

Chapter 1891

"You want the Sacred Water?" Fade looked at the four of them.

Adame nodded and smiled. "Mr. Chen, if you're willing to cooperate, then we can save a lot of trouble."

Eve also smiled and said, "Handsome boy, don't worry. I will give you a quick death. I won't let you suffer in pain too much."

Serpent and Crusian still didn't say a word, but they continued to approach him, and their aura concentrated around them.

Seeing this, Fade sneered. He then glanced at Tulku Dalai and Tulku Panchen and said in a cold tone, "I've said that I'll kill anyone who tries to take what belongs to me."

Upon finishing his words, he shot out two streams of positive energy, whizzing through the air at the foreheads of the two Great Tulkus.

The two of them were already extremely weak. They would not have the strength to withstand such force, so they were horrified. Watching the streams of energy coming towards them, they could not help but shout, "Help!"

Adame was the closest to the two of them. When he saw Fade attack, his expression changed and he looked angry. With a shout, he sent two streams of forces to block Fade's incoming attack. "You dare to attack in front of me? You're asking for death!"

Bang! Bang!

11:35

A loud crash was heard as the two forces collided.

Adam snorted and gathered his positive energy, preparing to launch an attack on Fade.

However, he was shocked by what he saw at that moment.

As the collision happened, the energy that he sent out was directly shattered. However, Fade's streams of energy did not shatter at all. Instead, they continued to shoot forward.

"No!" Adam saw this and let out a cry. He wanted to stop the approaching energy.

However, it was too late. Two streams of energy pierced through Tulku Dalai and Tulku Panchen's eyebrows, following the sound of whooshing air.

Instantly, they died and fell on the ground. They could not be any more dead.

All of this happened so quickly that the whole audience were shocked. They didn't expect this at all.

After a short period of being stunned, Adame's face became unpleasant. The veins on his forehead bulged as he glared at Fade and shouted, "I'm going to kill you!"

Then, Adame's and Eve's auras surged like crazy, enveloping the entire sky as they arrived with a rumbling sound.

Seeing this, Crusian, who had never spoken a word, let out a cold laugh and said, "Adame, stop those disgusting acts. Those who don't know might actually think you have a good relationship with Dalai and Panchen. You were still planning on how to kill them both just now when we were on the way. Isn't this just right for you?"

Hearing this, the anger on Adame's face instantly faded. Then, he said with a smile, "Crusian, I needed an excuse for my attack just now. Why did you expose me?"

Crusian then said with an expressionless tone, "He's just a nobody; killing him is nothing. There's no need to find an excuse."

Adame smiled. "That's true. I was overthinking."

As he spoke, he looked at Fade and said while smirking, "Brat, it's your honor to die at my hands. Now, go to hell!"

Fade snorted. He did not speak, but his positive energy rose rapidly and he was ready to fight.

However, at this time, a shout came from his side, "Fade, you cannot do it!"

Hearing the voice, Fade turned his head and found that it was Sabriel who had spoken. He immediately frowned and asked, "What did you say?"

Sabriel looked at him with a confident expression. "Fade, they are international martial artists. Without permission from the Clan Committee, you are not allowed to fight with them to prevent any conflicts."

"Permission from the Clan Committee?" Fade snorted. He looked at Sabriel and said, "If you don't allow me to do that, then are you going to do this yourself? If you're willing to do that, I don't mind."

As he said that, he made a gesture as if he was going to grab Sabriel over.

Seeing this, Sabriel stepped back in fear and said in a hurry, "Fade, you, don't do anything stupid."

Then, he looked at Adame and the others and said, "I am a committee member of the Clan Committee. All of you are foreign martial artists. Without our permission, you are not allowed to..."

However, before he could finish his words, Adame impatiently waved his hand and sent out a burst of energy that directly hit

Sabriel's feet, smashing the rocks beside him to pieces. "Keep talking nonsense and I'll kill you right away."

Sabriel was so scared that his face turned pale. He froze in place and didn't dare to move anymore.

Following this, Adame waved his right hand and a long and thin sword appeared in his hand. He stared at it and said arrogantly, "It is your honor to die by my sword."

Following his words, the cross-shaped sword in his hand emitted a bright light, which then formed a cross in the air. It flew right at Fade.

"Die! "

This sword had incomparably powerful energy. Before the sword went down, it created a huge wave that was several dozen meters long over Namuchia Lake. The calm surface of the lake was disturbed from the attack of the sword.

Seeing this, the audiences at the site and online couldn't help getting nervous. Their hearts were in breathless anxiety and they were worried about Fade.

However, when Fade saw this sword, his expression remained calm and he snorted coldly. Then, he turned his fingers into swords and slashed them in the air.

Immediately, Fade's energy cut through the air and collided with the tip of the cross-shaped sword. Then, his virtual sword easily split apart Adame's sword, and it slashed towards Adame's chest fiercely.

Adame was shocked. He didn't expect Fade's sword to be so powerful, so he dodged quickly.

However, it was too late. Fade's virtual sword whistled and chopped down.

Adame gathered his energy and defended against it. However, it was useless under the attack of the virtual sword.

The virtual sword sliced through Adame's body. He was frozen in place and his face was expressionless. A few seconds later, a crack appeared on his body as fresh blood flowed out.

Adame's body split into two. He fell to the ground; he was dead.

"Ah, Adame!" Eve was the first to react. She shouted as she rushed over.

Almost at the same time, Crusian and Serpent also reacted. Their expressions turned serious as they turned to Eve and shouted, "His strength has exceeded our expectations. Let's attack together, or else, we'll all die here!"

Instantly, the three international masters worked together on their energy and attacked Fade.

Meanwhile, the audience, who were shocked at first, came back to their senses and started to discuss what they just saw.

"Adame is dead. Fade is too powerful."

"It's so sick! Fade killed the foreigner with one strike. He's so powerful."

"Who said just now that Fade is going to lose? You have just slapped yourself across the face!"

"Yes, who's the one who made that comment? Show yourself!"

"Hmph, don't be so happy. Fade's attack was sneaky, but now, if the remaining three of them work together, he will definitely be defeated."

Chapter 1892

Even though the three of them were attacking him at the same time, Fade showed no fear at all and faced them head-on. Instantly, several waves of positive vital energy exploded on the scene. The explosion stirred up waves of air, shaking the entire ground.

The water in Namuchia Lake roared in waves. Wave after wave rose from the lake from the colliding and exploding of the bursts of energy, creating a water fountain in the air.

Everyone was astonished to see this but at the same time, they were worried about Fade.

The audiences at the site and online felt as if their heart was hanging in the air.

"If the three of them work together, is Fade going to lose?"

"Mr. Chen just killed Adame just now. He must be stronger than them. He'll definitely win."

"But the opponents are a team of three and Mr. Chen is only one person!"

.....

"Foreign martial artists have invaded our country. What about our local martial artists? Why is no one coming to help?"

"Right? When Mr. Chen disappeared, everyone else was actively trying to snatch his things, but when he is facing an enemy, they

"Could it be that the martial artists in our country only fight with their own people?"

"Isn't there a Martial Arts League or the Clan Committee? Didn't they say they're an official organization for martial artists? Why don't they show up now?"

.....

There were questions and dissatisfaction on the Internet. Meanwhile, Sabriel and Irfan, who were members of the Clan Committee, were using their mobile phones to report the situation on the spot.

After some short communication, Sabriel said, "Got it. Please rest assured, vice president. I'll handle this properly."

"I won't let him do anything that will disrupt the relationship between the local and foreign martial artists."

"I will complete the task."

.....

After hanging up the phone, Sabriel looked at the four of them who were in the middle of chaos. A glimpse of fierceness showed up in his eyes.

Meanwhile, Fade had a general idea of their strength from fighting with them.

"Boom!" He shot out a stream of energy which pushed the three of them backward. He then snorted coldly and said, "Is this it? Your capability? If this is it, then don't waste time and prepare to die!"

"Arrogant fellow, you are asking for death!" Crusian, who was holding onto the huge stone hammer, spoke with an extremely cold expression on his face.

Eve, who had flaming red lips, had a face filled with hatred. She glared fiercely at Fade and gritted her teeth. "I'm going to kill you to avenge Adame."

Serpent remained silent, but he was moving extremely fast. He took the lead in attacking Fade.

He pulled out a fist-sized jar from his pocket and threw it at Fade.

Fade then snorted while blowing out a stream of energy which smashed the jar into pieces.

However, after the jar blew up, a ball of grayish-green powder spilled out from the inside.

Following the explosion, the powder filled the air and enveloped Fade.

In the blink of an eye, he was entirely enveloped by the powder.

Meanwhile, the audience at the scene also noticed something unusual. When they smelled the unpleasant scent, their faces changed dramatically and they turned their heads and ran away.

"The powder is poisonous!"

"Run! The powder is coming here!"

"This smell, I can't... "

Although the audience stood far away, they had still underestimated how poisonous the powder was.

11:36

In the downwind area, several members of the audience who were moving slowly accidentally inhaled a mouthful of powder.

In less than ten seconds, their faces turned black and they fell to the ground. Their entire bodies started to twitch and they spat white foam out of their mouths. Then, in less than half a minute, they stopped breathing and their bodies froze. Even the flesh on their faces began to gradually decay.

This terrified everyone else and they started to flee.

As for the online audiences, although they were in no danger, this terrifying scene still shocked them and their faces turned pale.

"This toxin is horrible!"

"Serpent is so vicious!"

"Can't we punish this fellow from Induland for killing innocent people?"

"Fade, how is Master Chen?"

Hearing this, everyone's attention was drawn back to Fade.

Then, when they saw him, who was completely wrapped in the poisonous powder, they couldn't help but feel their hearts sink, and their expressions became astonished.

"F-Fade was covered in poison powder. C-Can he survive?"

"Fade is a master. It's not that easy to defeat him."

11:36

"But just now, you saw how truly terrifying that poison powder is."

"I hope Fade is okay. He must be fine!"

.....

Meanwhile, Fade was wrapped in poisonous powder.

On top of Serpent, Crusian and Eve did not dare to approach him.

However, they still stood in a triangle position along with him, blocking Fade's escape route.

A minute later, the poisonous powder that enveloped Fade gradually dissipated in the air, and everyone focused on him.

Especially Serpent. He was wrapped in the yellow robe. Only his eyes were exposed and he looked directly at Fade with a deadly stare.

Finally, the poisonous powder dissipated completely, and Fade appeared in the crowd's sight.

When everyone saw him, they couldn't help but be shocked.

That was because he stood steadily with a serious look, without any expression on his face. There was no sign of poisoning on his face, not even on his clothes.

"This... How is this possible..." Even Serpent, who had not spoken at all, let out a cry of surprise.

After that, he immediately turned around and fled.

That was because he knew that poison was his greatest weapon. If his poison could not kill Fade, then there was no way he could beat him.

However, by the time Serpent realized this, it was already too late.

Just as he turned around and was about to escape, Fade had already shot out a stream of light in the air and it chased directly after Serpent.

He could feel the terrible energy that was chasing after him. He was totally terrified and ran away wildly. At the same time, he took out a variety of things from his body and constantly threw them behind him.

Terrifying venomous snakes, centipedes, and colorful venom scattered around as if a fairy was showering flowers; they were headed right for Fade.

However, Serpent didn't expect him to be unafraid of these poisons at all. He gathered a ball of red flame in his palms, and he threw it out, burning all the poisons into ashes. Then, he quickly chased after them.

Meanwhile, the remaining poison drifted toward Crusian and Eve who were also running, forcing them to slow down and take a detour.

While they were taking a detour, Fade had already caught up to Serpent.

Chapter 1893

The flame in the palm of his hand was burning. Fade cried out with a shout while he slapped it on Serpent, "Go to hell!"

"No!" Serpent was so terrified that he let out a wild scream.

However, the scorching flames still landed on his body.

Immediately, the clothes on his body began to burn. After which, the flames swiftly spread to his entire body, turning him into a huge ball of flame.

He was screaming like crazy, trying to put out the fire on his body.

However, his voice was soon covered by the fire and it kept getting softer and softer. In the end, he was completely silent. His body had turned into burnt charcoal and it fell to the ground, shattering into pieces.

Serpent, who was ranked 82nd on the Dark List, was dead.

As Serpent died, Fade turned around and looked coldly at Crusian, who was chasing after him.

Seeing his stare, Crusian's heart skipped a beat. He felt a chill surging from the bottom of his heart. He felt as if the fear was crawling from within.

He then gave up on the idea of battling. He turned around and prepared to flee.

11:36

"Want to flee? Do you think that's possible?" Fade snorted and charged towards him.

Fade's speed was extremely fast. In the blink of an eye, he had caught up with him.

Crusian was shocked, feeling the terrible force chasing after him. While feeling scared, he turned around, picked up the huge stone hammer in his hand, and smashed it towards Fade.

He knew that in this situation, he could only die if he tried to escape. However, if he faced it head-on, he stood a chance of victory.

As a result, Crusian used the hammer and smashed down on Fade with all his strength. The force was terrifying.

The stone hammer was still in the air but the pressure it generated by compressing the air shattered the stones on the ground into powder. It could be seen that the power of this hammer was tremendous.

"Take my hammer!" He shouted and threw the stone hammer at Fade.

In facing this incoming hammer, Fade dodged and directly threw a punch with his right hand, head-to-head with Crusian's stone hammer.

Seeing this, a glimpse of surprise and joy flashed through Crusian's eyes. His mouth twitched a little and he said, "Kid, you're crazy. You actually used your fist to fight against my stone hammer. Initially, I wasn't certain that I would be able to defeat you with this hammer, but now, you will definitely lose."

His heart was filled with joy. His facial expression started to show arrogance as the hammer smashed down.

Bang!

11:36

With a loud bang, the stone hammer directly collided with Fade's fist.

A huge sound wave instantly spread out from the collision in all directions.

The audience, who had been hiding hundreds of meters away, still felt dizzy when they were hit by the sound wave.

The sound waves even damaged many cameras and their recording devices.

Meanwhile, Fade, who was in the center of the wave, had no expression on his face and looked completely normal.

Instead, a faint smile appeared on his face and he said, "You're dead!"

Hearing this, Crusian was startled. He then felt that his right hand had become slightly lighter. Then, he saw that the stone hammer in his hand had shattered.

A magnificent power broke through the stone hammer and rushed towards his body.

His short and thin body was hit by this force and he suddenly exploded in the air, splashing out in a mass of blood. He was completely dead.

Crusian, who was ranked 80th on the Dark List, was also killed by Fade.

Out of the four masters on the Dark List, in less than a few minutes, only Eve remained.

Seeing this, she, who originally wanted to attack, was extremely shocked. She no longer had the mood to fight and wanted to run away.

After all, if she was not working with Adame, her individual strength was weaker than Serpent and Crusian to begin with.

11:36

Moreover, she was weaker than Adame. She didn't have any chance of winning against Fade on her own.

When Fade saw her running away, he snorted, then he took a leap and chased after her. "Do you think you can run away?"

She was terrified of being chased by him. She gritted her teeth and ran as fast as she could.

As she was escaping, she saw two figures in front of her and an idea came to her. She then shouted, "Mr. Khung of the Clan Committee. I'm a descendant of the Altis family in Micovia. If I die here, our family will not let this go easily."

Hearing that, Sabriel's face changed. "Atlis family, the famous family in Micovia."

Then, he immediately looked at Fade and shouted, "Fade, stop! Stop right now!"

Hearing this, Fade couldn't help but snort and looked at him with a cold gaze.

Sabriel continued to say, "Eve is from the Atlis family of Micovia. The Atlis family is very powerful in Micovia."

"I'm not afraid of any family," Fade retorted in a cold tone.

Sabriel said, "It's not a matter of you being afraid or not. It's not good for our country to offend the Atlis family. Fade, this is not just you, but it represents the martial artists in our country. Your action may cause the Atlis family to retaliate against our martial artists."

"I don't represent the martial artists of our country. Don't use your authority to order me!" Fade said.

Seeing that Fade was about to continue the attack, Sabriel became anxious and shouted, "Fade, stop the chase immediately. This is an order from Mr. Huang of the Clan Committee!"

"Mr. Huang? I don't know him," Fade said and continued to chase after Eve.

11:36

"Fade, are you sure you want to offend the Clan Committee?" Sabriel shouted.

Fade didn't pay attention to him and chased after Eve. His right hand was in the air, and he slapped her.

She could not dodge. She could only watch the palm fall on her and it slapped her to the ground.

With a boom, a hole appeared in the ground. She had turned into a mangled mass of bloody flesh. She was dead.

Seeing this, Sabriel's expression changed. He gritted his teeth and glared at Fade. "Do you know that you've made a big mistake?"

Fade looked at him and said in a cold voice, "If you continue to talk nonsense, I'll kill you."

Feeling the danger, Sabriel was so scared that his body froze. He didn't dare to move anymore.

Meanwhile, the audience watching were stunned for a few seconds, and then soon after, they started to get heated about this.

"Fade won! He won!"

"One against four! He's way too powerful!"

"He killed four masters from the Dark List on his own. Master Chen is invincible!"

"The one who said that Fade will definitely be defeated, come out now!"

.....

"Master Chen's victory is something to be delighted over, but in my opinion, Sabriel from the Clan Committee was so annoying."

"Yes, he's too disgusting. When the foreigners started to fight, he didn't help. On the contrary, he stopped Master Chen from fighting. What the hell is he doing?"

"Traitor! He's just a f*cking traitor!"

"Didn't he see those innocent casualties there ? Yet, he's still helping those foreigners."

.....

In addition to the discussion about Fade's victory, there was also a series of discussions on Sabriel's betrayal on the Internet.

Chapter 1894

At this moment, after killing the four masters from the Dark List, Fade stood steadily with his hands behind him. Then, he said while looking into the camera, "I, Fade, am announcing that Sacred Water is still my company. If anyone has any intentions, you will die like the four of them."

"On top of that, I killed these four people. If you want to take revenge on me, you can come after me, and I will take full responsibility for it."

After that, he waved his sleeve and instantly, there was a crackling sound, and all the cameras on the scene burst into flames. The live broadcast on the Internet also came to an abrupt end. The online audience members were extremely excited after listening to his final announcement.

"He's so generous. No wonder he's a young master. What he said just now was so cool."

"Let's see if those foreigners still dare to step foot inside our country. Master Chen will not let them go."

"Master Chen, you will be my idol forever."

.....

The ordinary audience was still immersed in the excitement of Fade's victory.

However, a part of the audience was shocked after listening to his final words. As the live broadcast cut off, their first reaction was to pick up their phones and make a phone call to give out orders.

"Quick, all of you, stop your plans!"

"All our plans are voided. All of them, right now!"

"I told you to come back, didn't you hear me? Hurry up!"

"Stop it! Otherwise, our family will be dead for sure!"

.....

All these people were those from all over the world who had believed that Fade was dead and wanted to take over his forces.

Quite a few of them were from families who had previously had conflicts with him. The others were those who were just greedy and wanted to take the opportunity to make a profit.

As a result, they were all terrified after watching the live broadcast. The greed and revenge in their hearts disappeared instantly and they dared not do anything.

Some families, who were still in the process of planning, quickly halted their plans.

Those who had begun their actions immediately stopped everything and started their remedial management. However, they had no idea whether these measures were effective for Fade or not. They could only hope that he would not pay attention to all these small matters.

Other than the heated discussion amongst the country's netizens, the overseas discussion forums were heated as well.

Of course, the focus of their discussion was not on Fade, but the four masters from the Dark List who worked together.

11:36

After all, they did not really know about Fade. It was only after learning that the four masters on the Dark List were going there that they came to become interested in them.

Initially, they thought that the four of them would definitely win, so they watched the battle with playful attitudes.

However, when they saw Fade kill the four masters by himself, they were all shocked, and the martial arts forums instantly exploded.

"Oh my God, who is this Chinese martial artist? How can he be so powerful?"

"That's Serpent, Crusian, Adame, and Eve. They all died at the hands of Fade even though they worked together. It's shocking."

"Do you know who the guy is? What status does he have in the country? Is he on the Dark List?"

"I know that guy. His name is Fade. He is less than 30 years old, but he has reached the level of a master. He is quite famous in his country. However, he is not the top one, and he is not on the Dark List either."

There was hot discussion on the Internet, as there was in the real world. Everyone was busy talking about this.

In the office building of the Clan Committee in Capital City, a group of people hurried to the meeting room on the top floor, and they all looked grim.

The man sitting in the main seat was a middle-aged man in his fifties, Gregory Zhao. He was wearing a traditional suit and a pair of glasses.

He looked at the people by his side and said, "Since everyone is here, let's start the meeting."

11:36

"Today, I have urgently gathered all of you and I'm sure you know what we are discussing today."

Before he finished speaking, another middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes next to him said, "Mr. Zhao, there is nothing to discuss. Fade has gone too far."

"In my opinion, we should issue an arrest warrant right away and gather the Martial Arts League, Stealth, and the other organizations to arrest Fade, and bring him back to the capital to receive punishment."

Hearing that, a martial artist in a tight suit raised his eyebrows and said unpleasantly, "Mr. Huang, what are you trying to do? An arrest warrant to arrest Fade?"

"I'd like to ask, what did Fade do wrong that made you want to arrest him?"

Yonda Huang, who was sitting opposite, frowned when he saw this. He looked at the well-dressed martial artist who was named Levon Sun, and said in a deep voice, "Mr. Sun, Fade ignored the order from the Clan Committee and attacked recklessly, causing terrible consequences. Isn't this a mistake?"

Levon said coldly, "Order from the Clan Committee? I think it was simply your order, wasn't it, Mr. Huang?"

"As a local martial artist, you were attacked by a foreigner, but you were ordered by your own people not to do anything. I'd like to ask, Mr. Huang, what was your intention behind this order?"

"Levon Sun!" Upon hearing this, Yonda, who was dressed formally, looked serious and glared at Levon who was opposite him. He gritted his teeth and shouted, "Didn't you hear that Eve was a member of the Atlis family in Micovia? Don't you know the consequences of killing someone from that family?"

Levon snorted. He stared at him and said, "Yonda, don't frighten us with your outdated tricks. Although the Atlis family is powerful, are we afraid of them?"

"It's not about being afraid, it's about our upcoming plan. If we offend the people from the Atlis family now, it won't benefit us at all. It might even affect the success of the big plan."

"Do you want our plan to fail?" Yonda asked.

Levon's expression changed, and he immediately said, "Yonda, you can't define the big plan by just one word. Moreover, even if you can, so what? Should we get bullied without fighting back?"

"You're being nonsensical. I'm considering the overall situation, but you're just focusing on small matters. Are they the same issue?" Yonda said angrily.

"If you can't manage the small matters, then how are you going to manage the bigger plans!" Levon shouted coldly.

.....

Seeing that the both of them were getting more intense, Gregory, who was the president, slammed his palm on the table and shouted, "Shut up!"

"Since things have already happened, this meeting is to discuss the following countermeasures, not to quarrel. Do you understand?"

"Got it."

"Got it."

Levon and Yonda looked at him and nodded.

Chapter 1895

"Since that's the case, let's start the meeting!" Gregory said.

Half an hour later, the meeting ended. Gregory closed the folder and said, "It's settled. Gather all the people as soon as possible and discuss it in the meeting."

"Yes, sir!"

Everyone nodded and were dismissed.

After walking out of the meeting room, Levon and Yonda glared at each other in the corridor. Their gazes looked unpleasant and they sneered at each other, then they turned away and left.

Meanwhile, Fade who was in Northern Jusberg had not only killed Tulku Dalai and Tulku Panchen, but also the four masters on the Dark List, which made him well-known. This had successfully suppressed all the people who tried to take over the Sacred Water Company.

Subsequently, he left and went to the places he had visited such as Hamlin City, East Stream City, and Dragonville City.

He had killed those daring people who tried to fight so easily, and this shocked everyone, suppressing those who previously had bad intentions.

After wandering to a few cities, he finally returned to East Coast City.

As soon as he arrived, he received a notice from the Clan Committee.

The content of the notice was as per his expectations. It was not an accusation or an arrest warrant, but an invitation. They invited him, who was the leader of the hidden families, to go to Capital City within a week to participate in the important meeting held by them.

Fade contacted his friends and wanted to inquire about the details of the meeting. However, no one knew about it.

They only knew that the specifications for the meeting were very high and it was top-secret. Furthermore, it was a meeting jointly decided by the higher-ups. Not only was he invited, but all the major martial artists and even the Heaven Level masters sent people to attend this meeting.

Thus, he managed the affairs of East Coast City and was ready to fly to Capital City.

However, when he checked for tickets, he found that the tickets to Capital City were sold out and there were no tickets left for the next few days.

After learning the situation, Ernest was planning to arrange a private plane for Fade, but he rejected it. After all, there was about a week until the meeting, so there was no hurry.

Therefore, he bought a ticket for high-speed rail and took the train to Capital City.

Ernest bought him a seat in the business class. The seats were much bigger, and there were fewer people in the car. Besides, the whole area was quiet and the place was nice.

Fade sat down, leaned back in his chair, and rested with his eyes closed.

However, a lively voice suddenly appeared in his ear, "Sir, my seat is inside. Excuse me?"

Hearing the voice, he looked up and saw a girl with two ponytails standing right in front of him. She was smiling gracefully and she looked very cute.

"Well, please go in!" He stood up and cleared the seat by the window for the girl. He then helped her put her luggage on the rack.

Seeing this, the young girl took out a candy and said to him, "Sir, thank you. This candy is for you."

He took the candy and couldn't help but smile. "Thank you."

The young girl was very lively. After sitting down, she took the initiative to chat with Fade, "Sir, my name is Sylvia Yi. What's your name?"

"Fade," he replied with a smile.

"Fade, are you going to Capital City too?" Sylvia asked.

He nodded and said, "Yes, what about you?"

She nodded and said, "Yes, I'm going to Capital City, but I'm going to my uncle's house."

"Oh, visiting relatives," he laughed and said.

Later, he chatted with her for a while and they became familiar with each other. However, when the train started, they did not chat anymore but rested with their eyes closed.

After moving for two hours, a number of passengers boarded the train in one of the stations. Many passengers were walking into the coach which made it quite noisy.

However, this didn't affect Fade. He didn't pay attention to the noise around him, preparing to close his eyes to rest.

However, just then, at the entrance of the front coach, a middle-aged man was walking towards the front. The man was dressed in casual clothes and carried a briefcase in his hand. He looked like an ordinary business passenger, and there was nothing special about him.

However, when Fade saw him for the first time, he felt that something was off with this man.

He could sense the faint positive energy from him. He could tell that he was a martial artist, and from his fierce look, he was definitely not any ordinary person.

Although Fade could tell what his identity was, he did not make any moves.

As for this martial artist, although his movements were very concealed, he could still see his eyes glance around the interior of the coach, as if he was looking for something.

As he walked, the man was about to see him.

At this moment, Sylvia, who was sitting inside, suddenly laid down on Fade's body and buried herself in his arms.

Fade froze for a moment when he felt the warmth and softness in his arms. He was surprised and said, "Sylvia, you..."

She held his arm tightly and said in a soft voice, "Fade, I'm feeling uncomfortable. Can you let me lean on you for a while?"

11:36

He could sense the nervousness in her voice. Also, since their bodies were close to each other, he could sense the tension in her body. She was very anxious.

"There seems to be a problem." He had an idea. He could not help but look at the middle-aged man who was standing not far in front of him.

However, he did not ask any more questions. He gently held Sylvia in his arms, and he also lowered his head and leaned over. From an outsider's point of view, they looked like a young couple making out. Although it was a bit eye-catching, it was not too surprising.

When the middle-aged man walked past them, Fade could clearly feel that Sylvia was very nervous, and her body even trembled slightly.

Therefore, he held her in his arms tightly, giving her a sense of security.

When the middle-aged man came over, he scanned through the seats on both sides and continued to search for the person he was looking for.

When he looked in Fade's direction, he could not help but stare at them. He even moved his body slightly, hoping to see the person in Fade's arms.

Sensing his gaze, Fade raised his head and glared at the man unpleasantly, with warning in his eyes.

The man seemed to have noticed that he was being rude, thus he didn't stop but continued to move forward.

A few minutes later, the man had walked out of the coach. Sylvia, the young girl who buried herself into Fade's arms, breathed a sigh of relief and got up from his arms.

"Fade, thank you." Her cheeks were flushed, and she tidied up her messy hair. She did not dare to look into his eyes and seemed a little shy.

Chapter 1896

"You're welcome," Fade said in a soft voice, staring intently at the young girl. He paused for a few seconds and then said slowly, "Sylvia, that person just now... Do you know..."

"No, I have nothing to do with him!" She immediately denied it.

However, her attitude and tone made him even more certain that the man just now was looking for her.

After a few seconds of silence, she also noticed that her reaction was a little excessive. She bowed her head and said to him in an apologetical tone, "Fade, I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. It's just... just..."

"It's just that things are a little complicated, and dangerous. I don't want you to..."

He could feel her sincerity. He nodded and whispered, "It's okay, I don't blame you."

"No matter what danger it is, as long as I am here, everything will be fine," he patted his chest with a smile and said to her.

"Thank you, Fade!" Hearing his words, she smiled and nodded, but there was still a trace of worry in her eyes. Obviously, she did not take his promise seriously.

The train continued to move forward and after another few hours, the train arrived in Capital City on time without any incidents.

Fade and Sylvia got out of the car together and went toward the platform.

11:36

When they arrived at the exit of the station, she waved her hand and thanked him. Then, she carried her luggage, turned around, and left.

He was about to turn and leave too, but at this time, he suddenly saw a black shadow flash in the corner of his eyes.

He immediately looked over. Then, he saw that the black figure squeezed out from the crowd and walked towards Sylvia. Judging from the body size of the black figure, he was the middle-aged man on the train.

Suddenly, Fade's heart skipped a beat and he became worried about her. He then took a step forward and chased after her.

There were many people at the gate of the station. The middle-aged man obviously did not intend to do anything there. He was just following her from a distance. However, he did not notice that Fade was following him too, as silent as a ghost.

Thus, the three of them walked out of the station and onto a street.

After walking for some distance, Sylvia stopped at a junction and she took out her mobile phone to make a call.

At this moment, the middle-aged man behind her sped up and quickly approached her from behind. He raised his right hand and was about to slam it against her neck.

She, who was on the phone, also seemed to have noticed something unusual. She turned her head around and saw the man who was making his move.

Suddenly, she was frightened and screamed. Her phone fell to the ground, and she turned around, wanting to escape.

However, the middle-aged man moved faster. He stretched out his left hand and grabbed her shoulder. Then, he moved his right hand and was about to make a move.

11:36

Although she struggled with all her might, she was no match for the middle-aged man. She could only watch him attack her helplessly.

Her heart was full of regret at this moment. "I thought I had escaped from him on the train, so I let down my guard. I've been so careless. I'm unworthy of the expectation from my master and the clan."

As she was feeling hopeless, a figure appeared next to her like a flash.

He suddenly blocked the middle-aged man's right hand at the critical moment.

Sylvia and the middle-aged man were both shocked and looked over.

"Fade, it's you!" Her eyes were full of surprise, and then she became worried again. "Brother Chen, he is a martial artist! Run!"

"It's you!" The middle-aged man also recognized him. "I noticed that you were acting strange on the train."

"This is a martial artist's business. I'd advise you not to intervene, or you might die without realizing it," the middle-aged man threatened him. A surge of positive energy burst out from his body. He was actually a Black Level martial artist, hence his strength was pretty good.

Sylvia felt his aura, and her positive energy burst out too. She was also a martial artist, but she was only at the Yellow Level. She was much weaker than the middle-aged man.

"Fade, run!" She rushed out and stood in front of the middle-aged man, shouting at Fade.

Seeing this, Fade felt warmth in his heart. However, he did not leave. Instead, he stepped forward and said to her, "Sylvia, don't worry. He can't hurt me."

11:36

"Kid, since you want to die, then don't blame me for killing you!" The man's eyes had a fierce look, and the burst of positive energy was as sharp as a knife as it went right towards Fade's heart.

Upon seeing this, Fade's eyes narrowed, emitting a sense of coldness.

Then, he slapped him.

"Die!" The man gritted his teeth and shouted in a deep voice.

Fade's palm collided with his stream of energy, and then the following scene surprised him. His positive energy that he was very proud of was smashed instantly, whereas Fade's palm was not damaged at all.

"Y-You are also a martial artist? Who are you?" The middle-aged man was frightened.

Fade did not waste time talking to him. He continued to hit his abdomen with his palm. With a slap, he destroyed his elixir field.

The man screamed, but Fade snorted, "If you continue to shout, you are going to die!"

Facing death, the man endured the pain and did not dare to shout.

Fade lifted his collar with his right hand and pulled Sylvia, who was completely puzzled, with his left hand, saying, "Let's go!"

Soon, he found a small hotel and booked a room. Then, the three of them entered the room.

Throwing the man on the ground, Fade looked at him with an unpleasant expression on his face and said, "Tell me, who are you? What the hell is going on?"

The man gritted his teeth and glanced at Fade. He said, "This is an affair within our clan, so you should not intervene. Otherwise, you will have to die even if you are a martial artist."

11:36

"I asked you to answer my question, not to talk nonsense." Fade swung his hand and hit the man with a stream of positive energy. His tone was cold.

The pain that it caused compelled the man to reveal the truth, so he said, "My name is Bosco, and I'm a disciple of the Tiger Clan. I've been ordered by my master to stop Sylvia and take back my clan's treasure."

"You're lying. That treasure obviously belongs to the Rainy Clan. The Tiger Clan is just being too much!" Sylvia exclaimed angrily when she heard this.

"That's a treasure from the Tiger Clan. Your master lied to you," Bosco said.

"You're the liar. My master won't lie to me," she refuted with certainty.

Seeing this, Fade shouted loudly, "Stop arguing. Tell me what's going on, one by one."

Chapter 1897

After listening to their respective stories, Fade roughly understood the whole picture.

More than ten years before, the two clans were located in the same province. The Tiger Clan and the Rainy Clan, found a treasure, a magical artifact, at the border between both clans.

After the magical artifact was mined, both sides had a discussion and decided that the magic artifact would be given to the Rainy Clan, provided that they would give the Tiger Clan a fixed amount of compensation fee.

However, they didn't expect that 10 years later, when the Tiger Clan entered society, they would suddenly change their mind, saying that the magic artifact also belonged to them. They wanted the Rainy Clan to hand it over. However, the Rainy Clan refused and said that they had already made up for it back then.

Hence, both the clans had a conflict because of this; they even had fights over it. However, the Tiger Clan had never had the upper hand, so they had always been unhappy about this.

When the Tiger Clan knew that the disciple of the Rainy Clan, Sylvia, would go to the capital to participate in an event, they had an idea. Thus, they sent Bosco to follow her and try to kidnap her in order to threaten the guardian of the Rainy Clan to hand over the treasure.

This was the story behind everything that happened.

Of course, this was what Sylvia said. In Bosco's view, the story was completely reversed.

From the Tiger Clan's point of view, back then, they did not agree to completely hand over the artifact to the Rainy Clan, but they had an agreement which stated that each clan would have the artifact for 10 years each. They claimed that the compensation fee they paid was only for the right to use the magical artifact first.

Now, it had been three to four years after the ten-year usage period, meaning that the time allocated to the Rainy Clan had already come to an end, but they refused to hand over the artifact to them. Thus, the Tiger Clan was not satisfied and had come many times to ask for it, but was rejected by the Rainy Clan.

As such, the Tiger Clan came up with the idea of approaching Sylvia to force the Rainy Clan's guardian to hand over the magical artifact.

Both stories sounded true, and Fade couldn't tell whether they were real or not.

However, based on his relationship with each of them, he obviously had more tendency to trust Sylvia.

After all, regardless, it was not appropriate for Bosco to kidnap her.

After a pause, he kicked Bosco away and walked away with Sylvia.

"Sylvia, where are you heading? I'll send you there," Fade looked at her and asked.

"Thank you, Fade." She thanked him with a sweet smile and then said, "Fade, I want to go home."

"Your home is in Capital City? Well, I will send you home then," he said and then moved with her.

An hour later, they arrived at a relatively luxurious neighborhood and reached Sylvia's house.

Compared to ordinary families, Sylvia's family seemed relatively well off. However, when compared to a martial artist or rich family, they were just average.

She rang the doorbell excitedly. Soon, the door was opened by a middle-aged couple.

"Sylvia, you're back!"

"Oh, my Sylvia is finally home."

The middle-aged couple greeted her, and then, their eyes fell on Fade. They looked stunned and had puzzled expressions on their faces.

When Sylvia saw this, she quickly introduced, "Mom and Dad, this is Fade Chen. He is a friend I met on the way."

"Met him on the way?" Sylvia's father, Tony, frowned and looked at Fade alertly.

Her mother, on the other hand, also scanned Fade from head to toe.

Sylvia saw this and she pulled Fade into the house. She said to her parents, "Mom and Dad, Fade is a guest. How can you let our guest stand at the door and talk? Let's go inside!"

"Well, yes, Fade, please come in," Tony invited him in.

After entering the room and sitting down, Sylvia's mother poured a cup of tea for Fade and then looked at her with a questioning look.

Thus, she gave them a general explanation of what had happened. Of course, she only briefly mentioned the dangerous part where Bosco tried to attack her.

11:37

Sylvia's parents looked worried after listening to her. Then, her mother came to her and began to examine her body to see if she was hurt.

Tony then looked at Fade for a few seconds, nodded and said, "Thank you, Fade."

"Mr. Yi, you're welcome," Fade replied.

Then, they chatted for a while. Fade felt that it was about time, so he got up and left.

Sylvia was reluctant to see him go. She exchanged contact information with him and sent him to the door.

After waving goodbye, he prepared to leave.

However, at this moment, Sylvia suddenly thought of something and shouted hurriedly, "Fade, wait a minute. I have a present for you."

"Er..." He wanted to say no, but she had already rushed back into the house.

Soon, she ran out with a black card in her hand and stuffed it into his hand. "Fade, this is for you. In three days' time, you must come. I am going too."

"Ah, this is..." He was somewhat puzzled. He picked up the card in his hand and looked at it.

He saw the title "Martial Arts Conference" written on the card. Then, his face showed curiosity. "What is the Martial Arts Conference?"

"Ah, Fade, don't you know?" Sylvia looked at him in surprise.

He shook his head. "I haven't been in Capital City for a long time. I'm not familiar with all these."

11:37

Hearing this, she immediately explained, "Brother Chen, it's like this. Recently, the Clan Committee gathered all the representatives from all the martial arts clans for a meeting in Capital City."

"Many martial artists have been invited. There are many high-level martial artists among them. There are even masters in their midst. In order to promote martial arts and spread awareness, the government has gathered a group of martial artists to attend a martial arts conference in three days. The main purpose is to showcase martial arts to everyone. There will also be Q&A sessions and introductions too."

"This is definitely a great opportunity for ordinary citizens and lower-level martial artists. If they can get the acknowledgment of a master, it will definitely be beneficial. Even if they don't receive any acknowledgment, this is a good opportunity to make friends. That's why the conference is very popular among martial artists. Many people are fighting for the tickets."

"This ticket was from my master. Now, I'm giving it to you, Fade," Sylvia said to him.

This type of Martial Arts Conference honesty had no impact on him, thus he said, "Sylvia, this, I..."

He wanted to refuse, but she looked at him expectantly and said, "Fade, you don't have to worry about me. I can go to the event with my master, so I don't need a ticket."

"Fade, this is my token of appreciation. Please don't refuse it!"

Chapter 1898

Looking at her serious expression, Fade nodded, kept the card, and said, "Then I'll take it. Thank you, Sylvia. We'll meet again in three days."

"Okay, goodbye!" She waved her hand and said goodbye.

Watching him enter the elevator, she was still waving her hand with a smile on her face, but her parents' faces had changed.

"Sylvia, why did you give the invitation card of the conference to Fade?" Tony looked at her and asked.

She felt a little strange and said, "Dad, I don't need the ticket. What's wrong with giving it to him? Besides, he saved my life. It's no big deal to give him a ticket."

"But, this... this ticket... I've already agreed to give it to someone else," he stuttered.

"Dad, the ticket is mine. How could you agree to give it to someone randomly?" Sylvia suddenly became agitated. "Dad, who did you promise to give it to?"

Tony's face changed and said, "A while ago, the son of President Wu of the Montee Company, Manric, heard that I had a ticket, so he purposely came to our house to ask for it, so I promised to give the ticket to him."

"Dad, how could you do this?" Sylvia pouted and said unpleasantly.

Sylvia's mother, Moanna, then said, "Sylvia, don't blame your father. Didn't you say that ticket was useless before? That's why your father and I didn't think so much."

"Besides, Montee Company is a large company with a market value of more than a billion yuan, and its industry is also related to our company. President Wu promised that if we could give Manric the ticket, then our company could get the orders from them. That's a big order worth more than a hundred million yuan!"

"Mom, what are you doing? How can you sell my things for money! I am now a martial artist and have joined the Rainy Clan. Money is no longer important." Sylvia said angrily, "Besides, Montee Company's reputation is not good to begin with, and Manric is also a well-known playboy. Why would you want to have anything to do with them?"

Tony, who was standing aside, then spoke in a deep voice, "Sylvia, it's two unrelated matters. Reputation is one, but business is another. Besides, although you're a martial artist now, you will still need money for your practices. We are doing this for your own good!"

Moanna immediately agreed and said, "Sylvia, that's what we meant. Please contact Fade and get the ticket back!"

"I've already given it to Brother Chen. How can I get it back?" Sylvia said agitatedly.

"Sylvia, don't be willful. The ticket is contributing to a business order of hundred million yuan!" Tony said in a deep voice, "Besides, Fade only helped you once. It's too expensive for you to give you such a gift."

"Dad, Brother Chen saved my life. Do you think that money is more important than my life?" Sylvia asked, frustrated.

"Sylvia, of course I didn't mean that. It's just that I've already promised Manric, and he'll be here soon..." He responded.

"I don't care. Anyway, Brother Chen is my lifesaver. I've already given him the ticket. I won't take it back," Sylvia said angrily, then she turned around and went straight back to her room.

"Sylvia, you..." Tony was a bit anxious and angry.

Meanwhile, Moanna stopped him, who was trying to catch up with Sylvia and said, "Don't be angry. She has already grown up and is a martial artist now. It's normal for her to have her own opinion."

"Then what about the ticket? How should I explain it to him when Manric is here?" Tony said with a gloomy face.

She rolled her eyes at him and said, "I think you're confused out of anger. Sylvia said that she didn't want to get back the tickets, so you really won't go?"

"It's still early. Fade probably hasn't left yet. Let's catch up with him and get the ticket back."

"Yes, then let's move, quick!" He said excitedly and immediately left.

She followed him in a hurry and said, "Sylvia is too willful sometimes. It's too wasteful to give such a valuable thing away."

.....

Meanwhile, Fade did not know about the quarrel that happened in the Yi family.

He was walking slowly in the neighborhood, ready to leave.

However, just as he was about to walk out of the neighborhood, a shout came from behind him. "Fade, wait a minute!"

Upon hearing the sound, he turned his head and saw Sylvia's parents coming over with a worried look on their faces.

"Mr. Yi and Mrs. Yi, what's wrong?" Fade looked at the two of them.

They looked at each other, and then Tony said, "Fade, can you return to us the ticket that Sylvia gave you?"

11:37

"Ah, this..." Hearing this, he felt a little surprised.

On the other hand, Moanna said, "Of course, Fade, we will compensate you. Here is 50,000 yuan as a token of appreciation for you helping Sylvia."

As she said that, she took out a stack of notes and handed them over to him.

Seeing this, he frowned and his face turned unpleasant.

At this moment, a luxurious car stopped at the entrance of the neighborhood, and then a young man, who was dressed in classy brands came out of the car.

The man walked towards them and said, "Mr. and Mrs. Yi, what are you doing here?"

Hearing the voice, Tony and Moanna looked up at the same time. When they saw the young man, their faces were filled with smiles. "Manric, you're here."

"Well, Mr. Yi, I have brought the contract of the company's order. I don't know if you have gotten the ticket to the Martial Arts Conference?" The young man was obviously Manric, the son of President Wu from the Montee Company.

Upon hearing Manric's words, the expressions of Tony and Moanna turned unpleasant.

"Mr. Yi, what's wrong? Did something happen?" Manric noticed the change in their expressions and asked.

Tony looked at Fade, and Moanna went to Manric's ear and told him briefly about what had happened.

After hearing that, Manric frowned. He looked at Fade and said in an arrogant tone, "The ticket to the Martial Arts Conference is in your hands?"

Fade glanced at him and asked, "What do you want?"

"Humph! What do I want?" Manric snorted, then threw a bank card to him and said, "There is a million yuan in the card. Hand over the ticket and the money is yours."

Fade glanced at the bank card on the ground and stepped on it with his foot. Then he said, "I might lack something else, but as for money, I have plenty."

"You..." Manric obviously didn't expect him to reject this and his face became unhappy.

Upon seeing this, the expressions on the faces of Sylvia's parents became more ugly.

Tony said with a serious expression, "Fade, you have indeed done us a favor by saving Sylvia. However, as a youngster, you should know your limits and your place."

Chapter 1899

Moanna, who was standing aside, also said, "Young man, I'd advise you not to be too greedy. You don't have the qualifications to get the conference ticket after all. Hand over the ticket now before things get worse. Otherwise..."

Hearing this, Fade couldn't help but sneer. He shook his head and said, "Do you really think I care about the ticket? If it wasn't because I couldn't bear to refuse Sylvia, I wouldn't have accepted this."

"Initially, if you just talked to me nicely, it would not be a big deal for me to give it to you. However, you just came to me and acted like it's a matter of course to get the ticket from me. You even wanted to use the money to send me away."

"Is this your attitude towards your daughter's savior?" He asked.

Tony and Moanna's expressions changed, and then they said in a cold tone, "Young man, stop finding excuses. Hand over the ticket now, and the money will be yours."

As they said this, Moanna took out the stack of money again, and it seemed to be a little thicker this time. "Here's one hundred thousand yuan, plus one million yuan from Mr. Wu. It's already a handful of money for you. I'd advise you to accept it!"

At this moment, a sweet voice was heard from afar, "Dad, Mom, what are you doing?"

Hearing the voice, they all looked over at the same time. Then, they saw Sylvia running towards them.

"Sylvia, we are not doing anything!" Tony and Moanna wanted to cover the matter up.

11:37

However, Sylvia was very smart. She immediately guessed what was going on when she saw the situation. "Dad, Mom, are you asking Brother Chen for the ticket?"

"W-We aren't..."

"I was the one who gave the ticket to Brother Chen to thank him for saving my life. How can you do this?" Her face was flushed red and she seemed very angry.

Meanwhile, Manric's eyes fell on Sylvia and he said, "Are you Sylvia? I'm Manric Wu. Montee Company's..."

Before he could finish his introduction, she glared at him and said unpleasantly, "I'm not interested in knowing who you are!"

After that, she came to Fade's side, bowed and apologized, "Brother Chen, I'm sorry. I didn't expect that my parents... You can keep the ticket. They were given to me by my master. I can give it to anyone I want to. Don't worry about them."

Hearing this, Tony and Moanna looked anxious.

Then, Fade smiled faintly. He gently touched Sylvia's head and said, "It's okay. It's just a ticket. It's nothing to me."

While speaking, he handed the ticket back to her.

"Brother Chen, you..." Her expression was extremely anxious.

Seeing this, Fade smiled and said, "Sylvia, I mean it. If I want the ticket, I can get it easily. In three days' time, I will definitely go to the event. I'll see you there."

"Brother Chen, is that true?" She stared at him with her eyes widened.

He nodded and patted her head with a smile, before saying, "It's true. I promise."

11:37

"Well, I believe you!" She nodded.

Then, Fade waved his hand and wanted to leave. He did not even look at the money offered by Sylvia's parents and Manric. As she looked at Fade leaving, she turned around, and looked at her parent's excited and smiling faces. She couldn't feel happy at all.

"Sylvia, this ticket, we..." Her parents squeezed out smiles and walked over while rubbing their hands.

Seeing this, she frowned and threw the ticket directly to the ground, and went back to her room without saying a word.

Moanna quickly picked up the ticket and handed it to Manric. She smiled and said, "Mr. Wu, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this to happen. I'm really sorry."

He swiped away the dust on the card and said, "It's nothing. Nothing is more important than the ticket."

.....

When Fade came out of Sylvia's neighborhood, he directly took a taxi and headed for the headquarters of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc in Capital City.

When he arrived, it was already evening, and the employees of the company were getting off from work. However, when he looked up to the building, the lights were still brightly lit in the general manager's office; Lily was still working.

Arriving at the top floor, he made a quiet entrance into Lily's office and went to stand behind her. He then lowered his head and whispered in her ear, "Sister Lily, it's getting late. It's time to get off work and rest."

She, who was focusing on work, was startled by the sound. She almost fell to the ground.

Fortunately, Fade reached out in time to hold her, so she didn't stumble to the ground.

However, when he held her in his arms, his body touched certain parts of her body which felt soft. This made Fade feel warm and he almost couldn't bear to let go.

"What are you doing here?" She asked as she tidied up her clothes while looking at him.

He smiled and said, "Sister Lily, I'm here to see you!"

"Such sweet words!" She rolled her eyes at him and said, "You're here to attend the meeting in Capital City, aren't you?"

He nodded and said with a smile, "You are still the smartest. I can't hide anything from you."

"It's no use flattering me. I'll never forget the scare you just gave me," she said as she glared at him.

Then, he smiled and said, "Sister Lily, it's okay if you hold the grudge. I would even ask for more if it was for you!"

"Well, don't bullsh*t. You've just arrived. You haven't had your dinner yet, right? Let's go down and have dinner," she said.

"Sure!" Fade nodded and went downstairs with her.

As it was past working hours, there was no more food in the company's canteen, and they could only go out to eat.

Not far away from the office, there was a food alley about a kilometer away from the company. In the evening, all the shops and stalls on the street were set up. There were the sounds of cooking and the fragrance from the food which immediately aroused Fade and Lily's appetites.

Both of them were not particular or picky, so they found a barbecue stall on the side of the road and sat down. They ordered a variety of food, and they ate while chatting.

During the conversation, Lily watched Fade's live broadcast of his battle at Flying Dragon Clan and Namuchia Lake. Although she knew that he had won, she still felt worried when she watched this, thus she asked him with concern if he was injured.

He then replied that he was fine, and then he asked about the meeting in Capital City and the Martial Arts Conference.

She was quite well-informed with all these matters. When she heard that he wanted to attend the Martial Arts Conference, she immediately made a call.

In less than five minutes, the reply was received. They were very excited to invite Fade to the Martial Arts Conference and even asked him to be a special speaker during the event to present to everyone about martial arts.

He immediately agreed. Thus, the matter about the Martial Arts Conference was settled easily.

Chapter 1900

After eating for about an hour, both of them were finally full.

Fade waved his hand and called the boss for the bill.

However, at the exact moment, a loud sound was heard from the side which drew everyone's attention.

Of course, Fade also turned his head to have a look, and then he saw that there was a small fruit stall, two stalls away on the left of the barbecue stall.

At that moment, the fruit stall had been overturned, and the fruits were rolling on the ground, scattering everywhere.

An old man in his 60s looked anxious as he leaned over and picked up the fruits on the ground. A young, teenage girl also helped the old man pick up the fruits.

However, just as the two of them were picking up the fruits, a foot wearing leather shoes came over and crushed a few apples into mash right in front of the old man and the young girl.

Seeing this, the girl's heart ached and she rushed over and said. "These are Grandpa's apples. Don't you... "

Seeing the girl rushing over, the man in the leather shoes snorted and kicked her away. "Get out of my way, kid!"

Upon seeing this, the old man's expression changed and he cried out, "Don't..."

Meanwhile, he rushed over and hugged the girl tightly in his arms.

Hence, the kick from the man in leather shoes landed firmly on the old man's body.

The strength of this kick was obviously not small. It directly kicked the old man to the ground which made him scream in pain. His forehead was injured and he started bleeding.

Then, the man with the leather shoes snorted and said, "Old man, I've told you many times that this is the Sawyer Gang's territory. Who do you think you are that you can sell your fruits here without paying the protection fees?"

The old man endured the pain and explained, "I-I really don't have money. My stall can't even make a profit of ten or twenty yuan a day!"

"I don't care. That's your business. If you don't submit eight hundred yuan as the protection fees this month, you can just prepare your coffin, you old hag!" He threatened viciously.

The old man looked desperate and begged, but the man was obviously not someone soft-hearted. On the contrary, he was a little impatient and was about to attack the old man again.

Seeing this, Fade's gaze could not help but turn fierce. He stepped forward and was about to help.

Seeing this, the owner of the barbecue stall quickly stopped him and reminded him, "Young man, don't intervene in other people's business."

Fade frowned and said, "How can I ignore this? You can't stop me from helping even if you yourself do not want to help!"

Hearing this, the stall owner's expression froze for a moment, then he lowered his head, and said helplessly, "Young man, it's not that we don't want to help! But that man is called Wilson Xu and he is from the Sawyer Gang. We can't afford to offend him!"

"Sawyer Gang!" Upon hearing this name again, Fade seemed to have recalled something.

After pondering for a moment, he remembered. When Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc was opening their branch company in Capital City, the Sawyer Gang had come to find trouble with them, but they were taught a lesson by him.

Later, the factory which Yankee worked in also belonged to the Sawyer Gang. At that time, he had taught Sawyer Xu from the Sawyer Gang a hard lesson and he even ordered him to maintain the peace around Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc.

However, after two years, he did not expect the Sawyer Gang to be so arrogant again. They even began to collect protection fees. Furthermore, they even did it right beside Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc. It seemed that they had started to be daring after he left.

Thinking of this, he could not help but snort. He said to the barbecue stall owner, "It's just Sawyer Gang. I'm not afraid of them."

As he said that, he stepped forward.

Seeing this, the owner stamped his feet, then shook his head and said to himself, "Young people nowadays are too impatient. They don't listen to advice and they would always regret it after losing something."

Many of the stall owners beside the barbecue stall had similar attitudes. It was evident that their fear towards the Sawyer Gang was rooted in their hearts. They did not dare to resist at all.

Wilson was going to hit the old man who was begging him. "Old hag, get out of my way!"

However, at the crucial moment, a shout was heard, "Stop!"

Hearing the voice, Wilson turned his head to look at Fade. He then looked over Fade's body, which was average in height and said. "Brat, don't intervene in other people's business."

As he spoke, Wilson was about to continue his attack.

However, Fade's voice was heard again. "I told you to stop. Didn't you hear me?"

"B*stard, stop acting!" Wilson's gaze fell on him, and his face was full of fierceness. "If you don't know your place, then I shall teach you a lesson first."

As he said that, he waved his hand to punch at Fade.

This type of gangster was nothing bigger than an ant to Fade. He moved his fingers slightly, and with only one move, he broke Wilson's right arm, causing him to fall to the ground and howled in pain.

"Tell me, who made you do this?" Fade looked down at him and asked with a cold tone.

Wilson gritted his teeth and still acted arrogantly. He said, "B*stard, do you know who I am? I'm from the Sawyer Gang. If you dare to touch me, our gang will not let you go."

"Sawyer Gang? Your boss's name is Sawyer Xu, right?" Fade snorted.

"You know my uncle!" Wilson said. "Since you know, then you should stop. Otherwise, you'll be in serious trouble if my uncle comes."

Hearing this, Fade's eyes turned cold. He immediately took out his mobile phone and dialed a number. "Sawyer, I'll give you ten minutes to come over here immediately. Otherwise, you'll have to bear the consequences."

The person on the other end of the call seemed to be a little confused. He paused for a moment and said, "Who are you? How dare you speak to me like this? Do you want to die?"

"I'm Fade. I'm at the branch of Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc in Capital City. If you don't come in ten minutes, you'll die," he said coldly and then hung up the phone.

The person on the other end of the line was still confused at the moment, but after thinking for a while, he suddenly realized something. His face changed, and he came to his senses. "Fade, it's actually Fade. H-He is back."

Wilson, who was lying on the ground, listened to Fade's phone call with a suspicious look on his face. "Do you know my uncle?"

Fade didn't answer. He just looked at him and asked in a cold voice, "When did Sawyer Gang start to collect protection fees here?"

Wilson closed his mouth, as if he didn't want to answer.

Fade was not polite to him either. He stepped on Wilson's broken right arm, causing him to cry out in pain, "Now, are you willing to tell me?"

Wilson was in so much pain that he was sweating profusely. He didn't dare to hide the truth, so he could only nod and say, "I'll tell you, I'll tell you."

"We started collecting protection fees four months ago."
