Chapter 466

For a moment, Fade Chen felt that the atmosphere was a little awkward. He was prepared to break the ice and start with some small talk and polite words. However, just as Fade was about to speak, there was the sound of crackling footsteps. Then, a middle-aged man's voice could be heard. 'Oh, isn't that Miss Huo?' After hearing this voice, both Fade and Winnie's thoughts were interrupted. They turned around and looked in the direction of the voice. Then, they saw a fat middle-aged man who was in his forties, clutching his pot-belly and walking over with a smile. Seeing this fat middle-aged man, Winnie couldn't help but frown and greeted him, 'Chief Zhao!' Chief Zhao approached them and glanced at Fade. Then, his eyes fell directly on Winnie. 'Winnie, what a coincidence. I didn't expect to meet you here. Shall we have a meal together?' he asked. During the conversation, Chief Zhao stretched out his right hand and caressed Winnie's left hand without her permission. Winnie quickly withdrew her left hand and said coldly, 'Thank you, Chief Zhao, for your kindness. However, my friend and I are already full, so please have a meal by yourself!' Her rejection was obvious, but Chief Zhao did not give up. He continued to approach Winnie and said, 'You can eat some more even if you have already eaten, or you can just sit down and have a drink with me.' Winnie moved her chair away from Chief Zhao and said coldly, 'I'm sorry, Chief Zhao. My friend and I are busy and we will leave soon.’ While speaking, Winnie stood up and winked at Fade. Then, the two of them were ready to leave. When Chief Zhao saw this, his face fell. He pounded the dining table and said, ‘Since Miss Huo is not showing me any respect, I will need to have a talk with Director Xu.’ Hearing that, Winnie’s body trembled, and her expression was stiff. Seeing this, Fade placed his hands on Winnie’s shoulders with concern and asked, ‘Sister Winnie, is something wrong?’ Winnie explained, ‘Director Xu is the boss of Enya Entertainment. He is also my boss, Chief Zhao is a good friend of Director Xu.’ After listening to this, Fade could not help but frown. He looked at Chief Zhao and said coldly, ‘Sister Winnie has said that she is not willing to have a meal with you. Please don’t harass her again!’ When Chief Zhao noticed the intimate relationship between Winnie and Fade, his expression darkened. With a gloomy look on his face, he said, ‘Who are you to talk to me with this kind of attitude?’ Before waiting for Fade to reply, Chief Zhao looked at Winnie and said, ‘Winnie, since you don’t respect me, will be direct with you. Today, you must come with me and sleep with me for one night, or you can just wait for Director Xu to fire you!’ ‘You are shameless!’ Winnie didn’t expect Chief Zhao to say such disgusting words in public. Her cheeks were red from anger Chief Zhao sneered, and said, ‘I’m shameless? Winnie, let me tell you, do you think that you are still a popular A-list actress? You are just an aging celebrity past her prime now. It’s your blessing that I am still willing to sleep with you. Why don’t you ask around how many actresses are willing to climb in my bed.’ ‘You-’ Winnie was so angry that she was speechless. Then, Chief Zhao began to stretch out his large hand and he grabbed Winnie’s wrist. ‘Let’s go now. Just treat me well tonight and I promise to ask Director Xu to make you popular again,’ he said. Seeing that Chief Zhao’s plump hand was about to grab Winnie, a large hand slammed down on Chief Zhao's hand at this instant. There was a clear sound, and the large hand landed directly on Chief Zhao's disgusting hand. Chief Zhao suddenly felt a burning pain at the back of his hand. When he raised his hand and looked at it, the back of his hand had turned red and it was swollen. It looked like a pig's trotter. Due to the pain, he shuddered continuously 'You, how dare you hit me. I want to get-' Chief Zhao gritted his teeth and endured the pain. He glared angrily at Fade, with a vicious glint in his eyes. However, before Chief Zhao could finish speaking, Fade flicked his hand and he slapped Chief Zhao's cheek. His cheek turned red and started to swell, that was really a terrible scene. 'Ah!' Chief Zhao uttered a painful howl and he shouted, 'Guards, come here now!' Chief Zhao's bodyguards heard him calling them. They rushed in from outside the restaurant. Each of them looked strong and fierce. They shouted in unison and moved toward Fade. Chief Zhao, who was in excruciating pain, exclaimed, 'Beat him, strike him hard. How dare he hit me, I'm going to kill him, get However, before Chief Zhao could finish shouting, Fade had rushed toward the bodyguards. He launched his fists and struck all of the bodyguards to the ground. Their faces were swollen and they couldn't fight back anymore. At this moment, Chief Zhao was shocked. His voice was stuck in his throat and he could only grunt and snort. After Fade defeated the bodyguards, he stepped forward coldly toward Chief Zhao. Chief Zhao was instantly frightened, and he could not help but retreat. However, he reached a wall behind him, and there was no more room for him to go. Fade was still approaching him with a cold expression. In an instant, Chief Zhao felt a chill in his heart. His body shuddered uncontrollably, and he quickly shouted at Winnie, 'Miss Huo, I, I was just joking, just joking, I did not mean what I just said. You ask him to stop!’ Winnie snorted coldly and looked at Chief Zhao without any response. Chief Zhao’s expression was stiff. He could see that Fade was less than five meters away from him, and he was petrified. He gritted his teeth and said, ‘Winnie, ask him to stop now. Otherwise, I’ll tell Director Xu about this. You still have a three-year contract with Enya Entertainment. You need to think clearly now, I-’ Facing Chief Zhao’s threatening words, a trace of anger flashed across Winnie’s face. She yelled, ‘Just report this to Director Xu then. I have already lost all hope in Enya Entertainment.’ ‘You- Chief Zhao did not expect Winnie to talk back to him. He was extremely anxious, as he tried to find a solution for the problem in front of him. However, before he could think of anything, Fade had already reached him. Fade gave him a few slaps in the face. Chief Zhao’s face became even more swollen than before. Then, Fade kicked Chief Zhao in the belly. Chief Zhao, who was more than two hundred pounds, turned into a gliding meat ball instantly. He flew out from the restaurant, fell to the ground, and passed out. When Fade saw this, he snorted coldly and stood still. He walked toward Winnie and held her shoulders gently. Then, he said softly, ‘It’s okay now, let’s go!’.

Chapter 467

Winnie Huo suddenly felt a sense of warmth in her heart, and her face became red. Then, she walked out of the restaurant with Fade

Chen. After leaving the restaurant, Fade invited Winnie to get in the car. Then, he said, ‘Sister Winnie, allow me to send you home! You need to take a good rest today, and I will help you tomorrow with the procedures in regards to the contract termination.’ Winnie nodded and responded in agreement. Thereafter, Fade started the car and drove out quickly. They made their way home swiftly. At this moment, Chief Zhao was awakened by others. He felt an unbearable pain at first. Immediately, he looked toward the dining table where Fade and Winnie were having a meal. He was infuriated and anger rose in his heart. Later, he took out his cell phone and dialed a number quickly. He said, ‘Is this Director Xu? I’m Mr. Zhao. I encountered something negative with Winnie from your company. Yes, I am really angry and I can’t tolerate it. I must have my revenge.’ ‘Okay, that’s it. I’ll call you back later.’ Chief Zhao hanged up the phone, with an angry and sullen expression on his face. Not long after, Fade fetched Winnie home in his car. The car stopped in the area downstairs, and Fade got off. He watched as Winnie walked up the stairs. Winnie walked to the entrance of the elevator. She stood still, turned around looked at Fade and said, ‘Fade, you must be tired. Why don’t you come upstairs and have a glass of water!’ Although the expression on her face was calm, Winnie’s heart was pounding violently like a drum after she said that. Even if she hadn’t been in a relationship before this, she knew what it meant when a girl invited a boy to her home to have a drink. ‘Will Fade refuse my offer! After all, he already has such a beautiful and capable wife.’ ‘Or, will he think that I’m not a good woman and that I’m a woman who simply invites men to my house!’ ‘If he really follows me home, what will happen next? Should I refuse or not?’ For a while, the thoughts in Winnie’s brain were like waves in the oceans, and they surged in a chaotic manner.

At this time, Fade didn't even think much about the situation after hearing Winnie's invitation. He smiled and said, 'I am really thirsty, so I'll go upstairs and have a drink!' Winnie was still deep in her thoughts, but it turned out that Fade was willing to go up with her. She froze for a moment. Fade came over with a smile and said, 'Sister Winnie, the elevator is open. Let's go!' Then, Fade reached out and pulled Winnie into the elevator. Winnie, who was embarrassed, was caught off guard. She was pulled so suddenly that she fell into Fade's arms. As a result, Fade pulled Winnie into his embrace. Their chests were pressing against each other, and they felt a warm and soft sensation. It seemed to them that they could hear the beating of each other's heart. Heat enveloped them and warm air circulated around their bodies. For a while, they both felt a little embarrassed. However, they allowed the heated atmosphere to continue and the temperature of the air around them rose. The emotions surging in their bodies caused them to forget everything around them. Their heads drew closer to each other. Their warm and tender lips were close together, and they were about to kiss, At this moment, the sound of rushing footsteps could be heard. 'Wait, wait, let me in!' someone said. Thereafter, a middle-aged woman dashed over and she squeezed into the elevator that was about to close. 'Winnie, it's you, thank you very much-' The middle-aged woman clearly knew Winnie, and she expressed her gratitude with a smile on her face, However, when she looked intently at the scene in the elevator, she was stunned. She turned her head and immediately pressed the button madly, trying to open the elevator door. 'You go on, go on, I didn't see anything. Winnie, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have barged in. I will wait for the next elevator,' The middle-aged woman said, The atmosphere was destroyed by this and Winnie came back to her senses. She blushed and quickly broke free from Fade 's arms. Then, she said to the middle-aged woman, 'Aunt Liu, this is my friend. It's fine. You don't have to go out.' 'Oh, yes. Your friend, your friend!' Aunt Liu sized up Fade and she muttered. However, the expression on her face indicated that she obviously did not believe Winnie's words. As a result, the three of them remained silent in the elevator and went to their respective floors. They wanted to leave the elevator quickly. When Aunt Liu got out, Fade and Winnie could hear Aunt Liu's muttering voice. 'Oh, I didn't expect a star like Winnie to have a boyfriend. However, that man doesn't seem to be impressive, and I feel he is not worthy of Winnie.' Winnie heard what Aunt Liu said and she felt helpless and apologetic. She apologized to Fade, 'Fade, sorry, this' Fade smiled and waved his hand saying, 'Sister Winnie, you don't need to explain to me. I don't mind.' While talking, the two of them also reached Winnie's floor. They walked out from the elevator and went into Winnie's home. As soon as Winnie looked at the scene inside her home, her face turned red again. She quickly turned to Fade and said, 'Fade, wait a minute, -' Fade stretched his head to look at the scene inside the room. Clothes were scattered everywhere. Various snacks were scattered around the floor. The room looked very messy. If Fade were to see this scene for the first time, he would surely be shocked. However, Fade had seen it before and he was not surprised. He smiled and said: 'Sister Winnie, it's alright. I have seen this before. Let's tidy up the place together!' 'This, this ' Winnie heard what Fade said and she could not help but blush. By this time, Fade had already walked into the house and he started to sort out the messy clothes. Seeing this, Winnie secretly thought in her heart, 'Winnie, Winnie, you must get rid of this bad habit as soon as possible. You must not delay and wait to clean the house.' Winnie made this promise to herself and walked into the room. Then, she saw that Fade was holding her inner clothing and folding them neatly. Suddenly, the red glow that had just faded on Winnie's face immediately appeared again. She grabbed the clothes in Fade's hand and said, 'Let me organize these!' Fade looked at Winnie, who was shy, and he could not help but smile. He gave her the clothes, and went to the other side to arrange her snacks. After half an hour, the house was finally cleaned. 'Fade, I'm so sorry to trouble you!' Winnie thanked Fade. At this moment, a thin layer of sweat was formed on her forehead. Her cheeks were red because of the work she did and she had taken off her coat. Winnie was only wearing a thin sleeveless T-shirt. Her beautiful and curvy figure was revealed to Fade..

Looking at Sister Winnie's curvy figure and her exposed fair skin, Fade Chen felt that he was slightly out of breath. Tiny sweat beads formed on his forehead and he felt as if his body was on fire. Seeing this, Winnie Huo pulled out a paper towel, stood on her toes, and brought it to Fade's forehead. She wiped the sweat on Fade's forehead and said, 'Look at you, you're so tired and sweaty. As a result, Winnie's soft and delicate body, which was constantly emitting warmth, was bumping against Fade's body. Specifically, her ample upper body was colliding with his body. As Winnie wiped away his sweat, her chest bumped into Fade's chest from time to time. Fade could feel the softness of her body. At this time, Winnie came closer to Fade's body, and she could feel Fade's gentle breath. Each time he exhaled, she could feel his warm breath on her face, and she felt a tingling sensation. With time, her movements slowed down. She stopped wiping off his sweat with her right hand at this moment. Instead, she was holding his face and caressing his cheek. 'Fade, you-' Feeling the scorching temperature from Fade's cheek, Winnie felt that her body was also on fire. Her delicate body moved involuntarily as she moaned slightly. Fade heard Winnie's moan, and he could feel the warmth from her body. The heat in his heart seemed to intensify and it seemed to burst into flames. Then, Fade's head sank slightly and he kissed Winnie's cheek. At the same time, his arms were wrapped around Winnie's waist, and he held her slender body in his embrace. 'Sister Winnie, I-I want - Both of their bodies were so close together, and there was no gap between them. Winnie's face was red when she heard Fade's words. She turned her head slightly in shyness and whispered, 'Fade, I, I am willing.' When Fade heard that Winnie was willing, he couldn't help but kiss her passionately. The two were fused together, but at this moment, Winnie screamed suddenly and pushed Fade away. 'Ah!' she cried. Fade was surprised, and then he asked, 'Sister Winnie, what's wrong?' Winnie blocked her chest with her left arm and pointed outside her window with her right hand, saying, 'Someone is secretly taking pictures of us!' Fade looked in the direction of Winnie's finger, and he instantly discovered a dark shadow on the opposite building. This person was hiding behind the railing with some equipment while trying to take pictures secretly. At this moment, the other party knew that he was exposed. He quickly kept his equipment and rushed to escape. When Winnie saw this, she couldn't help but feel anxious. 'We can't let him escape, otherwise 'she said. Fade fixed his gaze on Winnie and said, 'Sister Winnie, don't worry. I won't let him escape.' After that, Fade rushed out of the room quickly. Without waiting for the elevator, he morphed into a dark shadow and ran quickly down the stairs toward the ground floor. In less than three minutes, Fade reached the ground floor and rushed toward the opposite building. The person who was secretly taking pictures was carrying his bag pack. He stopped the elevator on the third floor. He looked toward his left and right. No one was there. Then, he rushed out quickly from the elevator. Thereafter, he walked along the corridor to the staircase on the other side and walked down quickly. When he reached the first floor, no one was there. The man who was secretly taking pictures heaved a sigh of relief. He put on his sunglasses, carried his backpack and walked out. There was a smile at the corner of his mouth, and he was excited. 'I didn't expect to take any good photos of this unpopular celebrity, Winnie. However, I am so lucky this time to take such shocking photos of her private life.' 'I did not expect Winnie to be such a slutty girl in her private life. Look at her messing around with men and bringing them home. She always acts like she is so pure and she has this arrogant attitude. She doesn't seem to care about the unspoken rules from the management. Looks like this is just a false image of her!' 'Once I sell these videos and photos, I will definitely earn a large sum of money. Perhaps I could even be popular. could even threaten Winnie to sleep with me using these photos. Although she is a little too old for my liking, she is still a celebrity. If I can sleep with her, then-' The man who was secretly taking the pictures was thinking about the various benefits he could gain from this situation. Suddenly, a cold voice could be heard from behind him. 'Where do you think you are going?' The man turned his head and spotted Fade. He was so shocked. 'This man, wasn't he still in Winnie's room just now? How could he reach here so fast?' he thought to himself. The man was confused and stunned. Then, he turned around, strode away quickly and tried to escape. Although the man had taken the first step, his body couldn't move at all. There was a large firm hand on his shoulder, which was preventing him from moving forward. As a result, he lost his balance and he fell heavily to the ground. The man felt dizzy and breathless. Then, he passed out. However, Fade did not show him any mercy. After the man fell, Fade stepped on his right hand. Immediately, the man screamed and he came to his senses. He cried and begged for mercy. 'I was wrong, please forgive me. I will return the photos to you,' he said. Fade looked at him coldly with a stern expression and stretched out his right hand. The man endured the pain in his hand and got up from the ground. He took out the photography equipment in the bag and deleted all the photos in front of Fade. 'Are there any backups?' Fade snorted. He raised his right foot again. He looked as though he would stamp on the ground at any time. Seeing this, the man couldn't help but shudder in fear. He quickly shook his head, saying, 'No, absolutely not.' 'It's best if you don't have any!' Fade shouted coldly. Then, he stamped his right foot on the ground. When Fade removed his right foot after that, there was a clear footprint with a depth of one centimeter on the solid ground made of stone. Witnessing this scene, the man was frightened and dumbfounded. With just one stamping gesture, Fade could break the ground made of stone and leave a footprint there. Fade's strength was beyond his imagination. Instantly, the man trembled all over and stammered, 'Rest assured.. I will never..never do this again.' Fade nodded slightly, and then he asked, 'Who asked you to come here and secretly take pictures of Winnie?’ The man hesitated a little. Then, he glanced at the clear footprint there. Instantly, he shivered and he confessed, ‘It was Director Xu! He asked me to secretly take pictures of Winnie.’

‘Director Xu?’ Fade frowned. The man quickly said, ‘Salazar Xu. The boss of Enya Entertainment. Director Xu is Winnie’s boss.’.

Chapter 469

‘It’s him!’ Fade Chen remembered that Chief Zhao had mentioned Director Xu before. Director Xu had been suppressing Winnie Huo, and he had asked someone to secretly take pictures of her too. He definitely wanted to use these photos to threaten Winnie for his own unknown purposes. ‘Salazar Xu is crossing the line!’ Fade grunted coldly. Then, he said to the man who was secretly taking the pictures, ‘Is there anything else I should know?’ The man did not dare to hesitate, and he quickly told Fade all the information he knew. He gave him information on scandals of many celebrities whom he had secretly photographed. Many of them were popular celebrities. Unexpectedly, many of them did not behave appropriately in their private lives. However, Fade was not interested in these gossips and rumors. On the contrary, Fade got some dirt on Director Xu. Salazar misused his power and authority, asking the celebrities in his company to sleep with him. There were even rumors within Enya Entertainment. Only actresses who had passed Director Xu’s ‘inspections’ personally would be given exposure and support from the company. When Fade thought of the suppression of Winnie's career, he felt that this rumor was likely to be true. Moreover, Fade also got some photos and videos on Salazar's scandal from this sneaky photographer. He had secretly tracked these actresses and accidentally discovered them sleeping with Salazar. After taking these videos and photos, Fade said, 'You can leave now. However, don't tell anyone what happened today. Do you understand?' 'Yes, I understand!' The man nodded his head repeatedly out of fear. After that, Fade returned to Winnie's home and told her about the man who was secretly taking photos of her. When Winnie learned that it was her boss who had instructed this man to do this, she was furious. Seeing this, Fade consoled her and said, 'Sister Winnie, we will go and terminate the contract tomorrow. We will cut all ties with this company and this boss.' Winnie heard this and she felt better. She nodded to Fade and thanked him sincerely. The two of them looked at each other, and the atmosphere was a little strange. After all, they were emotional just now and they had almost crossed the last barrier. However, they were disturbed by the man who was secretly taking photos of them. At this moment, as they thought of what happened just now, both of them did not know what emotions they were feeling. Fade realized that the atmosphere was ruined. He knew that it was not the right time for him to be there, so he said goodbye and left. After returning home, Fade quickly called Fatty Huang to discuss Winnie's contract again. Fade was prepared to pay the 50 million himself. Fatty was aware of Fade's temper. Therefore, he didn't oppose him. Fatty dealt with the matter directly, and started to arrange for the publicity of this matter. After Fade hung up the phone, his wife Quin Lin returned home. Looking at his wife's tired expression, Fade could not help but tremble in his heart. He walked over and rubbed Quin's shoulders. 'Dear, what's wrong? You look so tired from work,'he said. At home, Quin was also used to Fade's intimate gestures. She leaned on the sofa and enjoyed Fade's massage, saying, 'Its the matter of the endorsement. Far Peace Corporation has taken swift actions. The matter of Rowena's endorsement has been finalized. They will be launching their new products very soon. They are definitely going against Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc.' Fade said to her, 'Even if they are fighting against us, we shouldn't be afraid of them. Our products are definitely better than theirs. Those formulas were personally created by myself. Don't you have faith in me, dear?' Quin glanced at Fade and said, 'Of course, I have faith in you. I know that our products have great qualities. However, times have changed and we can't just rely on that. Good products need good publicity and clever marketing strategies as well. Otherwise, our sales may not be as good as expected. There are too many examples of good products not being able to survive in the market. Fade heard his wife and said, 'Let's choose an actress to endorse our products. Since there is no shortage of money, we will just fight directly against them.' Quin said, 'I told you before that it is not so easy to find a suitable actress. The past few days, I have met with many actresses, but I felt that they are not suitable. I am rather annoyed by this!' Listening to his wife's words, Fade suddenly had an idea. He said, 'Dear, I have someone in mind. However, I'm not sure if you think she is suitable or not!' 'You know someone? Who?' Quin was not expecting Fade to recommend a celebrity. After all, he did not pay much attention to the entertainment industry. Fade replied, 'Winnie Huo.' 'Winnie!' Quin frowned slightly when she heard this name. Then, she said, 'I have also considered her before. Her age, image and character are quite suitable for our products. She doesn't have any negative news surrounding her. Generally speaking, she would be a right fit to endorse our products. ‘

‘However, Winnie’s popularity is too low now, and that is a huge problem. She has fallen into the B-list, and rumors has it that Enya Entertainment has blocked her from further exposure. Therefore, her popularity will decline even more. If you choose her, I am afraid it won’t have a positive effect on our sales.’ Obviously, Quin had done her research and she was aware of the state of the entertainment industry. Therefore, she could tell him about Winnie’s current situation. Fade nodded after listening to her.

However, he explained immediately, ‘My dear, you are right about these things. However, there won’t be any such problems tomorrow.’ ‘What do you mean when you say there won’t be any such problems tomorrow?’ Quin was puzzled. Fade immediately explained, ‘Well, Winnie will terminate her contract with Enya Entertainment tomorrow and sign a contract with Scott Entertainment. Scott Entertainment will promote Winnie as one of their leading stars.’ ‘What? How do you know all of this?’ Quin couldn’t help but look at Fade in surprise. Out of a sudden, Fade felt guilty. After all, he hadn’t forgotten about what had happened between Winnie and himself. However, he coughed and told Quin about the events just now. Naturally, he left out some of the details.

‘I didn’t expect you to be acquainted with Winnie!’ After listening to him, Quin looked at Fade in shock. ‘Well, it was a coincidence. Previously, I didn’t know that she was a celebrity!’ Fade coughed and explained. He felt slightly nervous. Fortunately, Quin did not inquire about the way they had met. She asked about the matter in regards to Scott Entertainment and Winnie. Fade explained the details on this matter. Then, he simply called Fatty and Winnie on the phone. He asked them to have an online conference with Quin. Soon, the three parties reached an oral agreement. Winnie would terminate the contract with Enya Entertainment. Scott Entertainment and Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc would then announce her new contract and her endorsement of Quin's products at the same time. In this way, Winnie would regain her popularity..

Chapter 470

The next morning, Fade Chen got up early. Instead of going to the company, he drove to Scott Entertainment. When Fade arrived there, Winnie Huo was already waiting for him at the company. Both of them discussed with the company's staff members about the upcoming contract termination. Then, they brought a lawyer from Scott Entertainment and drove toward Enya Entertainment. Enya Entertainment was a well-known entertainment enterprise in Dragonville. Although it was not the top company, it was successful. After all, they had been in Dragonville for many years, and they had all kinds of connections and resources. Many celebrities were managed by this company and the company was large. Therefore, Enya Entertainment had rented a whole floor of a building as the company's headquarters in the city center. The place was decorated in a brilliant manner and it was conspicuous to the public. When Winnie brought Fade and the lawyer to Enya Entertainment, they immediately attracted a lot of attention. Many people looked surprised and shocked. Thereafter, some of them smiled slightly at them and greeted Winnie. However, the majority of the people pretended not to see her and they walked past Winnie in a hurry. After all, everyone knew that Winnie and Director Xu were not on good terms. Also, she was completely blocked from further exposure by the company and she had no future in the entertainment industry. Therefore, no one wanted to have any form of relationship with this kind of person. They were naturally afraid and tried to avoid her. Winnie glanced at all these people who were turning a blind eye to her. She could not help but sigh in an icy manner, and she said, 'This is indeed the entertainment industry. When you're popular, everyone wants to be your friend. However, once you're no longer popular, you are treated like garbage and everyone starts to avoid you.' Fade patted Winnie's back gently and said softly, 'Sister Winnie, there is no need to be sad for these people in this company. They are not worth it.' 'Yes!' Winnie nodded, and then she walked toward the receptionist. She said, 'Hello Miss Lin. I called yesterday and I made an appointment to meet with Director Xu this morning. Please inform Director Xu that I'm here.' The young girl at the front desk, Miss Lin, looked up at Winnie coldly and said, 'I'm sorry, Director Xu is busy now.' Seeing this, Winnie and her companions frowned. However, Winnie suppressed her dissatisfaction and continued to say softly, 'My appointment with Director Xu is at nine o'clock. We still have ten minutes before 9. I can wait.' Then, Winnie took Fade and the lawyer to the reception room to rest and wait. When the three of them entered the reception room and were about to sit down and rest, a staff member walked in and said coldly, 'Sorry, the reception room needs to be cleaned now, so please leave.' Fade could clearly see that Director Xu was purposely making things difficult for them. Fade looked angry and he was about to lose his temper. When Winnie noticed this, she shook Fade's hand gently and said, 'Fade, forget it. Anyway, it won't be too long, so let's go out and wait!' Sister Winnie persuaded Fade to hold back his anger. Then, they walked out from the room and went to wait near the front desk. Ten minutes passed by quickly. It was the time for their appointment. Winnie came over again and said, 'It is time for my appointment with Director Xu. Could you please inform him of this?' However, the girl at the front desk, President Lin, had an indifferent attitude. She didn't even lift her head, and she said impatiently, 'I told you that Director Xu is busy right now. He doesn't have the time to meet with you now. Just keep on waiting!' When Winnie saw this, her expression darkened, Fade couldn't help himself at this moment. He came over and pounded the front desk with his palm. He yelled, 'Is this how your company treats their guests?' Miss Lin was startled. She looked up at Fade, and yelled with displeasure, 'Who are you? How dare you shout at people in our company. I advise a certain someone to look in the mirror. You're no longer a popular celebrity anymore. Don't act all high and mighty.' The latter statement she made was obviously directed at Winnie. After speaking, the young girl at the front desk lowered her head again. She started playing with her cell phone, and she had no intention of informing the director of Winnie's arrival. Seeing this, Fade narrowed his eyes. Then, he grabbed her cell phone directly and smashed it on the ground. Miss Lin obviously was not expecting Fade to do this. She was frightened, and she shouted loudly, 'What are you doing? You smashed my cell phone, You will need to pay me back. Security, come and arrest.' Miss Lin was still yelling. Then, Fade slapped her face. Instantly, her cheeks turned red and they started to swell Her shouting turned into groans due to the pain. Then, Fade slammed his hand forcefully on the front desk. Under the huge force, the desk was shattered. It turned into a pile of sawdust. After that, Fade's cold voice could be heard. 'I am already being respectful of you and your company! If it weren't for Sister Winnie, I would have demolished your company.' Miss Lin was frightened and flabbergasted. At this moment, she did not dare to say anything. Fade, Winnie and the lawyer strode directly into the company and they walked toward Director Xu's office. Arriving at the door of the office, Fade kicked the door open impatiently. A loud sound was heard. Inside the office, a man and a woman exclaimed in surprise. 'Ah, who is that!' 'Ah!' Fade and his companions walked into the office. They saw a fat middle-aged man leaning against the chair. His clothes were messy. In front of the middle-aged man, a young woman was crouching on the ground. She quickly tidied up her hair and stood up in panic while wiping the corners of her mouth. This man, needless to say, was obviously the boss of Enya Entertainment, Salazar Xu. Fade was slightly surprised, because the woman was actually Rowena Song. Rowena turned her head at this moment. When she saw Fade, she also looked surprised and she said with a cold expression, 'It's you?' Fade ignored her and turned to Salazar, saying, 'You must be Salazar. Yesterday, Sister Winnie called and told you that she wants to terminate the contract with your company. Now, let us deal with this matter!' Thereafter, Winnie took out a stack of documents and handed them over with a cold expression. Salazar's face fell. At this moment, he had calmed down from the shock just now. He looked at both Winnie and Fade from head to toe. Then, he spoke in a bureaucratic manner, 'Winnie, you are a celebrity who has been with our company for a long time. Our company has not treated you badly. Is this your way of negotiating with me?' Winnie's expression changed, and then she said coldly, 'Since Director Xu, you did not allow the receptionist to let us in, then I had no choice to but to come in by force.’ Salazar was dissatisfied as he said, ‘Come in by force? This is my office. Without my permission, it is illegal for you to enter. Do you know that?’ Winnie frowned. At this moment, Fade yelled in a cold voice, ‘Don’t talk such nonsense now, Sister Winnie just wants to terminate the contract. Therefore, please sign the relevant documents.’.

Chapter 471

Hearing Fade Chen’s words, Salazar Xu frowned in discontentment. Then, he said coldly, ‘Who are you? How dare you speak to me in this manner?’ Fade glanced at Rowena Song in an icy manner and said coldly, ‘Who am i? Why don’t you ask Rowena?’ Salazar immediately looked at Rowena Rowena’s expression changed immediately, but she quickly said something in Salazar’s ear. After Salazar heard her words, he could not help but sneer with a scornful expression. He said, ‘Looks like you and I are in the same field. You are a major shareholder of Scott Entertainment.’ ‘However, who do you think you are to come to my company and cause trouble!’ Salazar yelled and grunted coldly. Rowena was prideful at this moment. She looked at Fade and said, ‘Don’t think that your small company is so impressive. Let me tell you something. I’ve just signed with Enya Entertainment. From now on, I’m the top artiste, the Big Sister, in Enya Entertainment. Your little company can rot in hell!’ After speaking, Rowena looked at Winnie again and flaunted her status. She said with a mocking tone, 'Miss Huo, I'm sorry. I took your position of Big Sister.'

Winnie's face fell, and she said coldly, 'I'm not the Big Sister. You can steal any position you like. I'm not interested in the details.'
Rowena heard what Winnie said and her expression changed. She continued to ridicule her, saying, 'Oh, Miss Huo is shrewd and she finally knows her place. She has no position in Enya Entertainment. Looks like she is going to a small company like Scott Entertainment.' 'Maybe that's a good thing for people who have lost their popularity. It's better to be a popular celebrity in a small company than a nobody in a large company like Enya Entertainment. It's good for you to go to that small company to earn a living.' Rowena said, as she sneered at Winnie. Winnie's face was full of anger and her body trembled slightly because she was furious. Fade's gaze was cold, and he moved swiftly from where he was standing. Then, a loud slapping sound was heard. There was a bright red palm print on Rowena's attractive face. Fade's cold voice rang out, 'Your mouth stinks, and you deserved to be hit!' 'You, how dare you hit me, I want to-' Rowena shouted. As a result, Fade dashed out again and slapped Rowena's face. Her face became swollen. Then, Fade said coldly. 'Do you still want to say anything?' Rowena clutched her red and swollen cheeks and she was afraid to speak up. She could only cast her eyes on Salazar for help. Salazar's face fell, and he gazed at Fade coldly. Then, he said in an icy voice, 'This is my company. Rowena is now an artist of my company. How can you be so arrogant. Do you really think that I can be bullied that easily?' After that, Salazar threw the documents that Winnie gave him to the ground, and said coldly, 'Do you think it's that simple to terminate the contract?' Winnie's expression changed and she said, 'Director Xu, what do you mean by that?’ Salazar snorted and said, ‘I mean to say that I will not accept the termination of the contract. Don’t even think about leaving this company. You still have a three-year contract with us. I would rather you remain with us even if you don’t have an important role here.’ Winnie’s expression changed when she heard Director Xu’s words. Her tone of voice became anxious, and she said, ‘You, how can you do this?’ ‘Why not?’ Salazar said coldly. Winnie said, ‘You, you’re being stubborn. It’s not good for the both of us, and you will not get the 50 million termination fee.’ Hearing the figure of 50 million, Salazar’s expression changed slightly, and he was silent for a while. Then, he waved his hands, looking rather open-minded and he said, ‘Isn’t it just 50 million? I don’t care about this money. I think it’s worth it for me to use this 50 million to waste three years of your time. Winnie did not expect Salazar to have such a stubborn attitude. He preferred a lose-lose situation rather than terminate the contract. For a while, Winnie was a little worried and she didn’t know what to do. Seeing this, Fade came over and patted Winnie’s shoulder gently. He spoke confidently. ‘Sister Winnie, don’t worry about this. I’ll deal with this matter.’ While talking, Fade took a few steps forward and went directly to Salazar’s desk. Seeing this, Salazar sneered and said, ‘Why, are you going to hit me?’ Fade shook his head and said, ‘I will only dirty my hands if I do so. ‘You-‘ Salazar shouted in a deep voice. Anger appeared on his face. However, he was the boss of the company after all. He calmed down quickly and looked at Fade, saying, ‘You have no choice. Even if you agitate me, I won’t agree to your terms. I am telling you that it’s useless to try to provoke me.’ Fade looked at Salazar and said, ‘Director Xu, you really don’t want this 50 million!’ Salazar said loudly, ‘It’s just 50 million. I really don’t care about such a small amount like that.’ Despite his arrogance, Salazar's eyes flickered a little. After all, it was 50 million, and even for him, it was definitely not a small sum. However, he did not want to agree to the termination of the contract, at least for now. Perhaps Winnie and her companions would beg him again, or they would agree to pay him more. Then, he might agree to terminate the contract. At that time, he would retain his dignity and earn more money. That would be the best result. Thinking of this, Salazar's expression became even more gleeful. He held Rowena in one hand and a cigar in the other. He leaned against the chair and started smoking. Salazar waited for Fade and Winnie to continue with their requests. However, Fade suddenly said, 'Since Director Xu doesn't want this 50 million, then there's an easier way for us to handle this matter.' 'An easier way, what do you mean by that?' Salazar couldn't help but feel that his words were ridiculous. However, he instinctively felt that something was wrong, and he had a strange feeling in his heart. Rowena was full of resentment, and she spoke from her swollen lips, 'Director Xu, he is just pretending. Don't be fooled by him.' Salazar was certain that Fade was just fooling him. He looked at Fade and said coldly, 'Didn't President Chen said that this matter was easy to deal with? Then, I will see how President Chen handles this matter.' Fade didn't say much and he took out a stack of photos from his pocket. He threw the photos in front of Salazar. Salazar was stunned and he looked at the photos. His expression changed drastically. All the photos were intimate pictures of him and the celebrities under his company. Some of them were too disgusting to be seen by the public. Salazar panicked instantly and he looked at Fade, saying, 'You, why do you have these photos?' Fade said coldly, 'You don't need to know about this. Now, let me ask you again, do you agree to terminate Sister Winnie's contract?' Salazar's expression changed as he hesitated and he was silent for a moment. He looked up at Fade and said, 'Do you think that you can threaten me with these photos? There are many photos like this in the entertainment industry. These photos mean nothing.' 'Really? Since Director Xu has this opinion, I'll just post these photos on the Internet. Let's see if other people will think that these photos mean nothing,' Fade said. He immediately took out his cell phone and was about to post those pictures online,.

Chapter 472

Seeing this, the muscles on Salazar Xu's face twitched. He quickly stretched out his hand and shouted, 'No, don't post those pictures online.' Fade Chen stopped moving his fingers on the screen of his cell phone. Then, he looked at Salazar with a smile and said, 'Director Xu, have you changed your mind?' Salazar seemed uncertain, and he seemed to be struggling with the thoughts in his mind. Finally, he gritted his teeth, looked at Fade, nodded and said, 'Yes, I've changed my mind. Don't post the photos. I will agree to terminate Winnie's contract.' After all, Salazar was a businessman. He didn't agree to terminate the contract before this, because he wanted to vent his anger and take the opportunity to negotiate better terms and conditions. However, Fade had gained the upper hand over him. Therefore, as a businessman, Salazar had to consider his gains and losses. Then, he quickly made a choice. Salazar promised to terminate Winnie Huo's contract as this was unquestionably the right choice for both parties. After all, if he really wasted 50 million and three years of Winnie's time, it would be a great loss for his company. In this case, Salazar looked at Fade and Winnie for a moment and said, 'I agree to terminate the contract. Give me the contract, and I will sign it now.' Winnie could not help but reveal a joyful expression on her face when she heard what Salazar said. She stretched out her hand toward the lawyer, and she was ready to take out another document. However, at this time, Fade blocked Winnie's movements and he looked at Salazar with a smile on his face. He said, 'Since you have thrown the previous contract on the floor, there are no extra documents. If you want the contract, you can pick it up yourself.' 'You -' Salazar heard this and he was furious. He was almost going to explode. However, when he saw Fade's fingers moving toward the 'Send' button on the cell phone screen, he couldn't help shrinking back and he swallowed his anger. He leaned over and picked up the pages of the contract that was scattered on the ground. When Rowena Song saw this, she glanced at Winnie and Fade with a resentful expression. Then, she squatted down and began to help Salazar pick up the scattered documents. After a few minutes, the two of them picked up the files and organized them in order. Then, Salazar signed the document and handed it to Winnie, saying, 'I've signed it. Now, you can sign it and pay the 50 million termination fee.' While talking, Salazar handed the file to Winnie. Before Winnie could retrieve the document, Fade stretched out his right hand and knocked the document down, and papers flew everywhere. Salazar glared at Fade angrily and yelled, 'What are you doing?' Fade held his arms in front of his chest and said lightly 'Nothing. I just discovered that this contract is now useless.' 'This is the contract you brought. I have agreed to terminate the contract.

Now, you are saying that it is useless. What do you mean by that?’ Salazar asked Fade, holding back his anger. Fade glanced at Salazar from the corner of his eyes and said lightly, ‘If you had signed this contract in the beginning, this contract would have been valid. But now, it is useless.’ As he spoke, Fade stretched out his hand toward the lawyer and took out another contract. He dropped it on Salazar’s desk and said, ‘This is the contract!’ Salazar was angry and confused. He looked through the details of the new contract quickly. When he finished looking at the contract, he slammed his hand on the table. He stood up and glared at Fade, yelling ‘Are you kidding me? There is not a single penny in terms of compensation for me in this contract. It will be impossible for me to terminate Winnie’s contract for free!’ ‘Nothing is impossible!’ Fade said coldly. Then, he looked at Salazar and said, ‘I just want to ask Director Xu, are you willing to sign this contract?’ ‘I can’t sign this contract!’ Salazar screamed angrily, and he flung the contract to the ground. Papers flew everywhere. Fade wasn’t upset. He just looked at Salazar with a smile, took out his cell phone again and said, ‘Looks like these photos need to be posted online.’ ‘You –’ Salazar glared at Fade. Just as he was about to speak, the computer on the desk emitted a beeping sound. When Salazar opened his Weibo, he saw a photo of him half naked at a hotel. The bare back of a woman could be seen next to him. However, the woman’s face was blocked and he could not see her face. The person who had posted it on Weibo had tagged him in this photo. Upon seeing this photo, Salazar suddenly shivered in fear and he shrunk back. ‘You, did you really post this online?’ he said. Fade smiled lightly and said, ‘Director Xu, this is one of the pictures that I have, and the woman’s appearance is unclear. I have much clearer ones with me that may cause a huge scandal. Would you like me to post those pictures online?’ Salazar’s expression was gloomy and unpleasant. In this short period of time, this photo on Weibo had already reached many people and was going viral. Numerous notification sounds could be heard, and the related discussion forums heated up quickly. Many people online guessed in the comments section who the woman was, and some people started to look for photos of the actresses in Enya Entertainment for the purpose of comparison. Suddenly, Salazar felt cold all over. He didn’t dare to provoke Fade anymore. He quickly waved his hand and said, ‘No, don’t post more pictures. I will sign the termination contract. I don’t even want the termination fee anymore.’ ‘Very good!’ Fade replied. He nodded, smiled lightly and said, ‘Since that is the case, just sign the contract!’ ‘But the contract -’ Salazar said. Fade folded his arms in front of his chest and said softly ‘The contract that you threw on the floor was the only contract we brought. Director Xu, it’s up to you to collect the pages of that contract!’ Salazar’s plump face started to twitch due to his anger. However, he had to pick up the pages of the contract which were scattered on the ground. Rowena squatted down quickly to help him again. After picking up the scattered papers from the contract, they rearranged the contract properly. Some pages of the new contract were mixed with the pages of the previous contract. The two of them needed some time to sort out this matter. Then, Salazar signed it quickly. He handed the contract to Fade with both hands and said, ‘I’ve signed it, and the contract is successfully terminated. My photo’ Fade retrieved the contract and handed it to the lawyer. After seeing the lawyer nodding and confirming that everything was in order, Fade lowered his phone and said, ‘The photo is deleted. Anyway, do take care!’ After that, Fade left with Winnie and his lawyer and they turned away without looking back. Inside the room, Salazar observed Fade and his companions leaving. The expression on his face was unpleasant and dark. After confirming that the other party had left, his anger erupted like a volcano. He flung the things in his office to the ground fiercely, and he roared in anger. Hearing Salazar's roar, all the employees of Enya Entertainment were stunned. They stood still on the ground without making a single sound. When Salazar saw this, he roared again in anger. 'Why are you guys still standing there like idiots. Our company is encountering some issues on Weibo. Help the department of public relations resolve these problems!' The employees came back to their senses after being yelled at by their director. They hurried back to their respective places, and got busy with their work..

Chapter 473

Rowena Song came over in a hurry. She pressed her delicate body against Salazar Xu. She comforted him gently and said, 'Director Xu, don't be angry. It will affect your health. Winnie Huo is just an old woman who has lost her popularity and Scott Entertainment is just a small company. They are not impressive at all, and they can't gain any traction with the public. They definitely can't compete with Enya Entertainment.' Salazar heard this and his gaze turned cold. He said, 'Winnie and Scott Entertainment, I will make sure that you can't survive in the entertainment circle!' 'Yes, you must make sure of that!' Rowena echoed quickly. Salazar's anger had slightly abated, but once he thought of the termination fee, his heart ached in pain. At that time, in order to vent his anger and preserve his dignity, he had purposefully made things difficult for the other party. He had refused to terminate the contract. However, he did not expect the other party to be successful in their attempt to get him to terminate the contract. Also, they did not pay him a single penny. He had suffered a double loss and the whole matter was a failure for him. He was thinking right now, that If he had accepted the terms and conditions of the contract termination at the beginning, he would have gotten the 50 million termination fee. Wouldn't that be great! Thinking of this, Salazar felt that his heart was bleeding. At the same time, Rowena moaned seductively and massaged him, and she pressed her body against him. However, Salazar had no interest in her right now. He recalled how Rowena had added fuel to the fire just now, and he felt even more angry. 'If she did not jeer at them and make all those sarcastic remarks just now, I might have signed the contract directly. In that case, I would not have lost 50 million,' Salazar thought in his heart. Thinking of this, Salazar felt annoyed and disgusted by Rowena. He reached out and pushed her away, saying coldly, 'Go out and do your work.' Rowena did not expect Salazar to treat her with this cold attitude. She wanted to give some advice to Salazar but she didn't dare to say more after noticing his cold expression. Therefore, she left the room obediently. Walking out of the room, the employees in the company suddenly cast strange looks in her direction. However, Rowena had gotten used to these strange looks for a long time already. Therefore, she didn't respond to anyone and she left promptly and arrogantly. At this moment, outside Enya Entertainment, Winnie was holding the documents in regards to the contract termination and she looked through them in excitement several times. She felt that everything was rather unreal. She held the contract in front of her chest, looked at Fade Chen with a smile, and said, 'Fate, I, I didn't expect to terminate the contract successfully. Also, we didn't even spend a single penny.' Fate laughed and said, 'Sister Winnie, you're finally free now.' Winnie couldn't contain the excitement in her heart, and she leaned toward Fate in that instant. She hugged him and kissed his cheek. 'Fate, thank you so much,' Winnie said enthusiastically. Fate felt a warm sensation and the scent of fragrance coming toward him. He seemed to float in ecstasy. At this time, the lawyer who was driving, suddenly sat upright and stared straight ahead. The lawyer did not dare to look backward, as he was afraid he might see something he should not see. Seeing the lawyer reacting like this, Fate blushed and coughed softly. Winnie heard this and she glanced at the front of the car. She realized that she was too excited and that she had done something inappropriate. Blood rushed into her cheeks and she quickly lowered her head. The three of them returned to Scott Entertainment in silence. Scott Huang had already prepared the relevant documents and he signed a contract with Winnie quickly. Then, the publicity team of the company followed up on this matter instantly and they posted news pertaining to this matter on the Internet. Scott Entertainment announced that they were signing on Winnie. Winnie's signing fee would be the same as Rowena's previous fee, which was 100 million yuan. Initially, the signing fee agreed by both parties was 50 million. However, the 50 million that was originally intended for the contract termination fee was not used, so Fatty simply decided to include this sum in Winnie's contract. On one hand, it would benefit Winnie and this would help them build a good relationship in the company, on the other hand, the huge signing fee of 100 million yuan would generate publicity and make a good headline. Sure enough, after the public found out about the signing fee of 100 million yuan, this matter immediately caused an uproar and there were heated discussions on the Internet. Many people started to voice their different opinions. Some people said that Winnie was not that popular now. Therefore, Scott Entertainment shouldn't have signed her on with such a huge amount of money, Others argued that Winnie's popularity had waned a little bit the quality of her work was not low. Therefore, she deserved to be signed on with that much money. Of course, some people even said that Scott Entertainment was in a desperate situation, and that they were simply accepting anybody due to their failure to sign on Rowena. Therefore, Scott Entertainment had to find someone to replace Rowena Just as everyone was discussing about Scott Entertainment, who had used 100 million yuan to sign on Winnie, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc announced online that their company was about to launch a new series of cosmetic products with Winnie as their celebrity spokesperson. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc manufactured cosmetic products that were known as high-end in Long City. The quality of their products and the reputation of the company was definitely at the top of the industry. Now that the company was about to launch new products, this news naturally attracted the attention of many regular customers. Moreover, the new products would be promoted by a spokesperson, so it naturally attracted the public's attention. Therefore, Winnie, who was losing her popularity, regained her popularity on the Internet as all kinds of news came out one after another Some people even started to analyze Winnie's past works and looked forward to her future performances. Some people tried to get some dirt from insiders and they analyzed why Winnie was able to get the full support of this two major companies at once. Among the various discussions, matters related to Rowena suddenly came into the spotlight as well. The netizens were surprised to find that Winnie had signed on with Scott Entertainment. Scott Entertainment had initially intended to sign on Rowena. Also, Rowena had now signed on Entertainment. with Winnie's original company, Enya Moreover, not long ago, Rowena had just announced that she was endorsing Far Peace Corporation's new cosmetic products. Now, Winnie had become the spokesperson for Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc's products. Both companies manufactured cosmetic products that are in the same high end category in regards to their quality. After comparing the both of them, Winnie and Rowena were pitted against each other. This instantly generated more heated discussions. Rowena, who had just left Enya Entertainment and returned to her home, received a text message from her agent saying that news on her was spreading on the internet. Everyone was discussing about her in a heated manner. She had not even entered the house when she got this text message. Rowena couldn't help but feel shocked. She knew that she didn't have any updates recently, so she hurried into her house and turned on the computer to check on this situation. Soon, she understood the situation. She learned that the reason she was being discussed in a heated manner was due to Winnie. Looking at the news on the Internet, especially the news on the 100 million yuan signing fee of Winnie and Winnie being the spokesperson of a large company like Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc, Rowena couldn't help but feel jealous. 'This should have been mine, mine' Rowena thought in her mind. Rowena felt more and more upset in her heart. She couldn't resist it any longer and she logged on to her Weibo account and posted a message, 'For those who are outdated, please stop using my popularity to regain your popularity. Your actions are rather disgusting!'. .

The post was just made public on Weibo and it immediately caused a heated discussion on the Internet. Without needing much explanation, the public immediately knew that Rowena Song was criticizing Winnie Huo. As a result, the fans of both parties started another dispute on the Internet, and it eventually became a fierce scolding match. However, Winnie obviously had less fans as she was not as popular as Rowena. Therefore, after not much time. The Weibo accounts of Winnie, Scott Entertainment and Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc were almost completely occupied by Rowena's fans. All kinds of silly comments and even hateful messages filled up the entire comments section. Of course, the majority of these people were scolding Winnie due to her lack of popularity. They felt that she was not qualified to be compared with Rowena. As Winnie and Rowena were being compared, Scott Entertainment and Enya Entertainment were also brought together by Rowena's fans for a round of comparison. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc and Far Peace Corporation were also compared with each other immediately. The two parties were about to start a war and launch a thorough investigation into these matters. Rowena's fans were saying that she was naturally the winner in this comparison. After all, she was now a top B-list actress and was about to become an A-list actress. Her popularity was obviously higher than Winnie, who had now fallen into the mid range of the B-list. In terms of entertainment companies, Scott Entertainment, which had just been established, had made a name for itself because of the 100 million yuan signing fee. However, compared with Enya Entertainment which had been in the entertainment industry for such a long time, Scott

Entertainment seemed weaker in terms of company size and connections. As for the endorsement of cosmetics companies, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc was definitely a leading presence in Long City. However, from Rowena's fans point of view, Far Peace Corporation was an old local brand. They had a deeper foundation and they would soon enter Long City's market and launch their cosmetic products. Then, Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc would be suppressed. Facing these scoldings and comparisons, Winnie, Scott Entertainment and Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc seemed calm. The three parties only responded politely and rationally, and did not participate in these scolding battles. Despite this, on Weibo, Winnie seemed to have fallen behind, and Rowena seemed to have won. However, if they were to have an offline interview, people would definitely find that Winnie had a better reputation due to her previous works and her public relations. Her reputation was much better than Rowena's. Rowena was just a hyped up actress. Regardless of their work or their endorsement products, captivating the hearts of the average passers-by was important. After all, it was hard to solely rely on their fans to survive in this industry. Winnie's fans started to ignore the discussions, and the debates on the internet died down. However, due to the impact of these online debates, both parties subconsciously became competitive. They started to make preparations in secret to battle against each other. Far Peace Corporation announced that Rowena would be going to Micovia to shoot their latest commercial. Fei Enterprises Holdings Inc did not fall behind. They invited the top screenwriters in the country and well-known film directors from Europe to shoot a short movie and publish it as an advertisement. Such actions immediately suppressed the news of Rowena and Far Peace Corporation going to Micovia. Rowena was naturally unwilling to allow herself to fall behind in this matter. She contacted Enya Entertainment and announced that she was going to act in a television drama, two movies, release an album as a singer and take part in a reality show. Her schedule was packed. In this regard, Scott Entertainment and Winnie did not follow suit. Winnie, being an experienced artist in the entertainment industry for many years, was aware that accepting so many intensive projects in a short period of time will greatly affect the quality of the work. Apart from the money, there was little benefit in doing so many projects at once. Therefore, in this way, Rowena and Enya Entertainment seemed to have suppressed Winnie and Scott Entertainment. In short, the competition and rivalry between the two sides encompassed all aspects. Fade Chen did not pay much attention to these situations. After all, these were professional matters, and they should be handled by professionals in the field. He would rather just be a spectator. Finally, Fade had some free time and he wanted to go out for a stroll. Suddenly, his cell phone rang. When he looked at the cellphone screen, an unfamiliar number appeared. Fade felt doubtful as he answered, 'Hey, hello!' 'Hello, may I speak to Mr. Chen?' The voice of a young woman came over the phone. Fade couldn't identify the person on the other end of the phone. Therefore, he said, 'Hi, Fade Chen here. May I know who you-' The person replied, 'I'm Daphne Tao, the doctor on the pedestrian street a few days ago, Mr. Chen you-' When she said this, Fade immediately remembered her. Daphne Tao was the director of City Medical Center. She was present at the scene where Rowena's car had hit an elderly man. Rowena was filming an advertisement there that day. Instantly, Fade said enthusiastically, 'Hello Dr. Tao. Why did you call me? Is there anything up?' Dr. Tao did not beat around the bush and said directly, 'Mr. Chen, the elder's family has now come to the hospital.'

would like to thank you for your help, and I would like to ask you to tell us about the accident involving the elder.' Fade heard her words, nodded, and said, 'Alright, understand. The old man's family is there. Yes, I'll be right there!' Daphne immediately said, 'Thank you, Mr. Chen.' 'No problem, Dr. Tao. See you later' Fade said. Then, he hung up the phone and hurried over to City Medical Center. Soon, Fade reached City Medical Center. He contacted Daphne and she came to the hospital entrance to meet Fade. Compared with the ordinary outfit Daphne had on that day, she was wearing a white coat today. Her short hair was neat and tidy and her glasses with black frames gave her an air of intelligence and efficiency. Seeing Fade, a smile appeared on the corner of her mouth, and she stretched out her hand, saying, 'Mr. Chen, hello!' 'Hello Dr Tao!' Fade took Daphne's hand and he shook it gently. While shaking hands, Fade noticed that Daphne had a lot of fine scars on her hands. She had cut marks from knives, and scratch marks. These were probably caused by her professional life. After greeting each other, Daphne took Fade to the ward upstairs and updated him on the old man's situation. The old man was called Jared Liu. After coming to the hospital a few days ago, they did not find any issues with him after examining him. Daphne was surprised by this. After all, she knew how seriously injured the old man was at that time. After being treated by Fade using acupuncture, the old man had almost completely recovered. This caused her to feel even more curious and she was shocked by Fade's medical skills. Although the old man was fine, he was hit by a car after all. The hospital staff were still anxious and they checked him carefully again. At the same time, the elder's family members also came to the hospital. After learning that the elder had been hit by a car, they were furious. Therefore, Daphne contacted Fade and asked him to come to the hospital..

- Chapter 475

Both of them walked into the ward. Fade Chen had just stepped into the ward, and he saw a middle-aged couple in their forties approaching them. Then, Daphne Tao introduced him to them. ‘This is Mr. Chen. He is the person who rescued Old Mr. Liu, she said. ‘Mr. Chen, these are Old Mr. Liu’s son and his daughter-in-law,’ Daphne said, as she introduced them to him. When they heard that Fade was the savior of their father, they greeted him with enthusiasm. Mr. Liu grasped Fade’s hand and said excitedly, ‘Mr. Chen, thank you so so much. If it weren’t for you, my father wouldn’t be around anymore. I really don’t know how to thank you, Mr. Chen.’ Beside him, Mr. Liu’s daughter-in-law took out a stack of banknotes, which was around two thousand yuan, and she handed them to Fade. She said, ‘Mr. Chen, thank you for saving my dad. This is two thousand yuan. It is a small token of appreciation, so please accept it.’ Fade waved his hand and said, ‘Sister, Big Brother Liu, there’s really no need for this. I’m also a doctor. It’s my responsibility to save Old Mr Liu. How can I accept your money?’ Mr. Liu and his wife insisted on paying Fade. Fade did not want to show off his wealth, but he revealed his branded watch, saying, ‘Big Brother Liu, understand your intentions, but seriously, I don’t need this money. You can use this money to get some high-quality supplements for Old Mr. Liu. That would be my biggest wish.’ The two of them looked at Fade’s watch. Although they could not really tell what model it was, they recognized the Rolex logo. They knew instantly that Fade was a wealthy man, so they kept the money in embarrassment. Fade didn’t want to be entangled in money matters, so he walked over and greeted Old Mr. Liu. Old Mr. Liu's injury was getting better. He was still in the hospital because of some other minor problems he was experiencing. After greeting Old Mr. Liu, Big Brother Liu gave Fade a look. Then, the three of them walked out of the ward. Big Brother Liu looked a bit sad. Facing Fade, he said, 'Mr. Chen, I have asked my father. He is getting older, so he can't really remember what happened, and he couldn't recall who bumped into him.' 'I learned from Dr. Tao that a passerby told her that it was an artist's car that had bumped into my dad. I went to that street to look for surveillance videos from the businesses in the area, and I also went to the police station. However, still couldn't find any footage of what happened.' 'I went to the entertainment company of that artist, yet I couldn't even get in. Now, I have no other ideas. I heard Dr. Tao saying that you were there and that you witnessed what had happened at the scene. Therefore, I wanted to ask Mr. Chen exactly what had happened to my dad. As he spoke, Big Brother Liu and his wife looked angry and helpless. Fade also looked a little gloomy when he heard his words. He thought that this matter wasn't going to be difficult to resolve. After all, there were so many people on the pedestrian street at that time, and so many witnesses saw the accident where Rowena Song's car bumped into someone. Moreover, even if everyone was afraid of getting into trouble and refuse to testify on the situation, the surveillance videos of the shops on the street should also have captured the situation at the scene. Once these videos were retrieved, they would serve as solid evidence against Rowena, proving that she had committed the hit-and-run. No one expected this situation to be so difficult to resolve. Big Brother Liu had gone and searched around but they still could not find a solution to this.

Feeling disappointed, Fade immediately spoke up and told Big Brother Liu and his wife what had happened at that time. When the couple heard that it was really the artist Rowena who had bumped into their father, and escaped after committing the crime, they were furious. 'It really was Rowena. I called her company, but they denied everything and didn't admit anything at all.' 'It's awful, how can such a vicious woman be an artist?' Fade waited for the couple to cool down, and he asked, 'Big Brother Liu, what are you going to do next?' Big Brother Liu was helpless and sighed. He said, 'I will go and look for Rowena again. Maybe something will change. If that doesn't work, I'll go to the police station. We must resolve this matter!' Fade groaned slightly and said, 'Let's go, Big Brother Liu. I'll go with you. I'll be the witness.' Big Brother Liu was hesitant for a while, but seeing Fade's resolute attitude, he nodded gratefully. He said, 'Mr. Chen, thank you so much. You saved my father and you are still trying to help us so much.' Fade laughed and said, 'Big Brother Liu, don't be so polite. Just call me Fade. Besides, I can't stand this situation where Rowena bumps into someone with her car and runs off. She must pay the price for her actions.' 'Yes, she needs to pay the price!' Big Brother Liu said firmly, Later on, Big Brother Liu's wife remained in the ward to take care of Old Mr Liu. Big Brother Liu and Fade then rushed to Rowena's company, Enya Entertainment. The two of them got out of the car and they walked to the entrance of Enya Entertainment. Before they got close, the security guard at the door recognized Big Brother Liu. He took out the security baton and walked forward, saying angrily, 'You're here again! How many times have I told you, this is not the place for you to act wildly. Get out immediately' While talking, the security guard raised his baton and launched it toward Big Brother Liu. With Fade's support, Big Brother Liu was more confident. He screamed angrily, 'I have a witness who saw Rowena's car bumping into my dad. Ask her to come out now. I want to confront her about this.' 'You think you can confront Miss Song? Can't you take a look in the mirror? Who are you? Get lost now!' The security guard roared. He waved his baton at Big Brother Liu, intending to hit him. Big Brother Liu's eyes had turned red and he had a determined expression. He raised his arms and he was prepared to fight him. At that critical moment, Fade stepped forward, launched a kick with his foot, and directly struck the security guard's wrist. There was a squeaking noise and the guard screamed. The swinging baton in his hand flew out. He was sweating frantically. He started to groan and wail on the ground while clutching his wrist. 'You, how dare you hit me! |- ' The security guard yelled at Fade. However, before he could finish speaking, Fade snorted, and he kicked him on the chin and knocked him out. Right then, the other security guards rushed out. Seeing that their colleague was beaten up, they became furious and had fierce expressions. They immediately began to wave their batons, intending to hit Fade and Big Brother Liu. Big Brother Liu was shocked when he saw this. He rushed forward as he tried to cover Fade. To his surprise, he had only just stepped forward when Fade morphed into a shadow. Fade rushed forward quickly toward the security guards and struck them violently. Immediately, all five or six security guards were beaten up and they fell to the ground. Stepping on one of the security guards who was groaning, Fade said coldly, 'Ask Rowena to come out!' The security guard said in a crying tone, 'Miss Song is not in the company. I can't ask her to come out!' 'Not in the company? Then where is she?' Fade asked coldly. The security guard said, 'Ms. Song went to Micovia for a commercial shoot. She is not in the country now.'

‘What?’ Fade Chen frowned, his expression turned serious, and then he asked, ‘Well then, who is in charge of Rowena Song’s matters in the company now?’ One of the security guards said, ‘Who is in charge? Well, Miss Song has a manager in the company. Now, she is in charge of Miss Song’s matters.’ ‘Manager? Let her come and meet me,’ Fade ordered in a cold tone. The security guards did not dare to go against him. They used the walkie-talkie to contact someone in the company quickly. ‘Ms. Xu, someone wants to see Ms. Song. Could you please come down.’ About five minutes later, a woman with red curly hair, flaming red lips, and wearing a pair of high heels, walked out of the entrance leisurely. When she saw the security guards at the entrance, she said impatiently, ‘I have said that Miss Song is not in the country now. Who is looking for her? How annoying!’ The security guards did not dare to say anything. Fade and Big Brother Liu came forward with serious expressions, and said coldly, ‘We are looking for Rowena.’ Ms. Xu’s expression changed immediately when she saw Big Brother Liu. She said in an indifferent tone, ‘Why are you here again? You’re really annoying! I have told you before, the matter you mentioned to me has nothing to do with Miss Song. Stop bothering me.’ Without giving Big Brother Liu a chance to speak, Ms. Xu turned and left. Big Brother Liu was a bit anxious when this happened. He chased after her and grabbed her wrist, yelling, ‘You guys hit my dad. You must give me an explanation for this.' Ms. Xu was pulled back, and she looked back at this old fashioned middle-aged man who was holding her hand. She felt as though she had accidentally touched a hedgehog. She jumped and she yelled loudly, 'What are you doing? Let me go! You dirty disgusting fellow, let me go this instant!' At the same time, she shouted, 'Security, security, come and chase him away. However, the security guards at the door had been beaten up by Fade, and they no longer had any fighting power. The only one left with a little combat power, in Fade's opinion, was way too afraid to do anything. Seeing this, Ms. Xu was getting even more angry and anxious, and she yelled, 'Let me go. Otherwise, I will call the police and tell them that you're harassing me!' Big Brother Liu was an honest man. When she said that she was going to call the police, he got really scared, and he immediately released her arm. Then, Ms. Xu walked into Enya Entertainment quickly. However, she hadn't taken two steps when Fade flickered and he appeared right in front of Ms. Xu, blocking her way. 'What do you want to do?' Ms. Xu yelled. Fade replied coldly. 'You must take responsibility for Rowena's actions in regards to the accident.' Ms. Xu said impatiently. 'I told you, Miss Song didn't hit anyone. You've found the wrong person.' Fade also added, 'I was there and I was a witness of the accident. Whether or not she hit anyone, I was able to see what happened very clearly. It's useless to deny the facts in front of me.' Hearing this, Ms. Xu blinked her eyes and looked slightly hesitant. She was Rowena's manager, and she would obviously know if Rowena's accident was real or not. In addition to this, all of the breaking news and comments on the internet about Rowena were handled by her, so she would certainly know everything about this situation. When she heard that the other party had found a witness, she couldn't help but feel afraid. Nevertheless, she responded quickly after coming back to her senses. She snorted and said, 'You are telling me that you are a witness of that scene! Who can prove it though? I can also say that you hired him, and that you are here to deliberately blackmail Miss Song. 'I warn you now, it's best for you to leave immediately. Otherwise, when the police comes, you won't find any chance to escape anymore,' Ms. Xu yelled arrogantly, as she held her arms in front of her chest. Big Brother Liu became angry and anxious upon hearing her words. He shouted, 'Dr. Chen was the person who saved my dad. He is a good man. We are not blackmailing you.' Ms. Xu sneered, 'Oh, a group of poor and useless fellows Do you think people are going to believe you! Let me tell you, you are not only trying to blackmail someone, but you guys will undergo investigation due to intentionally hurting others. You guys can just wait here for the police to arrive!' Big Brother Liu's face was red after hearing her words. However, he was not good with words, so he didn't know what else to say. Seeing her attitude, Fade became quiet and he replied coldly, 'Do you think that you have covered up everything seamlessly? There are so many businesses on the road with monitoring devices and so many passers-by. I don't believe that no one photographed the accident during that time.' 'As long as I find a video from the scene, you'll definitely be destroyed!' Fade said coldly. His words had struck a nerve and revealed Ms. Xu's weakness. Rowena's hit-and-run situation had been covered up, and their team had gone to all the shops in time to remove all the surveillance videos. However, It was difficult to guarantee that no one had kept any backup copy secretly. It was also difficult to guarantee that no passersby had captured the accident on film at the time. Therefore, what Fade had just mentioned was what they were most worried about. Feeling anxious, Ms. Xu suddenly panicked. She pulled out her cell phone that instant and sent a message to Rowena, explaining the situation there. A few minutes later, Rowena replied, 'If they can really find the evidence, they can just go to the police station with the evidence. Why bother to come here and cause a scene? This shows that they have no evidence at all.' After seeing the text, Ms. Xu was determined and calm. She looked at how they were dressed, and they certainly didn't look like someone who was able to find any evidence, Thinking of this, Ms. Xu finally felt calmer. Then, she said, 'You can't have any evidence for something that didn't happen! If you want to blackmail someone, then you've found the wrong person. Get lost now!' Big Brother Liu was so mad at her that he was about to become violent. The veins on his fists seemed to throb. He almost wanted to go forward and beat her up. Fade's face fell. He pulled Big Brother Liu, and said coldly, 'Big Brother Liu, let's just go.' He knew that trying to argue with Ms. Xu like this would not lead to any results. They needed to procure the evidence and corner these people thoroughly. Only then could they bring Rowena to justice. Seeing the two of them leaving, Ms. Xu looked proud and she revealed a triumphant smile. In the meantime, Rowena sent a message asking her who these guys were. Ms. Xu immediately snapped a photo of the two of them with her cell phone and sent it over to Rowena. She also informed her that the problem had been resolved. When Rowena saw the photo from the other end, she was totally shocked. Fade's appearance was unforgettable. She was confident just now, but now she was slightly disturbed. After all, Fade was a major shareholder of Scott Entertainment, and he was also a respectable man. If he were to find any evidence, that would be really bad. The more she thought about this, the more worried she became. Rowena replied with a message, ‘Don’t mess with that young man. I’m afraid this matter will be a little troublesome. Start with that old-fashioned guy, and pay him money. We must settle this problem.’.

Chapter 477

Ms. Xu didn’t quite understand what Rowena Song meant, so she replied with another message. Rowena was getting anxious so she reproached her in anger, saying, ‘Just do whatever I tell you to. There’s no need for so much idle chatter!’ Without further ado, Ms. Xu chased after Fade Chen and Big Brother Liu. ‘Wait a minute!’ she said. They were both ready to leave with the car. Then, they heard Ms. Xu’s voice, and they saw her chasing after them. Instantly, both of their expressions darkened. ‘Why are you here?’ they said. As soon as Ms. Xu caught her breath, she took out a stack of shiny banknotes from her bag, and said coldly, ‘Miss Song has sent me a message. Since you’ve gotten into trouble, we will reward you with 50,000 yuan. Please stop causing any more trouble.’ While talking, Ms. Xu flung the money to Big Brother Liu in an arrogant manner. Big Brother Liu was upset and he replied, ‘We don’t want your money.’ Fade also said in a deep voice, ‘What do you mean by doing this? Is the perpetrator admitting to her guilt for causing the accident? Now, does she want to use money to settle this? Big Brother Liu was exasperated and he shouted, ‘My dad’s life is not something you can measure with money. You have to pay the price for this matter eventually.' Ms. Xu didn't expect them to have this attitude when she was literally lining their pockets. Her anger surged up, and she replied, 'You guys are hilarious, aren't you? He's just an elder from the countryside. Let's say the accident really did happen, this amount of money would be more than enough to compensate for his life.' 'What did you say!' Big Brother Liu was infuriated. His eyes turned scarlet, and he glared fiercely at Ms. Xu. Ms. Xu panicked when she saw this. She took a few steps back. Fortunately, the staff from the company heard them outside, so someone rushed over right then. Ms. Xu felt better and she quickly declared, 'They are going to hit me. Help me!' Ms. Xu, as Rowena's manager, was not low in terms of her position. Also, she was good-looking. When the group of male staff members saw this beauty crying out for help, they felt a rush of adrenaline and immediately rushed over fiercely. They glared at both Fade and Big Brother Liu. Big Brother Liu was getting even angrier. He gritted his teeth and shouted, 'I'll fight you till the end!' As he spoke, Big Brother Liu rushed forward and wanted to fight with those guys. Ms. Xu smirked while observing the scene and said, 'Hehe, you guys are looking for death.' Then, she waved the thick stack of banknotes in her hand and said ruthlessly, 'Beat them up, hit them real hard. We just need to compensate them if they become handicapped, right? We definitely can afford that.' This remark provoked Big Brother Liu even more, and he was incensed. He didn't care how many opponents he had, and he rushed over fiercely. All the men who had come to her side were young and strong. They were fierce and capable. When they saw this middle-aged man running toward them, they sneered, rolled up their sleeves, and fought with Big Brother Liu. In the beginning, as Big Brother Liu was furious, he was able to beat up the first few guys close to him. However, he was at a disadvantage, and this became apparent. Several other guys rushed forward and surrounded him at once, and more than a dozen punches were aimed at him. Big Brother Liu couldn't handle them all at once. Seeing how Big Brother Liu was about to be defeated, Fade spoke with a cold voice. 'How can this be that all of you are beating up one person at the same time!' 'What?' Before one of the guys could come to his senses, he felt a huge fist right in front of him. Then, the area around his eyes were heavily struck, and he was left with eyes of a panda. Then, he collapsed to the ground. The guys next to him did not receive any better treatment either. Some of their bellies were kicked, some of their nose ridges were broken, and some even had their arms broken. For a period of time, the sound of wailing and groaning did not stop. Those seven or eight people were knocked down by Fade, and only Ms. Xu was left standing. Ms. Xu was trembling out of fright, and her eyes had a terrified expression. At this point, she finally understood why Rowena had told her not to mess with this young man. 'You, what do you want to do?' Ms. Xu's voice was also trembling. Fade clenched his fists till there was a creaking sound. Then, he said coldly, 'What do you think?' Ms. Xu looked pale and her legs were giving way. 'You, don't mess around here. It's against the law to hit someone, and you will go to jail.' Fade sneered and said, 'Is that so? Didn't someone just say that they can pay a compensation even if someone is handicapped? Well then, in this case, I don't lack in money at all.' As he spoke, Fade launched a blow at her. Ms. Xu screamed in terror. Before Fade could move, she slipped on her heels and fell to the ground on her backside. Fade wasn't polite at all. He walked up to Ms. Xu, gave her a few slaps, and her face became red and swollen. Even Big Brother Liu, who was a simple man, was furious He approached her and gave her a few kicks. In the end, Fade took out a one-yuan note from his wallet and threw it on Ms. Xu's red and swollen face. He said, 'There you go. This is your compensation! Next time, when I'm upset, I'll come here and beat you up again.' Upon hearing this, Ms. Xu trembled and she almost fainted. Finally, she saw them leaving. Ms. Xu forced herself to get up, and then she called Rowena to explain what had happened. Of course, she didn't say that she was impolite and that she had annoyed them. She only mentioned the fact that they didn't accept the compensation When Rowena heard the news, she was also worried. She called Director Xu from Enya Entertainment immediately, and she told him what happened. Salazar Xu frowned when he heard that Fade was involved in Rowena's accident. However, he said, 'Rowena, don't worry. Isn't he just a shareholder of some small company? I am someone important in Dragonville. He doesn't have much say in this place at all. I'll help you resolve this problem. You just have to work hard in Micovia and excel in your endorsement Corporation, alright?' campaign with Far Peace With Salazar's reassurance, Rowena was instantly at ease. She chatted with Salazar on some personal matters over the phone, and then she hung up the phone. After hanging up the phone, Salazar immediately made a few calls to sort out the accident. 'Liu, can you check on the shops and passersby on that street again? This time, warn them to keep their mouths shut. Otherwise, I will come and look for them in person. ' 'Yes, Director Xu. With your reputation, there won't be any problems, 'Salazar's subordinate, Young Liu, answered. Salazar hung up the phone in satisfaction, and he said with a confident smile, 'Scott Entertainment, Fade, and Scott Huang, you guys want to go against me? You're way too inexperienced.' In the meantime, Fade and Big Brother Liu were driving away from Enya Entertainment. In the car, Big Brother Liu became calm. Recalling what had just happened, he was worried. He looked at Fade and said, 'Fade, we just hit someone. This...'

Fade laughed and said, 'Big Brother Liu, I'm here. Don't worry. I will help you to resolve the matter of this accident.'

Chapter 478

As soon as Fade Chen finished speaking, he took out his cell phone and dialed a number. Edward Sun was on the other end of the phone. He was attending an important meeting, and his cell phone was placed on the desk. When the secretary saw the phone ringing, he was going to decline the call since Mr. Sun had instructed him on the importance of this meeting. Whoever was calling during that time was not allowed to disturb him. However, when the secretary was about to hang up the phone, Edward was shocked when he saw the caller's name on the screen. Then, he didn't care that many VIPs and senior executives were in the room. Without giving anyone a heads up, he rushed over, grabbed his phone, and quickly responded, 'Hello Mr. Chen!' The VIPs and senior executives in the conference room saw that the esteemed head of the Sun Family was responding to the call in such a respectful manner. They were stunned and curious about the phone call, and wanted to find out more information. By then, Edward had left the room with his cell phone, and they could no longer hear him. However, looking at his stooped body and his repeated nods, everyone could tell that Edward had great respect for the person on the phone. In an instant, everyone was stunned. They really couldn't imagine what kind of person could cause the honorable head of the Sun family to behave in such a respectful manner! Francesca Sun, the former honorable elder of the Sun family, was in isolation now. However, the Sun family was still definitely the most powerful family in Long City, and no one dared to go against the Sun family. Edward was answering a phone call at that moment with such a respectful manner, and he had broken his own rules. Just as everyone was discussing this matter in the conference room, Edward hung up. He immediately began to make arrangements for people to check on the street near the accident and deal with Rowena Song's incident. With Edward in charge, Fade was confident. He sent Big Brother Liu back to the hospital and consoled the family of the old man Fade left the ward after a while. Daphne Tao walked with Fade and she was going to send him off. 'Mr. Chen, thank you so much for your help,' she said. Fade smiled and said, 'Dr. Tao, you don't need to be so polite.' Daphne smiled as she walked next to Fade. They left the hospital building and was walking toward the parking lot. Suddenly, someone shouted loudly, 'Daphne, who is he?' Following the voice, Fade turned his head and looked around. He saw a young doctor in a white coat and glasses walking toward them. He was probably around 30 years old. At this moment that doctor glared at Fade with a vigilant expression, and he didn't look pleasant. When Fade saw him, he narrowed his eyes and he looked more serious. When Daphne saw that bespectacled doctor, her expression also changed. The smile on her face disappeared and then she said coldly, 'Dr. Lin, please address me as Dr. Tao. Also, I don't need you to intervene in my affairs.' While talking, Daphne was trying to leave quickly with

Fade. Dr Lin did not leave them and he continued to follow them. He stopped in front of the two of them, and then he looked proudly at Fade. In a commanding tone, he said, 'I don't care who you are. I will tell you now that Daphne is my girlfriend. You are not allowed to be with her in the future.' Upon hearing this, Daphne was instantly angry. She yelled, 'Fabian Lin! Stop talking nonsense. You and I are just colleagues, and I am not your girlfriend at all.' Daphne turned around after she had spoken and explained to Fade, 'Mr. Chen, he was pursuing me in the past, but I didn't agree to be in a relationship with him. He is just disturbing me here.' Fade nodded and he understood what was going on. After all, Daphne was not only outstanding at work, she also had good looks and a good figure. Therefore, it was completely normal for someone to pursue her. Fabian, who was beside them, saw Daphne explaining the matter to Fade. His face fell, and he glared at Fade fiercely as he said coldly, 'Daphne belongs to me sooner or later. You should get lost immediately. Otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite!' As he spoke, Fabian stepped forward and stood about half a meter right in front of Fade. He wanted to pressure Fade with his height and build, so that Fade would be afraid of him. However, he had clearly underestimated Fade's strength. Fade glanced coldly at him and uttered faintly, 'It doesn't matter if Dr. Tao and I have any relationship. In my opinion, with your arrogant attitude, you are just a fool.' 'What did you say!' Fabian glared angrily at Fade. He raised his right hand, and was about to hit him. Fade took a step forward. As he did that, inner energy emerged from his body and rushed out in a violent manner. Suddenly, Fabian felt as though he was struck by an invisible wall. He felt a stinging sensation on his face. His body fell backward, he staggered, and he fell down on his backside. For a moment, everyone around them was chucking and

cackling in glee. Fabian was blushing from embarrassment, and his eyes were red as he glared at Fade. Fade ignored him completely. He looked at Daphne, waved his hands, and got ready to leave. Daphne looked apologetic and she said to Fade, 'Mr. Chen, I'm so sorry. I'm really sorry to involve you in this kind of personal matters.' 'It doesn't matter. This type of arrogant guy should be taught a lesson,' Fade smiled and said. He was prepared to leave, However, at that moment, the sound of footsteps could be heard from the hospital building. There was also a cry from a nurse, 'Dr. Lin, Dr. Lin, help! The patient in Ward 501 is getting really sick.' When Fabian, who had just stood up, heard that the patient was sick, he looked startled. He asked quickly, 'What's going on?' The nurse couldn't speak clearly. She replied in an anxious manner, 'Principal Lin and a few other directors have gone to the ward. The situation is really critical. You are the attending doctor. Come over now!' Fabian was also getting anxious and he rushed to the ward immediately. When she saw Daphne, the nurse shouted, 'Director Tao, Principal Lin asked you to come over as well. The patient's condition is really critical, and you are asked to be present as well to help with the diagnosis.' Daphne heard her words and she was nervous. She nodded, apologized to Fade, and turned to go to the ward quickly. Fade saw this and he stopped. He turned around and caught up with Daphne. Then, he walked next to her, saying, 'Let me go with you!' Daphne froze slightly, and then she nodded as she said, '| Alright, sorry to trouble you.' After all, she had witnessed Fade's medical skills. If there was an additional expert like Fade to assist them, the patient could be helped. The two of them hurried to ward 501. This ward was at the top floor of the hospital and the VIP wards were here. Ward 501 was the best among these wards.

One could tell from the ward that the patient inside had an honorable identity..

Chapter 479

When Daphne Tao and Fade Chen rushed into the ward, they noticed many people in white gowns standing densely next to each other. They could clearly see that this patient was highly respected. After all, it was rare to have the Principal, Vice Principals, and the Directors of City Medical Center all present for a consultation. A few doctors in their 60s were standing around the bed. While observing what was happening, they asked Fabian Lin about the patient's condition. Fabian was really panicked. He was clueless when he was faced with so many questions. 1. I don't know what happened!' 'The patient was fine just now. I just went out for a bit.' 'We used the same medicine as usual earlier in the morning.' Fabian's answer caused some of the older doctors to be dissatisfied. They immediately yelled at him, 'You don't know anything, and you have no solutions for this situation. Then, why did you say in the beginning that you can treat Chief Zheng?' 'Exactly! Chief Zheng is an honored guest. if we can cure him, we won't have any issues. However, if he is not cured, then we're in big trouble.' 'How will you take responsibility for this situation? Think about it now! Huh!' Facing these questions, Fabian looked as though he might suffocate, and he seemed even more panicked. He was eyeing Principal Lin with the hope that he could help him out. After all,

Principal Lin was his uncle. Although Principal Lin was dissatisfied with Fabian, he was still his nephew after all. Therefore, he put in a few good words for him, saying, 'In the beginning, Fabian was not expecting Chief Zheng's condition to be so complicated.' Some of these older doctors were about to argue with him, but Principal Lin changed the topic quickly. 'Now is not the time to find out who should be held accountable. The most important matter right now is Chief Zheng's condition, and how we should deal with his illness. You guys should discuss what other solutions we have.' As soon as he said that, everyone in the room was suddenly depressed. All the doctors frowned and they looked serious. 'Dr. Wang, you are an expert in cardiovascular diseases. What is your opinion on this?' Principal Lin asked. He saw that no one was speaking and he started to call on them one by one. Dr. Wang frowned and said, 'Chief Zheng's condition is complicated now. When Fabian accepted Chief Zheng as his patient, his diagnosis was that his heart valve was faulty. He would need some medicine to circulate in his system and then a minor operation was needed. However, looking at his current condition, I'm afraid that the previous diagnosis was completely wrong. Other doctors who were beside them also spoke up and said, 'That means we haven't figured out what illness Chief Zheng is suffering from. Now, how can we come up with a treatment plan?' 'We should have left this case to the professionals. At first, Chief Zheng wanted to go to the Cardiology and Neurology Hospital in Capital City for treatment. However, someone was so confident that they could cure him, and they kept Chief Zheng here for treatment. Now, there is no other way of treating him. What should we do now?' 'Some of them spoke with resentment and looked at Fabian. Although Fabian was Principal Lin's nephew, these older doctors had pretty high statuses as well.

Moreover, this Incident was indeed his fault. He didn't dare to say anything else at that moment. He could only lower his head and he remained silent. As a result, the atmosphere in the room was cold and quiet. Principal Lin also had no other solutions. He turned around and he spotted Daphne. Then, he said, 'Daphne, since you are here, come and check out Chief Zheng's condition!' 'Yes, Principal Lin!' Daphne replied. Then, she introduced Fade who was next to him, saying, 'Principal Lin, this is Mr. Chen. He is my friend. He is also a doctor, and he heard about the emergency. That's why we came over to check on the situation together.' At this moment, Fabian heard her words. He looked up and discovered that Fade was actually there. He was surprised and he said, 'You, why-' Fabian wanted to shout loudly, but the older doctors next to him yelled at him, 'Don't be noisy! Keep quiet.' Fabian didn't dare to speak then, but he was still looking at Fade unhappily. He also approached Principal Lin and told him what had just happened earlier. After Principal Lin listened to his words, he frowned. However, since Chief Zheng's condition was critical at the moment, he didn't want to stir up any more trouble. Therefore, he didn't comment on the previous conflict between Fabian and Fade. At this moment, Daphne and Fade had walked to the bedside. They started to check on Chief Zheng's condition. The two of them focused on the patient who was lying on the bed. He was around fifty years old. He had short gray hair and a square and honest-looking face. At that moment, his face was extremely red, his eyebrows were tightened, and his palms were clutching his heart. He seemed to be in great pain. Daphne held her stethoscope and performed an auscultation on the patient without any delay. At the same time, Fade grasped the patient's wrist and he began to check his pulse. Three minutes later, Daphne took off her stethoscope and she had a solemn expression on her face. She said, ‘Chief Zheng’s heart condition is not good. The rhythm of his heartbeat is irregular, and he also has a cardiac murmur. It sounds like something is blocking the blood vessels in his heart. However, the specific conditions of his illness will have to be further examined and assessed.’ The older doctors heard her words, and they couldn’t help but sigh lightly. They were able to detect these problems as well, yet the exact cause of these issues could not be determined. Now that the patient’s condition had become critical, it was even more difficult to pinpoint the exact problem. However, Daphne was still very young. It was already impressive that she could come to this conclusion. At least, her medical skills were much better than Fabian’s. The older doctors sighed because there was really nothing else they could do. One of the Vice Principals said, ‘Let’s transfer him to another hospital now. Also, let’s contact Chief Zheng’s family and his superiors, as well as arrange for a flight to Capital City. Sending him to Capital City will ensure his safety.’ Just as everyone was preparing to take action, Fade suddenly said, ‘No need for such actions. I have diagnosed the patient’s illness, and I can cure it!’ ‘What did you say?’ Upon hearing this, the doctors in the ward all looked at Fade with surprise and disbelief. Fade calmly took out a pair of silver needles and explained, ‘Initially, the patient was suffering from a heart valve perforation, which was not serious. However, due to the usage of the wrong medication, blood clots have formed and they have blocked some of the blood vessels in his heart. Hence, the patient’s condition deteriorated.’ As soon as he said that, everyone was shocked once again. They did not expect Fade to be able to describe Chief Zheng’s condition in such detail. For a moment, all the doctors looked suspicious. Fabian’s reaction was particularly huge. He jumped out from the crowd and pointed to Fade, saying, ‘What nonsense! How can Chief Zheng’s condition be as simple as you said?’ He was upset because Fade had said that Chief Zheng’s condition had worsened due to the wrong medication. He definitely could not admit to such a mistake. Otherwise, once confirmed, Fabian’s future as a doctor would be completely over. Even Principal Lin was frowning at that moment. Instead of asking Fabian to keep quiet, he looked at Fade with a questioning expression and said in a deep voice, ‘Which hospital are you from, Mr. Chen? How can you be so skillful?’.

Chapter 480

Fade Chen shrugged and said, ‘I’m a doctor specializing in Chinese Medicine. I’m not working in any hospital.’ Upon hearing this, everyone was shocked. Almost all the doctors who were in the ward couldn’t help but look at Fade with strange expressions. Fabian Lin was agitated. With a sarcastic tone, he said, ‘You are a doctor specializing in Chinese Medicine who doesn’t even have a job. You are claiming that you can treat Chief Zheng’s illness. What a joke.’ After saying this, Fabian immediately turned to Principal Lin and the other vice- principals and doctors of the hospital and said, ‘Principal Lin, respected members of the hospital, this guy is a liar. Obviously, he’s just here to cause trouble. I highly suggest that we kick him out immediately.’ Hearing this, Daphne Tao explained quickly, ‘Fabian, stop with your nonsense. Dr. Chen is a very skilled doctor. I have seen these skills with my own eyes.’ Fabian said sarcastically, 'Never mind if he is skillful or not. Even if he was truly a skilled doctor specializing in Chinese Medicine, what would he know about heart valves and obstructed blood vessels. Chinese Medicine does not deal with these kind of illnesses.' 'Dr. Tao, some people are charlatans. Kindly remember that you're the director of internal medicine at City Medical Centre. You have to take responsibility for your words, Fabian said. He looked at Daphne with a vengeful and gleeful expression Daphne's expression changed, and she paused for a moment as she was struggling to explain about the matter. However, Principal Lin, who had been silent all this while, declared at this moment ' Chief Zheng's condition is serious. We must take this seriously and not make any bad decisions.' 'Yeah, I haven't heard of someone using Chinese medicine to treat heart valve perforations before.' 'Exactly. Some people aren't even real Chinese Medicine practitioners. Why are we still talking about this?' All the specialists in the room started to voice their displeasure. Finally, Principal Lin looked at Daphne and said in a low voice, 'Daphne, please bring your friend out for a while. In regards to Chief Zheng, we'll contact the people at Capital City and transfer him over immediately.' 'Principal Lin, please -' Daphne was still trying her best to explain the situation. Fabian was enthusiastic. He rushed over to Fade and pulled him up from his seat. At this moment, Chief Zheng, who was lying on the bed, started to cough violently. He suddenly spurted out blood from his mouth and he turned deathly pale. At the same time, the nurse who had been observing the medical equipment next to him said in an urgent voice, 'This is bad. His heart rate has dropped. This is an emergency.' At this moment, everyone in the ward became flustered. 'It's over, Chief Zheng's condition has worsened.' 'It's too late to transfer him to another hospital. We need to think of a solution!’ ‘Dr. Lin, you’re the doctor in charge of Chief Zheng. You’re the person who is most familiar with his condition. You need to think of something!’ someone urged him. Hearing someone pestering him, Fabian felt as if he had been put on blast. His expression was anxious. ‘J, I am not sure what to do.’ Fabian answered. He clasped his hands, and he was anxious. However, he had no clue what to do. At the same time, Chief Zheng’s coughs were progressively getting worse. More blood appeared from his mouth and his face was even more pale. His heart rate kept plummeting as time passed. The nurse was extremely anxious and said, ‘Oh no. His heart rate has dropped to fifty beats per minute, and it’s still dropping. His situation is very critical.’ Everyone in the room felt helpless. At this moment, Fade had a focused expression. He pulled out a needle that was two times longer than an ordinary needle, and he walked toward Chief Zheng. He pinched the needle and aimed it at Chief Zheng’s heart, He looked like he was going to pierce him with the needle. Seeing this, Fabian couldn’t help but feel shocked. He quickly shouted, ‘What are you doing? Stop that.’ Hearing him shout, the other doctors also noticed what Fade was doing. Immediately, all of them started shouting at him. ‘Stop!’ ‘Don’t do that!’ ‘Boy, don’t be brash!’ Facing their protests, Fade said coldly in a flat tone, ‘Chief Zheng’s condition is very critical. If we delay this matter, even the gods can’t help him.’ ‘I am 70% confident that I can heal him of this illness,’ Fade spoke confidently as he looked at the people in the room. The expressions of all the doctors there changed. They couldn’t make up their minds if they trusted Fade. After all, Chief Zheng was someone important. If something really happened to him, they would be in trouble. Seeing that time was passing by quickly, Daphne was anxious and said, ‘Don’t drag this any longer.

Let Dr. Chen take action!' Principal Lin and the others could not make a decision. Fabian protested through gnashed teeth, saying, 'No, you are absolutely not authorized to do anything. Chief Zheng is my patient. You clearly don't know what you're doing. If something goes wrong, I have to bear the responsibility.' Fabian had to say this, as he was the attending doctor responsible for Chief Zheng. If he allowed Fade to pierce this needle, and something bad happened, he would have to bear this responsibility. If Fade didn't do anything, at least he could give the excuse that his options were limited, and that the illness was incurable. That's why Fabian didn't want Fade to perform his acupuncture on the patient. When Daphne and Fade heard this, their faces fell and their expressions were cold. Even with a patient's life at stake, all this scumbag could think about was himself. He was truly disgusting. Fade made a move to pierce the needle but he was stopped by Fabian. Although Fade could push him away, the needle had to be inserted carefully. If someone were to interrupt him, it would be very dangerous for the patient. Seeing that the patient's condition was worsening, Fade turned to look at Fabian and said sternly, 'You're just afraid of being responsible for this matter, aren't you? If that's the case, then I am willing to bear the responsibility for anything that happens after this. You won't be implicated. Are you happy now?' Fabian froze for a second. He did not expect Fade to take on such a huge responsibility. For a moment, he was skeptical, and he said, 'Are you being serious?' 'I haven't got the time to argue with you,' Fade scoffed. Fabian still couldn't believe it, and he said, 'Words don't matter. Write it down with your signature. If you do that, then I'll agree.' 'You-' Fade was furious. There was a patient who was about to die. How would he even have the time to sign anything! Daphne was also angry beyond words. She gave Fabian a disdainful look and shouted at him, ‘This is an emergency am willing to vouch for Dr. Chen. If something happens, the responsibility will fall on me and Dr. Chen. It will have nothing to do with you. Now, are you happy?’ Fabian did not expect Daphne to come forward, and he was taken aback. Still feeling hesitant, he said, ‘I still think that it’s better to have it in black and white.’ ‘Fabian, you-’ Daphne was infuriated, but time was of the essence. Therefore, without saying another word, she took a piece of report paper and quickly wrote everything down. At this time, Chief Zheng’s heart rate had dropped to thirty beats per minute. His situation was even more critical..
