

Chapter 1781

Upon seeing this, Yaakov gritted his teeth and roared, "You're courting death, you b*stard!" The aura of his positive energy erupted, and he stepped towards Fade menacingly.

For a moment, the clash of energy caused an aftershock that washed over the ordinary people around them, pushing them back. Hiro, Evelyn, and the rest had also put some distance between them, but they didn't stop their taunts.

"Mr. Hsiang, that guy's too arrogant. Teach him a lesson."

"You b*stard, you're seeking death fighting with Mr. Hsiang."

"He has to bear the responsibility for Daemyn's death."

.....

Through shouts, the clash of positive energy between the two of them grew intense, and a fight was about to break out.

However, at that critical moment, the manager of the hotel rushed over in a hurry. He forced a smile and said to Yaakov, "Mr. Hsiang, today is the day of the business reception, and there are many respectable guests invited by Mr. Huang. Can you please save our dignity and not fight here."

Hearing this, Yaakov's expression changed, and he paused.

10:25

Mr. Huang was the boss of the hotel, and although he wasn't from around the area, he was quite a reputable businessman in the country. Thus, since Mr. Huang had spoken up, Yaakov would have to respect his words.

When he thought of that, he turned to the hotel manager, "I can respect Mr. Huang and not fight here. However..."

While speaking, he looked at Fade, who was opposite him.

The hotel manager turned to Fade, but compared to his attitude while speaking to Yaakov, he spoke to him in an unfriendly manner, "Mr. Chen, Mr. Huang hopes that you'll consider carefully. Can you bear the consequences of fighting here? Mr. Huang hopes that nothing will happen."

"Are you threatening me?" Fade looked at the hotel manager coldly.

"I wouldn't dare! It's just a small expectation," the manager replied dully, but his expression didn't match his words.

Fade narrowed his eyes and looked at Yaakov and Eckhart beside him who didn't make much of a presence but had an equally strong aura.

Then, he looked at Ernest and Jenski before shaking himself lightly. The positive energy around him dissipated.

When the hotel manager saw this, smugness flashed in his eyes, and he squeezed out a smile before speaking to Yaakov, "Mr. Hsiang..."

Yaakov snorted coldly and dissipated his positive energy as well, but just before his energy was totally dispersed, he attacked lightly with his right palm.

Immediately, a ball of positive energy shot out towards Fade.

10:25

The ball of energy wasn't very powerful, but it could cause serious damage if one was hit with their guard down.

Fade felt his opponent's move and immediately retaliated. Yaakov's positive energy was shattered with a bang. Fade then looked at him coldly as he spoke with an icy voice, "Are you looking for a fight?"

Yaakov's attack had been intercepted, and he didn't look happy about that as he scoffed coldly, saying, "This is just a small lesson. If you continue acting like that, it won't be this simple next time."

With that, he turned around and strode away, followed by Hiro, Houston and the others.

On Fade's side, he narrowed his eyes and stared daggers at Yaakov, his expression cold as ice.

The matter had eased, and the crowd of guests also dispersed. Apart from Wegmer from the East Coast branch of Li Group, who still continued chatting with Fade and Ernest, the other businessmen didn't approach them.

It was obvious that Fade had offended Yaakov, and that frightened the businessmen of East Coast City. They didn't dare have any relations with him in fear of being implicated.

Given the situation, it was pointless for them to stay there. Thus, Fade and Ernest decided to retire early before the event ended. Jensi wanted to walk them out, but Fade declined the offer.

The two of them left the hotel and prepared to drive back to their hotel.

However, they had not been driving long when Fade took one look at the rear-view mirror and spoke coldly, "Uncle Soo, be careful. We're being followed."

Ernest turned around and looked back. Seeing two unlicensed cars following behind, he couldn't help but feel nervous.

10:25

However, Fade was quite calm and said, "Uncle Soo, hold on. I'm going to speed up."

In an instant, the car sped up. Ernest felt a force pushing him back, and the car sped as if it was flying.

When the two cars saw this, they sped up as well. Now, it became obvious that they were following them, or it could say that they dropped the act and started chasing after them.

Fade manoeuvred the car, weaving in and out of the traffic nimbly, whizzing past the other cars around them, and almost touching them. The thrilling feeling caused Ernest to break out in a sweat as he held onto the handle on the car door tightly, not daring to release his hold for even a moment.

Although the cars behind them were at high speed, Fade had better driving skills and slowly lost them.

However, at this moment, when the car drove onto a bridge, there were only two cars in front and a large truck that was driving in reverse, coming straight for them.

The truck roared towards them and came to a sudden stop. The front of the truck skidded and blocked the road in front of them.

At the same time, Fade could see that after the truck stopped, the door opened, and a figure jumped down from it.

Right then, Fade's car was only about fifty metres from the truck. They were speeding at two hundred kilometres per hour, and it was impossible to stop the car at such a high speed.

Ernest couldn't help but despair, his heart roared, "We're going to crash. Am I going to die here? Momo, I'm going to die, so you have to take good care of yourself when you're alone!"

Just as Ernest was thinking of his last words, Fade spoke to him in a light tone, "Uncle Soo, relax. Don't worry. We won't die."

10:25

Immediately, Fade tore Ernest's seatbelt in his right hand and grabbed him. At the same time, he threw open the door with his left hand and jumped out with him.

"Jumping out of a moving vehicle? We're jumping out at such a high speed. We're doomed!" Ernest cried out in his heart.

Then, he felt a gush of wind so strong that he couldn't open his eyes. He teared up.

"It's over, it's over, we're doomed," Ernest shouted in his heart.

Just then, he felt the wind pressure lessened, and his legs that had been kicking in mid-air felt the touch of the solid ground again.

"This..." He was puzzled. He opened his eyes and saw that he was standing on the bridge, unharmed. He didn't even have a wound on him.

Chapter 1782

As for Fade, who stood beside Ernest, his hair wasn't even dishevelled.

At the same time, there was a loud 'bang', then a ball of fire rose up into the sky before it exploded violently.

It turned out that Fade's car had crashed into the truck blocking the way and exploded.

At the time of the explosion, Fade struck out a wave of positive energy to shield Ernest from the blast.

When the explosion subsided, several men in black turned over from the other side of the truck, standing in front of Fade and Ernest, "You survived. What luck."

Fade stared at these men and was about to question them.

However, there was the sound of brakes behind him. They were the two unlicensed cars that had been following them.

The car stopped, and eight men in black came down. They instantly surrounded Fade and Ernest.

"What's going on?" The latecomers saw the explosion scene and couldn't help but ask.

The men in black from before answered, "They were lucky and jumped out of the car. Don't talk so much. Let's just kill them."

In an instant, more than a dozen men in black surrounded them.

Judging from their postures and aura, these people were obviously not ordinary men. They were martial artists and were of considerable strength, at least at the intermediate stage of the Black Level.

10:25

"Uncle Soo, you should step back a little. I will take care of them," Fade said.

Upon hearing this, one of the men in black snorted coldly, "Take care of us? Kiddo, aren't you too arrogant?"

Fade replied with a smile, "Who sent you? Yaakov, Eckhart, Evelyn, Hiro, or someone else?"

"A dead man doesn't need to know so much," the man in black snorted. A shining dagger appeared in his hand, and he stabbed at Fade ferociously.

The other men in black also started attacking. All kinds of weapons appeared, and they charged at Fade at the same time.

In that instant, blades flew, and the weapons came at Fade with serious killing intent. The reflections from the blade were like a net of death coming for him.

"Go to hell!" The man shouted.

Fade snorted coldly, and completely ignored their attacks. He used his fingers as a sword, and a stream of energy was condensed. A two feet long virtual sword appeared and manifested into a fierce, legendary weapon. It clashed with the weapons of the men in black and cut through them.

The men in black didn't expect Fade to be so powerful. They were stunned until the leader pulled out a pistol equipped with a silencer. He aimed at Fade before pulling the trigger.

Immediately, there was a bang, and a red hot bullet shot out, aiming at Fade's forehead.

When he saw this, he scoffed coldly and didn't even dodge but reached out to grab it.

10:25

"Grabbing a bullet with his bare hands, what a laughable fellow." The man in black laughed coldly when he saw this.

However, he was dumbfounded at what happened next.

That was because they had expected the bullet to pass through his palm and hit him in the forehead, but that didn't happen.

On the contrary, Fade opened his hand, and a yellow bullet appeared in the middle of it.

"With his bare hands? How is that possible?" The man in black was shocked.

At this moment, Fade suddenly threw the bullet. It cut through the wind in a flash towards the leader of the men in black.

"No..." The leader did not have the time to dodge, and he let out a scream. The bullet hit his forehead, piercing through his brain, and leaving a bloody hole the size of a fist.

The leader stopped breathing. Glaring, his body fell down straight on the ground, lifeless.

The rest of the men were stunned by their leader's sudden death before turning around and escaping in all directions.

When he saw this, Fade snorted and said, "You wish to escape? Do you think that you can escape?"

Immediately, his figure blurred, and he chased after them in a flash.

In just a few dozen seconds, Fade had killed all of them, only leaving one survivor. He dragged him back by his collar.

Throwing the man on the ground, he pulled the black mask off his face. It was the face of an unfamiliar man in his thirties. Fade couldn't recognize him.

"Tell me, who are you?" Fade shouted coldly.

10:25

The man in black asked through his trepidation, "If I tell you everything, can you let me go?"

Fade replied coldly, "You're not qualified to bargain with me!"

Seeing Fade's cold eyes, the man in black quickly said, "We're from the Black Flame Team."

"Black Flame Team?" Fade was puzzled.

At this point, Ernest explained, "I've heard of the Black Flame Team. It's an underground organization in East Coast City. They have operations such as underground casinos and collect protection fees. It seems that they're quite powerful."

Hearing this, Fade couldn't help but sneer and said with disdain, "What Black Flame Team? They are just a group of punks."

He looked down on those street punks.

"Tell me, why does the Black Flame Team want to kill me?" Fade asked.

"This... I don't know," the man replied.

Fade's face sank, and his eyes filled with anger, "You don't know?"

The man in black waved his hands anxiously, "I'm telling the truth. I really don't know. Our boss arranged this mission, and we just followed orders. We really don't know the person behind all this."

Fade looked into his eyes and observed his expression. It didn't seem as if he was lying so he asked, "Who's the boss of the Black Flame Team?"

"Our boss' nickname is Black Flame. We don't know his exact name," the man replied.

10:25

Fade asked, "Where does he live?"

"This, I don't know the exact location, but I do know that our boss frequents a club named East Palace Club."

"East Palace Club." Fade memorized the name before hitting the man in the head and killing him.

"Uncle Soo, let's go back!" Fade said to Ernest.

Ernest looked at the messy scene and was a little worried, "This, will there be any trouble?"

Fade said, "This was caused by the other party. They will clean this up themselves. We don't need to be worried."

Then, he sent Ernest back, but he didn't return to the hotel. Instead, he looked up the address of East Palace Club and rushed over.

At the same time, at East Palace Club, a stout and muscular man was embracing a few women in revealing dresses with his hands all over them.

Right then, he received a phone call, "Boss, the mission failed."

"What? Failed? You failed to kill that guy, Fade Chen?" Black Flame frowned.

"Not only did we fail to kill him, but all of our men are dead as well," his lackey reported.

Chapter 1783

"Are you all useless? A bunch of you went to kill one man and were completely annihilated. Trash. You're all trash." Black Flame was furious. He swept all the beer bottles onto the ground. The bottles crashed and shattered and shards flew everywhere, causing screams all around.

The servants all lowered their heads in silence, not daring to speak in fear of their boss venting his anger on them.

After a moment of silence, Black Flame pulled his phone out gloomily and made a call, "Mr. Hsiang, the mission failed. That fellow is still alive and my men were completely annihilated..."

There was silence on the other end of the line before the person spoke, "It's not your fault. The information was inaccurate. Go into hiding for now. Come back after the matter has died down. The Hsiang family won't forget you."

When he heard this, Black Flame was excited, and he replied respectfully, "Mr. Hsiang, rest assured, I will follow the Hsiang family's orders wholeheartedly in the future."

After expressing his thanks, Black Flame hung up. The excitement and smile on his face replaced his fury from just now.

"Although we failed the mission, we built a relationship with the Hsiang family. it wasn't for nothing."

"However, it's so ridiculous that the kid can make me go into hiding! F*ck!" Black Flame cursed before emptying his beer bottle. He then rose and instructed his lackeys, "Clean up. I'm going out."

10:25

"Yes..." The man nodded and walked to the door, preparing to open it.

However, right at that moment, there was a bang, and the door was kicked open. It fell heavily onto the ground, crushing Black Flame's subordinate under it.

Then, a young man in his twenties appeared at the doorway of the private room with a cold look in his eyes.

Upon seeing this, Black Flame's face sank, and he shouted angrily, "Who are you? How dare you mess up my, Black Flame's, turf. Are you looking for death?"

When Fade heard the name 'Black Flame', his eyes narrowed as he glared at him, speaking icily, "You're Black Flame. Then, you're the one who arranged the car chase just now!"

"You're that Fade!" When Black Flame heard this, he couldn't help but feel shocked. He immediately asked doubtfully, "How did you find this place? You..."

Before he could finish speaking, Fade's body flickered, and he rushed at Black Flame.

When Black Flame saw this, he was shocked and immediately instructed his subordinates to attack, "Stop him. Stop him now. Hurry, move faster."

The subordinates moved at once, rushing out fiercely one after the other. However, in the face of Fade, it was all in vain.

After a few cracking sounds, Fade defeated all of Black Flame's subordinates. They laid on the ground, immobilized.

"How is this possible..." Seeing this, Black Flame was alarmed. The slight fighting spirit in his heart disappeared, and he turned around to escape.

10:25

"You want to escape! Do you think it's possible?" Fade snorted coldly. In a blur, his body appeared behind Black Flame, and he threw a punch.

Immediately, Black Flame screamed and spat blood. He fell to the ground and started to howl in pain.

Fade kicked him and spoke coldly, "Shut up. Don't howl."

Black Flame endured the pain. His cheeks were swollen and flushed but he didn't dare utter another sound.

Fade stepped on his chest before asking coldly, "Speak. Who sent you to kill me?"

When he heard this, Black Flame's eyes rolled as he replied, "I, I don't know what you're talking about."

"You don't know? You're still playing dumb." Fade snorted coldly and started to increase the strength on his foot. Immediately, Black Flame felt as if there was a mountain crushing him. He could feel great pressure throughout his body. He felt as if he was going to explode.

The unbearable pain and fear made him spill the beans, "Stop stepping on me. Please stop. I'll tell you. I'll tell you everything."

"Speak!" Fade shouted coldly.

The look on Black Flame's face was complicated, and his expressions changed before he spoke, "It's the Hsiang family's Yaakov Hsiang, Young Master Hsiang."

"Yaakov! Of course, it's him!" Fade's eyes gleamed, and his expression went cold.

At this moment, a siren sounded downstairs. Then, there was a clatter of footsteps, accompanied by loud shouts approaching quickly, "Police! Everyone, don't move. Hold your head and squat down."

10:25

"Why did the police arrive so fast?" Fade was slightly surprised, and he prepared to leave from the window.

He wasn't afraid of the police, and he only didn't want the trouble of going through the procedures.

However, just as he was about to leave, the police shouted through the loudspeaker, "Fade Chen, submit at once. The police have your details. If you continue to resist, we have the authority to shoot you down."

When he heard this, Fade stiffened and his face darkened.

That was because his details the police read out immediately after were accurate. They even had Ernest's information.

"Something's wrong. These policemen didn't seem to have come after receiving a call informing them of the activity going on here." He thought, "That's because they wouldn't have come so quickly, and they wouldn't be able to prepare my information over such short notice."

It seems that Yaakov had guessed that he would make a move on Black Flame. He must have called the police even before he came over, then they would arrest him once he arrived.

At this moment, Black Flame, who was laying on the floor, thought of something, and his face darkened to the point that it was unpleasant.

He was feeling excited just then as he thought that Mr. Hsiang thought highly of him and that the Hsiang family would give him benefits, but in the blink of an eye, reality slapped him in the face. He knew that the Hsiang family didn't care about him, and he was just a dog to be deserted at any time.

In the few seconds that Fade paused, armored police had already rushed into the private room and pointed their rifles at him, "Don't move. Put your hands in the air. Don't move."

Fade raised his hands slowly and let the police take him away.

This was his decision after careful consideration. He wasn't afraid of the police, but it was different for Ernest and the others close to him. Even if this matter had nothing to do with them, it would be troublesome if they were marked by the police and received a visit from time to time.

Therefore, he decided to submit to the police and settle the matter completely, so as not to cause trouble for Ernest and the others.

Very soon, he was brought to the police station. The task force investigated him, interrogating him on the details of the car chase and murder on the bridge.

Fade didn't hide the truth and told the police everything that had happened. After all, he had acted in self-defence, so he wasn't afraid that the police would convict him.

Chapter 1784

Just as Fade was being brought to the police station, Yaakov had just returned to the Hsiang family residence and received a report from his subordinate. He smiled faintly and said, "Kiddo, it's not enough to have brute strength over here in East Coast City."

Beside him was a man in his fifties. It was Yaakov's father, Macbeth Hsiang. He looked at his son and shook his head, "Fade Chen isn't that simple. We won't be able to take him down with just the police."

Yaakov smiled, "Dad, I'm not counting on the police to convict him. It's just a small lesson. After all, we haven't gotten our revenge for Daemyn's death. We'll be letting him off the hook too easily if he goes to jail."

Upon mentioning Daemyn's death, Macbeth's face darkened, and hatred brewed in his eyes, "Although Daemyn was a profligate, it was too much of Fade to cause his death. The Hsiang family must get its revenge."

Yaakov agreed in a low voice, "The Hsiang family must avenge Daemyn's death. However, Grandpa has to make some preparations."

Macbeth said, "This time, your grandfather has hired some masters. Fade Chen is doomed."

.....

Due to the Hsiang family's influence, the police deliberately pressured Fade, but it didn't affect him much.

10:25

Of course, time was delayed, and he was only let out after a day and a half.

After packing up, he went straight to the Ernest Company and found Ernest.

When Ernest saw him, he was shocked and hurriedly asked with concern about what had happened. Fade briefly told him about the happenings and asked him whether he had met with any trouble.

Upon hearing this, Ernest shook his head, "There wasn't any trouble, and the Hsiang family didn't pressure us. If everything goes smoothly, we can start operations in a week."

Fade nodded. At this moment, his phone rang, and he picked up the call. After listening for a while, he nodded, "Alright, I get it. Tomorrow, just head straight to East Coast University."

After hanging up, he made small talk with Ernest. He found out that during the time he was locked up, Ernest had already terminated the ambassador contract with Anatasia.

After all, she had mocked them in public at the business reception.

Ernest would never let her to be their ambassador after her actions.

After he understood the situation, Fade went back to the hotel. He freshened up and rested for the night. The next day, he went directly to East Coast University. 📱

That day was a special day as there was a parent forum being held there. As one of the candidates, Shinnie had to stay back for this event, so Fade went to the campus to participate in it.

Arriving at East Coast University, it was more bustling than the last time. Apart from young and lively students, there were many luxury cars and middle-aged men and women dressed in lavish clothes.

Obviously, those people were representatives of the parents who had come to participate in the parent forum. Of course, those representatives were all carefully selected rich and powerful people. Each of them had respectable statuses.

Fade followed the flow of people all the way to the stadium, which was the venue in which the parent forum was being held.

Due to the fact that it was almost time for the forum, the scene was slightly chaotic. There were volunteers from the school who smilingly invited the parent representatives to their VIP seats.

The students and audience were seated in the outer ring.

Of course, there were students performing. They were nervously practising backstage as the statues of the parent representatives were respectable, and they didn't want to make any mistakes.

Fade looked at the busy crowd and was reminded of the time when he watched the voting at the plaza. Shinnie was in first place at that time, surpassing Anatasia. He didn't know if that was still the case.

However, he didn't care about those things. He casually found a seat and sat down to observe the parent forum.

Before long, the parent forum commenced.

First of all, the dean of the university gave a speech. After he finished, a wave of applause followed. Then, it was time to introduce the parent representatives.

Therefore, the host introduced them one by one.

"Addax Wang's father, Odhran Wang, is the founder and chairman of Odhran Estate Group. He's our city's..."

10:25

"Fiona Liu, Yannah Hu's mother, is the director of the Industry and Commerce Bureau. She's in charge of..."

.....

In short, every single person was introduced. The parent representatives were either chairmen or directors or presidents of all kinds of institutions. Different titles were thrown out as if they were very common.

As the parents were introduced one by one, the last man to come on stage caught everyone's attention.

That was because this middle-aged man was Tancred Chiang, Anatasia's father. His title was the general manager of a cultural company.

However, everyone knew that the so-called cultural company was just a work studio when Anatasia debuted as a star. Her father's title of general manager was just in name.

At first, according to the class of the parent representatives, Tancred didn't qualify, but this time, due to other reasons, the school added him to the list.

When the parent's finished their introductions, it was time for the highlight of the parent forum.

The representatives from each industry spoke their views on the education methods and suggestions to the university.

These parents were all elites from different industries, and once their discussion started, it was all in long speeches, having different views. It was all very exciting. Throughout the process, something very surprising happened. Tancred, who wasn't very well thought of, gained a round of applause after his speech. There were even other parents who took the initiative to greet him and asked him to form a partnership.

Actually, Tancred alone didn't have this ability. He was able to gain the goodwill of others so easily because of a single reason. He had announced that his cultural company had formed a partnership with the Qin family.

With their support, he grew important in the eyes of the parents, and their attitude towards him changed.

As for how he got over to the Qin family's side, Fade remembered how Anatasia and Houston were embracing during the business reception, and he immediately understood.

Therefore, Tancred became the core and focus of the parent forum.

Anatasia's face beamed with pride and excitement when she saw this.

Finally, when the discussions ended, the parents expressed their tokens of appreciation by donations or inscriptions. Anyways, all of them benefited the university.

Of course, Tancred's last donation of five million dollars was in top place and won a round of applause.

In the time following, the students went into a buzz, shouting Anatasia's name.

Chapter 1785

At this time, the forum had come to an end, and the last program was the students' performance. It was also what the students were voting on earlier.

The host stepped forward and announced loudly, "Next, let's enjoy the dance performance "Moon Chasing", brought to us by our first-year student, Shinnie Sun."

Following that, a group of pretty girls in light dresses walked upstage. Their figures were alluring and their movements graceful. Right in the middle of them was Shinnie. She was eye-catching, wearing delicate makeup and looking like a fairy right out of an ancient portrait, pure and delicate. She caught everyone's attention.

As soon as she appeared, she attracted the gazes of everyone.

The students, who had been calling out Anatasia's name, were instantly overwhelmed by others shouting Shinnie's name.

Anatasia, who was initially feeling pleased, saw this scene. Her face then darkened and her expression turned ugly.

At this time, the music had already begun. Shinnie and her fellow performers were ready and were just about to start dancing.

When Anatasia thought of something, she stood up abruptly before shouting, "Wait!"

This action shocked the audience, and everyone's eyes turned to her.

The host quickly asked, "Anatasia, is something wrong?"

10:25

Anatasia looked at Shinnie before speaking loudly, "I feel that it's inappropriate for Shinnie to perform on stage!"

As soon as she finished speaking, there was an uproar, and the audience became heated.

"What is Anatasia doing, embarrassing Shinnie!"

"Are you kidding me? The program was decided by voting. Shinnie placed first. Nothing's wrong. I think Anatasia's just jealous."

"She sure is. The last time at the plaza, she got into a quarrel with someone else because she was jealous."

"Shinnie's votes were paid for. She shouldn't be allowed to perform for this program."

"That's right. How could Shinnie's reputation compare to Anatasia's?"

.....

There were discussions and different views everywhere.

The host looked at the dean and forced a smile before asking, "Anatasia, the program has already been decided. You say that it's inappropriate. May we know the reason?"

Anatasia stared at Shinnie and snorted coldly, "The reason is simple. It's because Shinnie has improper behavior and is not qualified to perform for this program."

"Improper behavior?" As soon as she made the accusation, everyone looked confused.

Anatasia continued speaking, "I'm afraid that everyone doesn't know. A few days ago, our classmate, Shinnie, embraced an outsider intimately on campus and even got into his car. She has some improper relations with the other party."

10:25

As soon as she finished speaking, the crowd of students burst into an uproar.

"Anatasia Chiang, what nonsense are you spouting? Shinnie isn't someone to do that!"

"This is slander. Our campus belle, Shinnie, has always been pure. How could she have done something like that?"

"I don't believe it. If you tell me that Anatasia did that, it's more believable."

.....

Anatasia sneered when she heard voices of doubt and projected a video on the screen.

The content of the video was the scene in which Fade came to the university to pick Shinnie up.

When the students saw the video, their faces darkened and their expression contorted.

"What? It turned out to be true!"

"Campus belle, Shinnie, is a mistress. I'm heartbroken."

"I still can't believe it. Shinnie isn't that kind of person."

"I didn't expect that. You can't judge a book by its cover. She looks pure on the outside but inside..."

.....

Not only the students were discussing the matter, but even the parent representatives joined in the discussion.

The university dean's face was dark, and his expression was ugly. A student of his university was a mistress. This wasn't rare news in various universities.

10:25

The only difference was that this was publicly announced in front of the respectable parent representatives. If word that Shinnie was a mistress got out, East Coast University would lose its reputation.

Immediately, the dean turned to Shinnie and asked, "Shinnie, is this real?"

Shinnie didn't expect something like that to happen and was stunned from the beginning. Now, she came to her senses and explained hurriedly, "This... This isn't real."

"It's not real! Shinnie Sun, you dare say that the video is fake, and you didn't hug that man?" Anatasia questioned her.

"Well, the video is true." Shinnie tried to explain, "But the content of the video is not what it seems. That man is my brother. He came here to visit me from overseas. We are on good terms, so..."

Before she could finish, Anatasia laughed coldly, "Your brother? I've checked the records. You're an only daughter without any siblings, so can I ask, where did your brother come from?"

"You... You're talking nonsense!" Shinnie was furious, "Although Fade isn't my biological brother, we have a good relationship. I treat him as my biological brother."

"Hahaha, do you think that we will believe an explanation like that?" Anatasia sneered, "As for whether he's a brother or lover, we can see from that video."

"This is slander. I've told you, me and Brother Chen are innocent. How could you spout nonsense, you..." Shinnie was so angry her face flushed.

At that moment, many students were discussing the matter.

10:25

"I believe Shinnie's words. They're just acquaintances, and she isn't a mistress."

"Yes, this video can't prove anything!"

"Haha, they were embracing each other and still denying it? You idiot bootlickers, have your brains fried?"

"We should expose her fake appearance, acting pure to deceive others!"

In the midst of voices discussing the matter, Anatasia smiled coldly, "Shinnie, you say he's your brother, right?"

"That's right!" Shinnie nodded.

Anatasia's lips curled as she pointed to the screen, "Coincidentally, I received some news. Let's show everyone what kind of a person your good brother is!"

As she spoke, she smiled at the screen. It was followed by another video of Fade being taken away by the police and interrogated at the police station.

She then added, "This happened two days ago. Mr. Fade Chen was a suspect of a car chase murder and was officially brought in by the East Coast Police Department."

"Isn't it lucky for you to have such a brother!" Anatasia spoke with sarcasm in her voice.

Chapter 1786

At this moment, everyone was stunned when they saw the news. Even those who spoke up for Shinnie started to quiet down...

"Shinnie's brother is a murderer!"

"Since she's so intimate with such a scum, she's not a very good person either."

"Tsk tsk, I've seen through it. Birds of a feather flock together."

"You, all of you are biased. Even if Shinnie's brother committed a crime, it doesn't mean that she's the same."

"In such a situation, you're still sucking up to her! Haha, you're trash!"

"You won't get your turn even when the criminal's sick of her. I don't understand why you're still sucking up to her!"

.....

Amidst the hubbub, there were increasingly evil remarks about Shinnie.

At this time, among the parents' seats, Anatasia's father, Tancred, coughed and looked at the dean of East Coast University, "If this is the conduct and atmosphere of East Coast University, I fear for my daughter's learning environment. About the donations and partnerships from before, I fear that..."

As soon as he said this, the faces of the school leaders changed.

10:25

Some other parents also spoke.

"It's indeed inappropriate for such a student to perform in public."

"If outsiders got wind of this, they will think that a student like that represents the East Coast University. I don't think that's alright!"

"Principal Liu, if the university still insists, I will have to reconsider the donations and partnerships."

.....

Some of the parents were indeed misled, while others wanted to get into Tancred's good books and get into connections with the Qin family, who was backing him.

As for the leaders of the university, their faces were gloomy and dark.

As teachers and leaders of the school, they certainly knew the so-called evidence provided by Anatasia couldn't prove that Shinnie behaved inappropriately. The video of Fade being interrogated had nothing to do with her. As educators, they should regard the matter impartially and rationally.

However, now, in the face of the benefits promised by Tancred and the other parents, fairness didn't seem so important anymore.

Thus, the school leaders discussed among themselves and reached a consensus. It was announced by Principal Alexis Liu, "The university shall investigate Shinnie's matter, but her performance today will be cancelled."

As he spoke, a teacher went on stage to call Shinnie and the others down.

10:25

Anatasia's eyes shone with excitement and delight when she saw this. However, she was not satisfied and spoke, "Wait a minute. I don't think it's appropriate for Shinnie to continue studying at East Coast University."

Tancred immediately nodded and agreed, "Yes, I also feel that it's inappropriate."

When he said that, everyone's faces changed rapidly. They wanted to get rid of Shinnie and expel her from the university!

In a flash, the students on the scene burst into an uproar.

"Anatasia Chiang, you're going too far. Shinnie has no grievances or grudges with you. Do you have to do this?"

"Didn't she just lose to her in the votes? Must she be so narrow-minded as to take revenge to this extent?"

"Hah hah, she's the sister of a murderer. What's wrong with expelling her? I don't want to be with such a person."

"That's right. Who knows when she will suddenly rise up and attack us! I don't want to take the risk."

.....

The faces of the school leaders were contorted as Anatasia's request was just too much. She wanted to expel Shinnie based on her so-called evidence that couldn't be justified.

However, the benefits promised by Tancred and the parents were evident, and the university was unwilling to give them up.

After a discussion, Alexis announced again, "Due to Shinnie Sun's improper lifestyle bringing bad influence to the university, the authorities of the university have decided to remove Shinnie's student status and she will be expelled from East Coast University."

As soon as the decision was announced, it caused a commotion.

10:25

"What's this about, expelling a student based on two videos."

"Haha, they have rich and powerful parents. This is all just a game for the rich."

"East Coast University, such a letdown, the so-called prestigious university acts this way!"

"We object. We don't accept the decision. You'll have to expel us if you expel Shinnie."

.....

If it was just about cancelling the performance, some of the students could accept it, but now, when the university decided to expel Shinnie, many of them felt that it was outrageous.

After all, most of the students couldn't stand the sight of an ordinary student being expelled over vague evidence supplied by a rich and powerful student.

Instantly, the scene grew chaotic, and the students' voices shook the heavens.

The leaders of the university were obviously stunned as they didn't expect the matter to cause such a commotion. They immediately ordered the security to keep order, and their faces were grim.

At the same time, they got up with the parent representatives and were about to withdraw from the scene.

However, at this time, a cold voice sounded, "Do all of you wish to leave just like that?"

The voice wasn't loud, but strangely, it overwhelmed the noise in the stadium and could be clearly heard by everyone.

Just when everyone was curious about where the voice came from.

10:25

A figure floated in the air and landed in the middle of the stage.

Such a scene stunned everyone, and they were dumbfounded.

Of course, it was Fade. He landed on stage and stood beside Shinnie, hugged her shoulder, and comforted her, "Shinnie, it's alright, I'm here."

Shinnie was still dazed, and when she turned around and saw Fade, her sadness from being wronged erupted, and she burst into tears. As tears streamed down her face, she cried, "Brother Chen, you're here, sob..."

At the same time, those nearby saw Fade's face clearly.

"Isn't this guy Shinnie's brother from the video just now?"

"Didn't the police arrest him?"

"Could it be that he escaped from prison?"

.....

Amidst the chaos and confusion, Anatasia was shocked to see Fade appear.

However, he turned a blind eye to her and looked at the university leaders who were in a hurry to leave, shouting coldly, "Stop. Who said you could leave?"

In the face of the shout, many school leaders were intimidated.

Everyone stood still and turned around to look at Fade. Alexis asked, "Mr. Chen, what's the matter?"

10:25

"What's the matter?" Fade shouted coldly, "You expelled my sister for no reason, and yet you ask me what's the matter? I want an explanation for the expulsion."

"That, that's because..." Alexis' eyes drifted to and fro, but he couldn't explain his absurd behavior.

Chapter 1787

"For what?" Fade shouted coldly. He then continued in a harsh voice, "Because I was a criminal arrested by the police or because of those so-called improper behavior?"

"Let me ask you, as a well-known university in the country, with just a few words from Anatasia, you condemned my sister without investigation and expelled her! Who gave you the guts to act like that?"

Facing Fade's question, Alexis' face sank. He wanted to explain but couldn't do so.

At this time, Tancred stood out, "Mr. Chen, the expulsion was a request from us parents. We don't want our children studying in the same environment as a student with a notorious reputation. This is our wish as parents."

"Haha, notorious reputation?" Fade sneered before looking at Anatasia, "If we were to discuss a notorious reputation, I believe it suits your daughter more!"

With that, he took out his phone and connected it to the screen. Pictures began emerging on the screen.

The scenes were of Anatasia fooling around with various men before she rose to stardom. The scenes were on a much larger scale compared to Shinnie's so-called evidence.

When the students saw their goddess, Anatasia, being taken advantage of by fat, disgusting, middle-aged men, their expressions froze in place.

10:26

Anatasia was also stunned before she started screaming hysterically, "Turn it off. Turn it off now. It's fake. All of this is fake."

Tancred also shouted in a low voice, "Mr. Chen, your actions have violated my daughter's privacy and reputation rights. I'll file a lawsuit against you."

"Please do!" Fade said coldly. He didn't take Tancred's threat seriously at all.

Then, he looked at the university leaders and spoke coldly, "Dear leaders, now that you've seen Anatasia's lifestyle, don't you think you should expel her too?"

"This, this..." Alexis' expression was unpleasant, and he could only come up with an excuse, "The contents of the video are yet to be verified on their authenticity. We... We need further investigation to verify it."

"Haha, what a need to investigate. This is cold hard evidence, but there's a need to investigate because it's related to Anatasia Chiang. Whereas you expel Shinnie over that so-called evidence."

"Only now do I understand how East Coast University works. Money makes the world go around, and the other poor people should scram. I didn't make a mistake, did I? Principal Liu!" Fade bellowed.

His speech made the students indignant and agitated. Their shouts started to ring throughout the whole stadium.

"We need an explanation."

"The university isn't a property of the rich. We need justice."

"Apologize to Shinnie! Apologize to Shinnie!"

"Expel Anatasia!"

10:26

.....

In the face of such strong protests, Alexis and the university leaders chose not to speak and stood firm in their decision. When he saw this, Fade snorted coldly and spoke sarcastically, "It seems that the East Coast University is willing to be dogs as the Chiang family is rich and powerful. Haha!"

"Next, I'll let you know how ignorant you are!" Fade scoffed before calling out loudly, "It's time to come out."

Upon hearing his words, everyone was curious, and they all looked around, wanting to know who he was calling.

Under the curious eyes of the crowd, a well dressed man in a suit walked onto the stage to Shinnie and greeted her, "Miss Sun, this is the agreement for our partnership with the Sun family. Your father gave us instructions to pass the document to you."

"Who is that? A partnership with the Sun family? Can it be that the Sun family also manages business?"

"I haven't heard of it. What large business can the Sun family have?"

"Are you idiots? That man is the general manager of the East Coast branch of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc!"

"What? Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc? The big company that has been developing rapidly over the last two years? The Sun family must be doing quite well to cooperate with them!"

.....

In the midst of surprise and sighs, another man came on stage again. He wasn't anyone else but the general manager of the East Coast Branch of Li Group who had previously appeared at the business reception. It was Wegmer Li.

He also greeted Shinnie before standing beside her respectfully.

10:26

When everyone recognized him, not only were the students surprised, but even the parent representatives were also shocked. After all, the name 'Li Group' was ground-shaking in the business world.

The Sun family had business relations with new companies like Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and senior companies such as the Li Group. From this, it could be surmised that the Sun family wasn't an ordinary company.

Just when everyone was puzzled, a middle-aged man walked out, brimming with confidence.

When Shinnie saw the man, she couldn't help but look excited. Pouncing on him, she asked, "Dad, why are you here?"

It was Shinnie's father, Edward.

A few of the parents' expressions changed drastically when they saw Edward, and they quickly came over to greet him.

"Director Sun, why are you here?"

"It's an honor to meet you, Director Sun."

.....

Some of them didn't recognize Edward, but they were shocked after inquiring around.

"They're the very powerful Sun family from Dragonville?"

"I heard that the Sun family's assets amount to over tens of billions!"

"I didn't expect Shinnie's family to be so rich. She's usually low key!"

.....

10:26

Anatasia and Tancred didn't expect any of this, and they were dumbfounded. Alexis and the rest of the university leaders also looked at each other, stunned.

Just as the crowd was exclaiming in surprise, an elderly woman walked slowly onto the stage.

Shinnie was pleasantly surprised when she saw the old woman and she rushed over, "Grandma, you're here too?"

The old woman was an elder of the Sun family, Francesca.

A parent's expression changed when he saw Francesca, and he immediately rushed forward to greet her respectfully, "Greetings to Elder Sun."

"Is Shinnie's grandmother powerful too? Can it be that she also owns a big corporation? Someone asked.

Another informed person explained, "What corporation? That's Francesca Sun, a true martial arts expert. She's the most powerful expert in Dragonville, a person who can pressure a state."

"Moreover, during the past two years, Elder Sun has been in retreat to achieve a breakthrough, and her prowess has risen to the late stage of the Earth Level. Some time back, she challenged many martial arts experts in the cities nearby and won against them all. Some say that she will reach the Martial Arts Master rank in the future!"

When they heard the words "Martial Arts Master", even those that knew little of martial arts understood how powerful and terrifying Francesca was.

After all, Master Sanford Tuan was famous in East Coast City. Everyone knew about him. Even large families such as the Hsiang family, Qin family, and Geng family had to respect him. Thus, one could see how powerful a martial arts master was.

Chapter 1788

Although Francesca wasn't a master, her abilities and winning streak were powerful enough. At least, these so-called powerful parents weren't on the same level as her.

The parents who were restrained earlier, all came up immediately and started to apologize and curry favor with her.

The only ones left were Anatasia and Tancred. The father and daughter were frozen on the spot with ugly expressions on their faces.

As for the leaders of the university, they were all dumbfounded and full of regret.

After all, they went against Shinnie because of the benefits these parents had promised. In the end, Shinnie's parents were much more powerful than the other parents.

Such behavior of buying the case and returning the pearl made Alexis and the others drown in regret. At that moment, they didn't care about anything but forced a smile and went up. They started apologizing in the hopes of redeeming themselves.

However, Francesca didn't care about their apologies and looked at Shinnie instead, "Shinnie, do you still wish to stay at this university?"

She hesitated for a moment before shaking her head, "Grandma, I want a change in environment."

Francesca nodded, "Well, go through the transfer procedures now and I'll take you away."

10:26

When the leaders of East Coast University saw this, their faces turned gloomy as they had no choice but to help Shinnie through the transfer procedure.

After all, her transfer wasn't just a student transferring from the university. It meant that the Sun family would stop supporting East Coast University.

Moreover, when they saw how the parents tried to please the Sun family, they could imagine that since Francesca had made her stand, it would change the attitudes of those parents towards East Coast University as well.

Sure enough, just as Alexis and the rest of the leaders were feeling worried, some of the parents came over to inform them that they were terminating their donations and partnerships. There were even some parents who wanted to transfer their children out of the university.

In the end, only Anatasia and Tancred were left out of over twenty parents.

The two of them had grim expressions. They stood on the spot silently with long faces.

Francesca then looked at Anatasia, and without moving, she sent a slap at her. Instantly, her face swelled up from the slap. "This is a small lesson for you."

Anatasia was agitated from being slapped in public and she cried out instinctively, "Old hag, how dare you hit me, I..."

When she cried out these words, everyone, including her father's, faces changed.

At the same time, Francesca's eyes grew cold and her body flickered and appeared in front of Anatasia. Her wrinkled right hand reached out, clutched Anatasia's throat, and she lifted her off the ground.

10:26

"Do you have a death wish?" Francesca's eyes turned cold.

All of a sudden, Anatasia was suffocated and she could feel the terror of death sweeping over her.

It wasn't until that moment that she realized that the old woman in front of her wasn't a random old woman on the street, but a strong martial artist who dominated a region. She had dared to call her an old hag; wasn't she seeking death?

On the other hand, Tancred was trembling. He wanted to stop Francesca but he couldn't do anything. He could only beg through his tears, "Elder Sun, it's our fault. It was wrong of us."

However, Anatasia's cheeks grew purple and just as she was about to faint, Francesca snorted coldly before releasing her grip and throwing her on the ground.

Then, she huffed and left with Shinnie.

The other parents also started to leave and the scene was emptied in a short time.

The parent's forum ended in disaster. The university leaders all had long faces. They didn't care about Anatasia or Tancred and quickly took their leave.

As for Anatasia, she finally caught her breath and coughed violently while holding onto her chest. She watched Fade and Shinnie leave. Her eyes were laced with malice and she gritted her teeth, "Fade, Shinnie, I will have my revenge. I want to call Young Master Qin. I will take my revenge."

As for Fade and the others, they went for a meal after they left the university campus.

Due to the arrival of her father and grandmother, Shinnie was exceptionally excited and wasn't affected by the matter earlier. She was in quite a good mood.

On inquiring, she knew that Fade had secretly called Edward and Francesca to back her up.

After dinner, the Sun family went back to their hotel and started to deal with the school transfer.

Then, Fade prepared to return to his hotel.

However, at this time, an unfamiliar number called him.

"Hello." Fade picked up the phone.

A middle aged man's voice sounded from the other side, "Mr. Chen? I am Jenski's bodyguard, Keeton."

"Keeton, it's you!" Fade was slightly surprised. He then asked, "Keeton, how can I help you?"

Keeton's voice was anxious over the phone, "Mr. Chen, Jenski's gone missing, I can't find him anywhere. I'm afraid something has happened to him, so I would like to ask for your help."

"What? Jenski is missing? What the hell is going on?" Fade asked hurriedly.

Keeton quickly explained, "Mr. Chen, the last time Mr. Jenski invited you to the Geng family as a guest, he intended to ask your help in investigating his father's death."

Fade nodded and thought of the matter. At the very start, he intended to help but he never thought that the Geng family would treat him hostilely. Old Master Thamar even instructed him not to intervene in Eastin's case.

Therefore, after that visit, Fade didn't follow up on the Geng family matters.

10:26

Keeton continued, "Last time, after the Old Master warned Jensi, he didn't dare investigate his father's death in the open. However, he just couldn't bring himself to let it go, so he continued investigating in secret."

"In the end, it was yesterday when Mr. Jensi said he dug up some clues and was going to take a look. I told him to be careful and not to take risks but the situation seemed to be urgent, so Mr. Jensi followed after."

"Then, he disappeared and I haven't been able to get a hold on him," Keeton said.

"What!" Fade had a sense of foreboding, and he asked, "What did the Geng family say? Didn't you report this to them?"

Keeton replied, "I reported to the Old Master last night, but it seems that he didn't take it to heart. He didn't even send out a search party. He just said that maybe Mr. Jensi went out for some fun and we shouldn't care about him."

"What!" Fade was a little surprised and immediately asked, "Keeton, where are you now? I'll come over."

"I'm at the Geng family residence," Keeton replied.

"Keeton, please wait a moment. I'll be right there." Fade hung up and rushed to the Geng family residence.

Chapter 1789

This time, Fade didn't announce himself but just broke into the Geng family residence and went straight to the living room.

In the living room was the Old Master of the Geng Family, Thamar, along with Derex and Hiro. They were already seated there.

As soon as Fade entered the living room, Hiro shouted, "Fade Chen! How dare you trespass the Geng family residence!"

Fade glared at Hiro but ignored him. He looked at Thamar and spoke, "Master Geng, I want to ask. Did you know about Jenski's disappearance?"

Before Thamar could speak, Derex glared at Keeton, "Did you leak the matter to an outsider?"

Keeton bowed his head in silent acquiescence.

Derex snorted coldly and looked at Fade, "This is a matter of the Geng family. We won't need you to worry about it, Mr. Chen."

Fade spoke in a low voice, "Jenski was investigating his father's death and that case was connected with a mysterious and powerful organization. This is a very dangerous matter. We haven't heard from Jenski for almost a whole day. Aren't you worried?"

Derex snorted coldly, "Jenski is an adult. It's nothing to disappear for one day."

Hiro immediately echoed, "That's right. Maybe my cousin went to a club and had so much fun he forgot to come back. It's quite possible."

10:26

Fade didn't expect the Geng family to be so indifferent about Jenski. He couldn't help but fume and grit his teeth. "Jenski disappeared investigating his father's death and the other party was a real martial arts expert."

"The last time we were at Twin-Dragon Village, there were corpse-controllers and even terrifying blood corpses.

As he spoke, Fade took out his phone and showed the Geng family members a video. The contents of the video showed the scene they met with at Twin-Dragon Village.

When the Geng family saw the blood corpses and the creepy corpse-controller, they were shocked.

"How is this possible? These zombies, surely they are fake?" Hiro was pale and terrified.

Derex also spoke, "The special effects are quite well done. It must have cost a bomb. Mr. Chen, what do you expect to gain from the Geng family by doing all this?"

Fade ignored their words and looked at Tamar.

While the video was playing, Fade had observed that Tamar's body trembled when he saw the blood corpse. His hands also clenched into fists and his mood was strange.

This was unlike the surprise Hiro and the rest felt; it felt like some sort of resentment.

From this, it could be deduced that Tamar had seen blood corpses or at least knew about them. Otherwise, an ordinary person wouldn't react like that.

Therefore, Fade walked directly towards him and glared at him fiercely, "Master Geng, you know of these things, am I right?"

When Tamar heard this, a weird look came over his face and he shook his head, "I don't know anything, I don't understand what you're talking about! We, of the Geng family, will settle our own problems. Mr. Chen, please leave!"

10:26

Thamar's indifferent tone and expression irritated Fade, "Master Geng, look closely. It's your grandson and he's facing these monsters at the risk of death, and you don't care at all. Do you want to watch your grandson die? Do you want Jenski to follow in his father's footsteps?"

Facing Fade's questions, Thamar became agitated and his knuckles cracked. He gritted his teeth till his face was flushed and he was very agitated.

"Master Geng, why is it? Why won't you let Jenski investigate his father's death, why won't you help him now?" Fade looked at him, "Please tell me, I can help you."

Thamar was silent for a moment and when Fade almost couldn't help himself but make a move, he sighed and his face sank into a sullen sadness. He then spoke, "Mr. Chen, stop talking. Stop talking."

"I know that Jenski's in danger and that Eastin's death was unusual. I know that I shouldn't let my son and grandson die like that." Thamar spoke with indignation and grief, "But I don't have a choice. The Geng family is no match for them. I can't save my own son and grandson. I can't let them destroy the whole Geng family, so all I can do is..."

Before he could finish, he couldn't control himself and he burst into tears.

This time, Derex and Hiro were stunned. They didn't think that there was an inside story to the case and they remained frozen in their spots.

At this moment, Fade was certain that Thamar knew the inside story and continued asking, "Master Geng, tell me, who are they and where are they? Jenski's safety is of the utmost importance. We have to save him now."

10:26

Thamar wiped the tears of his face before shaking his head helplessly, "I... I don't know. All I know is that they're very powerful but they come and go without warning. I don't know anything more about them."

Hearing this, Fade frowned.

At this moment, a gust of cold wind blew and a creepy cold voice sounded, "Thamar Geng, in the end you still didn't listen to me and leaked out word about us!"

When he heard this, Thamar's face changed and his face was full of terror. He quickly spoke, "No, it wasn't on purpose. My lord, please give me another chance. The Geng family will never investigate further. I beg you..."

At the same time, a floating dark shadow appeared out of thin air in the living room and came to Thamar's side. The shadow wore a creepy and terrifying skull mask.

"Who are you? How dare you trespass on the Geng family residence!" Hiro shouted as he pointed at the trespasser.

"Hmph, you're courting death! The black shadow sneered and let out a ball of energy. It hit Hiro and he flew in the air before crashing onto the ground violently. He then let out a wail of pain.

Seeing this, Thamar's face changed dramatically. "My lord, no!"

The dark shadow snorted coldly, "This is just a lesson. If there is a next time, he will die."

"Thank you my lord, thank you!" Thamar hurriedly thanked him. The old master of the Geng family who was one of the most powerful people in the whole of East Coast City, could only bend the knee to this dark shadow.

The dark shadow then turned his eyes to Fade. His eyes gleamed through the mask and he asked Fade coldly, "Is it you who has been investigating us?"

Fade replied coldly, "You're from the Skull Mob, aren't you?"

Chapter 1790

The dark shadow was flustered when he heard this, "To think that you know about our organization."

Then, he growled with icy killing intent, "But the more you know, the closer you are to death."

"Come over and accept your death!" The dark shadow's voice came with an unspeakable pressure. He grabbed at the air with his hand and rushed towards Fade.

When he saw this, pity flashed in Tamar's eyes and his lips trembled as if he wanted to say something, but in the end, he didn't speak up.

On the contrary, the bodyguard, Keeton, gritted his teeth and jumped in front of Fade, trying to block the attack, "Mr. Chen, run!"

Seeing this, Fade felt warm in his heart and he smiled faintly, "Keeton, don't worry. He can't hurt me."

As he spoke, he pulled Keeton back with his left hand while his right arm shot out and he pointed in front of him gently.

Instantly, the tip of Fade's finger touched the dark shadow's palm and their energies collided.

However, the scene everyone imagined didn't happen. Everyone thought that Fade's arm would be shattered by the black shadow, but instead, the black shadow's arm shuddered and was pushed back by Fade's finger.

The dark shadow obviously did not expect this result. He was stunned before he burst with fury. When he spoke, his voice was filled with rage and killing intent, "You b*stard, you're courting death. I'll crush you."

10:26

As he spoke, the dark shadow flew down and his hand grabbed at Fade's throat like the claw of a ghost. He grabbed at him aggressively, wanting to kill him in one strike.

The strike was fierce and aggressive, brimming with the intention to kill.

However, Fade wasn't scared. Instead, he sneered coldly and stepped forward.

"You still dare to fight back!" The dark shadow snorted coldly and increased the energy in his attack.

At the same time, Fade sneered and threw a punch with his right fist.

"Bang!" His fist clashed with the dark shadow's claw.

The dark shadow increased his force in an instant. His right hand was as hard as steel, and with sharp claws, he grabbed at Fade as if he wanted to claw out a chunk of flesh.

However, when the dark shadow exerted his strength, he instantly felt that something was wrong. He clawed with all his might but couldn't even wound Fade, not to say clawing off a chunk of flesh.

"How could it be... You..." The dark shadow was shocked. He gritted his teeth and exerted his strength again.

At this time, Fade's fist moved and he spoke coldly, "Is that all you've got? If that's it, don't waste my time any longer."

Through words, a blast of positive energy erupted from Fade's fist into the dark shadow's arm. He couldn't bear the huge force and the bones in his right arm shattered with a crack.

"Argh!"

The dark shadow let out a scream of pain and he retreated quickly.

10:26

However, Fade wouldn't let escape. His feet pushed against the ground lightly and his body rushed forward. He then threw a flurry of punches and crushed the dark shadow's remaining limbs in an instant.

Then, he threw the screaming dark shadow onto the ground as if he was garbage before stepping on his dantian abdomen. He shouted coldly, "Talk. Where is Jenski?"

"I, I won't..." The dark shadow was still playing tough.

Fade didn't hesitate and used his right leg to send a wave of energy to destroy the dantian abdomen of the dark shadow. The dark shadow then let out a bloodcurdling scream.

"There is a limit to my patience. You'll die if you don't talk." Fade's glare was cold and his voice was icy.

When he felt Fade's terrifying killing intent, the dark shadow shuddered. He held back the pain and spoke, "I'll talk. I'll tell you everything."

Then, he gave him an address.

Fade looked at Keeton and the latter understood, rushing to prepare a car.

As for Fade, he strode out carrying the dark shadow.

When he walked out the room, the stunned Geng family came to their senses and they looked in the direction of the door in confusion.

"What... What's going on?"

"That Fade, he defeated the dark shadow? What is..."

10:26

If Hiro and Derex were confused and shocked, it was like a bombshell to Thamar.

He had been in contact with the dark shadow for more than ten years and he knew how powerful and terrifying he was. An entity who terrorized the Geng family for more than ten years was defeated by Fade in a matter of a few punches.

Thamar couldn't imagine how powerful Fade was.

When he thought of how they mocked him when he visited previously, Thamar shuddered. If Fade had a bad temper, he would have massacred the whole Geng family at that time.

Now that he thought of this, he was drenched in cold sweat and he was scared. At the same time, he sighed, "Jenski has a good friend!"

While Thamar was lamenting, Hiro reminded him, "Grandpa, they have all left. Are we going to follow them?"

Upon hearing this, he came back to his senses and he quickly nodded, "Of course we're going. They still have Jenski. We must go over immediately."

With that, he rushed out.

Hiro and Derex quickly followed him and the three of them got into a car before chasing after Fade's car.

On the road, Hiro and Derex were still in a daze. The happenings from before still felt like a dream.

When Thamar saw this, he told them, "What you saw just now wasn't a dream."

"Dad, what's going on? What happened to Eastin..." Derex couldn't help but voice his doubts.

When he heard this, Thamar sighed, "There's an inside story to your brother's death. That year, Eastin suddenly went crazy and he died bizarrely. I was filled with grief and indignation. I swore to get to the bottom of his death and find the real culprit.

10:26

"At that time, I hired many experts and consumed a huge amount of time and money. Although it was difficult, we found some clues about the culprit after three years.

"Culprit? Those men in skull masks? Derex asked.

Hiro asked, "Didn't Fade call them the Skull Mob?"

Thamar nodded, "Yes, the Skull Mob. I had clues leading to them and I knew that they caused Eastin's death. Thus, I hired a bunch of experts and we were prepared to raid them and get revenge for Eastin."

"However, I never thought that twenty of the experts I hired couldn't fight against three of them. We were totally annihilated."

"Then, they found me and threatened me with the Geng family. They made me stop my investigations and at the same time, they made me handle their affairs secretly. They were too powerful. The Geng family couldn't stand up to them so I could only submit..."
