"Mr. Xu, you are here," a man exclaimed.

"Mr. Wan, you are here too," another man said.

"Masters, you have to help us!" The crowd said.

.....

In the midst of the shouting, the two walked in with their heads held up slightly, with a haughty look on their face.

Diego was the one with disdain in his tone. He didn't say much but he just glanced around, and asked, "Who is the one making trouble here, show yourself."

Sebastian immediately pointed at Fade and said, "Mr. Xu, this kid is the one who has been causing trouble. Not only has he attacked me, but he also injured Kayden and Habib of the Tiger Gang. Mr. Xu, you must help us get justice!"

Kayden and Habib also immediately pleaded.

"Mr. Xu, please teach this arrogant man a lesson!" Kayden said.

19:41

"Mr. Xu, save me," Habib cried out.

.....

Among the sounds of pleading, Mr. Xu frowned. He had a look of dissatisfaction on his face, and snorted coldly, "You're all a bunch of trash. It is such a shame for you all to be bullied by a little boy."

Immediately, Diego turned around with his hands behind his back. He paced towards Fade and said with a hint of command, "Did you beat them? Surrender your martial arts skills and break your limbs. In that case, I'll let you go."

After that, Diego raised his head proudly. It was as if Fade was a peasant and he didn't bother to give him another look.

Such vicious words made Hannah and the other felt repulsed and their delicate bodies trembled.

However, at this moment, Fade was not afraid at all. Instead, he laughed out loud and retorted, "Is this the so-called master in Hall 1? It's truly disappointing."

Chapter 1020

As soon as he said this, Diego's face suddenly turned pale. He lowered his head and fixed his gaze at Fade, as he questioned, "What did you say?"

At that moment, Sebastian, Habib and the others took the advantage to add fuel to the fire.

"Mr. Xu, this kid is too arrogant!" Habib called out.

"We must teach him a lesson. Otherwise, we will lose our Jade City's martial arts society's reputation," another chimed in.

"Mr. Xu, I think destroying his skills and limbs is simply not enough. From my point of view, the best way is to kill this kid now," Sebastian added.

.....

Amidst the arguments, Diego was full of anger. He stared at Fade, and said solemnly, "You'd better do it yourself. If not, you'd definitely regret it if I were to do it!"

There was a hint of insult in his words which made the others tremble.

"Boy, do it!"

"Mr. Xu is the Guardian of the Fingerian Clan. The Fingerian Clan's strength is in their physique's skills. You wouldn't want Mr. Xu to do the job," a man said.

19:42

"If Mr. Xu does it himself, it can be guaranteed that your skeleton will be destroyed, and not a single bone will be left whole," one of them said.

"Not only that but Mr. Xu can snap off your bones with a pinch. Not to kill you instantly, but rather to let you suffer in pain for a month before your death." Habib said.

"If I were you, I would prefer to break my own limbs myself," Kayden sneered.

.....

Hannah and the others were horrified as the crowd roared; their expressions were overwhelmed with fear. After all, they were just ordinary college students and they never experienced such cruel and terrifying moments. The sudden change of events had them frightened and their faces were full of tension.

Fade's expression was initially indifferent. However, after hearing those words, it turned slightly bleak.

He snorted coldly, took a look across the room before focusing on Mr. Wan who was behind Mr. Xu. Fade said in a deep voice, "Hulk, have you forgotten what I said to you before?"

As soon as Fade finished, those present were shocked.

"How dare he! How dare he speak to Mr. Wan in such a manner!" A man yelled.

"Mr. Wan is the Guardian of the Flaming Clan. He has reached the mid of Black Level and is almost as powerful as Diego," one of them said.

"He's definitely dead meat," Kayden said.

19:42

.....

Sebastian, Habib, and Kayden were full of resentment at the moment, but their lips curled up into faint smiles, hinted with the bliss of revenge. It was as if they had witnessed Fade being punched to death by the Guardians.

However, just when everyone had the same thought, Hulk, who heard Fade's voice, turned to look at him.

When he saw Fade's face clearly, he couldn't help but be startled. He was astonished and said, "Why are you here?"

In front of him, the young man was indeed the man whom Hulk had met in Jade City University some time ago. At that time, Hulk was defeated and was taught a lesson by Fade. That experience was still unforgettable for him.

"Mr. Wan, are you going to kill me?" Fade looked at Hulk and said in a serious tone.

Hulk's expression became solemn and he quickly said, "Mr. Chen, I didn't mean that. I didn't..."

"If not, what are you doing now?" Fade shouted coldly, "Shouldn't you come over and kneel down and admit your mistakes!"

"This..." Hulk's face became stiff and his body froze in place as if he was unable to move.

He was afraid of Fade's strength and knew that he was not his opponent. Yet, for him to kneel to Fade in public on such an occasion and admit his mistakes was something impossible for him.

Therefore, at this moment, he hesitated.

The others, when they heard the conversation between Fade and Hulk, were confused.

Diego immediately frowned and said to Hulk, "Mr. Wan, what are you doing? This kid dares to talk to you like this, I will kill him now."

19:42

"No, don't..." Hulk hurriedly blocked him.

"Mr. Wan, what's the matter with you? Could it be that you're trying to protect him?" Diego questioned.

Hulk shook his head and gritted his teeth as he explained, "No, I didn't mean that. It's just that we can't do that to him."

"Why not?" Diego asked with a frown.

"Because, because... We are not a match for him," Hulk said the reason with difficulty.

"We are not a match for him? Mr. Wan, stop fooling around." Diego didn't believe it at all. He strode towards Fade and wanted to attack him.

Hulk hurriedly explained, "Diego, don't be impulsive. He... He is not an ordinary person. I have fought against him before but I was defeated by him. Don't act rashly."

"What! You lost to him?" Diego was taken aback, then sneered. He continued, "Mr. Wan, stop joking around. It's not funny at all."

"I'm not joking. It's true. I..." Hulk was looking perplexed. He didn't know how to explain the incident in Jade City University.

However, before he could finish speaking, Diego simply interrupted him and said, "Mr. Wan, even if it is true, so what! He might have beaten you, but he might not beat me."

"Now, I will show him my skills and he will realize the real strength of our Jade City martial artists," Mr. Xu declared.

After that, Mr. Xu let out a loud huff. He positioned his palm in an odd shape and started his attack at Fade.

The blow came with a whirr of wind; it was impressive.

Moreover, those familiar with Mr. Xu could tell at a glance that this was his Penta Fist. The unique posture and technique can crush the bones where Fade was hit. The pain would definitely make him miserable.

"Boy, get ready to die!" With a confident smile at the corner of Diego's mouth, he aimed and launched an attack at Fade's chest.

Hulk was anxious and he wanted to stop Diego, but it was too late.

Faced with Diego's cruel and vicious move, Fade narrowed his eyes, and then abruptly reached out his right hand.

His movements were so fast that no one could see them clearly. Even Diego couldn't react in time and his right arm was immediately grabbed by Fade.

"You..." Diego was taken aback. He immediately steadied his stance and changed his posture as he tried hard to swing off Fade's right hand.

But before he even tried, Fade gave a cold snort and twisted his arm hard. A crisp sound could be heard and Diego's right arm broke immediately. Diego yelled in agony, his complexion instantly flushed. The veins on his forehead popped out, as he broke out in cold sweat.

"You, let me go, let go..." Diego shouted.

Fade ignored him. He grabbed Diego's right arm and twisted it in the opposite direction and suddenly there was another breaking sound, completely shattering Mr. Xu's right arm.

Diego shrieked miserably. He almost fainted in agony.

Fade snorted at Diego's pain and then kicked him to the ground.

After that, Fade raised his head and glanced at the crowd, and said coldly, "Now, next one?"

19:42

The crowd was quiet. Everyone looked at Fade in shock; their faces were full of horror, and they lowered their heads. No one dared to make a sound.
